Thelma Sproat, Popular Junior Co-ed Elected President

BANQUET MAY 22

Minerva Saiki or Sophie Judd Vice-President

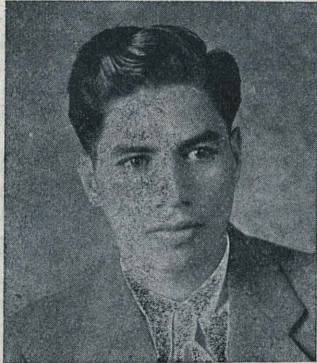

The Associated Women Students elected their next year's officers and the recipient of the ring award on Monday. The results will not be announced until May 22 at which date the A. W. S. will hold its annual farewell banquet. The banquet will be in honor of the seniors. At the same time, the officers will be announced and installed at a candle-lighting service. The ring award will also be made.

The ring candidate was elected outright at the election, thus making the final election which had been previously announced unnecessary. The four candidates who were voted upon were Rose Simerson, Winifred Piltz, Lizzie Yee and Ayako Kimura. The ring recipient must be a senior.

The following were the candidates for offices: Thelma Sproat, president; Minerva Saiki and Sophie Judd, vice-president; May Day Lo and Jane Fairweather, secretary; Hong Lin Wong, Gertrude Spillner and Winifred Ogawa, treasurer.

Thelma Sproat, present vice-president of the organization is general chairman of the final banquet. It will be held on May 22 at five-thirty at the Waikiki Lau Yee Chai. At this function, the seniors, being the guests of honor, will not have to pay the fifty-cents which is required of all other members who attend. Women students desiring to attend this banquet sign on the lists attached to the posters. Seniors desiring to attend make reservations with Lizzie Yee.

KILLAM SAILS SATURDAY FOR 'Y' CONFERENCE

Plans to Visit Exchange Students From University of Hawaii

Lloyd R. Killam, Dean of the School of Religion and executive secretary of the university Y. M. C. A., will sail on Saturday to attend the meeting of the National Council of the Y. M. C. A. to be held in Milwaukee, Wisconsin, the first week of June. He is one of three members who will represent Hawaii at this gathering.

Killam will also attend the National Student Secretaries' Assembly to be held at Estes Park, Colorado. This is a conference which is held once every four years. He will be gone for the summer months.

"The reason for my going early," said Killam, "is to visit colleges in southern California which have exchange students here. I will also make final decision upon next year's exchanges." There is a possibility that there will be an additional exchange student from the mainland next year, making a total of six. For the purpose of interesting them in the exchange plan, Killam will visit Pomona and Occidental colleges.

An interesting feature of his trip to southern California will be the presentation of silk leis to the various presidents of colleges having exchange students here. These leis, taking with them the aloha of the students of our university, will be carried by Killam. His plans also include visits to exchange students sent from Hawaii. While on the mainland, Killam will have the opportunity of attending the twenty-fifth reunion of his class at the William Jewell College in Liberty, Missouri. This reunion will take place in early June. Killam is looking forward with much enthusiasm to attending the opening breakfast with the rest of his former classmates. Dr. A. W. Slaten, well known lecturer and printer in Honolulu, is also a member of the class.

With Frank Wilson in charge, the exchange students here are planning the itinerary for Killam during his stay in southern California. Upon his arrival next Thursday on the mainland, he will visit Whittier. Later during the day he will visit La Verne and have dinner at the home of Bob Walker. On Friday, he will visit Pomona and Redlands. He will visit Occidental College on Saturday morning.

Killam also plans to do some sociological research work in New York. He also hopes to be able to go "fishing in Colorado" and attend the world's fair in Chicago.

COUNCIL SLASHES PAYMENTS TO UH STUDENT EDITORS

Action to Abolish Salaries Decisively Passed by A.S.U.H. Council

By an almost unanimous vote, the wages of the editors of the two campus publications, the Ka Leo and the Ka Palapala, were abolished, beginning next year, by the Student Council, the governing body of the A. S. U. H., at its meeting held Saturday, April 29. Only one dissenting vote was cast against the measure which was strongly recommended by the graduate manager, the president and the advisor of the A. S. U. H. The members of the Student Council felt that students should hold those positions for the honor and not the financial aspects they will bring.

For the last few years, there had been among the members of the Student Council, a sentiment opposing to members of the A.S.U.H. receiving pay for the offices they hold. Because several editors and business managers drew very large salaries previously, the Student Council in 1932 laid down a verdict that this year's editors will receive no pay if there is no profit made at the end of the year. If there is, the editors will be given a certain percentage of the profits, with the maximum being $100.

Because the business manager has a very heavy responsibility and must also work during the summer to clear and settle all the accounts, his wages will not be cut entirely if there is a profit accounted for, at the end of the year.

The motion as passed by the Council reads as follows:

Beginning with September 1, 1933:

(1) The editor-in-chief of the Ka Leo o Hawaii and the editor-in-chief of the Ka Palapala shall not be paid for their services.

(2) The business manager of publications shall receive all the net profit up to and including fifty dollars ($50) from the Ka Leo o Hawaii and the Ka Palapala funds, respectively. If there is any surplus net profit above $50 in each department, the business manager is to receive 40 percent of this surplus, the remaining 60 percent to be turned over to the A.S.U.H. general fund.

OSWALD BUSHNELL

Although I cannot pretend to have the full measure of experience that should accompany the high office I seek, I am sincere about trying to do my best. If you see fit to trust me with the responsible position of president, I shall do all I can to promote the best interests of the A. S. U. H. and the university.

Yang Chung Hui Elects New Officers On Saturday; Ten Selected

Yang Chung Hui will elect its next year's officers at its last business meeting of the year which will be held this Saturday afternoon. The nominations were made at an out-door meeting held two weeks ago at Waikiki.

The candidates for the presidency are Dorothy Nip and May Day Lo. Helen Quon and Peace Tan will run for the vice-presidency. For the secretary, the race will be between Eleanor Chun and Irene Leong. Florence Liu and Sau Gin Wong are the candidates for the position of treasurer. Betty Lo and Goldie Li will run against each other for the publicity chairmanship.

At this last meeting of the sorority, reports of the year's work will be made by the chairman of the various standing committees. The results of the election will not be announced until the final banquet and dance to be held by the sorority at which time the officers will be installed.

The present incumbents of the different offices are Maude Ho, president; Lo Yim Leong, vice-president; Wan Sen Cheo, secretary; Violet Wong, chairman. At this last meeting of the sorority, reports of the year's work will be made by the chairman of the various standing committees. The results of the election will not be announced until the final banquet and dance to be held by the sorority at which time the officers will be installed.

Glenn Young Is Winner Of Berndt Oratorical Contest; Edward Kent Receives Prize For Second Place

An exchange student from the College of the Pacific, Glenn Young, won the 11th annual Berndt oratorical contest held last Friday evening at the university lecture hall. He spoke on "Would postponement of attempts to collect the war debts aid materially in the economic recovery of the world?"

Second place was given to Edward Kent, whose question was "Is indefinite postponement preferable to the Roosevelt plan of 30 percent reduction in the amounts of the debts and payment of them in silver?"

A prize annually of $100 was created by Emil A. Berndt in 1923, to be divided among the winners of a competition in speaking, among university students.

The general subject of the contest was "Resolved, that attempts by the United States to collect the war debts should be postponed indefinitely." Special subjects on which the contestants spoke were not given them until 30 hours before the contest.

At the close of the speaking contest, each student was given a chance to make clear his stand on the question by answering three questions asked by another contestant.

President David L. Crawford presided, and judges of the contest were Barry S. Ulrich, attorney; Charles R. Hemenway, regent of the university, and Shunzo Sakamaki, former contestant in the Berndt contest, and now with the Mid-Pacific Institute. He replaced Senator David K. Trask, who was on Maui.

Other contestants and their respective topics of discussion were:

Norito Kawakami, "Would the advantages of indefinitely postponing attempts to collect the war debts outweigh the disadvantages of postponement to the United States?" Thelma Sproa, "Would postponement of attempts to collect the war debts make their ultimate payment more probable?" Margaret Bairos, "Is indefinite postponement of attempts to collect the war debts preferable to cancellation of the debts?" Theodore Martin, "If attempts to collect the debts are postponed, should the amounts of the debts be reduced?" and Isamu Sato, "Would indefinite postponement of attempts to collect the war debts tend to create international good will?"

Harada, Teshima Wakaba Kai Heads

Election Held May 5 in Dean Hall 103

Gladys Harada, junior, was outrightly elected president of the Wakaba Kai for the coming year at the last meeting held in Dean Hall 103, Friday, May 5, at 12:30. Dorothy Teshima was elected as vice president; Fay Fukuda, secretary; Marion Okimoto, treasurer.

Fellow students, in accepting the nomination for the office of vice-president of the A.S.U.H. I am well aware of the responsibilities attached to this office. My platform is "greater student control of student activities." During the past year I have served on numerous committees which functioned for the immediate benefit of the A.S.U.H. From these and other sources I have acquired more than an ordinary knowledge of A.S.U.H. activities. As a member of the "Board of Control" I obtained direct information about the financial structure of the A.S.U.H. and shall make use, if elected, of this knowledge in future student council deliberations.

Fellow Students:

In troubled times such as the present, the only thing that will pull an organization of the magnitude of the A. S. U. H. through a successful year is cooperation. While that is an overworked sentiment, yet this is one time when its truth must be seriously recognized. I will strive to win that cooperation for the A. S. U. H.

New Literary Club Has Elections And Suki-Yaki

The Oriental Literature Society held a suki-yaki dinner at the home of Dr. Tahara, Saturday, April 15th, and elected Ernest Tahara president. The other officers of the club are Hideko Sasaki, vice-president; Edna Hamamoto, secretary; Katsuki Shimazu, treasurer; and Shogo Abe, publicity manager. Prof. Gregg M. Sinclair is the advisor of the Oriental Literature Society.

Organized in February by ten university students for the purpose of stimulating interest in the literature of the Orient, the Society has at present membership of twenty-five students. Its intention is two-fold—to study and render interpretations of Oriental drama through play productions and to translate outstanding Japanese literature for publication. "The Passion" and three other plays by S. Mushakiji, translated by Nobuo Hidaka, O.L.S. member, with the assistance of Prof. Gregg Sinclair, has been the outcome of its first project. (This book is available at the University book store for $1.50.)

To project the dramatic literature of the Japanese people two plays have been selected by the Society for production during the summer session of the University—"Better Than Revenge," a tragedy in three acts by Kon Kikuchi, and the hilarious three-act comedy "The Petticoat Government" by Taro Kuwanjo. These will be produced in July.

Though still in its infancy the Oriental Literature Society has prospects of becoming as important an organization on the University campus as the Hawaii Quill.

At Florida State College for Women, the Staff of Plastacow, the College Annual, is sponsoring a skit night among other things to gather some financial support for the book.

Household Arts Dept. Displays Years Work

The Household Art Department under Mrs. Anna Dahl and Miss Hedwig Otremba is a very busy place these days. A display of students' work including dresses, suits and coats is on exhibition in Room ??? and living models exhibit these garments before the classes for criticism. One of the features of the first year course in design and dress construction is the made by students as contrasted with comparison and evaluation of dresses ready made garments of about the same price. This is made possible through the cooperation of the Liberty House, which not only loaned the dresses but throughout the year assisted the Department in the most friendly and helpful manner by supplying laces, samples of material and other goods for illustrative purposes.

The office of secretary will be filled by Roberta Irving who received a margin of four votes over her nearest rival-candidate, Gilbert Kobatake. The other candidates in this field were Rhoda Dunn and Wilfred Kurashige.

All four elected students have been active students on the campus. Sato, besides being the newly-elected president of the Japanese Students' Alliance, is also a member of the Hawaii Union and Y.M.C.A., and a debater of high calibre. Thelma Sproat is the president-elect of the A.W.S.

Sakai, Ah Wai Seto, Charles K. M. Tyau, Ellwood Wilder, Andrew Wong. These very attractive letters are made of felt and consist of a white H on a green background with a green-and-white target centered on the cross-bar of the H.

The camp team again won the Warrior of the Pacific trophy and the six highest men all qualified as expert marksmen. The gallery team won 20 out of 30 regularly scheduled matches.

H. Hall, S. Judd Win Mixed Tennis Doubles Tourney

Defeat Charles DuBois and Eugene Flemings in Hectic Match

The finals of the University Mixed Doubles Tournament came to a close last Friday when Harold Hall and Sophie Judd defeated Charles Du Bois and Eugene Fleming in three hectic sets; 8-6, 4-6, and 8-6.

at the net and in the backcourt was very spectacular. She returned many of Charley's smashes when they seemed impossible to get, besides volleying with great accuracy.

Euphene Fleming also played a heads-up tennis game and until Hall's final ace on her side of the court, her drives were always deadly.

Charles Du Bois played a fast game and like Hall, he admitted that he was tired when the tournament was ended.

Army Tracksters Win Rinbow Meet

By winning the half-mile relay, which was the last event of the meet, the Army track team carried off the laurel wreath in the ninth annual Rainbow Relay Carnival held last Saturday afternoon at Kam field. The Pals finished a close second, while Coach Derverill's spikesters finished a poor third. The score of the meet is as follows: Army 81 1/2, Palama 76 1/2, University of Hawaii 36 1/2, Punahou Athletic Club 33 1/2, and Citywide 2.

This meet was one of the greatest meets in the local history. Nine records were smashed. H. Smith, of the Army bettered the broad jump record by leaping 22 feet 3/4 inch. Lucas, the Pals "Express Train," was clocked 9:4 seconds in the century, lowering the old record by .6 seconds. Miller heaved the javelin 180 feet, 9 1/2 inches in the trials to better the old record. In the hurdles, Furtado won from Lum in the remarkable time of 24 4-5 seconds, which was 2-5 of a second faster than the former mark held by McQuire. In the pole vault, Brooks of the Army cleared the bar at 11 feet, 8 inches to set a new record. The other records that were broken are the two-mile relay, medley relay, four-mile relay, and the half-mile relay.

The Rainbow tracksters took one blue ribbon event, finished second in one, placed third in three, and fourth in one out of a total of seven relays. The crack one-mile team, composed of King, Anderson, Captain Capellas, and Centeio, won the one-mile relay in 3:32. The old record was 3:31.1. Those who placed in individual events for the Varsity are T. Smith, Graham, and Jenkins. Smith took fourth place in the pole vault. Graham placed second in the discus, and Jenkins placed third in the javelin throw.

Hawaii Collegians Beat Navy Sector In Tennis Tourney

The University of Hawaii Rainbows trounced the Navy Sector racquet wielders, 4 to 1, Sunday morning at the University courts.

The Varsity played brilliant tennis against the service team. Led by their captain, Harold Hall, the collegians dropped only one match, Suzuki losing to Maj. J. Huntington Hills, 6-2, 6-2, in the second singles match.

Pond Wins

In the first singles match, Pond triumphed over L. Richard Dole who last week defeated Bob Hoogs of the Beretanians. The match was bitterly contested. Both played a hard driving game and got in nice placements, but Dick was a bit steadier in the pinches—which fact decided the match in his favor. The score was 5-7, 6-4, 6-2.

William Hodgman and Harry Duncan defeated Lt. Gokey and Lt. Huff in a hard match, 6-7, 6-2, 6-3. In the other doubles skirmishes, the Varsity also triumphed, Arthur Yee and Andrew Wong defeating Major Crane and Lt. Hinds, 7-5, 6-1 and Harold Hall and Charles DuBois taking the measure of Gee and Parsons, 7-5, 6-2.

Rainbow Netmen Will Meet Palis For Championship

Varsity Netsters Must Win Five Matches to Retain Trophy

This Saturday, the Oahu Tennis League comes to an end, as far as our team is concerned, when we play the Beretania Palis for the league championship.

Up to date, we have played 25 matches, winning 21 of them. None of our doubles teams have been defeated. The Palis have won 18 of their 20 matches played and have five more with Schofield after they play us.

In order to retain the trophy for another year we must take all five of the matches against them. However, by winning four of the five we will be tied for the championship by having (six), as many matches as they. Another play-off will then determine the champions.

This burden rests on the shoulders of Dick Pond, who plays Bobby Hoogs, and Hodgman and Duncan who play Billy Hoogs and Fred Biven, the Islands' best doubles team. If they come through, it is likely that our other two doubles teams will win though it seems evitable that Suzuki will bow to Dick Hoogs in the second singles match.

The matches will be played at the Beretania courts at 2:30. Let's all turn out and inspire our team.

A.A.U. Volleyball Will Start May 15

The Senior A. A. U. Volleyball League will start on May 15 at the Central Y. M. C. A. court. Mr. Joseph Farrington of the local A. A. U. will take charge of the series. The teams entered thus far are: University of Hawaii, Citywide A. C., Central Y. M. C. A., and Aloha Amateurs. The winning team will be presented with gold medals.

Luke Gill will coach the Varsity team, and from the looks of the team in their practice games, they will be plenty hot. The following boys have turned out: George Hansen, Mark Westgate, Sun Leong, Raymond Won, Wilfred Godbold, Ernest Loo, Richard Weinberg, Maynard Piltz, Waldo Bowman, George Akau, and Lawson.

UNIVERSITY CAGE TEAM

By RALPH JOHNSON

(Special Ka Leo Staff Correspondent)

ABOARD ASAMA MARU, Apr. 26.—Enroute to Japan the University of Hawaii basketball team won quick popularity on board the boat with their Hawaiian music and songs.

The feature of the trip was the card-tournament among the players with Sam Toomey and Bill Baker coming out as winners. In their victory they were aided by the fact that "S. S." Kim was indisposed and unable to compete.

Not all was play on the trip over. There were some textbooks out and Francis Aiwohi looked especially worried over his history book. Once in a while Pat "Unconscious" Cockett turned through the pages of his Physics text.

To keep in condition the cagesters got up early in the morning and sprinted around the deck before breakfast. The distance was a mile and the players recommend nothing better to produce a good morning's appetite. In the afternoon the team went down to the first class gymnasium and had a work-out. Boxing, rowing, bicycling, horseback riding and weight-pulling were all on the schedule. Toomey was the bicyclist while Maeda took to horseback riding. A shower finished up the work-out for the day.

In the evening there were the Hawaiian songs in the center of a crowd of passengers. "Early to rise" necessitates "early to bed" and so the players turned in rather early and were interrupted during the night (it is thought) only by Baker's snores.

The team will be met in Japan by representatives of the Japanese Basketball Federation and will begin their series of games. The first team they meet will be the Meiji University team which recently toured the United States. Those making the trip from Hawaii are Francis Aiwohi, captain and forward; Pat Cockett, center and forward; Irving Maeda, forward; Soo Sun Kim, forward; Nobu Chiya, forward; Ernest Moses, center; Sam Toomey, guard; Ray MacArthur, guard; Francis Apollona, guard; and Bill Baker, manager and trainer.

Prexy Says—

Members of the A. S. U. H.:

Many have inquired why the A. S. U. H. elections have been postponed from last Friday to tomorrow.

The majority of the Student Council and the Graduate Manager after seeing last week's edition of the Ka Leo went on record as being opposed to holding an election on last Friday because of the attitude of the paper and the lack of publicity given to all the candidates concerned, except the Sophomore President. In all fairness to the rest of the candidates, the majority of the Student Council decreed that the Ka Leo for May 11, 1933, must carry the picture of every candidate and statements concerning the experiences, qualifications, and the platform of each and every candidate.

The Student Council is to be congratulated for adopting this intelligent, justifiable, and unprejudiced ruling.

By far the majority of the A. S. U. H. is in accord with the Council in this matter, and will not be swayed by flattering, prejudiced, narrow, untrue, political statements for or against any candidate. The majority needs not to be told how to vote, for it can think for itself. May its choice for each office be one who is able to think for himself, who has the courage to oppose even the A. S. U. H. and the faculty, if it needs be, who will stand up for the rights of the A. S. U. H. against all opposition, one who will not be led here and there by his nose by some one else's, one who can be trusted to work for the betterment of the A. S. U. H.

Sincerely yours,
VERNON HARRY.

CAFE ON MAT AGAIN; COMPARED WITH CORNELL'S

Many students at the University of Hawaii find it difficult to economize in the matter of meals due to the high prices of food at the school cafeteria. Perhaps offering a suggestion for a solution of this problem is an article in the March 23 issue of "Cornell Alumni News" entitled "Two Dollar Meals." It tells how undergraduates at Cornell have cut food costs by forming co-operative eating clubs. One paragraph from this article reads follows:

"Faced with the need for a radical reduction of living expenses, and often confronted with real want, Cornell students have shown themselves to be resourceful and courageous. One group has formed an eating club which will supply three meals a day to all comers at the amazing price of two dollars a week. The "club" has secured the use of a dining-room and kitchen in and through the courtesy of the Cosmopolitan Club at a nominal price, and by careful planning an dthe exercise of numerous little economies, it is confidently felt that a large group of indigent students can be fed for a price from University funds makes the end that is almost unbelievable. A subsidy tire plan feasible."

Many students at Cornell, according to the article, have been trying to save money by buying small apartments and cooking their own meals. Now these students can secure three square meals a day at as little as twenty-eight cents a day, and spare themselves the drudgery of home-cooking. The meals furnished by these eating clubs are not soup-kitchens by any means. "The food is of the highest quality, capably cooked; the menus are attractive and planned with an eye to nutritive value as well as cheapness." Labor-sharing in such tasks as washing dishes and waiting on tables further helps to cut costs.

University of Hawaii students might well take note of these enterprising Cornell students. Perhaps next year some courageous student here may start an eating-club similar to those at Cornell and help cut down the present ridiculously-high cost of meals at the University of Hawaii.

a clever yarn having all to do with the mirth-o-maniacs invading the land of lonesome ladies and missing men. This feature will be shown at the Hawaii the three days starting this coming Tuesday matinee.

Tiffany Thayer's sensational novel "Thirteen Women" strikes on the Hawaii screen this coming Friday and Saturday with Irene Dunne, Ricardo Cortez, Myrna Loy and Jill Esmond in the leading roles of this mystery tale that unfolds strange sorcery wrought in the lives of thirteen women with each one doomed.

DOLLY
HEART-THROB
SAYS ...

Dear Dolly:

They tell me its an ill wind that blows no evil but really, Dolly, the wind that blew in that French training ship has blown nothing but evil ever since. Why dog gon' it Dolly those French boys have worked with such finesse that where once I had a perfectly steady girl now I haven't even a fond memory. Now I ask you Dolly, what's a guy gonna do in a case like that? I feel that the sailor boys have a girl in every port but Honolulu in my only mooring ground. What'll I do?

Dangerous
Ans.—Maybe when the French pay their debts they won't be able to send out a ship load of romeos.

Dear Dolly:

Why must life be so selfish, so unreasonably impartial? Dolly, I look the whole world in the fact but it turns its back on me.

I'm now a hard-working "Soph." I aim to please the "profs" and my aims are generally realized. Life was just one sweet song, until a month ago, think of it! only thirty days have I been tortured thus. My! it seems years. My trouble was caused by that personality contest for girls, which as you know was held last month. Among the few feminine contestants I was placed. This hurt my feelings dreadfully but "mama" consoled me, by saying that my manners were genteel to the point of being ladylike. This quality makes a "hit" with the girls who put me on the same high standard with them. But this is not all. When the girls' contest was over one for the boys was held. Why, Dolly, I know you won't believe it, but my name didn't even appear. Papa was more astonished than I, for, he has always called me, and most appropriately too, his little "Sir Galahad" for I am such a knightly lad.

Oh! Dolly I'm so utterly depressed, I don't think I can even finish out this term.

Can't you help me find the solution to this perplexing problem.

Correspondingly yours,
Perceival

My Dear Perceival:

A little observation on your part will help you solve your own problem. Don't you know that "Fauntleroy" are passed. What today's "Miss" wants is the cave man.

When your "papa" can change his adjective describing you from "knightly" to "nightly" you may be assured of success.

Wishing you peace,
Dolly.

Dear Dolly:

This crazy sophomore is driving me nuts. Why are they all so persistent, so overly blessed with the weapons of Venus. I've done nothing to deserve this treatment besides I'm a junior and junior girls are much too intellectual for sophomore boys.

I hate to bother you but Mother has utterly failed in soothing my troubled heart. Won't you tell me now to rid myself of such a pest. Every time I see Tom on the campus I smile—not because I like him—but because I was taught in Europe that this was only courteous.

Oh! Dolly, every tooth I show brings him a yard nearer—he approaches in leaps and bounds, mistaking my smile for an invitation. Now he wants me to go to the dance with him. How can I get out of accepting?

Courageously yours,
Nancy

Dear Nancy:

All that you were taught in Europe may not be worth remembering. If you possess, as all women do, the gift of gab—harness it and give Dick a spicy bit of your tongue. This won't corrupt your morals and I'm sure will bring you comfort. I might also advise you to wear dark glasses—these have proved quite useful to many of the other coeds—your eyes Nancy dear are quite magnetic.

Wishing you peace,
Dolly

Student Comment

May 8, 1933.

Dear Editor,

Diverse opinions, especially among the Chinese students, have been expressed concerning the selection of exchange students to the mainland. Students here are inclined to believe that a person who has the "pat everybody's back" type of personality would be most successful as an exchange student. There has also been a "kick" against the quiet and reserved type of students to represent the University of Hawaii. As far as I know most of the colleges prefer the latter type because the contacts of the former are usually of a superficial nature, but the friendship of the latter are lasting. And here is another thought: Do not judge the success of the returning exchange students by the number of extra-curricular activities which he carries. The success of exchange plan can only be measured by the contribution the student makes to society five years, ten years, or twenty years hence. Extra curricular activities are but means to a preparation for community activities. If a student can take part in community activities, for example leading a boys' club, why should he waste his time on collegiate extra curricular activities?

Yours truly,
Kum Pui Lai

"Ten Nights" To Be Presented

Footlights Reviving Old Stage Classic

The return of beer brings reminiscences of days which are vividly portrayed in scenes from "Ten Nights in a Bar Room," the pre-Volstead stage classic which will be revived by the Footlights tonight, tomorrow and Saturday nights.

This idyll of Pilsener and pathos was the favorite theatrical fare of a quarter century ago. Its lines are perfect examples of the ranting melodramatic school of the stage which has long since disappeared.

The play calls for four women and seven men characters. There is the conventional "heavy villain," the two comedy roles, the hero, who is reformed after a life-long battle with the liquor habit, his little daughter Mary, crippled in a saloon brawl, and several lesser parts.

Those who will have roles are S. S. Peck, Harvey Hitchcock, Walter H. Dillingham, Jr., Mary Breed Atkeson, Jim Wahl, Helen Hitchcock Maxon, Blake Clark, Lloyd Pruett, R. U. Melville, Olive Presler Hensel and Josephine Cutler.

Both Lloyd Pruett and Josephine Cutler are University of Hawaii students.

Palmer Explains Make-Up Evolution

"It's this way," Dr. Harold Palmer stated in explaining to his survey class last week, what evolution was.

"Take, for example, the women's make-up. First, it appeared only on the cheeks. Then it got on to the lips. A little while afterward and we discovered it on the finger-nails. And I'll be darned if you don't go down to the beach and find it on the toe-nails!"

"Now that's evolution!" he concluded.

Phi Beta Kappa Holds Annual Banquet

The annual banquet of Phi Beta Kappa, the national honorary scholastic society, was held at the Pacific club last night. The speaker of the evening was Dr. A. W. Slaten who talked on "The Intellectual Life."

Dr. Leonora N. Bilger is President of the Honolulu association. Other members of the University faculty who are members of Phi Beta Kappa are: T. M. Livesay, E. M. Bilger, W. B. Coale, W. Thomas, C. Delamere, H. St. John, H. M. Luquien, A. Lind, Charles H. Neil, John S. Donagho.

Hunter Bulletin informs us that a fine of six pence is imposed at the University of Edinburgh for cutting classes, the revenue from this being used to buy the president a Christmas gift every year—Last year's gift was a cigar.
