Walking Trees

Ha-la trees are the trees that walk, That whisper and sing. Ah-

That chatter. And talk

Their legs are many and

poco agitato

Cresc.
Thin, and long
And They

rustle
Their branches to sing a

Song.
And This is the Song, the Song, of the Ha-la

Just look at me and Tree.

And if you look in my long

No. 1
Green hair. Sometimes you'll see pineapples growing there.

Just look at me and you will see the talking, walking pineapple tree.
