RAINBOWS NOSE OUT NAVY

Dr. Bruce White Returns from Mainland Trip

"I noted many things that I would like to see put into practice here," said Dr. Bruce White, Dean of Student Personnel, referring to his recent survey of the mainland colleges which took him cross country on a seven month tour. Leaving last June, Dean White visited 14 universities to study procedures and problems of admission, registration, student activities, veterans, and students housing and returned to the campus in January.

Dean and Mrs. White and son, Bruce, Jr., began with a two week survey of the University of Minnesota and continued on to tour the universities of Wisconsin, Michigan, Michigan State, Chicago, Northwestern, Ohio State, Penn State, Columbia, Arizona, Whittier, Pomona, USC and Stanford.

"We saw more former University of Hawaii students at Michigan State than anywhere else. They came flocking to us when they spied the UH sticker on our windshield." The Whites were also impressed with the fact that everyone on the mainland was greatly interested in Hawaii.

"Most of the problems in the mainland schools are the same as here," commented Dean White. Most noticeable of them were: they are all overcrowded; 60% of the students usually are veterans; all the state institutions are closed to

Thriller Ends 60-59 for Fighting UH Cagers

By TETS USHIJIMA

In one of the most thrilling games ever to be played at the University gym, our roaring Rainbow basketball team trounced a fighting Navy All-Star team, champions of the Pacific Ocean Area, last night before a cheering capacity throng by the score of 60-59.

All the cheering came from the Navy rooters and the University backers who almost tore each others' hairs out in their enthusiasm. Harry "Clown" Kahuanui with his 21 points and Bobby Kau with his masterful exhibition of dribbling led the Rainbows through a well-earned victory. The fans simply went wild during the second half when both teams scored basket for basket to see-saw for the lead.

In the first half the mainland bound Rainbows led all the way. The opening combination of Bobby Kau, George Malama, Ed Loui, Damien Rocha and Harry Kahuanui saw "Hot Dog" Loui, Mr. Thin Man himself, get bumped and make good on a free toss. He followed up with a neat field goal. A few seconds later Rocha pushed one in from the side. Half-time score stood 29-21 in favor of the Rainbows.

Casaba Manager Is Hustler, Man About Campus

"Wait 'till Jackie gets here. He's the ref."

"Hey, Jackie, I'd like to get in the cribbage tourney."

"See Jackie Wong. He's got the schedules."

Who is this man-about-the-campus you may ask? None other than Vernon "Jackie" Kwan Juck Wong, student director of intramural sports and varsity basketball team manager.

A business and econ major, Jackie returned to the UH campus in February 1946 after service with the HTG in 1942 and later a Navy CB unit in the Philippines. A 1939 graduate of St. Louis college where he made his letters in basketball, he entered the University the following year. When war broke out, he was a junior in school.

Bert Chan Wa, UH cage mentor, credits much of the splendid progress of the basketball team to Jackie. "He is always hustling, bolstering team morale, and is very valuable in helping me drill the boys," asserts Chan Wa.

Mr. Begelman, faculty director of intramural activities revealed, "The department is very fortunate to have such an able and enthusiastic personality working on its athletic program."

Jackie was married while in the navy to the former Jean Lau and is now the proud poppa of a 19-month-old son.

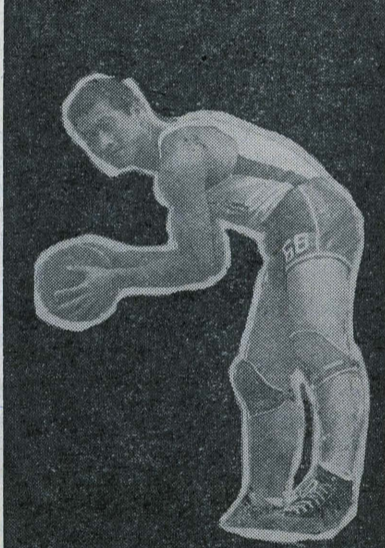

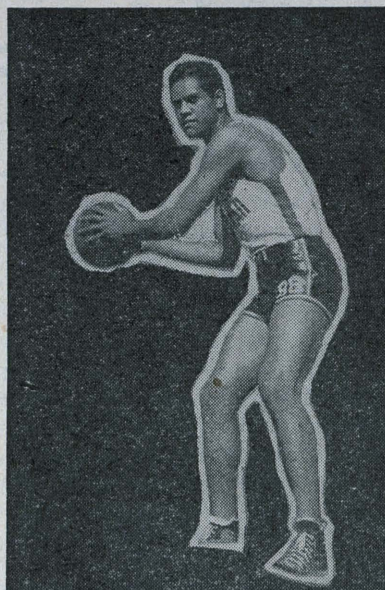

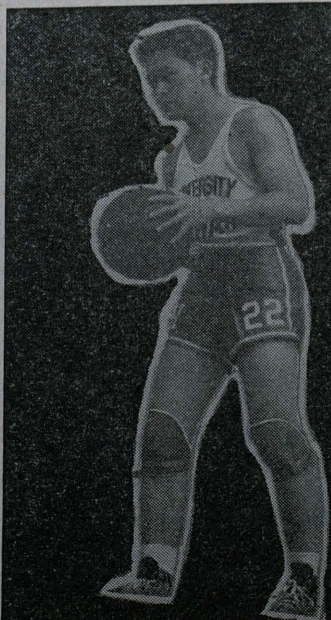

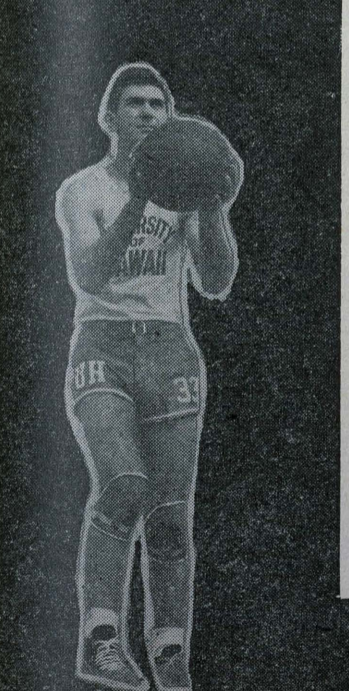

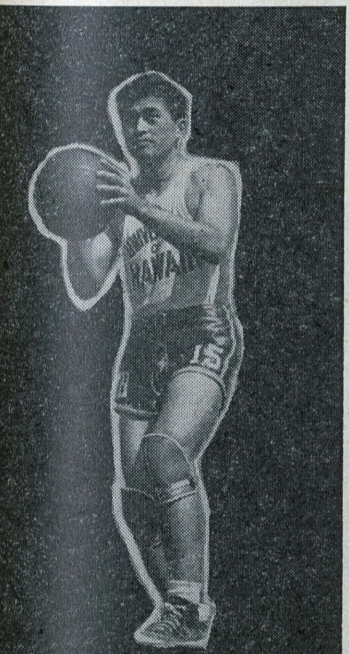

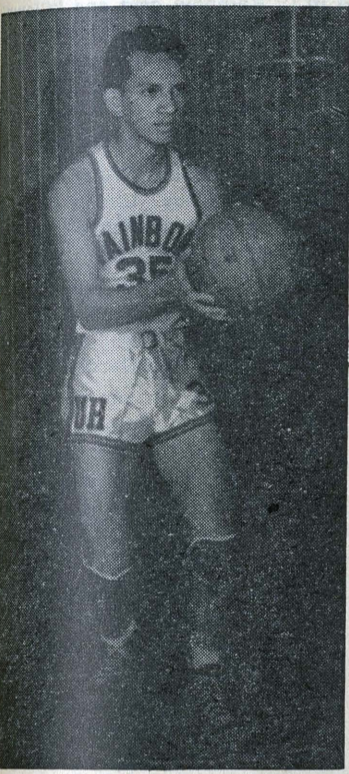

The fireworks started in the second half when Navy changed its tactics and practically burned the court with their speed. With four minutes remaining in the game the score was 52-51 in favor of the Rainbows. Malama was fouled and made good on a free toss. Wells (No. 8) tied the game up a few seconds later with a goal. Then Ellis put the Blues ahead with a swisher. Their momentary lead ended when Rocha, Kau and Kahuanui followed up with six precious points. The crowd saw Navy score two more baskets and witnessed a masterful display of ball-handling and dribbling by Bobby Kau. If anybody is going to "make good" on this mainland trip it is going to be this boy Kau.

Altogether there were 52 fouls with both teams committing 26.

The first game of the evening went to the Sports Stars who bested Ewa by a score of 32-20. Richard Asato of the Stars scored 19 digits to be high point man.

Athletic director Francois D'Eliscu presented trophies during pre-game ceremonies to the invitational League champs, The Rainbows; to coach Edward Namilimili of the Runner-up Sports Stars; to high point league man Harry Hee of the Nuuanu Y; to "Hot Dog" Loui for the most free throws; to "Clown" Kahuanui for the most valuable league player.

Leader Norman Rian's UH band added inspiration and variation to the evening's program

Tracking Down

By Satoki Yamamoto

Upon viewing the outstanding prospects who are daily practicing, it must be admitted that the '47 UH team is of championship caliber. In 1941, a great University team coached by Tommy Kaulukukui won both the Rainbow Relays and the AAU championships. Will this year's team be the second one to win both championships within 15 years?

Competition from Citywide and Army

Keen competition is anticipated from the Citywide team, coached by the well-known Bert Hooper. Citywide can be expected to combine all of the best runners on the island, including a number of track men from the various branches of the services.

To make the competition more formidable than previous years, the Army team will be represented by only one team. During former years, no individual civilian team could ever hope to defeat any consolidated army team.

The University team, notwithstanding the terrific competition, will vie for first honors with the two top teams. Almost daily bright prospects are reporting to Jack Begelman, amiable and respected coach, or to Buster Sagawa, team manager, raising the total number in training to over 60.

Returning Athletes Augment Team

Lettermen already in training are Alfred Laureta, Thomas Shintani, Howdy Goss, George Uyeda and myself. Oakley, the island's ranking 440 dashman, hurdler and broad-jumper, will be practicing within a few days upon recovering from a foot injury. Prexy Wadsworth Yee is expected to find time to get away from ASUH problems.

Numerous outstanding men have returned to the U.H. Diminutive George Uyeda will be striving to repeat his past amazing performances of high jumping 6 feet and of broad-jumping 22 feet. George was the high-point man in the 1943 AAU championships.

Sprinter Beamer Here

Among the sprinters, Milton Beamer, former Kam school athlete and sprint champion, will definitely be an asset to the team.

Speedy George Lee was unable to display his ability at St. Louis because of the curtailment of track at the institution. Showing potentialities of rivaling his brother Albert, who holds the territorial low hurdles record while running for the University, George was again prevented from showing his wares in 1941 after a brief display with the UH team. In practice George's proper running form and potentialities are evident, pointing toward a great season.

In addition to Lee, Beamer, Uyeda, Oakley, and Shintani, other sprinters who can be counted upon in the relays are Charlie Bessette, Rocky Sugino, Kenji Kawaguchi (Maui's ace sprinter), and Howdy Goss.

Weight Men, Too

Elwood Van Gieson, who has never failed to win places in the AAU shot-put events and who is expected to do so again this year, is teaching the skill to Johnny Dang, former Maui athlete who won last year's interscholastic event. Philip Haake, William Paris, Harold Silva, Frank Dower, and many other big men are learning the art of throwing the javelin and discus from Tommy Kaulukukui.

Middle Distance Runners

Francis McMillan, former 440 yards dash prep title-holder from Kam is rapidly rounding into condition.

Walter Donaghue, present holder of the interscholastic mile record from Roosevelt, is faithfully trying to regain the stamina that made him unbeatable. Ivan Fujinaka of McKinley, the outstanding miler in prep circles a few years ago, will be practicing upon becoming accustomed to studying.

In addition, Benjamin Liu, Hitoshi Ikeda, Leonard Song and Yee will present great 4-mile and 2-mile relay teams.

Straddlers and Western Rollers

There are at least five men on the team who used to high jump 5 feet 10 inches or over. They are Uyeda, Laureta, Bob Lambert, Jenjo Yasutome and Oakley. What terrific competition! Lambert is the brother to the 1940 University track captain who used to win at least three first places in a single AAU affair. Captain Comney of the ROTC department will be helping these jumpers.

Such intense competition among the team members will mean that each one must be in top condition. These luminaries must also contend with the other enthusiastic aspirants who are comparatively novices but who will be heard from in the near future.

The 1947 track team is a well-balanced one, formidable in every event. With Mr. Begelman's expert coaching and with the aid of proficient assistants, the team has an excellent chance of running off with the Rainbow Relays on May 17 and with the AAU championships on May 24.

Vets Hand UH Second Defeat

By Sydney Levey

Exploding for three runs in the fourth inning, the Veterans' handed the University its second defeat of the season in a Winter Loop game played Wednesday night at the Honolulu Stadium, the score being 6-1.

A single by "Lefty" Hamada started the scoring off Walter Hirana, but Kai's grounder to third forced Harada at second. Sembiani and Hamamura singled in succession to score Kai, and after Tanaka flied to Kaulukukui at short, Okazaki singled in two more runs.

At the time of the three run outburst, the Deans were leading 1-0. After Dermot Ornelles got to second on an error by the third baseman, another two-base error by pitcher Goro Moriguchi brought him to pay dirt.

The Veterans made it 5-1 in the seventh when a "bean" and hits by Nakahara and Hamada brought in two more runs. They finished off the scoring for the night by getting another marker in the eighth on an error and a passed ball.

Goro Moriguchi went the distance for the Veterans' and allowed seven scattered blows. He gave out four free passes while fanning five. Except for the lone run in the fourth, he was never in serious trouble, although the Rainbows had two men on and none out in the first inning.

The University team started Walt Hiranaka on the mound, and he went four innings giving out three runs and five hits while walking one and fanning one. Harry Kitamura finished the game, giving out two hits and an equal number of runs. Kitamura also walked one and fanned one.

Hamada and Okazaki of the Veterans each paired blows, and the Rainbows Eddie Higashino and Yukio Sakamoto got doubles.

The defeat gives the 'Bows a league record of one victory and two defeats. They will be out to even up their record next Wednesday when they meet the Truckers, the only undefeated team in the section.

Net Tournaments

Tennis enthusiasts will have an opportunity to display their skill in the men's all-campus open tennis tournament to be held this month.

Those desiring to enter the singles division are asked to sign up by Feb. 18 while Feb. 26 is the deadline for entries in the doubles division. Balls will be furnished for the semi-finals and the finals.

All interested men are asked to contact Howard Lau or Walter Lai, or sign up at the gym or at Hemenway hall where the schedules will be posted.

Volleybal . . .

All class and inter-club managers must hand in rosters for open and 5 ft. 6 in. division volleyball teams immediately to Mr. Jack Begelman at the gym.

Barnstorming Cagers Look Forward to Victories on Trip

By Donald Tong, Walter Lai, George Koga

Star Bobby Kau, crafty ball-handler, passer de-luxe and one of the 10 barnstorming Rainbow cagers to leave today by Pan Air constellation for a three-weeks mainland trip, is taking along a broom on the trip to "sweep them off their feet" and a mop "to clean up the mess afterwards".

The former Farrington high school star gave out with this "exclusive" to Ka Leo after last night's big game and indicates the one big common desire of all 10 men . . . to win all their games and to be a credit to their coach, Bert Chan Wa, and their school, the UH.

Bob Wong, Forward

Little Bobby, 5 ft. 4 in., is taking his first trip to the east coast, and like his buddy, George Malama, former Merchant Marine seaman, is especially looking forward to the Madison Square Garden game against the formidable St. John's five. Malama, stellar guard and titan on defense and rebounds, says, "We'll try hard to win."

Abe Cockett's big plans include an evening at the famous Stork Club in New York. A Kam grad and an outstanding high school player, he is still a little dazed from the announcement by the coach that he is one of the 10 men going with athletic director Francois D'Eliscu, Chan Wa and team manager Jackie Wong. He's a deserving man and one of the faithful cagers who has hardly missed a practice session since the initial turnout. Abe doesn't want to be president, just a successful M.D.

"Although it is the general consensus that St. John's will give

Badminton Tournaments

Entries in the men's all-campus singles and doubles badminton tournament to be played this month will be taken until Feb. 18 for the singles and Feb. 26 for the doubles, announced Howard Lau, tournament manager.

Equipment will be furnished by the Athletic department. All those desiring to enter should see Howard Lau at the gym or the Hemenway hall bulletin board where the schedules will be posted.

us the toughest battle, I believe that Western Kentucky will be the team to watch," says Abe.

The height of the team is represented strongly by Harry Kahuanui, elongated center (he's 6 ft. 4 in.). Rainbow grid end "Clown" a two-letter man, is looking forward with great interest to the St. John's game, but muttered last night, "Shucks! New York doesn't have watermelons in the winter."

Fifth man Bobby Wong, an Army vet like Ed "Boy" Liu, is planning to look up a filly in Philly (delphia). A grad of Mid-Pacific Institute, class of '40, Wong guesses it will be pretty cold up there on the mainland, but adds, "We'll make those games hot and that Garden a blaze."

Liu, a senior league vet besides a war vet, is a former letterman and a junior at the UH. Coach Bert Chan Wa expects the six-footer to tally his share of the team's scores. "Will I miss school?" Boy asked himself. "Heck, no!"

Donald "Duck" Fong, another army vet, was star guard for Farrington high and is a dependable guard on the casaba five. "I haven't even begun to study and here I'm leaving for three weeks," Duck told the sports staff.

Coming to Ed "Hot Dog" Loui we come to one of the deadliest set shot artists in the islands today. The St. Louis college product and the most valuable player in both the interscholastic league and the inter-island tournament last year, Ed has led the Rainbow squad in scoring this season. He was unanimously chosen as a forward on the all-star team.

This will be Hot Dog's first mainland trip and he confesses to be excited about hopping aboard that "America" bound plane. His big ambitions are: 1) to win; 2) to go to the 102nd story of the Empire State building; 3) to get an eyeful of the Rockefeller Centers beautiful Rockettes.

Dick Mamiya, another two-letter man, answered inquiries, "If this trip is anything like the football team's trip, it will be wonderful." Dick, who made the second string all-star squad in the Invitational League, has a unique shooting form which makes him one of the most potential hot-shots on the team.

Utility player Damien Rocha will not be a stranger to those parts, for Damien held a basketball scholarship last year at Oregon State where his brother, the invincible "Red" is showing.

Damien wishes, "I'm begging to have a game with Oregon State just to show them up."

These 10 men will be racing for the plane at 3:00 p.m. with Dr. D'Eliscu who stated, "I sincerely hope that our men will make, as I'm sure they will, a very commendable showing on their trip to the mainland. I know that the entire student body will be proud of their representatives from Hawaii."

Coach Chan Wa and student manager Jackie Wong say, "N.C."

Attention, Golfers!

All those who are interested in competing in the all-campus and all-class golf tournament should submit their names to Clarence Yee, golf impressario, as soon as possible.

Both tournaments will be held on the same dates during the latter part of February. Yee's Campus mail box number is 66.

Triple V Club to Celebrate Fifth Anniversary With Dance

By G. K. Yamamoto

Five years ago this month, not long after Pearl Harbor, 150 men students left the University of Hawaii with the blessings of President Gregg M. Sinclair. Fifty of them are back in school today. Right now they are expending their efforts to put over their Triple V anniversary dance on Saturday, February 22, at Hemenway hall.

Things were mixed up in 1942. Probably none of the Varsity Victory Volunteers quite foresaw their trials and travails. And certainly not their poring over textbooks in 1947. The men had written to the military governor of Hawaii to "use them for whatever duties he deemed fit". After all the members of Japanese ancestry of the Hawaii Territorial Guard had been discharged summarily, a labor battalion was the result.

The former students worked with the army engineers all over Oahu on roads and installations, on barbed wire defenses and rock quarrying.

At least partly, because of the VVV-AJA's doing military work on the bastion of Oahu—the war department decided to form a combat unit of AJA volunteers. In late January, 1943, the Triple V disbanded and a great majority of the group discarded their shovels and hammers for helmets and guns.

Most of those joining up fought in Italy and France with the 442nd combat team. Others served as interpreters in the South Pacific and in the China-Burma-India theater. Seven were killed in action.

Like any group of veterans, the Triple V returnees manifest various degrees of adjustment to the post-war world. Some are confident of the pattern they are weaving. Some are confused. Some have "itchy feet".

Members of the club have gone in for all kinds of activities on the campus. Coach Tommy Kaulukukui was an officer-supervisor of the labor battalion. Warren Higa, present president of the club, was the Collegiate Carnival concession chairman.

Spark plugs on the football team are Unkei Uchima and Jyun Hirota. Hirota and Eddie Higashino are members of the baseball nine. Satoshi Yamamoto and Mike Shintani are track men.

Student body vice president Eddie Okazaki is a real hustler. Kenneth Saruwatari surprised his friends with his forensic ability. Kats Tomita is the chairman of the UH War Memorial committee. Ralph Toyota was in charge of last year's statehood publicity pamphlet. Shigemitsu Nakashima is an ASUH councillor and on the YMCA cabinet.

YM Membership Drive

With the theme "Tomorrow's Leaders Must Be Trained Today", student co-chairmen Kats Tomita and Ralph Toyota have announced the opening of the University branch YMCA sustaining membership drive among faculty members and students. Working with the co-chairmen is Professor Iwao Miyake of the physics department.

The YMCA is a sound investment for the future of our community, and the University Y needs sustaining members, Tomita declared. A sustaining member, he went on to explain, is one who believes in the purposes of the Y program and who personally affiliates himself with it through voluntary membership contribution.

Inter-Club Meets Today

There will be an Inter Club Council meeting today at 12:40 p.m. in SS 103. All clubs with ASUH charters are urged to send a representative. On the agenda are the introduction of the newly appointed graduate manager and the scheduling of a regular meeting hour.

Football Subsidizing . . .

The letter to the editor that appears in today's Ka Leo and the recent article that appeared in the Honolulu Advertiser by Buck Buckwach in relation to the Tommy Miles case present an interesting problem.

We are in danger of confusing the issues. Ka Leo wonders if these stated approvals of football subsidizing are not worse than disagreeing with Miles' methods of taking local athletes away from the territory. When these people propose to give our boys a better break financially they are proposing increased subsidizing in no uncertain terms.

Our initial gripe with Miles, boxing commission secretary, is that he is doing nothing to keep our boys here. As a local man and a local athlete of prominence, he has been assiduous in using all his position and all his powers to entice our sports figures away from the islands. He has done nothing to make it more attractive for them to stay.

Buckwach, Young and others feel that greater subsidizing on the part of the UH is necessary to keep our athletes here. This is not new. The buying and selling of sports men has been in evidence all over the country for many years though it has been in the limelight in particular recently.

We must think carefully about this. Perhaps, increased subsidizing IS the answer. Ka Leo is not foolish or idealistic to the point where they believe players participate in sports for the love of the game.

We agree with Mr. Young's propositions that things should be made easier for our boys in the way of class work, that special classes, tutors, training tables should be theirs. Scholarship form another desirable item and jobs in the sports department should also be available.

But if we follow with Mr. Miles' principles, then we are simply encouraging the factor that is now a dangerous threat to American amateur sports. Laying realism, idealism and all other isms aside . . . are we willing to put our own principles aside by indulging in flagrant football subsidizing?

Aloha . . .

Our aloha to Coach Bert Chan Wa, the 10 cage stars, Team Manager Jackie Wong and Dr. Francois D'Eliscu, athletic director.

They are leaving today on an extended trip that will take them to New York, Pennsylvania, Kentucky, West Virginia, Illinois, Utah and Nevada and will carry them over many more states. Besides playing in big basketballs, these Rainbow athletes will serve as good-will ambassadors from Hawaii.

We know their trip will be a success. They have worked hard to enter into the big time and they deserve all the breaks they are getting. Let's give them a big send-off for their scalp-hunting trip.

Ed's Mail

(Ed. Note: Letters to be published in Ka Leo should be limited to 200 words due to lack of space. Editors reserve the right to condense all letters exceeding this limit.)

Dear Editor:

In last Friday's Ka Leo there was quite a rumpus about a certain Mr. Miles approaching our local athletes and enticing them to mainland colleges. And as I finished reading, the general conclusion was, Mr. Miles was a traitor to the local population.

May I present some other views:

1. In the first place what has the local university to offer? Has it prestige and an appreciative student body? The answer is obvious. The cream of the local youth is skillfully exploited for a year or so and then kicked out of school . . .

2. I believe that there are more opportunities for any student or athlete on the mainland. There, he improves his cultural background; has no necessity of dubious speech courses; and of course, has financial assistance in many disguised forms.

As I understand it, President Sinclair hopes to make this institution world famous, primarily through sports. . . . We are sending a basketball team to the mainland which I saw play the first time. They were ragged and indeed a very poor representative of a local team and a product of our local coaches.

We bully our athletes, harry them, threaten them, flunk them out, and we expect to achieve our aims. Yet, when they have better offers, we raise the cry of local athletes for the local university only. . . .

I believe what any student does is his own business, and if the university and its officials aren't up to date in policies, it's their loss and the community's loss.

Shoemaker To Speak On Korea

James H. Shoemaker, chairman of the department of economics and business, will speak on the "Economic Crisis in Korea," at the bi-monthly forum of the Commerce Club tomorrow, in SS105 at 12:30 p.m.

Mr. Shoemaker will deal specifically with his personal supervision of the economic survey conducted by the U.S. Army. He will also point out some features of the tense and tangled relations with the Soviet Union.

Several economic and labor surveys have been conducted under Professor Shoemaker's direction for the Territory and Federal Government and have proved of inestimable value to the proper direction of business and labor in the Pacific.

It is hoped that Mr. Shoemaker's discussion will throw some light on the hazy and confused picture of international economic relations in post-war Asia.

The floor will be open for questions immediately following the talk. The public is invited to attend.

Voicing for The Veterans

GI insurance has been termed the veteran's "best asset from service" by responsible members of government, commercial insurance firms and, in many cases, by the vets themselves. Yet only one veteran out of four has kept his GI insurance.

Veterans Administration figures show that 11 million veterans have let their policies lapse in comparison to 3 million now in effect. The VA has launched a national campaign to get the facts on National Service Life Insurance to every veteran in the land, in an effort to help the veteran.

A recent survey made at the University of Wisconsin indicates that veterans have made better grades than non-veterans; that the married ones have earned better marks than those single, and the veterans with children have made the best grades of all.

Veterans Administration has officially found that President Truman's recent proclamation ending hostilities has no effect on most of the laws administered by the VA. The date of the official termination of the war rather than the cessation of hostilities is the determining factor in establishing the deadline for the educational loan and readjustment allowance provisions of the GI Bill.

Approximately a million surplus textbooks have been distributed to veterans by the Library of Congress from the Army and Navy special Vanity Fair . . .

(with apologies to Thackeray)

By B. TOISHIGAWA

. . . whereby the writer queries on an ASUH project . . . the KPOA deal . . .

Somebody asked about the radio program UH was supposed to have. What happened to it? Well, it started off with a lot of enthusiasm, but it seems said exuberance petered out or somethin'. The last the radio committee was heard of, an interim committee was appointed to see President Sinclair, but could it be it got lost in a blizzard of lost interest and pessimism?

New dorms? . . .

The writer read that "a large scale program of new dormitory construction at the University of Hawaii as a 'cultural as well as a shelter measure' will be proposed to the next legislature by Governor Stainback."

Governor Stainback also said: "Dormitory living is part of the educational system in itself. Besides the relationship between students that it provides, it also gives them a chance to meet and know their faculty members on a social basis. They learn a great deal from it" . . . end quote.

'Tis encouraging. We hope the needs of dormitories on this campus reached the ears of our solons. Perhaps the students themselves can impress upon our legislature how much we need living quarters—living quarters, not make-shift shacks for students, by bombarding the legislators with letters and personal visits.

You know, I carry a gun and a knife in my jeep—because I shoot up this road and cut across that street. Ouch!

Unmarried Vets Get More Campus Housing

non-resident students. In addition, all are having trouble with textbooks and classrooms, most of them are building dormitories, some permanent and others temporary vets housing, in addition to trailers and barracks.

"The general picture all over is that the size of the classes is limited to the size of the rooms."

At the University of Southern California they found pre-registration lines 10 days before regular registration. "Most of the students stood in line from two to three hours."

Fishing trips and a month in New York were also on the White family's itinerary. "We had lots of fun. The only cold weather we experienced was a sleet storm in Texas and one cold day in New York," said Dean White.

The VA's new policy on medical treatment for veterans enables vets with service connected disabilities to obtain free treatment if they are unable to pay for such treatment.
