Allen J. Riedy is Head of the Asia Collection, Hamilton Library, at the University of Hawai‘i-Manoa. He was born in Sandusky, Ohio. He earned masters degrees in Asian Studies and Library and Information Studies from the University of Hawai‘i. Most of his previous work has revolved around mainland Southeast Asia, his academic specialty. Recently he has been active in coordinating and facilitating projects to digitize unique archival materials held by the Asia Collection and creating online indexing resources.

Kuang-tien Yao (姚張光天) is the China Specialist Librarian at the University of Hawai‘i Library at Manoa. She holds a MLS degree from the Graduate School of Library and Information Sciences, Simons College, Boston and a MA degree in Asian Studies from University of Hawai‘i. Her research interest is Chinese films. She has been elected to be the Chair of Committee on Chinese Materials, Council on East Asian Libraries for the 2008-2011 terms.

Daniel C. Kane was born in Madison, Wisconsin. He holds a MA in Korean History and MS in Library and Information Science from the University of Hawai‘i. From 2007-2009 he served as the Korea Specialist Librarian at the University of Hawai‘i and currently works as a Korea Analyst with the Department of Defense. His primary research interest is Korean history, more specifically Catholicism in early modern Korea, Korea’s early relations with the West, and contemporary North Korea.

Tokiko Yamamoto Bazzell works as the Japan Specialist Librarian at the Asia Collection Department of the University of Hawai‘i at Manoa Library since 1999. Originally from Japan, she holds an MS in Library and Information Science from Catholic University of America and an MA in Teaching English as the Second Language from Southern Illinois University at Carbondale. She writes a wide range of subjects in librarianship and issues in libraries and information and Japanese studies fields.