All-University Finals To Be Held Tomorrow

Committee Plans Colorful Program For UH Lei Day

Gala Festival Scheduled For Annual Flower Celebration

Plans for University of Hawaii's May Day celebration this year promise to turn the campus into a gala festival of music, flowers, and dancing for the day. Francis Ching and Elsie Crowell are co-chairmen on the May Day committee, and Miss May Gay is adviser. Other members of the group are Sueko Matsueda, Masami Kawamura, Sara Wela, Helen Pohlmann, Katsuki Shimazu, Sumiye Kimura, Ernest Moses, Walter Mookini and Samuel Kaapuni.

The University May queen will be elected by April 24. Nominees will be selected and announced by the commitee by April 17. Additional nominees may be petitioned and handed to either the committee or Arthur Chun.

Any girl of Hawaiian ancestry, a member of either the junior or senior classes, is eligible to run. The candidates will be presented to the student body at an assembly. Those candidates who are not elected will automatically become princesses and maids of honor to the queen for the May Day coronation ceremonies.

The queen will be publicly presented at the junior prom, which is to be held at the University gymnasium April 25.

May Day festivities will be officially opened at 8:30 a.m. May 1, with the conducting of the lei contest. This contest is open to organizations, individuals, classes, faculty members and Teacher's college elementary school pupils. Numerous cash prizes will be awarded for the various divisions in the contest—the most beautiful lei, the most typically Hawaiian, the most unique, and the lei with the largest variety of flowers in it. Rules will be published and sent to all organizations on the campus by April 6.

Yale Press Gives Books, Pamphlets To New UH Library

The University of Hawaii library will receive a gift of 40 volumes and 16 pamphlets from the Yale university press, according to Mrs. Lenore T. Hoffman, secretary to President David L. Crawford.

In a letter to President Crawford, George Parmly Day, Yale Treasurer, said that the books were being forwarded to the University of Hawaii as the result of a gift by the Yale university press.

Included with the books will be 120 post card-views of Connecticut made from phtographs taken by Samuel Chamberlin, distinguished American etcher.

PROS 'N CONS

—on Student Opinions—

CURRENT QUERY?

Should the University continue to sponsor the various sports events now a part of the ASUH program?

Ralph Matsumura: I think it's a good idea for the ASUH to sponsor the different sports events as it is now doing. It seems to create more interest in the particular sports.

Mary Greason: The University should by all means continue to sponsor the different sports events. Without ASUH support minor sports would cease to exist.

Stanley Bento: Yes, I think the ASUH should. The University's name has extended farther than before through the medium of sports. Many people wouldn't know what and where the U was if it hadn't been for sports.

Ivanhoe McGregor: A more friendly attitude on the part of inter-island contestants seems to have been created by the ASUH.

UH Holds Lecture For Flood Relief

Dr. O. E. Wall Speaks in Gym Tomorrow Night

University of Hawaii will cooperate in raising money for the Red Cross Flood Relief fund by sponsoring a benefit travel talk on Cambodia and the Ruins of Angkor by Dr. O. E. Wall, the adult education division announced recently. This lecture, along with colored motion pictures, will be given tomorrow evening at 8 o'clock in the gymnasium.

Dr. and Mrs. Wall visited the famous ruins of Angkor in 1934 and investigated first hand the ruins where 2000 years ago a remarkable civilization with magnificent architecture flourished.

The discovery 60 years ago of this civilization, the reconstruction work that has been going on for almost 20 years, and the Angkor Wat, believed to have been the latest of the temples, will be described in detail.

Admission will be 50 cents for adults and 20 cents for children and students.

Nebraska Dean Claims Students Are Not Radical

Survey Shows Male Scholar Gives First Place To His Studies

Chicago, March 29 (ACP)—Frequent charges of campus radicalism made throughout the country are strikingly belied by the average college student's utter unconcern about social and economic matters, according to Dean William F. Zimmerman of Midland college, Fremont, Nebraska.

"The students of today are incapable of entertaining radical ideas because of their utter disinterest in the problems which Communists and Socialists do all the shouting about," Dean Zimmerman told a group of educators here recently, adding that it was his opinion college students cannot even understand these problems.

Dean Zimmerman gathered data on "spontaneous student conversations from many campuses, derived not be questionnaire, but by listening in when young persons were unaware of being studied."

The college girl's first interest, as inferred from the frequency with which she chats about it, is in the doings of her college friends, while the male student gives first place to his studies. Public affairs attracted only seven-tenths of one per cent of the concern of men and two-tenths of one per cent of the girls' remarks, according to conclusions drawn by Dean Zimmerman's survey.

Five Best Writers Orate Tomorrow at Convocation In All-University Finals

Five recent winners of the manuscript part of the all-University essay-oratorical contest will discuss various topics at the ASUH convocation tomorrow morning at 9:30 o'clock.

A gold medal will be awarded to the best speaker, a silver to the second, and bronze to the third. The five have qualified to speak in the finals of this contest from a field of 17 contestants, whose papers were judged by a faculty committee last week.

Dean Arthur L. Andrews, Willard Wilson, and Mrs. Muriel Bergstrom judged the manuscripts.

The judges for the speaking contest are not selected at this date.

Dean William H. George, Dr. Coale, and another member, to be named by the board of debate and forensics will be on the judging committee of the finals.

The order in which the five will speak and the topics are as follows: James Carey, "Aviation's Transportational Conquest of the Pacific"; Harry Lee, "Sure, I'm Collegiate"; Calvin C. McGregor, "A Pacifist's Dream"; Walter Kring, "Intelligence in this Unintelligent World"; and John Stone, "The Safeguard of Our Democracy."

Edison Tan or Katsuto Nagaue, both members of the board of debate and forensics, will preside.

Tentative arrangements for the freshman, sophomore and junior class plays are being completed and presentation will be during the next two months, according to various dramatic committees of the classes.

With the senior class production over, the junior plays will be the next to be held. Active plans for the junior dramas have been made and rehearsals will begin immediately.

The junior plays, which are being directed by Shogo Abe, Dorothy Jose and Ruth Aki, will be presented next month, shortly after the production of "Richard of Bordeaux" by the Theatre Guild.

Sylvianne Li is in charge of plans for the sophomore class plays, which have not been definitely selected. It is planned, however, to present plays by University students.

Three well known plays have been chosen for presentation by the freshman class. Joan de-Vis Norton is chairman of the class dramatic committee.

The freshman plays will be "The Face of the Worthy Master Pierre Patelin," "Savior of the Moment" and "Highness." Paul Jarrett, Abel Pinto and Robert Doe will probably direct the plays, although plans are still tentative.

"Casts of the freshman plays will be announced at a later date," said Miss Norton. Presentation will be on May 18 during "freshman week."

U Debaters Meet Pres. Roosevelt

Executive Lauds Local Team, Recalls Visit

Members of the University of Hawaii's debate team presented a silk lei to President Franklin D. Roosevelt recently when they visited the White House, according to word received by Albert R. Horlings, instructor in journalism. The card conveyed an "aloha" to the president from the University student body.

President Roosevelt congratulated the debaters on the impressions they had made during the first leg of their extended tour of the Mainland and recalled some of the pleasant incidents of his visit to Hawaii.

The interview with the president was the climax of a busy three day visit in Washington by team members, in the course of which they met Speaker Byrnes, Secretary of the Interior Ickes, Vice-President Garner and addressed the territories committee of the House of Representatives on the subject of statehood for Hawaii.

Members of the team include Robert G. North, Jack A. Casstevens, Robert Taira, Frank Hustace, Clarence Chang and Prof. N. B. Beck, faculty representative and coach. Homer Hayes Jr. is representing the ASUH on the tour.

Bairos, Wilder Are Co-Editors of Soph Number of Ka Leo

Ka Leo's staff of the sophomore edition which will be published on May 6, was selected by Kong Tong Mau, class president.

April 16 Is Date Of Berndt Trials In Hawaii Hall

Five Best Speakers Will Be Chosen To Speak in April 30 Finals

Five best speakers will be selected at the preliminaries of the 14th annual Berndt contest on April 16 to speak in the finals.

The finals will be held in Farrington hall on April 30 during the convocation hour.

Following custom, the first three winners in the contest will be awarded standard ASUH oratorical medals. The general subject upon which the contestants are to speak is, "Resolved: That Congress should be given the power to override Supreme Court decisions."

Students desiring to enter must sign up with Mr. Peavey at Hawaii hall annex 8-a before April 9. The trials will be held April 16 in Hawaii hall. At that time five speakers will be selected to enter the finals. Those selected will be required to meet regularly with some faculty member to be coached before they can enter the finals.

At the trials the competitors must come prepared to speak from three to five minutes on any phase of the general subject. The delivery must be of an argumentative rather than expository nature. Notes not exceeding 100 words will be allowed. The speakers will be questioned by judges to determine their general knowledge of the question.

The contest is open to all bona fide undergraduates.

Committee Chairmen Selected To Form Plans for Fiesta

La Fiesta committee chairmen were selected Friday at a meeting of the executive committee for the all-University affair to be given May 16. Mary Greason and Albert Kai will manage the booths; Dorothy Jose and Ruth Aki, entertainment; John Stone, finances; Carol Ross and George Yamamoto, prizes; Ralph Matsumura, construction, and Edward Hamaishi, publicity.

Circular letters have been sent to campus organizations by Mary Greason inviting the clubs to participate actively in staging the Spanish festival. The committee requests prompt answers so that they may complete necessary details.

As expressed in the letter, La Fiesta has a three-fold purpose: to initiate a project whereby concrete steps could be taken to raise funds for a student union building which will serve both student and faculty members; to add something new and spicy to the social program, and to further unify the various organizations on the campus towards one purpose—University service.

Ka Leo Changes Are Released Today

Seven changes in Ka Leo staff were announced by Calvin McGregor, editor, immediately following a regular meeting of the editorial group last Friday afternoon.

Metcalf Beckley, former exchange editor, was appointed associate editor to serve with William Kawahara. Florence Wilder, prominent sophomore and formerly women's editor, was appointed news editor. She changes positions with Ella Chun, who was news editor during the past period.

Harvey Shapiro was given the post of music editor. Shapiro is connected with the band, orchestra and is in the Honolulu Symphony orchestra. Shoso Tsutsui, star Rainbow baseball pitcher, will be assistant sports editor.

Yoshio Kiyonaga and Charles MacClean were appointed organizations and exchange editor respectively.

Marjorie Putnam Portrays Feminine Lead in Drama

Marjorie Putnam, exchange student from Mills college in Oakland, who is experienced in dramatics, portrays the leading feminine role in "Richard of Bordeaux," for which plans are being rapidly completed. Presentation is scheduled April 15-18.

The first full rehearsal of the entire play cast was held last week-end at Camp Harold Erdman and full play rehearsals will be held from now until the date of production, according to Prof. Arthur E. Wyman, director.

Anne, Queen of England, is the role taken in the play by Miss Putnam. She will wear elaborate costumes in the production. Miss Putnam was cast in many plays during previous years at Mills college. She is a junior student.

Her role, as well as the part of her husband, Richard II, which is taken by Belden Lyman, are colorful ones. Although Richard meets with much disapproval from his group in England during the period, Queen Anne, is faithful to him. She is claimed by death, as the production nears its climax.

Costumes for "Richard of Bordeaux," which is being staged by the University Theatre Guild, are nearly completed and will be unusually brilliant. Mrs. Donald R. Bartow and Claretta Olund directed the construction of costumes.

The scenery construction has been in charge of A. J. McKinney, stage manager. Sets and scenery will be very effective and varied, as 10 different localities are depicted in the play.

All acts will be rehearsed every day, with the exception of Saturdays, from now until the presentation dates, said Professor Wyman. The full dress rehearsal will take place on April 13.

Nearly 30 persons are cast in the production, which is the annual Caucasian drama of the Theatre Guild. "Richard of Bordeaux" was written by Gordon Daviot. It begins four scenes earlier than does Shakespeare's "Richard II."

Campbell Stevenson, well known in University dramatic activities, also plays an interesting and colorful role in the play. He is cast as the Duke of Gloucester, uncle of Richard II and "villain" of "Richard of Bordeaux."

Sixty Ka Palapalas To Be Given Away At Dance in May

Holders of prizes will be given copies of Ka Palapala ahead of time at the their annual dance May 30 according to Takeshi Murata, editor. This entertainment will be given at the University gymnasium.

Fifty of these copies will be given to those students who hold ASUH activity tickets while ten will be given holders of dance tickets.

Work on the annual is rapidly progressing under editor Murata and all material will be ready for the press by May 1. Pictures of student groups are being completed by the photographer and all cuts will be ready soon.

Sumiko Matsuda Plays Japanese Lover In "Morning Glory" Tomorrow Evening

Sumiko Matsuda will take the leading role of the blind Asagao in "Morning Glory," three-act drama to be given its premiere presentation before an audience of 350 tomorrow evening at Elizabeth Fuller hall. This will be Miss Matsuda's second appearance in a stellar role, her first being that of Yuriko in "Prayer Unanswered," recently presented by the senior class.

Sumiko Matsuda

Miss Matsuda will be portrayed as a lovely maiden of gentle birth who escapes from her cruel mother to seek her lover in a far-away village. Though her new role is not nearly as heart-rending nor as bitter as that of Yuriko in "Prayer Unanswered" it is one of delicate pathos.

Three original Japanese songs, "The Song of the Firefly," "In the Days of Yore," and "Pale Blue Morning Glory," all composed especially for the play by Uyenoyama, will be sung by Miss Matsuda.

"Morning Glory" was adapted from the famous Japanese drama, "Asagao Nikki," written by one of Japan's leading playwrights, Chikamatsu Monzaemon. In this English version, the dialogue has been modernized and westernized to suit the tastes of Occidentals.

Fred Takahashi will portray the character dear to the hearts of all Japanese, that of Katagiri, the heroic inn-keeper of Okayama, who kills himself so that the heroine may be cured of her blindness by applying the juice from his liver. Louise Sasai will enact the role of Asagao's heartless mother, and Ernest Tahara, the role of the poet, Komogawa.

Gorgeous costumes from the Hisamatsu collection and elaborate settings including a dense bamboo thicket, a rich interior of a typically Japanese home and the interior of a feudal inn will add color to the drama.

Uyenoyama is personally directing the play and is being assisted with the script by Shiro Kumashiro and with sets and properties by Charles Kimura, Gus Makiguchi and Fred Miike.

The drama is dedicated to Dean Arthur L. Andrews who will be present at the performance.

Semi-Weekly Makes Its Initial Appearance

Ka Leo o Hawaii, University of Hawaii undergraduate newspaper, today makes its first appearance in what is hoped to be a perpetual semi-weekly.

Few students realize what a tremendous step the editorial staff of Ka Leo has taken. Few realize the ambitiousness, aggressiveness and the good work the staff has done to enter into this untried project.

Instead of having news that would be no more news than the proverbial man who was bitten by a dog, students will be served with the latest happenings and events about the campus and community. They will be able to observe what has been going on in the University before the events actually transpire.

The untiring efforts of the Ka Leo staff needs commendation. These students, silent in their endeavors, are the builders of the University, the moulders of student opinion. These student toilers seek no monetary considerations but find immeasurable enjoyment in doing their daily work with little, if any, regard for glory and honor.

Too many times, honor and glory go to underserving persons. Too many times those who make the loudest noises are but the very ones who make the least effort to do some constructive work. Incidents of such student actions are found even on our campus at present. We need not go far to find students who "talk a million but do actually nothing." They, of course, demand their share of the glory. Here, again, it should be, the silent, untiring, aggressive soul that should be commended. It is he that will bring order out of chaos. It is he that will bring constructive changes to our campus.

Five Student Writers Speak Tomorrow at Convocation

The University of Hawaii student body will have an opportunity of hearing some of its outstanding essay writers tomorrow morning during the regular convocation hour. This contest is considered by many as one of the foremost forensics activities in the University.

Too many times we hear alumni members and friends of the school complaining about students not taking an active part in speaking and writing contests. Too many times we hear friends saying that students do little, if any, to better their written and spoken English. Perhaps, these critics are correct in their analysis.

If they are, then the students should do something about it now. We are prone to let things go without making any determined effort to correct it.

This oratorical contest represents the work of some of the most industrious students and its results should be followed closely by all undergraduates.

Backstage —And— Dress Circle

By Metcalf Beckley

With the inauguration of the semi-weekly this column will list the current week's screen attractions at Honolulu's leading theaters, in addition to other events of interest in the community.

At the Princess for the balance of the week is the comedy starring Harold Lloyd, "The Milky Way" . . . The Hawaii is featuring "Ceiling Zero" with James Cagney and Pat O'Brien for its weekend presentation. The old formula wherein the girl is a cinch for Cagney is reversed and O'Brien gets his inning in "Ceiling Zero."

For Friday and Saturday, the Liberty shows a twin bill. Frank Parker, tenor of radio fame will be seen in one of these, "Sweet Surrender" . . . The King is having its farewell week show for Rube Wolf who leaves Honolulu soon.

MADAME BUTTERFLY HERE SOON

Rehearsals for Puccini's "Madame Butterfly" to be offered music lovers by the Community Theater and the Morning Music club are already in full swing. This production is scheduled for the early part of May.

This Friday and Saturday evenings will see the production "Pinafore" by Gilbert and Sullivan, when McKinley high school presents another musical attempt in a list of favorite operas.

Stage sets and costumes for "Richard of Bordeaux" are rapidly nearing completion under the direction of Doc Wyman and Mrs. Bartow. Sets that depict a medieval England and costumes that reveal the fashions of the time are just a few of the worries of those in charge. A few of the workers on the sets and costumes might be mentioned: Genie Pitchford, Kay Savage, Shirley Kamioka, Kathleen McCall, Ellen Bairos, James Dyson, Ann Watrous, Mary Fraile, Lindsay Neal and Iwalani Smith.

JUNIORS PRESENT PLAYS SOON

The junior class plays are well under way with rehearsals being held almost daily. No definite date for their presentation has been set although it will in all probability be after "Richard of Bordeaux." Shogo Abe is directing "Master of Solitaire," Ruth Aki, "Bachelor's Baby" and Dorothy Jose, "Romance While You Wait."

From Waldorf college in Iowa comes this tale of freshman achievement. Recent examination answers revealed the following facts:

1. Shelley unfortunately died while drowning in the Gulf of Cleghorn.
2. Dido means the same, and is usually represented by Dido marks.
3. Romeo and Juliet are an example of an heroic couplet.
4. Milton wrote "Paradise Lost"; then his wife died and he wrote "Paradise Regained."
5. Keats is a poet who wrote on a greasy urn.
6. Robert Louis Stevenson got married and went on his honeymoon. It was then he wrote "Travels With a Donkey."
7. Robinson Caruso was a great singer who lived on an island.
8. A yokel is the way people talk to each other in the Alps.
9. A corps is a dead gentleman, a corpse is a dead lady.

Senior Spotlight

By Ellen L. Bairos

Yoshiaki Eto doesn't say very much about his accomplishments when you ask him—he's really quite modest about them all. But it's known to most every member of the senior class, and those of the student body with whom he has associated during his past four years at the University, that he has taken a very active part in student life.

From the very beginning of his freshman year, Yoshiaki has been aquatically inclined—and was a member of the University swimming team for the past three years. He plans to turn out again this spring. Last year he earned a letter for his participation in the sport.

At present Yoshiaki is acting president of the senior class, during the absence of Hustace, the president. He says it's lots of work, but is quite enjoyable. He is also president of the Teacher's college club, and Hakuba Kai; secretary-treasurer of the "H" club, and a member of the Pi Gamma Mu and Sigma Eta Omega. Pi Gamma Mu is a national honorary social science fraternity.

Yoshiaki has also been quite active in the military field—at present he is a reserve officer, with the rank of second lieutenant. Last year he was a captain in the ROTC.

Eto was graduated from McKinley high school 1932, and came to the University in the fall. In high school he was quite active in military, class and club work. During his freshman year he took a big interest in class participations and was a member of the freshman council. This year he is a senior member of the ASUH student council.

Yoshiaki is a Teachers College student, majoring in science and mathematics. Although he doesn't say much about what he plans to do in the future, he thinks he'll end up as a teacher.

YMCA-YWCA Conference Scheduled for April 9-11

"The Place of the YW and YM on the Campus," and "Choosing a Vocation" have been selected as the topics for forum discussion at the annual Easter camp of the University YWCA and YMCA. The camp is scheduled for April 9-11 at Camp Harold Erdman, Mokuleia.

Student leaders will be Martha Jane Hottel and Walter Kring who will open the conference with addresses on "The Place of Religion on the Campus." C. C. Robinson, secretary of the YMCA, will speak to the delegates at the closing session.

Changes in the heads of committees include Dorothy Jose, entertainment; Charlotte Wong, transportation, and Pearl Kaya, registration. All delegates who expect to attend the camp are asked to pay their fifty cents pre-registration fee as soon as possible.

Frank Gapp, Seido Ogawa and Doris Ross will lead the discussion groups.

Committee chairmen selected by Ah Quon Leong and Anastacio Luis, who are in charge of the camp include: food, Katsuso Miho, Genevieve Ohara; recreation, Robert Putnam, Edna Tavares; registration, Iwao Mizuta, Pearl Kaya; entertainment, Abraham Akaka, Dorothy Jose, and transportation, Ernest Ching, Charlotte Wong.

Those who expect to attend the conference are asked to pay their fifty cents pre-registration fee before April 4.

Loss of Hardware Delays Completion Of Library Annex

Dominating the campus, looming over the cafeteria like a feudal castle above the squalid huts of the serfs, the Library Annex is quiet and incomplete, because a shipment of hardware got lost somewhere between Honolulu and Stamford, Conn.

Contractor E. E. Black, builder, faces a penalty of $25 per day if the annex is not completed by April 25. The date of contract termination originally was April 8 but due to installation of a counter in the reserve room, was extended.

The missing shipment consists of finishing hardware for the entire building.

Lighting fixtures and plumbing have been installed, only doors and transoms lean at odd angles against newly painted walls.

Contrasting with the new stucco walls and burnished copped portiocos are the temporary doors made from cement molds.

Senior students must wait awhile longer for the privilege of using the new reserve room. Tables and chairs are expected to arrive soon.

Students with Income Over $200 Must Pay Federal Poll Tax

Notwithstanding the authorization of William Borthwick, territorial tax commissioner, to regard student employment as "casual," the auditing department insists that the poll tax must be deducted under present laws and if not withheld by the University, deduction will be made by that office.

In the future, therefore, the business office will make such deductions and students employed in any part-time work will be advised of this at the time of their employment. The poll tax is in the nature of a "head" tax applicable to men and women between the ages of 20 and 60 receiving income in excess of $200. Failure to make the poll tax deduction is no relief to the individual student, for eventually the tax, including the penalty and interest, if late, must be paid.

Seniors, Ka Leo To Sponsor Competition

The senior class and Ka Leo will jointly sponsor a "Know Your University" contest at an early date according to Noriyuki Ueoka, chairman of the contest.

A list of questions will be published in Ka Leo. Answers to these questions must be turned into the Ka Leo office the day the questions are published. The winners' names will be published in the following issue.

Tickets for Guild Production Ready

April 3 and 4 have been set by the Theatre Guild for exchanging student tickets for the coming Guild production, "Richard of Bordeaux" which will be presented in Farrington hall April 15-18.

The Guild business office will be open Friday, April 3 from 8 to 4 p.m. and on April 4, from 8 to 12 noon. Tickets will go on public sale at Honolulu Paper company on April 6.

Students are requested by the Guild to get their tickets reserved early.

Antiquated "band-box" gymnasiums are to blame for the mediocre brand of basketball played in New England, says Al McCoy, coach of Northeastern university, Boston.

Hughey Phooey Knows All About YOU

The wahines have really been giving us the dope on the most popular men for the QUEEN RACE.

Dear Hughey:

. . . BUCKY HENSHAW should be nominated for a candidate in the Queen race because he is such a sweet, young, little boy and he tries so very, very hard to be grown up, sophisticated and to get somewhere in this good ole social world . . .

A Sweetfaced Optomistic

We have received 5 letters nominating Henry Blanchard. This is one.

Dearest Mr. Hughey:

. . . Our beloved Henry Blanchard should not only be nominated but should win the Queen race because he gets HIS NAME IN AS LARGE LETTERS AS THE EDITOR HAS HIS and too we can't think of any other boy who would make a lovelier queen . . .

University of Hawaii Coeds.

A Note on Fickle Women: Edith Cameron said she told a certain Lt. she'd marry him and she knows she doesn't "care for him." Eleanor says he is a good catch anyhow. Our guess Edith, would be "Jake" . . .

TUXEDOS WANTED IMMEDIATELY?

Saturday afternoon at the Depot Pawn shop: Cal, Metcalf Beckley and Charlie MacClean looking for "tuxes" for the dance tonite . . . the charges we hear were too much so no "tuxes" tonite.

HAD YOU WONDERED: How Ralph Woolsey gets out of ROTC? . . . If MOLLY knows who saw her walking with her sailor boy friend? If Gus Clemens really did throw a binge at Mokuleia? . . . HOW KAY PHILLIPS AND HAP TUBBS kept that ole love look out of their eyes enough to fool us? Cause now they are engaged.

WE WONDER: Why Bellaire has tried to pull a number of strings to keep us from publishing JANE "the lady of the picture's" name . . . What happened to Reed, Cruikshank and "CHUCK" WOOD while they were still neophytes to the S.S.S. BROTHERHOOD . . . And what is going to happen to CHARLIE HARDEE, HERBY DUNN, TOMMY KAULUKUKUI and IVANHOE McGREGOR when Hui Alakai starts its initiations . . . we pity the poor pledges.

Deans Beat Celts In Soccer Sunday

The University of Hawaii soccer team scored an impressive 2-0 victory over the inter-island and league champion Celtic aggregation last Sunday in the opening of the current Cup Tie series. As a result of the victory, the Deans will meet the Pawaa team next Sunday at 2:30 p.m. in the playoff for the championship.

The game, which was played under the English rules of straight 30 minute halves with provision for but one substitution at the end of the first half only in case of injury, was featured by the aggressiveness of the Deans throughout.

After holding the Celts, who had the advantage of a strong gale back of them in the first half, the Deans returned in the fray in the latter half to chalk up two goals in quick time.

Johnny Chung, Dean outside left, succeeded in netting the ball for scores on two excellent passing attacks.

Goalie Tim Ho shared in the fine defensive work of the backfield, as well as in the general fine play of the entire team.

Kaulukukui Leads Cageball Scorers

Tommy Kaulukukui, Rainbow forward and Ka Leo's choice for the most outstanding player, garnered 44 points to lead the Inter-Island scorers. Fair of the Third Engineers and his teammate, Thomas, came second and third respectively with 35 and 34 points. Walter Koon, Ft. Kam, tied for third.

Elks Cop ASUH And Territorial Cageball Titles

Deans Beat Third Engineers To Finish Third In Big Series

University of Hawaii basketball team cinched third place in the inter-island basketball series sponsored under the auspices of ASUH by decisively trouncing the Third Engineers, 46-32, in the curtain raiser of the championship series last Saturday. The Elks defeated Fort Kamehameha, 39-34, to win the gonfalon.

Tommy Kaulukukui led the Deans in their devastating attack, scoring 18 points. The Collegians scored 12 points in the first quarter before the Engineers could tally a single point. The Schofield champions began cutting down the Rainbow lead with Baddy Weaver and Wood starring in this short spurt. At half time the score stood 14-13 in favor of the Manoans. When the second half opened, University increased this lead and maintained it to the end of the game.

Tommy Smith scored 10 points, Johnny Murray 8, Adolph Desha, 5, Frank Cockett, 3 and Alfred Espinda and Ernest Moses 1. For the Beavers, Weaver accounted for 15 points and Wood 6.

In the featured game, the Antlered Herd snapped the King Posters' 19 consecutive victories, beating the Kam team 39-34. Miller and Forbes tallied 8 points, Kahler and Saunders, 6, and Parker 5. For the service team, Koon scored 9 and Curry and Pierce 7 apiece.

In winning the territorial championship, the Elks automatically annexed the ASUH trophy, the University and Elks mutually agreeing before the start of the series that the winner of the play-off would be made ASUH champions.

With Manoa Tradewinds

By Bert Nishimura

Grab that sheepskin seems to be the theme song of the coaching staff at the University of South Carolina.

Don McCallister, head coach, teaches his football squad how to hang on to a pigskin, but right now he is interested in seeing his boys graduate.

COACHES BECOME STUDENTS

Professors were profoundly amazed when the new athletic regime took charge. The line coach tutored the boys in Spanish. The end coach dropped into the history department office and asked permission to attend an 8 a.m. history class. He wanted to continue some post graduate studies of his own, he told the head, and thought he would be able to help fellows taking the course.

Then McCallister himself made a perfect boot between the scholastic bars by calling on the registrar and insisting on a weekly report of the boys' programs.

"They've got to graduate," he said, "Not pass—graduate!"

Spectators as well as athletes will be invited at Princeton's 1936 All-Star track meet at Palmer stadium June 13, it has been announced by Asa S. Bushnell, graduate manager of athletics.

EVENT DRAWS CROWDS

The big eastern event has drawn crowds of 60,000 who paid general admission of $1.10 and reserved seats at $1.65 to see the big feature—the mile race starring such stars as Bill Bonthron, Glenn Cunningham, Gene Venzke, and Jack Lovelock of New Zealand.

All tickets will be distributed on a preferential basis with faculty members, alumni and undergraduates getting first call.

Ka Leo Scoops on Rainbow Training Camp Story Today

University of Hawaii's football team will establish its spring training headquarters in the pit of Halemaumau Crater, largest active volcano in the world, it was learned from reliable sources as this edition went to press. The Dean board of strategy is planting first claim to this ultra-modern headquarters and according to reports, a super-team will be produced to fight for the Emerald and White next year.

The large crater was chosen because the authorities feel that the boys could put in 24 hours of gruelling training in the upper regions where no watchers can gain admittance. Madame Pele's techniques and her feminine elusiveness plus the sulphur fumes should add materially to the team, it was announced.

The China Clipper has been chartered through the cooperation of Pan-American Airway officials, and negotiations are under way to obtain Hugh Eckener's new air monster so that the boys could toss a few passes and run through signal practice while on board. The Alexander Hotel officials have consented to send two plane loads of food to feed the boys daily and the Hawaiian Pineapple company is stocking the mess hall with several barrels of their golden pine juice. Milk will be obtained by the boys as part of their training, and fresh milk straight from the udders will be used.

This novel attempt is expected to revolutionize spring training camps and colleges will resort to fantastic schemes to overcome the headstart of the Hawaii Collegians. The famed Hawaii aerial attack will be perfected in these heights, and all of the Fire Goddess' attributes will be utilized to have an invincible squad on the gridiron.

Tommy Kaulukukui, the Rainbow's contribution to all-American honors, seemed especially enthusiastic over the outlook. It must be remembered that he played rings around the coast team several miles above sea level and the dizzy heights aided him in his dizzy dashes for yardage. Tony Morse and George Clark, co-captains elect, could not be contacted for their views on this pioneering venture.

(Editor's note: If you believe this yarn, you should apply for admission to the red hotel on the other side of the island. Today is APRIL FOOL'S DAY).

UH Track Squad Meets Matson AC

A practice track meet will be held Saturday at Cooke field between the University of Hawaii track team aspirants and the Matson AC, starting at 2 p.m.

The events to be run off will be the same as those of the AAU meet with the addition of a half-mile relay.

ASUH Mat Series Comes on April 17

The ASUH invitational wrestling tournament, postponed from last month, will be staged at the University gym on Friday, April 17, it was announced by Theodore (Pump) Searle. Medals will be presented to the winners immediately following the contests.

Two wrestlers from one club in any one division will be invited to perform in this meet. This means that only seasoned wrestlers, the best from each club, will participate.

The varsity grapplers have been training three times a week. Richard Noda, captain, Wilfred M. Oka, coach, and Ernest Yoshida, manager, are in charge of the Rainbows.

I wouldn't give that for a cigarette that doesn't Satisfy ...that doesn't give me what I want in a smoke

I want my cigarette mild, of course—I hardly think anybody enjoys a strong cigarette. But deliver me from the flat, insipid kind.

I find a great deal of pleasure in Chesterfields. They're mild and yet they seem to have more taste and aroma. I enjoy them.
