Juniors Celebrate Annual Class Week

Students Cast Votes for UH Lei Queen Tomorrow

Seven to be Chosen in Election
By Rank of Choice

Students will cast their ballots tomorrow for queen of the University's Lei day celebration, May 1. Balloting this year will be conducted on a different basis from previous elections.

Voters will be asked to cast ballots for seven candidates, ranking their preferences from one to seven. Numbers must be placed to the left of the names of persons chosen. Ballots not having seven rankings will be discarded.

By this method the committee in charge feels, group and "bloc" voting will be eliminated to a considerable extent.

Candidates for the honor of Queen are Puamana Akana, Helene Amoy, Harriet Awana, Wilma Barringer, Kaliko Burgess, Marjorie Carter, Mamie Jensen, Mary Johnson, Thelma Kauka, Puarose Mahi, Carol Ross, Edean Ross, Muriel Swift, Lucia White and Bettyanne Worthington.

Llewelyn Akaka is officer of tomorrow's election with Kenneth Powers, Robert Stafford, Abraham Akaka, Walter Mookini, Herbert Dunn, Paul Kim, Murray Holt, Augustine Ahuna, Phillip Louis, Allan Richardson and Hartwell Blake as his assistants.

Soph Week to Be Discussed

Meeting Tomorrow is Planned in Final Preparation for Event

In preparation for their class week, which will be held from May 3 to 8, the sophomore class senate is meeting in the student council room tomorrow afternoon, Thursday, at 12:40 o'clock. Bert Nishimura, vice-president, will preside.

Newly appointed members of the council include David Butchart, Eric Haenish, James Carey, Peggy James, Joan de Vis-Norton, Thomas Osakoda, Ralph Van Brocklin, Llewelyn Akaka, Yoshitsugu Yamada and Ellen Stewart.

The sophomores, completing a successful sophomore-freshman social in Atherton House recently, are planning to stage another one. Al King and his popular orchestra furnished music. A musical half-hour and a convocation are other activities planned for the week.

The class is joining the freshmen in holding a Rainbow Prom at the Wai'alae Golf club on May 22. Al King's orchestra has been chosen to play for that occasion.

Athletic activities against the different classes will also be a part of the week's gala program.

AFTER MARRIAGE

"After Marriage, What?" is the topic for the YWCA discussion to be led by Dean Leonora Bilger at the Religion building, from 3 to 4 p. m. today. This is part of the series on "Courtship," sponsored by the committee on "Individual and Living."

Baker's Marionettes Are Set for 'Wire-Pulling'

On Friday, April 23, in Farrington Hall beginning at 8 o'clock, Hobart Baker, freshman, with his company of Genial Puppeteers will present an original and entertaining program.

Baker has had much experience in the "pulling string" field. Most of the junior high and senior high school audiences are familiar with his Puppeteers. Baker prefers an adult audience and serious presentation.

In the first part of the serious program Friday evening, will be Chekon's drama called "A Marriage Proposal." The first act of

BERNDT CONTEST

Preliminaries of the 15th annual Berndt extemporaneous speaking contest will be held on April 29. Students will have until April 27 to sign up with Mr. Theodore Morgan, forensic adviser.

Semi-finals will be held at two different places on May 13. The finals will be held May 27.

Ivy Candidates Are Selected

Election Will Take Place on April 29

Headed by Minoru Shinoda, the Senior Class Committee consisting of Margaret Kwon, Leatrice Lee, Shogo Abe, and Susumu Awaya have officially nominated Robert Taira, Calvin McGregor, Edward Hustace and Seido Ogawa as candidates for the Ivy Orator position. Due to his not being a bona fide member of the senior class Othello Esposito was only conditionally nominated.

The Ivy Orator will represent the class of 1937 and present an address at its graduation week program.

Election will take place simultaneously with the ASUH election in front of Hawaii Hall on April 29.

Juniors Make Sports Record

Have Enviably Showing in the Intramural League

Although the Juniors can boast of only one championship in the Intramural Athletic league to date and that in the Stumpy volleyball division, the class may well be proud of their athletes. The Jollymen have ably represented the class in every event supplying the indispensable "spice of life," competition, in large doses to all rivals.

Displaying an unbeatable front, the 5 ft. 7 in. juniors scored the upset of the season in snatching the championship in volleyball from the formidable Sophs. To Albert Kai, Hung Sum Nip and H. K. Young goes the major portion of the laurels in winning this event.

Prominent in football were Ah Sum Lee, Nammy Chun, "Flash" Iwamura, Maurice Ishido, Mitsui Fukuda, Barney Young and Victor Goto. Starring in soccer were Tim Ho, Sau Hoy Wong, John Stone, Jefferson Mau, Roy Ahrens and Russell Quaintance; in basketball, Albert Kai, Franklin Loo, Buck Quon, Fred Kono and Kam Fook Lai. Other events found Richard Noda, Henry Ogawa, Benny Young, Kong Tong Mau and Harry Wee in the spotlight.

The events to come—foul throw, baseball, swimming, rowing, track, cross-country, horseshoe pitching and handball, will find the juniors "right there in the thick of the battle."

Complete Plans For UH Lei Day Are Announced

Colorful Spectacle of Pageantry to Depict Hawaiian Custom of Traditional Celebration

ALOHA KAKOU! The annual Lei day celebration committee has announced an elaborate program to be sponsored by the ASUH on the University campus, Saturday, May 1. The tenth Lei day celebration in Hawaii will be colorfully observed all day, opening in the morning with lei contest exhibits on the campus, and climaxed in the afternoon with the coronation ceremonies of the campus May Queen. There will also be a May day ball in the University gymnasium that night.

The lei contest is scheduled to take place from 9:30 a. m. to 1:00 p. m. Leis may be entered in four general classes—the most beautiful, the most typically Hawaiian, the most unique, and the lei with the greatest variety of flowers. General rules concerning the contest will be posted on the bulletin boards later. Prizes will be awarded in two groups—for individual and for organization competition. There will be three prizes for each class.

The grand prize winner in the contest will be chosen by appointed judges, but the others will be selected by popular vote. Prizes will be awarded at the May day dance to be held in the University gymnasium at 8:00 p. m. May 1.

The coronation ceremony of the campus Lei Queen is to be held at Alexander field, Punahou school, after the Rainbow Relay events, sponsored by the ASUH and the University alumni association. A colorful spectacle of pageantry will be presented, recreating all the old Hawaiian splendor that has grown to be part of the Lei day tradition of Hawaii. Against a beautiful floral setting for the background, the queen and her retinue will hold court.

The different islands will each be represented by eight members of local high schools. McKinley, Roosevelt, Kamehameha Girls' and Boys' schools, and St. Andrew's Priory have been asked to take part. There will be a princess, two gift bearers, one kahili bearer, and four attendants to the princess for each island.

A poi and laulau sale will also be a feature of the day's activities on the campus. It will be taken care of by Hui Alakai, under the direction of Albert Kai and Llewellyn Akaka.

Abraham Akaka is the general chairman for the Lei day committee, in charge of all the activities. Mrs. Dorothy Kahanani is heading the lei exhibit and contest, assisted by Walter Mookini.

High schools have also been invited to enter leis in the University contest, thus making the campus display the center of scholastic lei competition.

Coeds End Week With Big Round-up Friday Afternoon

Climaxing the junior week the coeds shall have their fun with a round-up at Cooke field on Friday, April 23, at 3:30 p. m.

All coeds are urged to participate in volleyball, tug-of-war, sack buck, and three-legged race, all of which make up the program for the afternoon.

In charge of events are Charlotte Wong, assisted by Captain Molly Webster from the College of Arts and Sciences and the College of Applied Science, and Captain Phoebe Furtado from Teachers College.

"World Peace—What Can We Do About It?" is the topic for discussion by Dr. William H. Taylor, the Reverend Galen Weaver, Carl V. Herron and Seido Ogawa in Farrington hall Friday, April 23, at 12:45 p. m.

Don Blanding to be Guest at Big Junior Convocation Today

ADVISER'S MESSAGE

TO THE CLASS OF 1938:

As your faculty adviser, it is my pleasant duty to write a message appropriate to Class Week. I wish to thank the class for troubling me so little about advice. With tons of it in reserve, I have been called upon for only a few ounces. This means that the Class of 1938 has gone ahead under its own steam, with the minimum of help from its faculty adviser.

Take this same initiative and organizing ability into the work of life. Prepare to mark out your own course, and carve out your own destiny. Jobs are in reality not found; they are made. About all the world can do for you is to give you a foothold; the climbing depends upon you.

During the one year that remains of your four-year course, cultivate those life habits which will stand you in good stead when you leave. Seek to be resourceful, self-reliant, ambitious, cooperative and diligent in applying yourselves to the work in hand. Cultivate an interest in public affairs. You are citizens first; university men and women second. Vote and hold office. If by 1945 I do not find some members of the Class of 1938 in the Territorial legislature, I shall be disappointed.

Your mother University will always follow your career through life with the most kindly feeling and aloha.

WILLIAM H. GEORGE.

One Petition Made to Date

Two Weeks Remain Before First Electorate on April 29

Only nominee by petition to date, Ivanhoe McGregor has been selected by his friends and followers to run for the ASUH secretary.

Ka Leo unofficially learned that other petitions may be submitted before the closing date, at 4 p. m. Saturday. All petitions must be signed by 25 bona fide members of the ASUH.

Kenneth Powers, a candidate for the secretaryship, was eliminated due to his status as a freshman, which the constitution disqualifies from office holding in the ASUH administration.

Two weeks ago the ASUH student council nominated two candidates for presidency, three for vice-presidency, and four for secretaryship.

The nominees are John Stone and Edison Tan, president; James Carey, Thomas Kaulukukui and Kam Fook Lai, vice-president; and Kaliko Burgess, Peggy James and Lucia White, secretary.

A keen interest in the prospective developments for the election of the ASUH president is observed. Two prominent members of the junior class, Stone and Tan, are aspirants to the highest office in student administration. Stone is president of the Newman club, secretary of the present ASUH administration, member of the varsity debating team. Tan is colonel in the ROTC regiment, president of the freshman class three years ago, and member of the class debating squad.

Election will take place in front of the main University library. Primary will be held on April 29, followed by the general a week later.

JUNIOR CONVOCATION

Tomorrow at 12:45 in Farrington hall, Ted Dorin and his lyric music studio group will entertain at the Junior musical half hour. Sau Hoy Wong is in charge.

University Lei Queen Candidates Make First Appearances Before Students at Meeting

Bento Musical Cast is Ready

Rehearsals Shape Members Into Working Unit

"Strictly Amateur," a musical farce written by Stanley Bento, prominent University of Hawaii Theater Guild member, will be presented at a matinee performance, Thursday, April 29, and an evening performance, Friday, April 30, in Farrington Hall.

Those taking part in "Strictly Amateur" are Stanley Bento, Abe Akaka, Llewellyn Akaka, Betty Steele, Muriel Brown, Sam Kapuni, Sam Kandall, Genie Pitchford, Margaret Whittington, Edith Mowry, and others.

"Strictly Amateur" lives up to its title—it is "Amateurish" in every detail, the cast and directing being inexperienced as far as perfection goes. The play summed up in a nutshell is that it was written for the students about the students by a student called Bento.

Juniors Shine in Forensics

Speakers Take Recent Class Debate Series

Besides being prominent in other fields of activity, the class of '38 is outstanding in debate. With Herbert Choy, Clara Kim, John Stone, and Edison Tan composing the squad this year, the juniors captured the inter-class debate series championship. The question for debate was "Resolved: That Congress be empowered to provide for the compulsory arbitration of all labor disputes."

All four are veterans in the line of debate and oratory.

Clara Kim, the only coed debater on the campus, is a varsity debater and was also a member of last year's championship sophomore team. She was captain of the Roosevelt junior and senior high school debate teams.

Herbert Choy, besides being junior class debater, was a finalist in the Berndt contest last year and spoke in the finals of the All-University essay-oratorical contest this year.

John Stone, formerly an outstanding orator at St. Louis college, also participated in the 1936 All-University essay-oratorical contest. He is a varsity debater.

Edison Tan had much experience in debate. While at McKinley he traveled with the school team encountering the various high schools in California. He was a member of the sophomore team and acted in the capacity of ASUH debate and forensics manager in 1936.

Juniors Run Up Enviably Record in Campus Doings

Three Years of Achievement are Celebrated this Week With Varied Activities

By WAI CHEE CHUN

In celebration of three years of active participation on the University campus, Junior class members are treating underclassmen and seniors to a busy week of fun and frolic as inspired by their previous terms as Hawaii collegians. Junior class week began officially on Monday with Henry Kawano, vice president in supervision.

Featuring Don Blanding, noted vagabond poet of Hawaii and the originator of Lei Day, the Juniors will be in charge of the second part of the YWCA musical half hour today at 12:45 in Farrington hall. Mr. Blanding, guest artist, will read a few of his poems.

Hui Iwi girls will also entertain with a number of musical selections.

At this program the juniors will also present the candidates for May Queen. They are Helene Amoy, Puamana Akana, Harriet Awana, Wilma Barringer, Kaliko Burgess, Marjorie Carter, Mamie Jensen, Iolani Luahine, Muriel Swift, Puarose Mahi, Edean Ross, Betty Worthington, Marion Johnson, Thelma Kauka, Carol Ross and Lucia White. Election for the May Queen will take place tomorrow.

Carrying out the peace motif the first part of the program sponsored by the YWCA will consist of few instrumental selections by a Filipino, dance by Caring Abelino.

Committee chairman is Ella Wittrock, assisted by Molly Webster in charge of program; Estelle Young, Hannah Tyau, Constance Yee, Mary Johnson, Mary Whang and Ruth Wong.

In charge of the junior musical program are Sau Hoy Wong and Augustine Ahuna.

University YMCA Sponsors Series Of Religious Talks

Beginning next Monday, April 26, for five consecutive weeks, the University YMCA will sponsor a series of talks and discussions on the various faiths such as Catholicism, Protestantism, Buddhism and Confucianism, by prominent men in the community and on the campus at the Charles Atherton house from 12:45 to 1:30 p. m.

Dr. Walter J. Homan, director of the School of Religion which is affiliated with the University, will open the first series with a discussion on orientation in the field of religion. He will challenge college students with his talk on "What Religion Means to Me?" on Monday.

All students interested are asked to attend these meetings.

NO KA LEO SATURDAY

Ka Leo will suspend publication this Saturday, due to the issuance of the junior class edition. The campus paper will appear again next Wednesday. At this time, Ka Leo wishes to announce that Kenneth Ozaki has been appointed freshman editor. Ozaki, however, has not decided upon his date yet.

SOPHS, WE SALUTE YOU!

Bouquets are in order for the sophomores in sponsoring one of the year's outstanding activities in the form of an afternoon social at Atherton House last week. The sophomores called it a tea dansant, but regardless of what name the affair was called, everyone present had a grand time. Besides dancing, who was the afternoon's main diversion, a delightful program was introduced at odd moments in the afternoon.

This campus needs activities like the tea dansant! Dances in the evenings have continuously proved to be headaches to their sponsors. Besides incurring debts, the committees in charge were beset with nightmares and endless streams of worry. When classes are dismissed, students go their separate ways, and never see one another again until the next session the following morning. Evening dances are meaningless now. Critics have constantly reminded us of the lack of school spirit, or what you may call it, although they offer no solution. In the afternoon social, we have something which, if conducted correctly, could weld the campus together.

Atherton House was filled to capacity; every space was being used for dancing. Two hundred students is too large a number for Atherton House! Counting the many more who stayed away because of their dislike of being overly crowded, there are enough students to make these afternoon dances a success. The gymnasium, if it could be made available, is the logical place to stage such an affair.

The sophomores are to be congratulated for their initiative in trying out an affair of this sort. Grudgingly, that we are not the sponsors, perhaps, but admiringly, we commend the leaders of the class for trying their best to reawaken campus life on this university. They have been the only ones who have consistently sponsored activities of any sort. While the other classes remained in the doldrums, they pulled off a pep rally, a pep parade, a convocation, a dance, and now this dansant. They have started a Rainbow Prom for the first time in University history, and next week they are celebrating class week. What more can we ask?

A year in college . . . two years to go! Again, we take off our hats to the sophomores. Our hope is that someone sponsor a social in the gymnasium, conducted much in the same manner as last week's tea dansant!

Collegiate Sidelights

Table manners are a part of the basketball curriculum at Marquette University. On trips and in private dining rooms, Coach Bill Chandler allows his huskies to take turns in doing something wrong at the dinner table so that the others may tune up their etiquette.

Fourteen students of Oklahoma Agricultural and Mechanical College will take a Caribbean cruise this summer and get six hours of college credit for it. Accompanied by Prof. R. W. Lynch of geography, they are going to study life in the tropics.

Since a careless bird caused a $2,500 fire at the Delta house of Western Reserve University by building its nest too near the chimney, members have been waiting with shotguns for its return.

In saying "ugh" 97,000 times during the past three weeks, a bronze-skinned freshman at the University of Minnesota has not been trying to prove that he really is an Indian. "Ugh" is his entire speaking part in a play.

Mere writing ability isn't the most important requirement for a would-be newspaperman, says Prof. John L. Brumm, chairman of the University of Michigan's journalism department. "Bounding health" is his greatest necessity.

It is becoming increasingly difficult to maintain the high standards of the University of Illinois band, says Director A. A. Harding, because other schools are enticing prospective musicians with scholarships.

"Pun Revival Week" was originated at Fenn College a short time ago by Dr. William Patterson, professor of mathematics. The reviving of old puns will sharpen the wit and lend credence to the blur which represents the calculus in most sophomore minds, he explained.

Caught while trying to swipe lace "panties" from the dressing room of a burlesque star as a fraternity initiation stunt, Henry Brewer, a student at Massachusetts Institute of Technology, faced criminal charges until "Kiki" Roberts, the pilfered-from, refused to press claims against him.

A new way to kill time has been invented by students at Northern Illinois State Teachers College. They draw a circle representing a clock and hands. At five minute intervals they ink out the sections around the dial. At the end of the hour it is completely filled.

The "Spinners' Skip" is the name of a "ladies only" dance to be held at Montana State College. The girls will don their most elusive finery and swing and sway amid the colorful setting of a Mardi Gras.

The juniors wonder—

If Manoa Mud isn't all wet.

If playing cards in the caf doesn't bridge some of the gaps to romance.

If Chuck Johnson goes with Manoa Mud. He seems to have a monopoly on the column.

Why Tony Morse ardently frequents the Reserve room.

Why Bombshell Steele doesn't use her feet for walking, instead of for keeping the pavement from coming up to meet her.

If Betty Ching is as innocent as she insists.

If Karl Simons folds himself up before climbing into bed every night.

If any other class think it's better than the juniors.

If there would be any gals in school if the Ruth Murphy taxi were not to make its rounds one day.

If Phoebe Furtado's garden really grows.

If Peggy Poole ever says a word.

If Mickey Carmichael forgot engineering was a five-year course.

If Bull Haynes borrows the yardman's shoes for school.

What would happen if Shorty Williams ever found any mail in the box she so faithfully looks into every day.

If Einer Gerner knows that the boys are wearing their hair short this season.

If John Stone sleeps in the ASUH office.

If the seniors would like to come to their Junior-Senior prom.

If Jean Butchart ever has anything to frown about?

If standing in a lunch line whets the appetites of anyone besides the juniors.

Awards Granted To U.H. Co-eds

Wahine Shooters Win Honors In ROTC Shoot Compet

Three jackets with letters, two medals, and seven letter awards will be made to members of the women's rifle team who recently completed the most successful season in the annals of University history, according to announcement from the ROTC department. Sergeant Arthur G. Meniatis, who is leaving the institution this year, was coach of the team.

Captain Phyllis Van Orden, with an average of 98.4 points out of a possible 100, will be given a medal and a jacket with a letter for her achievement this year. She has been a member of the rifle squad for the last three years. Her score is the highest registered by any advanced member.

Mew Kun Ching will be given a medal for scoring the highest record for beginners. She amassed a total of 96.73 points, which is also the highest score made by a tyro. She will also be given a marksmanship letter award.

Manager Lydia Chun and Adeline Indie, by being a member of the team for three years, will be given a jacket in addition to their letters. Those who will receive letters include Charlotte Wong, Lucia White, Dora Chun, Marjorie Carter, Virginia Jackson, Betty Chung and Mew Kun Ching.

The final return from the inter-collegiate matches with mainland colleges held early this year came in yesterday. Louisiana State College scored 491 points to the local's 497 points.

Junior History

musical selections in keeping with the spirit of the occasion.

A field day in which the more athletically inclined of the Junior class are invited to participate is scheduled for Friday at 3:30 p. m. All juniors interested in this athletic competition are requested by those in charge to meet at Cooke field for the snappy events.

At the traditional Junior Promenade, third year students will compliment outgoing seniors in the University gymnasium this Saturday evening as a climax to the class week. Only juniors and seniors with their guests showing cards from the dance committee will be admitted to the fete.

Although the campus is all astir this week with Junior class activities, the newly initiated upper classmen have also been active in regular University functions. The women students of the Junior class became volleyball champions of the campus on April 14. As sophomores, the class team composed of Clara Kim, Edison Tan, Kenneth Lau and Jack Casstevens captured the inter-class debate award.

As stars on the gridiron several Juniors are also prominent. These students include Tommy Kaulukukui, George Aki and John Murray. The manager of athletics on the campus this year is a junior, Mitsuyoshi Fukuda. Herbert Choy, another member of the class of '38, is debate manager of the Deans.

Leading journalism students in the University who have contributed to the editing of Ka Leo and Ka Palapala in their three years in college include Florence Wilder, Genie Pitchford, Elizabeth Wong, Ellen Bairos, Clara Kim, William Ishikawa, Russell Vieira, Akira Fukunaga and Ah Quon Leong.

Major events in the class week of last year were a series of plays, a luncheon, a picnic, a dance in honor of the senior class and an edition of Ka Leo sponsored by students of the '38 class.

At the helm of the class in its freshman year were Edison Tan, president; Ben Hollinger, vice president; Robert Jarrett, treasurer, and Ellen Bairos, secretary. Students who supervised class activities last year were Kong Tong Mau, president; Lucia White, vice president; Sau Hoy Wong, treasurer, and Edith Cameron, secretary. Representatives at student council meetings were Edison Tan and Tommy Kaulukukui.

Responsible for doings of the junior class this term are Sau Hoy Wong, president; Henry Kawano, vice president; Abraham Akaka, treasurer, and Lucia White, secretary. Besides the four officers, those who see that the class of '38 has its share in ASUH activities are representatives John Stone, Molly Webster, Russell Vieira, Tommy Kaulukukui, Charlotte Wong and Mitsuyoshi Fukuda.

Stares Into Campus Life

You say that it is not polite to stare at people. I agree with you for I hate being stared at. Yet as I am a peculiar individual, who probably has no rime or reason for existing in this great universe of ours, I am also apt to do peculiar things. Therefore, I stare. I stare into campus activities not to criticize, or reform, but merely to give you my impressions.

Judging from the amount of publicity in our local papers, I presume that a certain freshman, who won the ASUH Oratorical contest by a blast at our Hawaiian democracy, is enjoying the limelight — Congratulations!!? I suppose credit is due for saying what he said. However, judging from the general tenor of the speech, it merely looked at the superficial aspects of the local situation without probing below the surface. Much misunderstanding of the local problems have been due to this cause, but I am amazed that a local product of our local schools would be guilty of such an error. Freshmen as a rule are very vociferous and often too outspoken in their statements. Let them approach the stage of "beaded" seniors, when they have learned how little they know in spite of the number of years spent in this institution of learning, and then the general tone would be somewhat modified.

This particular speech seems to be a work of an alarmist, who merely at the outward sign stirs a clamor that would rock the nation — a challenge to Hawaiian youth in the University of Hawaii—as if we as students could revolutionize the government in one or two decades—perhaps our erstwhile orator did not take into consideration the recency and heterogeneous nature of our immigrants when he spoke of the slums and living conditions (make a comparison of living conditions in their home countries and what they are here for a fair comparison). Speaking of living conditions on the plantations, I wonder whether the writer has ever lived on a plantation. Speaking of statistics, when one approaches the age of senility of the seniors he would begin to realize that statistics can be twisted, too distorted to prove any contention—public utility rates are not high as compared to the mainland when you compare the price of automobiles on the mainland to the local price—think of the 2,000 miles of water over which things have to be brought. I certainly would suggest for our orator a course in sociology and a dose of Dr. Cameron for toning down.

It seems that one of our most worthy leaders of the campus and especially of the junior class and ROTC is pining away for his "lost love" who up and got married a few weeks ago. Girls of the junior class, arise and cheer the leader of destiny of the ASUH, Mr. Tan.

Thots while strolling the campus—I wonder: what the campus would be like without Van Brocklin—what would the athletes do if ROTC were abolished—what it would be like if Dr. Cameron lost his voice—if sociology wasn't required—if P. C. students lost their books and their "knowing looks" and turned out for more activities.

Advice to the next ASUH president—Your first duty as president will be to look around among your "pals" for your real dean committee. Don't forget the president rates a medal.

A Beautiful Scene—She is the cutest thing at the UH campus and she stands on the mauka door of the gym waiting for her "love." He is a bold warrior of the gridiron who makes many a heart flip and flop. In case you don't know him, he's just a "mite" of a fellow. If you care to see this peaceful scene of near marital infelicitude (through the courtesy of the Athletic department and Mrs. Waterman) you must drop around the gym at about lunch time—he's gunning for Mr. Clarke's vice-presidency and she's gunning for him.

I guess I'm out of breath and gossip again . . . with due apology for saying too much of the trivial and inconsequential.

I remain, The Junior Commentator.

To Gary With Love

April 19, 1937.

Dear Gary:

I see by your recent letter that you and all the rest of the dear Big Islanders ran over to Kona for the gala week-end celebration. Am I ever jealous? I would have given anything in the world to have been there, too. And by your modest description of the time you had I'll bet it was plenty hot. And me sipping beers in quiet Honolulu. I lose my head!

Atherton House seems to have acquired an extended engagement of those ultra-ultra harmonizers, Moo, Sammy, and Alualu. The boys hang out there when lessons are done and sing a little song or two. As far as talent goes they're hard to beat.

Track, volleyball, baseball, and occasional water polo seem to be taking the boy's time now-a-days.

Don't believe everything you read in Manoa Mud. I can truthfully say the majority of the stuff therein is not truthfully related, in fact it is often without truth—void, I might say. I wonder why the writer is so generously affectionate? Who knows—according to inside dope the writer hopes to make it sensational—in the tabloid style. Weeha!

What is it that the Kapaakea Grill has that other Grills don't have? It is somewhat baffling to note its extreme popularity of a Saturday nite with the hungry (?) students. Oh, for the days of Punchbowl's elite fraternity . . .

More and more students find their way to the beach now that the sun and the touri have come out. Maybe the waves attract?

Dancer Greenwell seems to have made national news. It's great to be famous.

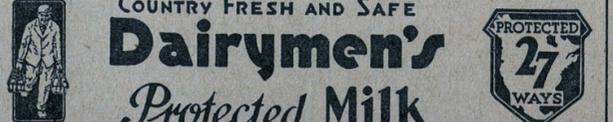

I've heard tell that certain people did not like the show at the Waikiki because the Popeye Cartoon was lousy. But a lot of people think it was good and anyhow the main picture was excellent. And the fountain is awfully nice!

Well, dear, I think I'll quit for this time. Be good and remember me to Dickie.

Ginger.

Juniors Hold Annual Prom Saturday

Episcopal Club Plans for Social Meeting

The Episcopal Club will have a social meeting on May 14. The first part of the evening will be spent on the election of next year's officers. Later, dancing and games will be enjoyed. The place for the social has not yet been decided upon.

Those nominated for the offices of the coming year are: president, Sarah Horswill; vice-president, Dick King and John Wong; secretary, Dorothy Yap and Eleanor Awai; treasurer, Buddy Black and Wallace Akutagawa.

Ann Powers is in charge of tentative plans for a picnic and conference scheduled for May 31.

Present officers of the organization are: president, Charlotte Wong; vice-president, Ann Powers; secretary, Amy Richardson, and treasurer, Charles MacLean.

Te Chih Sheh to Hold Banquet

The annual banquet of Te Chih Sheh, in the charge of Charlotte Wong, will be held on June 24 at the Waikiki Lau Yee Chai. The committee chairmen working on the banquet are Florence Ching, publicity; Violet Lee, place cards and invitations; Eleanor Soong, leis, corsages and decorations.

Aggie Colleges Show Growth

'Back To The Farm' Movement Reflected In Enrollment

Chicago, Ill.—(ACP)—Whether or not the record-breaking enrollment in middle-western agricultural colleges can be called a potential "back to the farm" movement is being debated by authorities.

Some say the increased enrollment indicates renewed interest in scientific farming as an occupation and a decline in the run of rural youth to seek their fortune in cities.

Others believe the agriculture student will use his degree as a stepping stone to white collar jobs, as a means of getting off the farm.

Unfavorable crop conditions since 1934 have served to discourage young farmers, is the opinion of Prof. O. R. Johnson of agricultural economics at the University of Missouri.

"Enrollment in the Missouri college of agriculture has doubled in the last three years, but students entered the school to get off the farm—not on it.

"Large numbers of government posts in the department of agriculture and other agencies have been created in the last four years. It is these jobs that the students

Wahine Clubs Prepare Skits

Manuscripts for Original Acts Must be in by May 14

Thirteen women's clubs have been invited to enter skits in the annual program sponsored by the Associated women students on May 28, in Farrington hall from 3 to 5 p. m.

All entry blanks must be submitted to Kuulei Emoto, chairman of the program, or to Molly Webster or Lucia White by today.

Original manuscripts of the skits must be turned in to the above committee before May 14. The presentation of the skits must not exceed five minutes and should not be less than three minutes. Posters submitted are asked to be original.

Prizes for the best skits will be awarded on ASUH award day.

Immediately following the program of skits will be the AWS banquet at downtown restaurant. A small fee is charged for the banquet.

Prom Bids May Be Called for at Hawaii Hall Front

Juniors who have not yet obtained their bids to the Junior-Senior Prom, April 24, at the University gymnasium may do so on the front lanai of Hawaii Hall, tomorrow at 9:30 to 1:30, Thursday from 8:30 to 10:30 and Friday, 9:30 to 2:30.

Only those who have paid their class dues are entitled to the bids. Dues are still payable to Sau Hoi Wong, Henry Kawano, Lucia White, Abraham Akaka, Henry C. Lau and to those distributing bids at Hawaii Hall.

Seniors are asked to get their invitations from Tara Suenaga, senior class treasurer.

are training for—not to ride a tractor," he said.

"Two or three years of discouragement is enough to chase farm population to the cities, but the movement back starts only after four or five years of favorable prices," concluded Professor Johnson.

But at Ohio State University, officials of the department of agriculture differed. They claimed that thousands of young men are returning to farming as improving prices develop agriculture into a more profitable vocation.

Farm owners who once advised their sons to seek better pay, which the city offered, now are encouraging them to make their living from the soil, they asserted.

The second Peace Institute sponsored by Oberlin College for college and university students will be held from June 11 to June 24. World disorders, proposed roads to peace and international-American relations will be discussed.

Junior Snooper Takes Over Reins Of Ima Sophie in Gathering Dirt

By JOE COLLEGE, Junior
Gee, gosh, oh gosh!

In the middle of class week at last! That columnist, Ima Sophie, took you around a tour of the quadrangle, but selfishly he included mostly sophomores. J. C., junior, will take you through a trek which will once and for all prove that the third class is the class on the campus.

Military strategist Sau Hoi Wong, Demosthenes George Mau, General Albert Chock, Wall Flower Nam Young Chung, Colonel Mitsuyoshi Fukuda, Soldier Walter Mookini, Ditto Sheong Hee, Hen Henry Kawano, and Rusho Russ Quaintance are but a few scamping around the drill field all dressed up with no place to go. These constitute the cream of next year's officers, and if you see skirts trailing them, you'll be wise to the situation.

Running over to TC, which Ima called the highest strata of intellect, we find Douglas Yamanura, Kong Tong Mau, Lucia White, Summie Lum, Teddy Loo, Ruth Loo and Alyce Lee all curled up with reserve books. Studying in the real Junior manner.

Coupla years back, when we were greener than the green freshmen, wotta time we had convincing Tim Ho, Kam Fook Lai and Henry Ogawa that the front of Hawaii Hall is not where you would like to sit on. Ellen Bairos, too, fresh from Roosevelt, was trying her dingbersted to get into the limelight.

The athletic field claimed quite a number, too. Tommy Kaulukuku, George Aki and Water Boy Masanori Kono were right with 'em.

Delightful reminiscing! Eh, wot? The Junior Promenade! What a fancy monicker for a dance! Bids are being dished out, and I'll be right with the best of 'em. Heh, heh! Dancing!

Jay See, Junior has not seen all, but he'll be right at it!! Class week? Where's the class? The photographer does know.

Eventful Week to Close With Promenade at Gym

Ke Anuenue Holds Beach Party

Members of Ke Anuenue will enjoy a beach party to be held at Diamond Head on April 23, at 5 p. m. The early part of the evening will be devoted to a steak roast, after which will be a program of games and swimming. Dessert will be served after the program.

General chairmen for the party are Muriel Swift and Dorothy Kahananui. Others are Gladys Naoni, food chairman, and Belle Lowry, program.

Campus Clubbers Sponsor Teas

Feeling that there is more of an opportunity to become better acquainted in a small group, the Women's Campus Club is sponsoring a series of small teas for the senior girls rather than a large one as previously held.

All next week teas will be held at faculty women's homes with small groups of senior girls invited to each.

The various hostesses are Mesdames Adna G. Clarke, Felix Keesing, Ernest C. Webster, David L. Crawford, Andrew W. Lind, Harold St. John, W. J. Lind, J. Armstrong and Harold S. Palmer.

Channing Pollock Schedules Talk at University May 7

Channing Pollock, famed playwright, critic, novelist, and magazine writer, in his only program in Hawaii, will be presented by the University of Hawaii at 8 p. m., Friday, May 7, at Farrington Hall. Mr. Pollock will lecture on Modern Literature.

Call 9951, Adult Education Division, for your reservations. Seats are 75c and $1.

Ninety-two per cent of the freshmen at Pennsylvania State College have voted that a college woman should get married before the age of 25.

Bringing an eventful week to a happy ending is the annual junior prom of which the seniors are the honored guests, beginning at 8 p. m. in the University gymnasium on Saturday, April 24.

An outstanding feature of the evening will be the tango and waltz dance numbers by Carlos and Carlita who are students at McKinley. Also scheduled for the intermission program are hula dances by Margaret Mahi and Leonard Espinda who are also from McKinley high school.

Green palms, huapala vines, and green and white crepe streamers will turn the gymnasium into a cool, delightful dance land.

Harmony Seven will furnish the music for the evening.

Refreshments will be served. Chaperons for the evening are Dr. and Mrs. Felix Keesing and Mr. and Mrs. Carl Herron.

Other guests are President and Mrs. D. L. Crawford, Dean and Mrs. E. C. Webster, Dean William H. George, Dr. and Mrs. Thayne M. Livesay, Mr. and Mrs. Mark Westgate, Dr. John Coulter, Mr. Iwao Miyake, Dr. and Mrs. Earl Bilger, Dr. and Mrs. Arthur Andrews, Dr. and Mrs. Payne, Mr. and Mrs. Luke Gill, Mr. and Mrs. Otto Klum, Captain and Mrs. D. W. Brown, Major and Mrs. R. C. Cook, Mr. and Mrs. Carlos E. Haney, Mr. and Mrs. T. Searle, Colonel and Mrs. Adna Clarke, the Reverend and Mrs. Henry Judd, Dr. and Mrs. Walter Homan, and the Misses Betty Judd, Cenie Hornung, and May Gay.

Puarose Mahi, assisted by Abraham Akaka, is general chairman of the prom. Other committee chairmen are: decoration, Mitsuyoshi Fukuda and Charlotte Wong; refreshment, Alice Lee and Hitoshi Sakai; clean-up, Tommy Kaulukuku.

Red seeds plucked from the pods of the bixa orellana bush serve many University of Hawaii coeds as lipstick. The "lipstick bush" is quite common and widely scattered throughout the islands.

Dixie Dare

April 20, 1937.

Dear Dixie:

I have been going with a boy who lives some 40 miles from me during the school year. He has no car and so coming to town is rather expensive for him. However, he does come to town once in a long while and we both go out to a dance or movie.

During vacations and over some week-ends I go home to the country. He travels six miles to see me at my home. When we are not seeing each other we both have our affairs. We say nothing about it but I hear of his flirtations and I suppose he hears of mine.

This week-end I saw him and he asked me to write to him. What shall I do? Do you think I should continue going with him? I admit I like him and enjoy his company.

Tell me.

FLOUNDERING.

Dear Floundering:

Birds of a feather are reputed to get along quite well together, judging from my meager knowledge re birds and feathers. Not to be harsh, I might say that both of you appear to be wholesome flirts, in the truest sense of the word, and the letter might have come just as well from your much-travelled heartburn in the same tone and with the same queries you have jotted down for me to answer.

Going with him, I am willing to say, if you have no compunctions regarding flirting (I hope he feels the same), is quite all right. My one warning is that I surely will not be able to answer all subsequent letters that may come to this department from the rest of the group who comprise both your

Ka Pueo Will Meet Tomorrow Night

Ka Pueo will meet Thursday night, April 22, at Genie Pitchford's home. The main business will be a discussion of the various plans for Rainbow Vanities offered by the committee composed of Lindsay Neal, chairman; Lorna Nottage, Natalie Bishop, Genie Pitchford and Molly Webster.

and his alternating "affair" list.

I answer then for you as well as for the others. Keep your "affairs" as you choose to call them, on the up-and-up and the possibility of you being the victim of several "birdies" from the rest of the "feathery" flock will be reduced to practically nil, or approximately a gram of feathers, better known as a feather-weight.

If trouble should brew among the "winged" clan, hop to it, stir well and serve the doses of trouble on yourself with the remembrance that Dixie Dare once cautioned:

"It's quite a job to feather a nest for a batch of brooding birds and keep them from taking a peck at one another when mother-bird is on a 'wild-goose' chase with a neighboring gander."

DIXIE DARE.

Athletic Program for Jr. Week Is Announced

Junior Field Day Plans Call for Varied Games

The order of events for the Junior Class Field Day to be held on Friday, April 23, is as follows:

Time	Event	No. of men per team
3:30	Tug of war	Unlimited
3:45	Three-legged race	8
4:00	Horseback fight (boys)	6
4:15	Sack buck	3
4:30	Baseball (boys)
	Volleyball (girls)

The Engineers, led by Tim Ho, are favored to capture the field day honors on Friday, April 23, on Cooke Field. Captained by Victor Goto, the Aggie boys will be out to upset the Engineers, although the Arts and Science team and the Teachers College-General Science combine are not to be slighted.

Tim Ho and his warriors are expected to walk off with at least two events, while the Farmers are figured to capture the baseball crown. With an evenly balanced TC-General Science combine, Richard Noda and Douglas Yamamura might spring a surprise on the other teams. Henry Ogawa and his Econ sharks are considered to be the dark horse of the tournament.

"We have the field day championship in the bag," confided an ardent Engineer follower to the writer. The Aggie captain, Victor Goto, was not so emphatic in his expression but he stated that the Aggies are out to lick the Engineers. He is confident that his boys will win both the tug-of-war and the baseball series.

Richard Noda gave a warning to the other teams saying, "Watch our team go! We have organized a powerful group led by Tommy Kaulukukui, Kong Tong Mau, Harry Wee, Bernard Young, Ben Young, Hitoshi Sakai, and Masami Yamato. The other members on our squad, T. C. and Pre-Med. boys are equally good."

Otomatsu Aoki, the Econ Stooze, acting as a mouth-piece for Henry Ogawa, expressed his confidence of a victory for the Arts and Science team. "Of course, I can't take part in the games but I know that Henry Ogawa will have a strong team out. Men like Edison Tan, Snuzzle Wong, Masaichi Goto, Eddie Hamaishi, Fred Kono, and Herbert Choy are sure to knock the stuffings out of the other teams," he is reported to have said.

The baseball series will begin on Thursday, April 22, when the Engineers and the Arts and Science boys collide on the mauka diamond and the Farmers cross bats with the Teachers College-General Science team. With Tim Ho as their pitching mainstay, the Engineers are expected to wallop the Arts and Science boys. In the other game, the hard-hitting Aggie team should emerge victorious.

The championship games will be played on Friday, as the final event of the Field Day program, the winners meeting on the mauka diamond and the consolation game between the losers on the makai field.

The girls, under the direction of Charlotte Wong, are having their contests concurrently with the boys. The Teachers College girls with Phoebe Furtado as their captain are expected to walk off with the Field Day honors. Molly Webster and her Arts and Science-Applied Science combine should give the future teachers a merry battle.

Buck Quon Is Title Winner

Buck Quon of the junior class will defend his title as champion golfer of the University on Sunday, April 25. His opponent will be Ren Sutton.

Sutton easily eliminated Yoshio Taira five and four in the quarter-finals of the upper bracket, while

Junior Coeds Take Wahine Volley Series

With a decisive victory over the sophomores, the mighty Juniors, under the leadership of Captain Violet Lee, again captured the women's volleyball championship in their final game held at the gymnasium last Wednesday. Those in the lineup were Lucia White, Bok Hee Lee, Phoebe Furtado, Rosalind Philips, and Charlotte Wong.

Ever since they entered this institution the junior coeds have shown much talent in sports as well as in other types of activity. Last year they coveted the honor of representing the winners of women's intra-mural sports at the ASUH banquet.

In tennis, volleyball, basketball, baseball, swimming, and riflery we are represented by capable athletes as Margaret Whittington, Thelma Tenn, Phoebe Furtado, Lucia White, Charlotte Wong, Florence Wilder, Genie Pitchford, Marion Collins, Rosalind Philips, and Bok Hee Lee.

Among the members who have made the letter "H" of the WAA are Lucia White, Charlotte Wong, and Margaret Whittington.

Harry Ching lost a close match to Don Okamura one up on the 20th hole. In the lower bracket, Buck Quon won on default from Sullivan. Bert Mizuha beat Teddy Chang five and four.

In the semi-finals of the afternoon, Sutton repeated his previous performance with an easy five and four victory over Don Okamura. Proving a more consistent player,

Collegiate Sidelights

"L. H. Anon," Cornell University's mysterious benefactor, has made his third donation to this institution. The cashier's check of $35,000 will be applied to the endowment fund of the college of engineering.

Smoking in moderation might have a beneficial effect, says Dr. Arthur Binz, professor of chemistry at the University of Berlin. Coramine, a derivative of tobacco nicotine, stimulates the heart.

Ride-thumpers at the University of Colorado will have to curb their technique. The chief of police has promised a ticket to anyone who thumbs from the street instead of the curbing.

A ten-foot hind limb of the giant dinosaur Diplodocus, an animal that lived about 150 million years ago, can be seen in the display at the University of Michigan's museum.

When lessons, meetings, plays and outside activities pile up on the calendars of the girls at Stephens College, the president calls a "Stop day," 24 hours during which students can do what they please.

Being a live mummy isn't any fun, is the lament of a student in the school of drama at the University of Oklahoma. He had to stand still while ten make-up men worked for three hours on him, pasting strips of gummed paper around his body.

Buck Quon eked out a two and one win over Mizuha.

Quon and Sutton will play 36 holes. The champion will be awarded a silver trophy and the runner-up a silver medal.

Third-Year Men Shine in Campus Athletic Picture

Despite the fact that the Juniors are clinging to a low third in the inter-class sports competition, the class of '38 is not without its luminaries in the major sports.

Although Tommy Kaulukukui is really a Senior-Junior the Juniors have always felt that Tommy was one of them. Tommy is undoubtedly one of the best all-around athletes that the University has seen. Courageous, inspiring, to the end a fighter. In every sport that he takes part, he is the spearhead of the Rainbows' attack. He passes, kicks, runs and generally disports himself like no other "little man" in Hawaiian football history. On the basketball court he is one of the most accurate and consistent shooters in the islands. On the diamond he can handle any position in an adroit manner.

But best of all is his winning ways. Fame and blah do not go to his head. He is modest, genial, a man among men. Our contribution to the sports world in Hawaii.

Another Junior who has won the approval of the fans is snakehipped George Aki. For the last three years George has played the fullback position on the varsity. As a pass receiver he is right up with the best of them. With Tommy, he will form the nucleus of the Rainbow attack next year.

In track, George is a sure point-getter in either the broad jump, high jump, or one of the sprints.

Other Juniors who have played spirited football are: Roy Ahrens, who made up for his lack of weight with speed and courage. Warren "Bull" Haynes, who in his first year of football showed that

Barefoot Squad To Be Formed

The desire on the part of University students to play in the Citywide barefoot football league will be fulfilled this coming fall. The above fact will become a reality with the forming of a team composed of university students sometime within the next few days.

Those who are behind the movement are desirous that it be known to all interested in the venture that the team will in no way be connected to the University of Hawaii. The club will have no statements in its rules saying that it is being sponsored by the University nor is its name to suggest that it is affiliated with this institution.

with a little experience he will be a hard man to stop. Augustine Ahuna, though relegated to the sidelines with a knee injury sustained last year, deserves mention here for his ardent backing and support. If his knees hold up he'll be showing his wares in the discus throw. Big, burly Russell Quaintance, like Haynes, with a little more experience will be just the type to fill the tackle position which will be left vacant with the graduation of Captain Clark.
