Council Names Tan, Carey For ASUH Post

Two Class Prexies to Vie for Vice-Presidency On December 10

Edison Tan, senior councillor, and James Carey, junior councillor, both presidents of their respective classes, were nominated by the student council to run for the vacancy in the ASUH vice-presidency, created by the automatic accession of Thomas Kaulukukui to the presidency when John Stone tendered his resignation.

A petition signed by twenty-five bona fide students of the student body and submitted to the council before December 7 will enable any other student to run for the vacant position.

Tan, Carey Prominent

Both Tan and Carey are prominent in student affairs. Tan was a member of the championship interclass debate team last year and is widely known for his forensic prowess. He was also cadet-colonel of the ROTC last year. Carey is also a prominent orator, winning both the Berndt and the all-Hawaii Oratorical contest last year.

Kaulukukui accepted the presidency last week. Besides being the new president of the Associated Students, he is captain of the football squad, once winning all-American mention, and a popular all-around athlete. He is a senior in Teachers College.

Council Vacancy Possible

If either Tan or Carey is elected, there will be a vacancy created in the student council which will be filled by another election.

The election will be held in front of Hawaii hall Friday, December 10.

Petitions for other candidates to the vice-presidency will be considered at the special meeting of the Associated Students student council meeting to be held at 12:45 p. m. in the council room Tuesday, December 7. Thomas Kaulukukui, president, will preside.

A report by the social committee on the ASUH dance to be held New Year's eve will be presented by Bert Nishimura, social committee chairman.

Final plans for the intercollegiate debate against San Jose State Teachers College will also be presented.

Dates for Guild Play Given

Japanese Production To Be Presented January 19-22; Tryouts To Be Held Monday

The second play of the Theater Guild season, a Japanese presentation, was scheduled for January 19, 20, 21 and 22 at a meeting of the Guild council Thursday evening at the home of Director Arthur E. Wyman.

Tryouts will take place Monday and Tuesday at 4:30 in the afternoon at Farrington hall.

It was decided to hold the first play reading for active members of the Guild only—those possessing membership cards—on December 19 at 8 in the evening in Farrington hall. Yes, My Darling Daughter, a light comedy by Mark Reed, will be offered.

Year's Schedule Changed

A change in the year's schedule was also effected. Instead of presenting Shukuntla, a play of India, the Guild decided to offer two haole presentations following the Japanese play. High Tor and Tovarich, two of the most outstanding plays presented on the mainland last year, will be produced. The change was effected in order to allow Fritz Hart, music director at the University, to write incidental music for Shukuntla, now tentatively being considered as one of the offerings for the next Guild season.

Vice-President Elected

Additional business transacted at the meeting included the election of James Carey, one of the haole representatives on the Council, as vice-president.

Plans For New Unit Revealed

Proposed Social Science Building to Change Present Campus Picture

A new Social Science building is expected to be built and ready for occupancy by next September, according to Dean Arthur R. Keller, acting president of the university.

The new building will be placed on the opposite side of the campus from Dean hall and will occupy the open space between the library and Hawaii hall. The sidewalk which leads from Hawaii hall to Maile Way at the present time will be moved about fifty feet eastward.

The building is to be of reinforced concrete and its exterior will correspond with that of the library. It will be three stories in height. The main entrance will be in the center of the building facing Dean hall and the rear entrance will lead out to Maile Way.

One large classroom capable of seating 300 students and two smaller classrooms seating 150 each are expected to cover most of the area. Smaller rooms that may be used for classes or seminars are also being planned.

While no definite assignment of rooms has yet been made, it is probable that classes in history, sociology, psychology and language will be held in the building. There are plans for 33 offices for faculty members and research assistants. One room has also been assigned for use as a laboratory in psychology.

Bids for construction will be received on December 14 and work is expected to start on or before December 24.

Students Find Aid In Movie Shows

Movies to supplement regular class work are being shown to students taking hygiene, as part of the plan to familiarize themselves with actual conditions existing in some particular case.

This week's showing dealt with the digestive tract. A running commentary on the pictures is given with each show.

Sponsors

ROTC sponsors are requested to see Major M. A. Gillis this morning in his office without fail. Important instructions for the game today will be given.

Scribe Finds Invaders Excellent Ballyhoo Artists

By Norman K. Chung

They've got the Hawaii Tourist Bureau all beat!

For they not only boost California, but they bring boxfuls of Santa Clara valley prunes to prove their boasts. And delicious and effective prunes at that!

Roused from bed early and wearing a coat in the furtive hope that we might be mistaken for gentlemen of the press, your scribe, with one Don Ernesto Silva, embarked in the early hours of the morning (7:30) to "cover" the San Jose team's arrival.

The team was covered . . . with leis.

Tug Trip Uneventful

The tug trip was uneventful and disappointing. Disappointing because although we watched very closely, no one was seasick. In fact they looked almost joyful. Miss Cenie Hornung was under especially hopeful surveillance . . . but nothing happened.

Watching Watson, McQueen, Adams and others in order to look properly bored, we boarded the good ship Lurline. Climbing innumberable steps both up and down we finally discovered the team roosting on the uppermost deck . . . they would be!

Lewis: I wish I could come back several more times. And as to the game, we're going to do our best.

Art Display Up For Two Weeks

Exhibition Shows Work of Students in 1935-36 Classes Under Luquiens

The art exhibit in Hawaii hall for this week and next features the work of students in the classes of 1935-36. The exhibit has traveled to various schools and academies on the West Coast on an exchange system. The Chouinard Art Institute, UCLA, San Diego State College, California School of Fine Arts have exchanged exhibits with the University of Hawaii during the past three years.

Students of the 1935-36 classes now on the mainland studying art include Sueko Matsueda, Keichi Kimura, and Ethel Chun.

The exhibit consists of portraits, etchings, temperas, travel posters, and design. The etchings were done by Mr. Luquiens' 1936 class.

Medical Students Take Aptitude Test

An aptitude test for students who expect to apply for entrance to a medical school by the fall of 1938 was offered in Dean hall 6 at 2 p. m. Friday by Dr. Thayne M. Livesay. A $1 fee was charged each person tested.

Silva Shakes Off Hush-Complex; Gives Timely Tips On Rooting

The Silvas have long been silent upon the subject of enthusiasm at public games since the untimely passing of Julius de Silva, a hairy Roman mobster who, while he lived, was all for making the gutters run red with blue blood.

Julius hied himself to the circus one day and while there shouted his immortal "Kill the emperor!" (Now corrupted to: "Kill the umpire!) A guard standing in the immediate vicinity pole-axed him before he could draw breath for another crack at it.

With the assurance that the press is free and that nobody would spoil a good axe on me anyway, I now break the hush of generations with a few timely tips on how a rooter should root.

First, a position must be taken subject to change without notice and to the most possible discomfort to the other lunatics in your neighborhood. At the kickoff, leap about two feet in the air and come down stumbling against the co-ed in front of you. It's the only way to break the ice and you've got to talk to somebody when the scorekeeper begins to look haggard somewhere toward the end of the first quarter.

If you think the team has a chance to score, don't keep the secret. Wake up the guy at your elbow and tell him all about it. What if the gain is only five yards up to our fifteen yard line? This is a free country and you're allowed to think what you please.

If, by some miracle of fate, the team really does score, then there's your chance. Look around for somebody you don't like. Hop up and down on his toes, batter his ribs with your elbow. Only a sorehead could bop you for that. Should the person be a sorehead, it would be a lot of fun anyhow, wouldn't it?

Rainbows Out to Stop Spartan Invaders In Shrine Game Tobay

Spartans Debate Deans Monday

Sanders, Buffa of Visiting Squad Meet Carey, Chung of Hawaii at Farrington Hall

Five San Jose debaters arrived Thursday morning to meet the University of Hawaii debate teams in two meetings. The debaters are Bob Bronzan, Carlton Peregoy, Lloyd Thomas, Norman Sanders and Harold Buffa.

Mr. Ralph Eckert, debate coach, did not accompany the speakers who are all members of the football team as well.

The first debate will be held Monday evening at 8 in Farrington hall when Norman Sanders and Harold Buffa will meet James Carey and Norman Chung on the question "Resolved: That a constitutional amendment should be enacted prohibiting a presidential third term." San Jose will take the negative and Hawaii the affirmative.

A week later, on December 13, Bronzan, Peregoy and Thomas will debate Hawaii's "football" debate squad on the issue, "Resolved: That the subsidization of college athletes is an undesirable policy." Francis Brickner, Thomas Kaulukukui and David Lum will represent Hawaii.

Students will be admitted to the debates free upon presentation of their activity books. High school students will be charged 10 cents and others 25 cents.

Senator Joseph R. Farrington will preside at the first debate.

A debate with Denver university is now being planned by Herbert Choy, ASUH debate manager, and Mr. N. B. Beck, debate coach.

Hawaii Union Lays Final Plans For Initial Inter-Club Debate League

Final plans for the inter-organization debate league sponsored by the Hawaii Union, honorary forensic society, were laid at the meeting of club presidents and representatives in Hawaii hall 22 yesterday afternoon.

A tentative schedule for the debate was drawn up. The debate topic was also chosen but was not ready for publication in this issue.

Interest is keen in this initial attempt to sponsor a league of this type. Interclass debaters and varsity debaters are barred from participating.

Injuries Place Three Deans on Sideline; Eleniki Out of Game

Whether or not the visiting San Jose State College gridders and their party of 12 backers will enjoy a Roman holiday at the expense of the University of Hawaii Deans this afternoon, at the Honolulu stadium will be answered mainly by the performances of Leroy Zimmerman, San Jose's ace passer, Walt McPherson, pile driving fullback, and the two Lloyds, Wattenbarger and Thomas, both ends.

Students are reminded to be in the stands by 2 p. m. at the latest for the game today. The Shriners' committee will entertain with surprise stunts.

Pass Combinations

The above boys are the spark plugs of this year's mighty San Jose gridiron machine. The Zimmerman to Wattenbarger and the Zimmerman to Thomas pass combinations have played havoc on 10 Spartan adversaries this fall. Leroy will also do a great deal of the ball carrying and punting.

Zimmerman, however, is not the only one on the squad who can heave the oval. McPherson and Herm Zetterquist, sophomores, are two other crack passers. The latter is another sophomore ace.

The yellow clad gridders' plays are built around the Warner double wing back system.

New Defensive Formations

In order to cope with the fast open plays of the Spartans, the Deans are expected to flash a new type of defense today. The Rainbows will use both a 6-2-2-1 and a 7-2-2 defense. By shifting from one defense to the other the Deans hope to stop the San Jose thrusts both on the ground and in the air.

The Deans will probably miss the services of "Don" Merriman, Moses Hanohano, and Joe Kaulukukui. Merriman has "water" in one of his elbows, while the "Little Grass Shack" is suffering from a twisted ankle. Hanohano is suffering from a minor injury.

Of great concern to the team is the departure of Ben Eleniki for Hilo. He has not given any reason for his leaving.

The opening lineups of both squads will most likely be as follows (subject to change):

San Jose	Pos.	Rainbows
C. Voorhees	C	Kayo Chung
F. Hamlow	G	C. Johnson
D. Pressley	G	S. Maialoha
B. Bronzan	T.	R. Quaintance
A. Carpenter	T	E. Gerner
L. Wattenbarger	E	A. Espinda
L. Thomas	E	W. Bayne
K. Birlem	Q	S. Tanaka
M. Manoogian	H.	Ah Kee Choy
J. Hilton	H.	T. Kaulukukui
W. McPherson	F	F. Meyer

Former Exchange Student Honored

George Schofield, exchange student to the University of Hawaii from the University of Southern California in 1935-36, has been elected president of the Pacific Southwest division of International Relations clubs.

"My interesting year on the University of Hawaii campus aided me tremendously in my studies of the possibilities of greater harmonious international relations," said Schofield.

Seniors, Attention!

Seniors are reminded by the staff of Ka Palapala, University of Hawaii yearbook, to have their cap and gown pictures immediately.

The deadline is December 11. Pictures taken after this date will not be accepted for the annual.

Let Us Roar, Rainbows! Let's Make the Miracle Happen!

The Spartans of San Jose State College are here to tackle the Town Team, NOT the University of Hawaii Rainbows!

The Shriner's benefit game today between the Spartans and Rainbows is regarded by the invaders as merely an "appetizer," just a routine scrimmage for the big Townie battle next week.

This was the general impression some members of the ASUH Aloha committee received when they greeted the visitors offport . . . a gross insult to the University no doubt, but also a much-needed stimulus for us and for our football team.

Technically speaking, the Townie clash is the feature of the San Jose invasion. We can't deny this, and neither can the Spartans. In interviews the visitors have stated that they are expecting to be pushed to the limit. This is the well-known "hoomalimali" and courtesy act. Actually they are not expecting anything more than a brisk workout. This statement is not a cynical opinion. It is a well-substantiated one.

The Fighting Deans aren't taking this "insult" lying down. If their newly-found spirit is any indication of their mood, the Spartans will be the most surprised team of the year. And, we are sure of one thing: THE ONCE ROARING RAINBOWS WILL ROAR AGAIN!

Two weeks ago it was an entirely different story. The Deans were only expecting to do their best to hold down the San Jose score. But today, they are set to shellack the Spartans.

The whole Greenanwhite squad has been transformed from a listless, pessimistic team to a spirited, optimistic one. Even Coach Otto Klum, who has appeared gloomy all season, is his old self of two years ago. And added to all this new life is the moral support that has poured in from alumni ranks.

Bill Wise, captain of the first "Rainbow Wonder Team," who is now coaching the Kamehameha Alumni Warriors, is assisting Coach Klum. Former Deans, now wearing the Town Team colors, are coaching the Rainbow squad.

Victory fever has gripped the Rainbows. They are all primed for their big game today to avenge last year's defeat. They can't fall down on their staunch supporters.

We only hope that the student body will do their bit by cheering and singing for the team. It is a fallacy to believe that cheers and songs do not affect the players. They comprise 25 percent of a team's playing ability.

Benedict Eleniki, swashbuckling Hawaii quarterback, affirms this statement. After the second Town Team game, he declared with disappointment and regret: "The game should have been a victory for us or at least a 7-all tie. We tried to do our best, but each time the half-hearted yells and songs echoed dimly in our ears as we bucked the Townie line, we just couldn't get into the right spirit. Why should we fight for a student body that won't meet us halfway!"

Ka Leo has constantly raised the hue and cry for a better cheering section. Apparently its efforts have not resulted in the desired effect. We have exhausted all our means . . . threats, suggestions, and sarcastic remarks . . . to improve our cheering section. This time we appeal to your reason. LET'S YELL OUR TEAM TO VICTORY!

Football experts give Hawaii only an outside chance to win. Only a miracle, they claim, can save Hawaii from slaughter. LET'S MAKE THE MIRACLE HAPPEN!

What Price Freedom Of the Press?

Freedom of the press is a blessing to the American public. Without it free expression of thought would be inhibited.

Sometimes, however, the lowest dregs of yellow journalism take advantage of the liberalism of our laws of the press and completely distort the true meaning of a story.

An example of this unethical practice is found in a recent sports article in a local newspaper. The story, a pure fabrication, written without authentic and well-founded facts, "disclosed" Otto "Proc" Klum's intention to resign under fire as head coach of the University of Hawaii, and Coach Dudley de Groot's entertainment of the idea of replacing the Manoa Maestro.

This editorial must not be construed as a condemnation of Coach de Groot. He is too smart, and too good a diplomat to make such an open statement. It might have been a slip of the tongue, and could have been interpreted as a conscious thought. But anyone with common sense can see that he would not give up his present position, where he is in line for rapid advancement. We know Coach de Groot is an innocent party in the pack of lies.

We believe that this "journalist" deliberately used Coach de Groot's name to spite Coach Klum and the Rainbows because he was refused admittance to the practice field. The University previously announced that no one not connected with the football team would be allowed to watch the practice this week. All other sports writers except the writer of the "spite" story heeded the announcement and request.

The motive behind the story was apparently to break the morale of the Roarding Rainbows and the Associated Stadents of the University of Hawaii on the eve of their "big game."

Students, faculty members, and supporters of the University should show this exemplifier of yellow journalism that his attempt to shatter our morale has not succeeded and has in fact strengthened it to such heights that morally we are 100 per cent stronger than the San Jose Spartans!

The Library Window

The conflict between the old generation and the new among Oriental families here is the difference of the cultural patterns of the respective groups.

The first generation brought over with them the patterns of the old country which had served their purpose in the old countries. The second generation, however, confronted with the Western patterns have found their elders' way of living a very illogical and uncomfortable one.

Thus, today we find the children of Oriental parents in a dilemma. What should they do in the presence of such a conflict? Rev. Mark of the Keeaumoku Church throws an interesting light on the whole problem when he says that the second generation should first appreciate and understand the ways of their parents, weigh the values of the Western patterns of culture and follow a course that would be a synthesis of both patterns because, sociologically speaking, one people cannot adopt fully another's way of life. Some traces of the parent culture will remain.

For example, let us take some problems involved in marriage, a topic which seems to be of current interest among the students. In the Oriental family the house of the groom pays for the cost of the wedding and the reception which often places the newly-wed couple in an embarrassing position financially from the start of their wedded lives.

The Western pattern usually has the house of the bride paying for the expenses of the wedding reception. The groom pays for the license and fits out the best man. The invitations are sent out from the bride's family, but the bride is marrying into the groom's family. In the Oriental family the invitation comes from the groom's family as well as the bride marrying into the groom's family. Both families, Oriental and Western, are patriarchal.

Now, the synthesis as practiced by a growing number of families here is to have both families pay for the expenses involved. Speaking from the practical, economical and conditional angles what could be more fitting?

* * *

Yes, the conflict between the old and new generations of Oriental families here is the difference of cultural patterns of the respective groups. But there must be a synthesis. Working out such a synthesis is a very delicate and tremendously important problem for everyone concerned.

'Take Clogging, If You Must, But Don't Say We Didn't Warn You'

By Helen Salfingere

There's nothing like a bit of clogging to warm your red corpuscles, if you don't weaken.

Clogging, if you must know, is that jumping-up-and-down-and-sideways-on-a-pair-of-taps exercise given by the physical education department here.

All this exertion supposedly gives one red cheeks and makes any lucky coed enrolled in the class the life of the party. Actually it provides nothing more than a lot of corns and bone rattling.

Followers of Terpsichore are generally assumed to be top-notchers as far as personality goes. In this class of nearly 200, one member has as much chance of being noticed over the rest as any one match in a box of a thousand. Develop personality? Phooey!

With arms and legs flying (none too gracefully) in the breeze and a noise to rival Madame Pele's most ominous growlings you have a perfect picture of the class in action.

In the eyes of the physical ed. department moguls, this bit of violent exercise is just the thing to make life worth living but that little adage of "thinking twice before you leap" is suggested by your humble scribe to any brave-hearted souls who contemplate taking the class.

Some fellow sufferers in the class include Nadine Hegler, Annette Baker, Margaret Stone, Florence Robley and Fern Cantrell.

Rules Announced For Use Of Recorded Library

Rules governing the use of the newly opened Carnegie Recorded library room have been announced by Mr. Carlos Hancey, UH band director.

The collection of recordings will be made available to student groups on Tuesday and Thursday afternoons from 1:30 to 5 and Saturday mornings from 10 to 12.

An attendant will be in charge at these hours to play any selection requested. Records may not be taken out of the room.

The University of Hawaii is one of fifty institutions in the entire United States to house a Carnegie Library of recordings.

The concluding selections from Gilbert and Sullivan's "Pinafore" were heard at the regular Wednesday noon-hour musical.

The numbers played included "Finale to Act I," "Fair Moon to Thee I Sing," "Things Are Seldom What They Seem," "Never Mind the Why's and Wherefore's," "Carefully on Tiptoe Stealing," "My Pain and My Distress," and "Finale to Act II."

Time Staggers On . . . .

HOME ECONOMICS CLUB

Having called the Home Economics Club "Home Eccers" in the previous issue, Ka Leo feels that retribution is forthcoming. (If somebody did get bawled out for that headline it's only incidental.)

Since its organization in 1930, the club has thrived—a condition which may be attributed to its liberal policy in preceeding each meeting with a Japanese, Chinese, Mexican, Jewish, Spanish or Hawaiian dinner. Meetings are held on the second Thursday of each month. If you're majoring in economics, you should know enough to refrain from sneezing at nine dinners per annum.

Restrictions upon membership are that one must be a girl (aw shucks) and that the girl must have majored in Home Economics for at least a year. Members are kept posted upon the progress made in the various fields of the subject by communications with the American Home Economics Association with which the university organization is affiliated.

Once a Home Eccer, always a Home Eccer. One of the aims of the club is to cooperate with alumnae in their special types of work.—E. S.

Freshman Ferment . .

By Ernest Silva

Outside of the prunes distributed to Norman Chung, Don Ernesto and other Hawaiians who alternated between entertaining and harassing San Jose gridders off port Thursday morning, nothing in the experience could be truthfully termed "dry." The first excitement was the Don's perturbation over Norman's failure to arrive at the appointed hour. The threatened overwork caused hard words to ensue when Mr. Chung finally did leap aboard the tug after the last bell.

On the tug a further rift was created between the two Ka Leo representatives when Norman, with a surly suspicion of seasickness, claimed that the Don's hat (worn only upon occasions) had been a fishmonger's headgear before its decline. This drew more muttering from the Don.

Distraction occurred when somebody remarked that the Lurline looked small. Closer examination led to a consensus which opined that any ship with the San Jose squad aboard would look small. Even Norman agreed. The Lurline carried over twenty-seven interviews in plain sight but Norman, the busybody, occupied himself with trying to keep the Don from sneaking in front of news cameras. Finally both reporters decided to link arms for mutual protection. Interviewees from thenceforth had to shift for themselves, the scribes having two distinct and contradictory styles of eliciting information.

For a time, a state of truce existed when Norman found himself to be short of cigarettes and the Don suffered a dearth of prunes. A brutal exchange was effected which made Ernesto a virtual nicotine pauper because he wanted a prune.

Despite constant interference I did manage to get one statement from Lloyd Thomas, San Jose debater, who promised an interesting argument for December 6. The San Jose forensic group is composed entirely of their football players. In all fairness, an arrangement should be made whereby the UH table thumpers would take them on at their own game. I would gladly procure a stretcher for my debating friend, Norman Chung.

A first sergeant is a bad habit. He is worse than a drug. (As a matter of fact, I heard one cadet refer to his "top kick" as "that dope".) Take him away from his company or vice versa and what have you?

At first you have separated marksmanship groups of contented cadets. After a time, the reserve instructor's drone begins to pall upon them. They begin to realize that the sarge's bark is a vital necessity at an unearthly hour of 7:30 a. m. His absence accounts for the weary marksman closing both eyes when he is told to clamp only one eyelid down.

Have you noticed the condition of the Don's shoes this past two weeks? Not laziness mind you but logic. I do not mind snazzing up the old zapatos if there is even a hairbreadth escape from demerits in the offing. Reserve officers, however, are not quite as thorough as our dear departed sarges. They are decidedly above taking note of our feet. After every inspection of Gerner's I was always grateful that I had not been thrown back in the gutter. The reserve lieutenant eyes me disgustedly, says "order arms" and lets it go at that. They have already given us guns. Soon we are to receive bullets. Maybe the Major knew what he was doing after all.

Heard on the campus:

"Things are so quiet I'm lonesome. Let's go down to Ka Leo office and listen to Bo Sanger for awhile."

Frisking Coed Gets Bath In UH Fountain

Students entering Farrington hall for the 9:30 Poly Sci class last Tuesday morning were treated to an exhibition of fancy diving in the Varney Memorial fountain by Miss Leilani Stevenson, attractive sophomore co-ed.

Miss Stevenson was frisking gaily about the edge of the fountain with some gal-friends when she lost her balance, and, displaying rare form, dived into the pond.

When asked to repeat her performance for the benefit of several bystanders who failed to witness the first exhibition, Miss Stevenson refused. Just mean, we calls it!

Casaba Series On Maui Likely

Rainbows Invited to Play In Tourney With Matson Five, Two Maui Teams

Graduate manager Theodore (Pump) Searle received an invitation for the Rainbow varsity basketball squad to play in a round-robin series with the Matson five of Honolulu and two Maui teams during the last week of January on Maui.

Searle announced yesterday that it is almost certain that we will accept the invitation. The matter will be referred to the board of athletic control within the next few days.

Since the proposed trip to Maui is not expected to interfere with the regular ASUH senior basketball sked, the board should approve the sending of the squad to the valley island.

Juniors Defeat Seniors 29-26 In Casaba Opener

The intramural basketball season opened with the juniors triumphing over the seniors, 29-26 in the 135-pound league. The game was played in the gym at 4 o'clock Tuesday afternoon.

M. Kobatake, H. C. Lau, B. Quon, M. Fukuda, T. Kimura, F. Loo, M. Kono, M. Ishado, and G. Fukuda composed the senior squad. F. Miike, Y. Yasui, S. Moriguchi, J. Park, S. Tsumoto, H. C. Chee, Ben Takeyesu, J. Yuen, and F. Ako comprised the junior squad.

There will be two leagues, the 135-pound and the unlimited, in the interclass and interclub schedules, he said.

Goal posts have been put up already, and with a few more adjustments the field will be ready for the soccer games.

In the final game of the evening, the Rainbow B's walloped the University C's by the score of 23 to 16.

Gym Dance Tonight Expected to Draw Big Crowd

Engineers Honor Spartans With Social

Football will reign this evening at the gymnasium as the Varsity Engineers hold their San Jose welcome dance. Besides having the visiting San Jose football players as honored guests, the engineers will hold a lucky drawing for a football autographed by all the members of both the visting and Hawaii team.

Besides the hula program featuring Mamie Jensen announced last week, the program committee has secured the services of the Bray troupe. The troupe, one of the last in the Islands which sings and dances genuine ancient Hawaiian chants and hulas, will perform during the intermission. Their ability to portray these ancient Hawaiian dances, the gaiety surrounding their performance, and their great showmanship have combined to guarantee their audiences a show well worthwhile.

Mr. Clarence Dyson, university alumnus and amateur contest winner, has consented to render another of his famed pidgin English monologues.

James "Knock-knock" Carey of wise-cracking fame has been secured as master of ceremonies. Students will remember Carey as M. C. at the last H club assembly in which he made a "hit," when he appeared dressed in a tattered baseball uniform and proceeded to keep the program moving.

Guests of the engineers besides the football players include Mr. and Mrs. Otto Klum, Mr. and Mrs. Dud DeGroot, Dean and Mrs. Arthur R. Keller, Dean and Mrs. E. C. Webster, Prof. and Mrs. C. B. Andrews, Prof. and Mrs. W. J. Holmes, Prof. and Mrs. R. C. Brinker, Prof. and Mrs. J. M. Young, Mr. Elvin Hoy, Dr. W. H. Eller, Dr. J. Payne, Dr. T. E. Livesay, Mr. Shigeo Okubo, Mr. Martin Nelson, Mr. Charles E. Hemenway, Mr. Theodore Searle and Mr. Luke Gill.

University CSA Plans Banquet

Members of the University of Hawaii unit of the Chinese Students' Alliance will hold a banquet and dance Saturday, December 11, beginning at 6:30 p. m., at Fuller Hall, YWCA.

In charge of the affair are Evelyn Sunn and Francis Ching Ako.

Chairmen on other committees include Sheong Hee, president, and James Tam, reception committee; Hon Chung Chee and Edwin Lai, decorations; Dora Chun and Elsie Chun, program; Ah Mee Young, invitations; and Evelyn Chong, publicity.

★ Sorority Doings ★

AWS

Miss Cenie Hornung will be hostess to the AWS cabinet members at a dinner which will be held at her home on 2506 Rooke Avenue beginning at 5:30 o'clock next Monday.

A business meeting will be held after the dinner with Lucia White presiding.

Wakaba Kai

Bando Michie, who recently returned from Japan, where she studied dancing under the famous teacher Bando Mitsugoro, will be featured during the intermission of the Wakaba Kai dance on December 11, when she will make her debut in local circles. She is known at Masae Mizuta by her friends, but due to her outstanding status as a dancer, she was awarded the family name of Bando Mitsugoro. The famous Echigojishi, or cloth dance, which is a favorite of the Japanese, will be presented.

Under the supervision of Akiko Hino, picked belles from the sorority will present a surprise dance number.

Carrying out the general theme, "A Night in the Ginza," colorful lights, flowers, and girls dressed in beautiful kimonos will be very much in evidence. Willows and cherry trees with fragile blossoms will add to the atmosphere of a typical street scene in Japan.

Committee chairmen are Matsue Motoki, program; Misako Yamamoto, Ethyl Abe, decoration and clean-up; Tsumuyo Masuda, invitations; Edna Kanemoto, tickets; Lily Utsumi, reception; Sadako Kutsunai, refreshments; Gladys Kameda, Victoria Tsuchiya, publicity; Nobu Sasai, flowers.

Officers of the organization will act as hostesses. They are Lily Utsumi, president; Fumie Miho, vice president; Matsue Motoki, secretary; Edna Kanemoto, treasurer.

Chaperons for the evening will be Mr. and Mrs. Y. Soga and Mr. and Mrs. George Sakamaki, advisers of the sorority.

Ke Anuenue

A typical Hawaiian holoku ball will be given on Saturday, December 18, to welcome the boys on the Denver football team. Ke Anuenue, Hawaiian sorority, will be in charge of the dance which is being sponsored under the auspices of the ASUH.

Stella Kaaua is general chairman of the dance. Committee chairmen of the dance are as follows: Cornelia Kamakau, decorations; Mamie Jensen, refreshments; Maile Cockett, entertainment; Hazel Goo, invitations and music; Phoebe Furtado, tickets; and Betty Worthington and Harriet Awana, publicity.

Gamma Chi Sigma

Formal pledge services of Gamma Chi Sigma were held by candlelight at the home of Betsy Barnes Wednesday evening. Eight new members were inducted into the sorority.

Pledge pins were presented to Nancy Borden, Peggy Longley, Esther McDole, Nonie Neuffer, Virginia Jackson, Margaret Ripperton, Brawner Johnson, and Patricia Holt-Heinemann.

Corsages of Cecil Bruner roses, forget-me-nots and violets were given pledges before the ceremony.

An evening of informal entertainment followed the meeting.

Edna Kanemoto Heads Senior Dance Committee

Headed by Edna Kanemoto, the committees in charge of the senior class dance which will be held on Christmas Eve, have almost completed the plans for the occasion. This dance will mark the first large social event of the year for the seniors.

Committees who have been chosen and are now working on the details are: decorations, Thomas Kaulukukui, chairman, Tim Ho, Gus Ahuna, Sam Kaapuni, Roy Ahrens, Nam Young Chung, and senior girls from Te Chih Sheh, Yang Chung Hui and Wakaba Kai; program, Molly Webster, chairman; refreshments, Edna Leong; invitations, Pina Tam; publicity, Akira Fukunaga; tickets, Otomatsu Aoki; music, Juanita Lum-King; posters, Ted Loo; clean-up, George Clark; reception, Edison Tan and Charlotte Wong.

Al King and his orchestra will provide the music for the evening.

But so much for the interviews. Following docking of the boat, Ka Leo reporters were roughly shunted from one end of the dock by uniformed hoodlums who apparently didn't recognize the gentlemen of the press as such.

Then came the parade in which your correspondents brought up the rear . . . in fact, we were so far behind, that unless the wind was blowing right, it was impossible to tell whether the band was playing or not.

The parade was enlivened by extremely witty witticisms from some spectators. Examples of these gems of wit were, "Oh, you hams!" "You guys gonna lose!" "What da red hats on dose guys for?" "Gee, da beeg guys!"

Thence to Iolani palace where the footballers were greeted by the governor. And so back to the Ka Leo office to pound out this screed . . . Oh, yes! We almost forgot . . . Coach Dud de Groot and 25 members of the San Jose State Teachers College arrived this morning to meet the University of Hawaii in a gridfest today!

ASUH to Sponsor Gala Dance On New Year's Eve

The year's revelries will be climaxed at the university gymnasium with the gala ASUH New Year's Eve dance December 31 from 8 p. m. This affair is under the auspices of the Associated Students.

Bert N. Nishimura, social committee chairman, in a report which will be submitted to the student council for approval next Tuesday, has recommended that Douglas Yamamura, senior in Teachers College, be appointed general chairman of this dance.

This dance is in a series of student body dances held under the newly created social committee.

Detailed plans will be laid out at a meeting of the various committees this morning in the council room.

JAPANESE SOCIAL

Members of Hakuba Kai and Wakaba Kai held their annual get-together social last night at the Church of the Crossroads. The informal affair was enjoyed by a large crowd.
