PRIME MINISTER NEVILLE

Chamberlain of England is taking quite a beating for making concessions to Italy. In the Italo-English treaty of amity just signed, England even promises to try to get the League of Nations to recognize the Ethiopian conquest. For this he is censured.

It seems to us, however, that Chamberlain will go down in history as one of the greatest prime ministers of all time. He came to the helm of a ship of state that was steered straight for war. He recognized this and changed its course, made concessions to Italy and thus postponed, if not avoided, war.

It meant the sacrificing of certain ideals, like those held by Anthony Eden. It meant giving Mussolini a free hand to keep on helping "Baby-Butcher" Franco bomb more defenseless "military objectives," but it kept England out of war—and that is what should count for the English.

America could take a few lessons from Chamberlain.

SPEAKING OF FRANCO

reminds us of a picture published by Newsweek, which is not a leftist magazine, showing a row of what once were children. Now, they are mangled bodies, results of bombing of a "military objective." I counted up to 27 murdered moppets, but there are many more. If that bombing of Barcelona was bombing a military objective, the Loyalists must have lowered their enlistment age to about 6.

GERMAN NAZIS

in Brooklyn seized an undersized, crippled man and ordered him to kiss a swastika. "You'll have to kill me first," he said. They did their best to carry out the idea. Three of the Nazis knocked him down and kicked him continuously. Another tore an American flag from a pole and used the pole to beat the man about the head. Then they drew swastikas on his chest and arm, using both a bare pen point and a knife to do it.

A SEVENTEEN-YEAR-OLD

Nazi, in New York, was acquitted of carrying a 5½-inch knife, because Boy Scouts carry knives, too. Walter Winchell quipped that Boy Scouts use their knives to cut ropes, not throats.

Nazis took 50 Jews, deported them from Austria and left them without food or water on a little rock in the middle of the Danube. Rescued after two days by Czechs, they were then deported to Hungary. The Hungarians deported them to Austria and the Nazis there took them and dumped them back on the original rock. They were finally picked up by a French launch and taken to France.

Officials of the Non-Sectarian Anti-Nazi League in New York announced that they demanded either federal protection or permits to carry pistols.

All of the above are listed as the news answers to the UH professor's query as to why we criticize the fascists and not the communists. Communism is not a menace to America any more than the horse constitutes a traffic hazard. It's the shiny automobile of fascism, driven by a drunken driver, that endangers democracy.

Students Go To Polls Friday

Music Program Is Attraction At Convocation

Tomorrow's Features To Be Vocal and Instrumental Selections

Band music, vocal solos and instrumental solos will be featured at the concert tomorrow at Farrington hall during the convocation period. Mr. Carl Hancey, who is in charge of the program, has asked Mr. Carl Basler to sing several selections. Mr. Basler will be remembered for his work in the local production of "Madame Butterfly" several years ago.

Among the band numbers will be selections from Gilbert and Sullivan operetta, "Iolanthe," and the andante movement from Schubert's Symphony in C Major. The instrumental solos will be played by David Pietsch, Saburo Watanabe, and Harvey Shapiro.

The program will be as follows: 1. Selections by the U. of H. band—a. Entrance and March of the Peers (Sullivan); b. Andante from Symphony in C Major (Schubert).

2. Instrumental solos—a. Scenes That Are Brightest from Maritani (Wallace-Round), trumpet solo by David Pietsch; b. How Can I Leave Thee—Fantaisie (Ritter), clarinet solo by Saburo Watanabe; c. Atlantic Zephyrs (Simons), trombone solo by Harvey Shapiro.

3. Songs of the Sea, Carl Basler, baritone; a. Trade Winds (Keel); b. Sea Fever (Ireland); c. Sea Gypsy (Benedict).

4. Selections by the U. of H. band—a. The Pilgrim (Lake); b. Tout a Vous (O'Neill); c. Serenade from Harlequin's Million (Drigo).

Actors Learn How To Fence

Cedric Wodehouse Engaged To Teach Vicars and Stafford For Tovarich

Fencing lessons for two members of the "Tovarich" cast were started Monday night under the able tutelage of Mr. Cedric Wodehouse, local fencing expert, who learned the art when he lived in England.

George Vicars, who plays the male lead, and Robert Stafford, student who has been added to the cast to play the role of George Dupont, are the two fencing pupils.

Both Vicars and Stafford donned masks and jackets two nights ago in Farrington hall to learn the fundamentals of fencing. The two will engage in a rather lengthy fencing scene during the course of the play.

John Halliday, screen and stage star who will arrive later this month, is expected to lend a hand in polishing off the play which he knows so well. No further developments were reported by Director Arthur E. Wyman regarding the possibility of getting Mr. Halliday to do more than help in the directing work.

KA LEO SCHEDULE

In past years Ka Leo publication schedule called for only 48 issues per year. This year the schedule calls for 52 issues.

No paper was scheduled for this Saturday. However, in order to give the students first hand results of the ASUH elections Friday, Ka Leo will publish a special two page edition on Saturday morning.

After that, Ka Leo will be issued on May 18, 21, 25 and June 2.

An Editorial

This Friday, students will go to the polls to select their ASUH officers for the 1938-39 school year.

Numerous problems will confront the new set of officers. Among these will be the furnishing of the Student Union building, the integration of the ASUH sports program with that of the new director of physical education, the drive for completion of the Union building, and the various routine ASUH affairs.

In order that these problems may be met satisfactorily, capable, efficient and representative student body officers must be chosen.

The responsibility for this selection devolves upon the student body itself.

In recent years, the highest vote cast was 781, or 50 per cent of the total ASUH membership. Needless to say, any administration which represents less than 50 per cent of the total student body is not actually a representative body.

Voting is not only a privilege, but a responsibility. WILL THE STUDENT BODY TURN OUT TO VOTE FRIDAY?

IF THEY ARE INTERESTED IN CLEAN, CAPABLE, REPRESENTATIVE GOVERNMENT, THEY WILL!

Campus Lettermen Plan Wild and Woolly Musical Half Hour

The H club is going to town! And the day is Friday the 13th! Starting early in the morning, the lettermen will start their initiation of neophytes. At noon, they will transfer their activities to Farrington hall where they will stage a musical half hour, commencing at 12:45.

Starting the program will be a trucking chorus consisting of, among others, Tom Pedro, Francis Meyer, Walter Mookini and Snaky Hips Joe Kaulukukui. Following this will be a drill by the former Kamehameha boys to the tune of Yankee Doodle. This militaristic demonstration is headed by Best Soldier Herbert Cockett.

"Brother Sunshine" Fukunaga and Herbie Cockett will then engage in an adagio dance which is expected to be of the ultra-Apache variety.

Then Sam Kaapuni will lead the lettermen's glee club in several selections to be followed by mass crooning. Leonard "Akinake" Espinda will then combine with the aforementioned Snaky Hips Kaulukukui (otherwise known as Check-and-Bump), in a skit and a few imitations. Music by a trio consisting of Sam Kaapuni, Buddy Brown and Walter Mookini will top off the program.

Continuance of the H club initiation will take place on Saturday night after the Rainbow Relays, at a banquet set for Waikiki Lau Yee Chai.

A meeting of the H club will be held on Wednesday evening at 7:30, in the gym.

Berndt Trials Set For May 19

Nine Entered in Sixteenth Annual Extemporaneous Speaking Contest

Preliminaries of the sixteenth annual Berndt Extemporaneous Speaking Contest will be held on May 19, according to Herbert Choy, ASUH debate manager.

Entered in this first phase are Thomas Yee, Edison Tan, John Foster, Harry Oshima, Henry Choy, Bert Nishimura, Thomas Ogata, Fenwicke Holmes and Norman Chung.

Started in 1923 by Dean Arthur L. Andrews, the contest is named for Mr. Emil Berndt, a friend of the university who is interested in public speaking. The inception of the contest was the result of a talk given by Mr. Andrews at a Rotary club meeting, in which he lamented the lack of interest in and opportunity for public speaking at the university. Mr. Berndt then offered to donate $100 each year for this purpose.

Originally an oratorical contest, it has since become an extemporaneous affair. It is now sponsored by the ASUH and the awards are gold, silver, and bronze medals for first, second and third place, instead of the cash prizes formerly offered.

Last year the contest was won by James Carey. The topic this year is, "Resolved: that the Wagner Labor Relations Act should be repealed."

Ivy Orator Will Be Chosen Friday

Election for the Ivy Orator of University of Hawaii's 1938 graduating class will be held next Friday.

The election will be held simultaneously with the ASUH student body primary. The four Real Deans vying for Ivy honors are Lucia White, John Stone, Kenneth Lau, and Herbert Choy.

Nine Students Vie For Relay Queen Honors

Candidates Requested To Meet At Farrington Hall At 9:25 Thursday

Nine undergraduate girls have been selected as candidates in the annual Rainbow Relays Queen election to be held tomorrow. The candidates are Marjorie Carter, Barbara Smythe, Lucia White, Gertrude Furtado, Edean Ross, Audrey Kirk, Ruth Murphy, Margaret Purswell, and Elmire Pier-son.

The Relay Queen is elected to preside at the annual track meet sponsored by the ASUH and gives out the prizes to winners in the meet. This year's competition will be held at Alexander Field on Saturday, May 14.

The candidates are requested to meet at Farrington hall at 9:25 tomorrow as they will be presented at the convocation. The election will be held on Hawaii hall back steps tomorrow from 8 a. m. to 4 p. m.

The committee which made the nominations consisted of Augustine Ahuna, track captain; Ralph Yempuku, Rainbow Relays manager; and Tommy Kaulukukui, ASUH president.

Hawaii Union Stages Outing

Combination Picnic, Meeting Set For Kalamo; Marital Course To Be Discussed

Marital relations will be discussed by the Hawaii Union, honorary campus forensic fraternity, at the first outing meeting of the organization since its start, Friday, May 20, at the Kalamo Beach Club.

Invited to participate in the discussion are members, alumni members, advisers and friends.

The topic for discussion is "Resolved: that the University of Hawaii should conduct courses in marital relations," the topic used for the inter-organization debate series which was won by the Teachers College club. In charge of the program are Fenwicke Holmes, chairman, Robert Stafford and Harry Oshima.

Building Bids Opened Soon

Bids for the Student Union building construction will be opened at a meeting of the Board of Regents on May 19, according to latest information received from the office of the president. The regents will consider the bids at this time.

Construction will begin within a week after the bids are opened. This clears up an error in the last report that the cornerstone would be laid on June 18. This event will not take place until sometime in August.

Ernest Kai Success As Auditor, Alumni Prexy; Failure As Pig-Herder

"Pigs is pigs," but the one which arrived from Maui and placed in the care of Ernest K. Kai, auditor of the Territory of Hawaii, proved to be a severe pain in the neck besides. But then if you were a pig and there was a luau coming up I guess you'd run away too.

Young and healthy but sensing a hotter time than he cared to have, the animal came by steamer late last week with no one in the world to look to but Mr. Kai. Respected member of the community though the last named gentleman undoubtedly is, the pig decided that no one is to be trusted among a pork loving populace. He broke the makeshift pigsty constructed especially for him at the Kai residence and started off for parts unknown.

Hot Contests Expected In Every Division

No Action Taken Yet On Petition Naming Marty For President

The petition for Martin Marty was accepted by the student council upon motion of James Carey, and carried unanimously. The action took place at a special meeting called at 12:45 yesterday.

With student interest high and competition sure to be close, the electorate of the ASUH will go to the polls Friday to choose their officers for the school year 1938-39.

Voting will be carried on in a tent in front of Hawaii hall from 8 a. m. to 4 p. m.

Observers predicted that a record vote would be cast in view of the great interest evidenced. General popularity of the candidates plus their uniformly wide experience in student affairs point to hotly contested balloting.

Martin Marty, junior, was petitioned on Saturday, May 7, three days after the deadline set by the student council. Although no definite action has yet been taken by the council, ASUH president Kaulukukui and the few council members contacted indicated that the petition would be rejected as entered too late.

Marty's supporters claimed that the ASUH constitution says that a petition may be submitted any time up to five days before the election.

Examination of the constitution, however, showed that it says, "additional nominations may be made by submitting to the president or to the secretary, not less than five days before the date of the election. . . ."

According to Kaulukukui, then, the council had the right to set a deadline any time before five days. He further pointed out that over a week was allowed between announcement in Ka Leo of the deadline and the closing date. For that reason, the petition will probably be rejected.

Candidates are:
For president—
James Carey.
Katsuo Miho.

For vice-president—
Robert Stafford.
Kenneth Powers.
Bert N. Nishimura.
Norman Chung.

For secretary—
Ellen Stewart.
Kaliko Burgess.

Leading Educators Plan Conference Here June 19-25

Leading educators from all parts of the United States will be represented at the New Education Fellowship conference at the University from June 19 to 25.

According to Dean B. O. Wist, chairman of the conference executive committee, five educators have already accepted their invitations to address the conference. They include Lewis Mumford, author and lecturer; Dr. H. Gordon Hullfish, professor of education in Ohio State university; Dr. Will Carson Ryan, Jr., president of the Progressive Education association; and Frederick L. Redefer, secretary of the association.

Mr. Mumford has received wide recognition as a critic of civilization, architecture, art and literature. He is the author of numerous outstanding books. They include: "Technics and Civilization," "The Brown Decades," "The Golden Day," and his biography of Herman Melville. He has also contributed several chapters to several symposiums, including "Civilization in the United States," "Whither Mankind," and "Living Philosophies."

At the conclusion of the conference Dr. Hullfish will offer several courses in education at the University summer session. He is a member of the executive committee of the John Dewey society and of the advisory committee of the Progressive Education association.

Dr. Ryan, Jr., will act as president of the American section of the conference. He was the former director of education, and the United States Indian Service. He has made several educational surveys for the government and endowment funds.

Mr. Redefer is a member of the executive committee of the conference. He is one of the leading figures in world educational circles.

Numerous other progressive educators from the world will be here to address the conference, Dean B. O. Wist, chairman of the executive committee, announced today.

Ka Leo Staff Writer Finds Song Hit Has Unique Origin

By Don Burnett

Ever since Septimus Winner clefled his "Listen to the Mocking Bird," back in 1855, and sold it for five dollars, tunesmiths have been turning out American folk-songs year after year with unflinching regularity trying to rival "Mocking Bird's" sensational sale of 20,000,000 copies.

Hundreds of these songs are offered for sale each year. Said ditties are picked up by everybody from moppets to middle-aged medicos and hummed, whistles and Crosby'd until they are worn out.

For the past few weeks moppets, medicos, university undergraduates, et. al., have had another tune to wear out: "Ti Pi Tin." History of "Ti Pi Tin's" inception is unique and may even interest blase Hawaiians.

Cases of seasickness are quite common on ocean voyages; but cases of ocean nausea on land are very uncommon. Nevertheless, last December Cleffer Maria Grever, after being given a hypodermic injection for a face infection, became seasick lying in her bed many miles from the ocean. It takes a bagful of imagination for most people to see how any great benefit can be derived from seasickness; however, Mrs. Grever's waltzing stomach made her a small fortune; for as Maria Grever's bed tipped from side to side, Maria evolved the title for a tune that was to sweep the nation.

She set her idea to music and with the help of Raymond Leveen produced "Ti Pi Tin," got Maestro Horace Heidt to plug it—and the rest is fairly well known.

When "Ti Pi Tin" is dreamed up in best orchestral style, one naturally thinks the song must have been written by a romantic moon-kissed lover. Facts are disillusioning, for photographs of Mrs. Grever do not picture a romantic lover. Neither does she look moonkissed. Possibly this is because she has spent most of her life worrying over some 450 Spanish songs she has written. Possibly because it is hard to connect Hollywood glamour with grandmotherhood. Maria Grever became a grandmother some years ago.

Upon examining "Ti Pi Tin" we find that, though written by not-so-glamorous Maria Grever and under not-so-glamorous conditions, the song is undoubtedly of hit caliber for (1) it has a pleasing three-fourth time tune; (2) its theme does not soar above the mentality of a 12-year-old; (3) it uses standardized hit song words such as moon, soon, mellow, fellow, miss and kiss; and (4) it repeats its title eight times so that even the dullest of individuals can not forget it.

Unlike near-sighted Sep Winner, lucre-wise Maria Grever did not sell her song for a song. As a result of her increased income it seems obvious that for her next "Ti Pi Tin" Mrs. Grever can take an ocean voyage. After seeing what she can accomplish with a mere hypodermic injection and a vivid imagination, waltz lovers are anxious to see what she can do with a case of seasickness developed in the conventional way.

Jitterbugs, prone to scoff at anything dreamy, are having to admit that the Mexican waltz must have something, for last week in an age where swing predominates, swing-less Ti Pi Tin had sold almost 2,000,000 copies.

Popular opinion is, however, that Winner's "Mocking Bird" can continue chirping just as lustily as ever: its record is safe.

Friday the 13th To Be Eventful Day For University Student Body

Call it coincidence. Call it contemporaneous! Call it anything you want.

Friday the 13th! Black Friday. Lunar eclipse. An exam to ward off evil.

Black Friday will be a joyous occasion to a few, but to others it will be more than ill. Although no date has been set as election day at the university, several elections will take place, foremost of course being the ASUH elections. Simultaneously the Ivy Orator will be elected by the senior class, the Rainbow Relays Queen will be picked, the YWCA and Wakaba Kai candidates will go to the posts, among other things.

All indications point to the heaviest balloting in recent years. Interest is especially keen this year and students are taking more than the usual amount of interest in the elections.

Friday noon, H club neophytes will go through their paces in Farrington hall, being subjected to tortures by their older compadres. Friday night, when the black shadow is enveloping the moon, the wrestling artists will go on their annual eatfest.

Queer. Coincident!

Time Staggerers On . . .

By NORMAN K. CHUNG

Our conscience is hurt! Murder will out, the old saying goes—and so will swiping. "A nice collection of jokes," maliciously compliments (?) someone. And the columnist whose quips we swipe most frequently writes "Judging from the exchanges, all a columnist needs nowadays is a good sharp scissors."

Which makes us determine not to swipe any jokes for this issue only—if we can fill up the desired space.

Sounds over our radio on Friday nights:

Announcer: Now folks, we give you the Dipsy-Wipsy Query Quarter Hour, brought to you through the courtesy of the Dipsy-Wipsy Vanishing Cream. Experiments made in our modern laboratory have shown that in 3 1/4 seconds 99.44% of the wrinkles on prunes have been eliminated by our Vanishing cream. And, ladies and gentlemen, within 5 1/2 seconds, the prune vanished too. For fewer wrinkles, and fewer faces, use Dipsy-Wipsy Vanishing Cream! Now for our Query Box—What is three letter word for a small rodent?

Contestant: A Bee.
Announcer: No, no, Now gentlemen shall we give the lady another chance? It's a three letter word and rhymes with its natural enemy, the cat.

Contestant: Bat?
Announcer: No, no, it rhymes with that, but it starts with an "r."
Contestant: Uh—Er—Uh—Oh, I've guessed it! Rat!

(Loud applause.)
Announcer: Now, the next question is: Which of the following is a musical instrument? A pot, a typewriter, a violin, a table, a mango tree and a chair.

Contestant: Uh—long pause—uh—

Letterbox

To the Members of the ASUH: Since the Student Council will probably reject the petition for Martin Marty sent in on Saturday noon, which is five days before election, I submit this news-article as a letter.

Martin Marty, popular president of Atherton House, has been petitioned to run for the office of ASUH prexy. A brisk walk and an irrepressible smile reflect his friendly but businesslike personality.

While attending the Los Angeles Junior College, the largest of its kind in the world, Marty was twice selected as the "most popular man" on the campus besides running away in the elections which made him the most successful prexy that college had ever seen. Pulling the campus out of its lethargy, he made it one of the most active campuses on the Pacific Coast.

Marty was also an honorary member in the Hollywood 20-30 and Rotary Clubs, was vice-president of the Hollywood Community Dance Association, and was one of the organizers of the Hollywood Junior Chamber of Commerce.

During the past three years, Marty has traveled over 50,000 miles. He has visited most of the major universities and colleges on the mainland and has studied their administrative setups, gaining a wide perspective of student administration.

For the good of our University, I leave this article to your consideration with the hope that the petition is accepted.

Church of England Misses Opportunity To Meet Needs of Modern Society

For many years the Church of England has been torn between two schools of thought. One wants to make its doctrines very similar to Roman Catholicism, and the other wants to liberalize the Church's teachings.

To solve this problem, the Church, in 1922, appointed a commission to try to merge these differences.

The report of the commission, obviously composed of liberals, is interesting. It endorsed the theory of evolution, labeled miracles "possible but not probable," found evidence of the Virgin Birth inconclusive, accepted the Resurrection as the "central fact in human history," and decided to "suspend judgment" on the existence of angels and demons. They also outlined a method by which Methodists, Presbyterians, Quakers and other former Church of Englanders, might rejoin the mother church.

The hierarchy, however, was displeased. It said that "the Bible affirms the Virgin Birth, the Resurrection, the occurrence of miracles, and the existence of hell, heaven, angels and demons. It was opposed to admission of priests of other sects because that would destroy the apostolic succession . . . since the time of the Twelve Apostles." Further, they said that "doctrinal standards" could not be ignored.

It appears that the Church of England is missing a great opportunity to get in step with modern society. We feel, that it is not for modern society to get in step with the church. The church is an institution of society as a whole, and therefore it must reach the people if it is to exist.

This does not mean that the principles of the church must change. But actually the only principles of the church are the teachings of Christ, summarized in the Golden Rule. The other phases are dogmas of the church itself—the frosting on the cake. And it seems to us that the cake is more important than the frosting.

The days of the hell-and-brimstone threats are gone forever. Missionaries are now telling Eskimos that hell is cold. Some churches have explained away the now proved evolution by calling the Bible explanation symbolical.

All of these, however, are not the essential part of religion. The importance of Christian principles of love and peace are not dependent on whether or not there are devils, angels, heaven or hell. They are ideals which make for a better world and the other part is the opiate which Marx spoke about. But the love that Christ taught—that is, the principle of the love—would still be of paramount importance in this world, even without the Resurrection, the Virgin Birth et cetera.

Christianity, and all religion, could get along without the unreasoning, symbolical, dogma that has been tacked on by human beings. This is not essential to Christ's teachings. It is not whether or not St. Peter started the Church that counts—it is the concept of love that is important.

People today are gradually getting so that they can eat the cake without the frosting. And the frosting is getting rancid anyway. The duty of the church is to remove that rancid frosting and let the people get to the cake.

Deans Shine in Kahanamoku Swim Meet

University swimmers showed Honoluluans that students seeking higher education can be athletes as well.

A bouquet of orchids to every member of both the women and men's swimming teams for their good work in the Duke Kahanamoku Meet.

Special credit to James Armitage and Joan de Vis-Norton for cracking the records in the 100 yard freestyle, men novice, and 100 yard freestyle, women open.

Little Lulu Kea seemed to have an off night, but what a plucky youngster and what a thrill she gave the spectators in nosing out S. Tamagawa in the 100 yard breaststroke, women's open!

Congratulations to the Citywide and Hui Makani teams for winning the meet.

Gloria Baker, world's best dressed debutante, and the newly-wed Pershings were seen enjoying the meet, especially Clara Inter's hulas.

Old and young packed the Punahou tank and heartily applauded the winners.

Stubby Kruger and Duke Kahanamoku thrilled and pleased the audience with their swimming skit.

Both of these old timers are still in condition and would give some of the youngsters a thrilling race.

University backers gave the university swimmers the much needed backing, though they were spread all over the audience.

By winning the 400 yard relay, the men and women teams reminded the spectators that besides being co-sponsors of the meet, the university was represented by fine swimmers in it.

Heads off to Graduate Manager Theodore (Pump) Searle and his assistants, "Shorty" Ralph Yempuku, and his secretary, Beatrice Ching, for promoting such a successful meet.

The university ushers should also receive credit for their little appreciated, but valuable work.

Ray Melim and his loudspeaking system did much to make the meet a success.

Deans Beat Sub Base, 9-3

In one of their practice games, both for the green and white ball players and the Sub Base hurlers, the varsity nine beat the senior leaguers by the score of 9-3 in a tilt played last Friday on Weaver field at 2 p. m.

Toshio Kameda twirled the nine innings and had the seamen eating out of his hand. The whole squad gave Kameda wonderful support.

Captain Tom Kaulukukui, Mione Katagiri, and Ogawa were the best hitters of the day.

Chuck Johnson arranged the game with the Navy team.

Pacific coast athletic authorities are planning a 150-pound football league.

H Men Meet Wednesday

In order that complete plans for projects to be carried out in the near future may be made, president Thomas Kaulukukui has called a meeting of the H club for 7:30, Wednesday evening, at the gym. Among the things to be discussed are the musical half hour, set for Friday at 12:45, the annual banquet, and initiation of new members.

Invited to the meeting are Rupert Saiki, Tom Kaulukukui, Augustine Ahuna, J. DeSilva, James Carey, L. Duponte, E. Lum, A. Espinda, A. Ho, M. Kinoshita, and R. Noda.

Neophytes are V. Akee Choy, C. Young, J. Bustard, F. Springer, T. Ho, F. Meyer, V. Dang, H. Kometani, K. Powers, H. Ogawa, F. Miiki, F. Holmes, J. Butchart, K. Chung, S. Kaapuni, S. Kaapuni, G. Aki, B. Nishimura, J. Kaulukukui, C. Johnson, E. Gerner, L. Silva, F. Kauka, J. Clarke, A. Stranske, H. Cockett, J. Lowe, F. Tom, W. Mookini, A. Campbell, T. Pedro, J. Armitage, A. Komori, P. Fourteen Boys Win Soccer 'H's'

A record list containing fourteen candidates for soccer letters was approved by the Board of Athletic Control last week.

The boys who earned their letters are Captain Tim Ho, Kanemi Kanazawa, Kayo Chung, Masayoshi Kuwata, Peter Chang, James Carey, Harry Chu, Katsuso Miho, Dave Butchart, George McEldowney, Herbert Cockett, Raymond Aki, and Harold St. Denis. Mun Charn Wong was awarded the student manager "H."

With the exception of Captain Ho the entire squad is sure to see service next season. The Deans, with such a veteran squad back, should go great guns in the Honolulu hoot mon conference next spring.

Ho, who will be leaving in June, has been a member of the Dean soccer eleven for the past four seasons. And within that four year term, Timmy has shown that he is a goalie of no mean ability. He capped his work on the local soccer gridiron by being selected as the Oahu's goalie in the Territorial Soccer championship, which Oahu won, and he also kept goal for the Honolulu Stars against the Corinthians, champions of the city of London, England.

A "war and peace" library numbering approximately 1,000 volumes has been given to Iowa State College by Carrie Chapman Catt, world famous woman suffragist.

Attractions To Liven Meet On Saturday

Plans are nearing completion for the ASUH Rainbow Relay Carnival to be held this Saturday on Alexander Field at 1:30 p. m. Besides the added royal spectacle of a queen and her court, the carnival will offer music and the special ceremony of awarding the winning athletes their prizes. Further information on the Rainbow Relays will be published in the next issue of Ka Leo.

The teams entered are Palama, Citywide, Waimanalo, and University. Trials will be held Thursday on Alexander Field at 4 p. m.

The order of the individual events and the university entrants are as follows:

100 yard dash novice—Joe Kaulukukui, Ed Lum, Nolle Smith, Al Lee, Jack Becker, and Ed Medeiros.

100 yard dash open—Francis Meyer, George Aki, James Clarke, and McEldowney.

120 yard high hurdles—John Bustard, Francis Springer, Art Stranske, Ben Young, Jack Becker, and Al Lee.

220 yard low hurdles—John Bustard, Francis Springer, Ben Young, Al Lee, Nolle Smith, and Jack Becker.

Indoor Volleyball

One of the greatest upsets in the interclub indoor volleyball was the defeat of the H club at the hands of the Commerce club in a game played last Friday at 12:30 in the gym. The results of the sets were 7-11, 11-8, and 11-9 in favor of the Commerce lads.

Slamming was the outstanding feature of the game, with both teams having their full share of this form of attack.

Gus Ahuna, Ernest Won, Joe Kaulukukui, Vernon Akee Choy, Richard Noda, and Rupert Saiki played the whole three sets for the letter earners. Their opponents, Ivanhoe McGregor, Sadao Tsumoto, Masanori Kono, Buddy Brown, Takeo Kimura, and Henry Ogawa battled them throughout the hour.

The other game played last Friday in the gym at 12:30 was overwhelmingly in favor of the YMCA. They beat the Hakuba Kais in two straight sets, 11-7 and 11-1.

The Japanese boys were no match for the machine like team of the Christian Association. The Kai's were outclassed throughout the latter part of the game, although they did put up a game fight in the first set.

Junichi Buto, Richard Tatsu-yama, Wah Kau Kong, H. Lau, H. Wong, Duke Choy and Wah Jan Chong played for the victors. Their opponents were Sam Watanabe, Nathan Yamamoto, J. Takumi, E. Lam, R. Strohin, and H. Matsunaga.

Fighting for every point and playing fifteen minutes overtime describe the terrific volleyball tussle between the CSA and TC played last Monday at 12:30 in the gym, in which the CSA beat the TC's, 11-1, 11-15 and 15-8.

A. Y. Wong carried the brunt of the attack for the Chinese. He did most of the slamming and placing. Walter Ling and Frank Lau did most of the feeding. Meanwhile Tom Pedro was using his height to advantage and continually brought the ball down upon the heads of his opponents. Tai Hee Lim and Bert Chan Wa did the setting up, with Takahashi picking up Wong's slams.

Tin Seong Goo, James Chow, and Robert Wong were the other players of the Chinese students' team. Besides Pedro and other previously mentioned players, Melvin Tsuchiya and M. Takaki represented the future teachers.

The first forfeit since the beginning of the interclub indoor volleyball league is charged to the Engineers, who defaulted to the Aggies in a game scheduled for last Monday.

By this default the Aggies have the game credited to them by the score of 15-0, 15-0.

May 11, Wednesday—H club vs. Hakuba Kai; Commerce vs. CSA.
May 12, Thursday—YMCA vs. Engineers; Aggies vs. TC.
May 13, Friday—H club vs. CSA; Engineers vs. Hakuba Kai.
May 16, Monday—Aggies vs. Commerce; TC vs. YMCA.

Interclass Swimming Meet

Homer Cheats Rainbow Nine Of Clean Slate

With the score at the end of the ninth inning in a 5-5 deadlock, the Wanderers' substitute first sacker, Dyer, smacked one of Thomas Ige's balls for a circuit clout, which decided the game between the Wanderers and the university nine. The game was played on John Wise field last Saturday.

After the heartbreaking home run, the varsity lads went to bat with their war clubs with blood in their eyes, but were unable to tally a run. This is the varsity ball players' first defeat.

Captain Tommy Kaulukukui led the Deans, making two hits out of four trips to the plate. In making those two hits, Tommy drove in three of the five Rainbow runs.

Major Desha pitched for the major part of the game, with Toshio Kameda and Thomas Ige as relief pitchers.

Deans Beat Army Nine, 7-4

After dropping a heartbreaker to the Gypsies on Saturday, the varsity nine journeyed to Schofield on Sunday to bring home the bacon by defeating an Army nine, 7-4.

As it was a practice game, the green and whites used three hurlers, Ige, Kameda, and Desha. All pitched fine ball.

Stanley Saiki, understudy for Sus Tanaka, shared honors with Captain Tommy for the best hitter of the day. Saiki made three hits out of three tries one being a three-bagger. Captain Tommy made four hits out of five tries.

The New York University basketball team has averaged just a bit less than 50 points per game during the last five years.

Yacht Club Will Be Scene Of Sorority Dance

In spite of the superstition about Friday 13, that is the date that Gamma Chi Sigma has chosen for its annual spring dance which will be held at the Pearl Harbor Yacht Club.

Though there are skeptics who will warn that no good can come of having a dance on Friday the 13, the members and guests are nevertheless anticipating a good time.

Eric Rabe and his stooges will provide the snappy music for the evening's dancing.

Refreshments will be served.

Prep, Army Spikeesters Bolster Citywide Squad

By William Gee

This is the third of a series of articles on the different teams that are to participate in the 14th annual Rainbow Relays Carnival which is to be staged at the Alexander field this Saturday afternoon.

Filling their track and field barge with a host of prep school spike artists and not a few outstanding service cindermen, Coaches Martin Phillips and Ralph Olson of the Citywide are out to prove to the most confirmed skeptics that the Citywide outfit will grab top honors in the 14th annual Rainbow Relays Carnival, this Saturday at the Alexander field.

Foremost among the Phillips-Olson tutored spikeesters are diminutive Haruo Yoshioka and bulky Wayne Sterling of the championship McKinley high school spike outfit, middle distance men Chester Stewart, Kimball Chun, and Herbert Scharasch, and the Army pit eventer, Andy Nations.

Several Firsts

With Yoshioka hitting 10.1 consistently during the past few days, and with young Sterling and Nations flinging the 16 pound shot and discus to amazing distances, the Citywide cindermen threaten to cop the blue ribbon in those events.

Besides Stewart, Chun and Scharasch, Citywide has other crack distance runners in Joe Garcia, Robert Strohlin, Harold Smith, Rudolph Peiler, Alex Weir, and Edelberto Balingit.

The remaining Citywide distance men are Charles Scott, Dan Duvauchelle, Robert Paris, Herbert Browing and James Bevan, quarter milers; Ted Murray, Stephen Toth, John Fryxell, and Tsuneji Kumashiro, 880 yards; and Louis Rocha, Avery Pershall, Vernon Harry, and Richard Chillingworth.

Nadal to Jump

An indication that the Citywide-men may win the high jump event is the presence of ebony hued William Nadal of McKinley high. The slender Nadal has been hitting the high spots in practice regularly.

Here are the remaining boys on the squad:

Sprinters—Gilbert Larsen, Shigefumi Sato, Pierson Dean, Walter Faria, Kenneth Ray, Vernon Bogan, Al Schurnk, and Eugene Strohlin.

Hurdlers—Don Smythe, Shigefumi Sato, Thomas McKinley, and Santiago Fella.

Javelin throw—Lucius Jenkins. Running broad jump—Haruo Yoshioka, Jean Gomard, George Chu, and Walter Faria.

Pole vault—Junichi Murakami and Fred Strohlin.

Pentathlon—William Lum and George Monlux.

Etiquette and advanced etiquette are Cleveland College courses.
