

Palmer Reveals Rules on Banks Contest

Two Changes Made; February 26 Set as Deadline Day

Rules for the fifth annual Charles Eugene Banks Memorial contest were announced late yesterday by Professor Harold S. Palmer, member of the Phi Kappa Phi committee, in charge of the contest.

Two changes have been made in the rules of the contest. Translations will no longer be accepted and only regular undergraduates are eligible to enter. February 26, one week after the close of semester exams, will be the deadline for the contest. All manuscripts entered must be typed on 8½x11 paper and may include any type of independent literary effort, such as essays, poetry, plays, short stories or editorials.

All manuscripts should be signed with a pen name with the author's real name enclosed in a sealed envelope accompanying the entry, and handed in to Miss Helen B. MacNeil in Hawaii hall 115 by the deadline date. Any candidate may submit as many entries as he wishes.

A prize of $20, representing the interest on the Banks Memorial fund, will be available this year.

Judges of the contest will be Dr. Arthur L. Andrews, Mrs. Arthur Withington and Mr. James Chun.

Besides Miss MacNeil and Dr. Palmer, the Phi Kappa Phi committee in charge of the contest includes Miss Laura V. Schwartz, and Dean B. O. Wist.

Any further information desired may be obtained from Miss MacNeil in Hawaii hall 115 or Dr. Palmer in Dean hall 4.

Hawaii Union Meets Thursday

Members To Discuss Subsidization of College Athletes At Chung Home

Subsidization of college athletes will be the topic discussed at the monthly meeting of the Hawaii Union, honorary forensic society, tomorrow evening, December 9, at Norman Chung's home, 817 10th Avenue.

Three junior interclass debaters, Norman Chung, James Carey, and Bert N. Nishimura, will defend the negative side of the question against the "football" debaters, David Lum, Francis Brickner, and Thomas Kaulukukui, who are speaking against the San Jose debaters next Monday. The three university speakers have been invited to this meeting.

Newly elected Union members including Robert Stafford, Fenwick Holmes, Harry Oshima, Sing Chan Chun, Ralph Van Brocklin, and Thomas Ogata will be presented at this meeting.

George J. Peavey and J. Theodore Morgan, former advisers of the society, who were recently elected honorary members, will also be presented.

Herbert Choy, debate manager, is president of the Union. Other officers include James Carey, vice-president; Bert N. Nishimura, secretary; and Norman K. Chung, treasurer. Dr. N. B. Beck and Dr. W. Norwood Brigrance are advisers.

Hunter, Cassaday To Be Mick Alumni Speakers

Dean Webster also announced that cinches for the second six weeks will be posted before the Christmas recess begins.

Carey, Tan Only Candidates in Vice-Presidency Election to be Held Friday

No nominating petitions having been received by the student council, James Carey and Edison Tan will be the only candidates in an election to be held Friday in front of Hawaii hall to fill the vacancy in the ASUH vice-presidency.

Thomas Kaulukukui, ASUH president, will head the election committee which is composed of Lucia White, Katsuso Miho and Kaliko Burgess.

Both candidates have been active in ASUH forensic activities. Both are members of the student council, both are presidents of their respective classes and both are varsity and interclass debaters. Carey was elected temporary ASUH vice-president by the council last week.

An interesting sidelight on the election is that whichever one is elected, another election must be held to fill the seat in the council thus vacated.

Quill Contest To Close Soon

Entries Must Be Handed In To Club Officers Not Later Than Wednesday, Dec. 15

Students are reminded that the Hawaii Quill contest will close officially next Wednesday, December 15. All those who desire to enter the competition are requested to get their manuscripts in immediately. The rules for entrance are still posted on the corridor bulletin boards in Dean hall, Hawaii hall and the library.

Active members of the organization are also reminded that they must hand in some contribution by the middle of December in order to retain their active membership standing.

Chinese Refugees Held As Japanese Spies in Canton

By Alma Lai

John Ku and William Yee, both seniors in the College of Arts and Sciences, were held for Japanese spies in Canton, August 20, when they went to visit their ancestral village. Evidences for this mistake were: first, Ku had a camera; second, he had a picture of his Japanese girl friend; and third, Yee did not know where his native village was.

Chinese army officials stopped them at Macao for they looked very suspicious with their Japanese features, polo shirts and elephant hats. To make it worse, Ku and Yee did not even know how to speak the village lingo. The first word that Yee uttered didn't sound like Chinese to the ears of the officials.

The two boys were then ordered off the bus. Their baggage was gone through carefully. Ku and Yee were then thoroughly questioned, but the official could not find charges against them. Not being satisfied, a troop of Chinese soldiers royally escorted the boys to the village headquarters.

On the way, all the villagers spied Ku and Yee and shouted at the top of their voices, "Lynch those spies."

At the village headquarters, the

Bouquets to Cheering Section

On behalf of the University football team I wish to congratulate and thank the student body for the fine support shown us during the San Jose game. You can be sure it had lots to do with the fine showing put up by the team. I hope you will carry on the fine work in the coming games.

TOMMY KAULUKUKUI,

Captain, University Eleven.

December 5, 1937.

Mr. Thomas Kaulukukui
President, ASUH
University of Hawaii,
Dear Tommy,

Through you I want to congratulate not only the football team, but the students of the University as well, for the splendid showing made at yesterday's game. I am sure that the enthusiastic support they gave the team was a real inspiration and help to you and to your teammates who put up a dandy fight against a heavier and more experienced team.

The fine spirit of loyalty to our University and of good sportsmanship shown yesterday by the students and by the team more than justified my confidence in them and in you, and make me very proud of my connection with the University and with the ASUH.

With aloha nui loa,

Very sincerely,

C. R. Hemenway,

Chairman, Board of Regents.

If the board sanctions the trip, the team will leave about January 23 to play in a round-robin series with the Honolulu Matson quintet and two Maui casaba squads.

As the proposed junket will not interfere with the regular ASUH senior basketball sked, it is expected that approval of the board will be given.

The Library Window

The University of Hawaii is an institution of higher learning with the greatest number of "racial" organizations. Off hand one can name at least nine groups that require racial qualification for its membership.

Now, one can explain such a set-up as the natural consequence of the conditions of the university. We possibly represent a greater number of racial and cultural extraction among the student body than any other institution of higher learning. Just as the community has organizations of different races so will the students at the university tend to bind themselves as races.

But if we claim to be the melting pot of the Pacific, if we claim that there is no racial discrimination on the campus at least, if we claim to be Americans all, does not the presence of racial clubs nullify all of those claims? More important still, doesn't it hinder the assimilation of the various races here?

The purpose of our clubs is to preserve the more desirable traits of their culture for the benefit of the people of Hawaii. In the process of Americanization each race is confronted with problems that are peculiar to that race, thus causing each to form an organization. Social intermingling is possible only on the racial lines... such has been the "raison d'etre" of these groups.

But how often are these hopes disregarded or slighted and consequently the club existing as a group which thinks only of its race functioning among its selected members—selected according to their racial lineage.

Again doesn't the very fact that you join a racial group defeat the purpose of Americanization? Furthermore, if the club is a social organization doesn't it create social disharmony?

Library Window claims that the period of racial organization is a thing of the past. There was a time when they were needed and desirable. In the future there must be some other bonds beside racial lineage which binds a group together. Social organizations along racial lines are a hindrance to the assimilation of races here.

The University of Hawaii does have the greatest number of racial organizations among all the institutions of higher learning. Everyone contemplating to join one of these organizations should ask himself, why should I join? What are its purposes? What does it mean if I join? Socrates once said that an unexamined life is not fit to live.

News story handed in to Ka Leo (before correction): The Student Union building will contain a cafeteria, a soda fountain, a lounge and a porch which may be thrown into the ballroom.

Hats Off To May Gay! We Needed That Support

We want to say THREE ROUSING CHEERS for the valiant and glorious work of our Roaring Rainbows against the San Jose Spartans Saturday.

We continue that more than a little of that glory goes to May Gay, that intrepid person who roused such spirit in the grandstands as has not been heard in many many moons. "Let's have it again, boys," was her password, as cheer after cheer rose into the air, with May Gay herself shouting loudest and strongest.

Over fifty girls, led by Miss Gay, were responsible for the enthusiastic spirit shown and the grandstand showed its eagerness to cooperate by backing that spirit.

Time after time our Rainbows held down their adversaries, as the crowd, with the thunderous shout of "FIGHT, HAWAII, FIGHT," urged them on to battle. Time and again, they fought through the lines, as the inspiring yells of "Right Down the Line, Boys," carried them on.

These backers were richly repaid for their support.

Again we say, bouquets to May Gay for the rebirth of SPIRIT to our University!

Will You Vote? Will You Be a Good Citizen?

The resignation of John Stone from the ASUH presidency a month ago resulted in a vacancy in the vice-presidency when Thomas Kaulukukui, former vice-president, automatically became president.

With James Carey, junior, and Edison Tan, senior, as candidates, an election will be held this Friday.

Never before have candidates for an ASUH office been so equally qualified as Carey and Tan. Both have been active in the same major activities, both are presidents of their respective classes. This election will be followed by another to fill the vacancy which will be created in the student council by the election of one or the other to the vice-presidency.

Thus far, in other elections of the ASUH the returns at the polls have been anything but satisfactory. The small percentage of voters have indicated a lack of interest among students on this campus with issues that vitally concern them. They are waiving one of their opportunities as citizens of the student body. This lackadaisical attitude can only be looked upon with discredit.

Let us not be indifferent Friday!

Phi Ep Pledges Undergo Rigors of Annual Initiation

Have you seen the latest? Those poor Phi Epsilon pledges. They are really to be pitied. The Ka Leo staff calls on your better nature to help them along in this, their week of trials and hardships.

It seems they must wear red socks and gold hair ribbons, which in themselves are bad enough, but did you notice the young ladies who added green and lavender dresses to the color outrage. I'm telling you, good people, the outfits simply scream.

Moreover, they must wear large work gloves with the Phi Ep insignia printed in big red letters to glare at you. To top it all they must have a supply of matches, cigarettes, gum and life savers for the sole use of old members, much to the disappointment of the members of the Ka Leo staff who have been looking forward to mooching for several weeks.

They must be at the members' bid and call, awake and asleep, and if some bright young lady says "gimme," they give. Heaven help them if they don't have anything to give.

Speaking of giving things, the poor girls have to squeeze another month's allowance out of Pa to throw a grand shindig to show their appreciation. It's a great life. If you see six less members on the campus next week, you'll know they didn't live through it. (Comment: Why did they have to pick the week the San Jose boys are in town?)

The members of this crime against society are as follows: Elsa Reichhardt, Gretchen Reichhardt, Betty McCormack, Helen Salfingere, Florence Robley and Frances Baehl.

Freshman Ferment . .

By Ernest Silva

What with all the bands and beauties and the terrific shock of almost being on the winning side, the feature of last Saturday's thrilling game is how all of us survived it. Even comrade Cornelius Spinola, whose specifications for a good football game are rather exacting, deemed the contest more than worthy of the "eyestrain" up to the final bark of the gun at approximately 5:45.

To sensitive persons like ourselves the bombs bursting in air at the rear after our attention had been drawn to the front was a dirty trick. When the rockets descended from directly overhead, the Don began to babble of chivalry, women and children first, etc., taking great pains to inform larger bleacherites of his comparatively recent eighteenth birthday.

Cavorting about to the tune of "I'm Forever Blowing Bubbles" and slapping herself down a few of the artificial bubbles en route was Erna Soares. La Erna evidently knew nothing of or cared little about the proximity of the press. This'll learn her.

And then the first half. Ah, the first half. Thirty minutes I waited and not one chance did I get to use any of the choice cracks I had been mulling over in dyspeptic periods for the past week. I had resolved to sit and I stood. I had determined to sneer and I cheered. So many of us forgot ourselves that cheerleaders who were supposed to have been out of service poured in from all quarters to seize the season's only opportunity to date for evoking responses from the cheering section.

That animal hunt staged by the Shriners at halftime didn't kid you, did it? We knew all the time it was a fake but that didn't stop the collegiate Frank Bucks from legging it out with the Hysteria, already rife at the end of the third quarter became the accepted mode of expression after the first touchdown. Any radical cool head who dared to make a silly reasonable demand like "down in front" was lucky to get off with only a couple of Bronx cheers.

Stranger than fiction, while groping in the gathering dusk toward the Stadium exit, a voice with a marked similarity to ace photographer Larry Mizuno's squawked "Aw shucks! I missed the rabbit!"

Manoa Mud

San Jose has come, has seen, and has conquered, and we're not talking about football alone. Not to mention any names, but how about Rocci and Barbara Dow, and the fact that Bo went around all weekend with a sad face because Jack Hilton was laid up from the game.

The Engineers' dance handed out plenty of mud for this column—and the San Jose boys fairly "raced their motors."

Don Hill and Elsa didn't waste any time, and where did Bob Drexel and Nadine go for so long? Our guess is that Molly kinda missed Les Carpenter. And where was Walt, the hero of the game? You should have come and greeted your admiring public, Mac. You don't play fair. Does Keith still play the bagpipes? His absence from the game, dance and picnic caused a droop in the wahines' faces. Esther McD. and Chuck L. had a pretty whipping time of it.

Other sidelights . . . Jack Pringle, woman hater deluxe, with a Roosevelt femme. Aw, Jack, why don't you give the U wahines a chance . . . Kenny P. and Adelaide (Pat's girl, remember?) weren't apart much . . . Dean Webster in the stag line during tag dances . . . Claire and Jack waltzing around in a dream, and we don't mean perhaps . . . Buddy Hough and Frances, if it isn't one Phi Delt, it's another . . . Janie and Bob, but that's not mud any more . . . Russ and Elaine, something new on the Mud front . . . Joe and Baby, mighty fine couple . . . Nat deserting Francis for San Jose appeal both at the dance and at the picnic . . . Betty Jeffords and her lieutenants . . . and Nancy divinely happy with the tallest man on the floor . . . Careful, Miss Old, someone might think you liked him. . .

Out at the picnic on Sunday . . . Helen, Baby, Barbara, and Ruthie shining in the Big Apple with Rocci, Thomas, "Baby" Don, Zimmerman, and Bull and Bully . . . Nat holding Leroy spellbound (and others too) with her whistling . . . Tommy W. rushing Helen while Sonny was off studying history with Janie . . . Good fun on the bus both going out and coming in . . . who was trying to teach the boys how to say "Honekua ua wikipiki" . . . Betty asking Watt "Komo mai no ka ua i ka hale a welakaha" . . .

Where was Chuck Saturday night? Out whooping it up with the Gold Dust twins?

Overhead . . . DEGROOT to Sonny . . . Never again will I give the university a pep talk!

Wahine Whimsies

Yep! The San Jose boys stand accepted. Our enemies of Saturday afternoon will have plenty of university backing for the Town Team game on the eleventh.

The visiting squad, after being entertained with Hawaiian hospitality at the dance given in their honor, put on a show for the locals . . . with Bull Lewis doing his famed hula, Thomas peckin', Zimmerman shagging and shining in the Big Apple and Pressley truckin' round and round the gym.

The affair was so much fun that yours truly kinda forgot to be a sharp observer. I did notice a lot of taffeta swishing around, though . . . Molly Webster, Nancy Oids, Betty Jeffords, Murphy, Haumani Cooper and Reaka Hauman were striking in white lace trimmed with gold satin.

San Jose vs. Navy . . . and Orme Johnson in the middle, looking tres chic in a yellow organza redingote. Esther McDole favored a print with juliet cap of the same material added for good measure . . . for very good measure, Esther.

The tropical setting couldn't have been better . . . even tho' people kept stumbling over the foliage (or should I say garden?) in the center of the dance floor. The music came right up to par. The punch was good. The only thing I missed was Mamie Jensen and her hula.

Boy! oh, boy! Did we show 'em. Honolulu jumped right out of its placid serenity at the game, when Hawaii's yelling section let loose. Members of Mr. De Groot's squad couldn't stop praising the spontaneous spirit of our rooters. We's to be congratulated.

Zoo-Zoo tells me that ideas already have been cropping up in connection with the pep rally before the Denver game . . . A spectacle . . . if everything goes through as planned.

ETA LAMBDA KAPPA

If you are a pre-medical student, it will certainly do no harm to aim toward membership in Eta Lambda Kappa, the pre-medical and pre-dental fraternity of the University of Hawaii. Its primary purpose is to promote and maintain interest in all phases of the science of medicine and its affiliated sciences. This club advances pre-medical enthusiasm by visiting hospitals, watching autopsies, and inviting doctors to address them at their meetings.

New members are voted in by the old members. They must be found scholastically and morally fit to be even worthy of consideration. Chemicals are used in the initiation.

Eta Lambda supplies information to its members regarding the cost, study requirements and living expenses of the leading medical colleges in different section of the country. Much individual time and effort is thus saved.

Regular business meetings are held on every third Friday of each month at 7:30 p.m. in room 108 Gartley Hall. The officers are: president, Thomas Min; vice-president, James Wong; secretary, B. Allen Richardson; treasurer, Dei Jing Chang.

This Collegiate World

(By Associated Collegiate Press)

When a professor gets downright impatient, you can usually tell he has exhausted all his resources. At least that was the situation of Dr. W. D. Funkhauser, professor of zoology at the University of Kentucky.

It all happened when too many students signed up to take his course in heredity. Since this study is limited to only juniors and seniors, sophomores who had scrawled their names on the list, were scratched off. But even after all ineligible were weeded out, the enrollment was well over 100.

Something had to be done, felt Dr. Funkhauser, so he made this announcement at his first session: "I'll warn you students at the beginning that I'm a boring lecturer. This class is made up of lectures entirely. The first half of the course is very dry and technical—with many scientific names.

"The seating arrangements are very unsatisfactory. Most of you won't be able to see the board, and diagrams on the board are an important part of all my lectures. If you're nearsighted, there is little hope for you."

Interpreting creaking of seats as weakening, the professor continued much encouraged:

"The grades are based entirely upon the hard examination at the end of the course. And you sink or swim. I have no mercy. Now do I see any volunteers who would be willing to drop the course?"

No one stirred from his seat.

☆ Bouquets by Bo ☆

A bouquet of the best we've got to our fighting Rainbows for their splendid playing against San Jose. They really showed the old "Fight! Hawaii; Fight!"

A forget-me-not to Dud DeGroot for his inspiring pep talk at the San Jose pep rally.

An orchid to our Coach Klum for turning out the ball squad he did, and upsetting the dopesters.

And a lei of paninis to the sports editor of the "Star Bull" for his attempt to break the morale of our students on the eve of their big game.

A hibiscus to Annabelle for the swell yell he made up.

Pikakes to Espinda for his hulas and to Baby, too.

A bouquet to the Phi Deltas for managing a super picnic on Sunday out at Bellows field.

A bouquet to the girls who haven't gone San Jose on us . . . Jane, Claire, Lucia, Baby, Helen, etc. . . .

Apologies to those I've missed. A swell bouquet to the student body and to Sonny and Jimmie for turning out a swell rooting section at the game.

And a couple of ginger leis to our song leaders too!

A gardenia to Pressley for his exhibition of truckin' at the picnic.

Flowers to the Engineers for pulling off a swell dance, and giving out those megaphones at the game to help the cheering.

And who deserves a bouquet for this . . . We "Otto"—we won the San Jose game, but we're "Klum"—ing out on top of Denver.

Rainbows Win Everything But Game Sat.

Playing Against Heavy Odds Freshmen Team Gain Hearts of Backers

By William S. Ishikawa

University of Hawaii's Roaring Rainbows won everything but a 7-6 decision from the Spartans of San Jose State college in the annual Shrine hospital benefit game Saturday afternoon.

Playing against heavy odds, both in weight and in experience, the plucky band of "freshmen" Rainbows, doormat of the Honolulu Senior football league with an unimpressive record of four defeats and no victories, surged their way back into the hearts of 17,000 football fans who watched the battle which ended with ebony darkness shrouding the Honolulu Stadium.

Pitted against one of the highest scoring teams in the country, and outweighed more than 10 pounds to the man, the Rainbows, who were being sold on the shorter end of three touchdown betting odds, shattered all pre-game prognostications.

For 53 minutes they matched power for power with the Spartans and nearly created the greatest upset of the year when they scored first early in the last quarter. But Hawaii's victory bubble, growing to alarming proportion after this score, finally blew up when the Spartans staged a 90 yard march which ended in a touchdown four minutes later. And, the visitors with Captain Walter McPherson place kicking squarely through the uprights scored the winning point!

Although decisively defeated according to the statistics, the Rainbows' inspired playing won the admiration of everyone, including the chronic "knockers." Hawaii alumni who were betting against the Rainbows forgot their stakes and pulled for the Greenanwhite squad.

Coach Otto Klum was not the usual slave driver. He wore a beaming smile throughout the game as he watched his charges smash up San Jose plays, allowing the visitors to gain only 186 yards from scrimmage while they tore through for 115 yards.

The Rainbows' aerial defense clicked for the first time this year and stopped the famed San Jose passing attack. Only three passes out of 18 were completed by the visitors. The Deans passed 15 times and completed five, showing the strength of their running plays.

Hawaii's touchdown came in the fourth quarter. With 11 minutes remaining in the game the Rainbows started a 30 yard drive that ended in the startling score. On a short pass from Captain Tommy Kaulukukui to Susumu Tanaka, and on three thrusts at the line, the Deans brought the ball to the 11 yard line. On the first play Francis Meyer took a backward pass from Kaulukukui and skirted left end unmolested for the touchdown on the waikiki side of the field.

Pandemonium, bringing reminiscences of the maddened frenzy of two years ago when Hawaii supporters literally went crazy as the Rainbows defeated the University of California Bears, broke out in the mauka bleachers where the university rooters were cheering for the first time this season.

Kaulukukui's place kick, which later determined the outcome of the game, was blocked.

Receiving the kickoff, the Spartans promptly tied the score and went on to score the winning point.

Frosh Avenge Gridiron Defeat

First Year Men Nose Out Sophomores by 25-24 Score in Casaba Game

Eager to avenge their defeat in the football division of intramural sports, the frosh casaba quintet defeated the sophomore squad in the 135-pound division of the basketball league, 25-24, in the most thrilling game witnessed in the league this year.

David Wong is the toast of the Frosh squad, for it was he who made the winning points. High scorer of the day was M. Uyehara, Frosh, who was also instrumental in winning the game for his team. Wah Jan Chong and Gus Young were high scorers for the Sophs, each making a total of 6 points.

Frosh casaba players were: Howard Hiroki, Koon Inn Yee, Yasunobu Kesaji, Wilbur Chun, Bert Chan Wa, Rene Du Montier, and M. Uyehara.

Robert Miyamoto, Donald Miura, Duke Choy, Richard Kong, T. Tatsuyama, M. Kuwata, Wah Jan Chong, and Gus Young played for the Sophs.

In five successive plays Walter McPherson and Owen Collins pushed the ball to Hawaii's 35 yard line. Then McPherson knifed through left tackle, dashed out diagonally to the makai sidelines toward the ewa goal and was thrown out of bounds on the three yard line. McPherson stabbed the center for one yard. Norm Sanders on the next play bowled himself over for the touchdown. McPherson place kicked.

San Jose threatened to score five times during the game but each time the Rainbow defense braced and took the ball away on downs. But on the last scoring threat the gun stopped an almost certain touchdown when the Spartans reached the Hawaii two yard line. Hawaii had its quota of opportunities but lost them on three costly fumbles.

Players and Plays Click to Re-instate Themselves in Eyes of Public

A hard-charging offense . . . a powerful defense . . . spirited morale on the field as well as on the bleachers . . . add them together and you have the rejuvenated ROARING RAINBOWS that drew sighs of relief and admiration from Honolulu's fickle gridiron public.

We never saw a more inspired brand of playing than that flashed by the Rainbows in their battle with the San Jose Spartans. It recalled memories of yesteryear when the mighty Rainbow Wonder Teams pounded across the gridiron turf.

The fighting Deans on Saturday were far from the level of the Wonder Teams in actual playing finesse, but their sheer courage under terrific adverse conditions made our hearts truck and peck and do the Big Apple.

And, of course, we must give credit to the rooting section. For skeptics who still insist that cheers and songs do not affect the playing of a team, we refer you to Captain Kaulukukui himself.

He'll tell you how he forgot the bad cold he had contracted the night before the game, each time the University bleachers yelled. And, he'll tell you also how eager the rest of the boys were to take the Spartans apart and see what mysterious charm they had that made them one of the highest scoring teams in the country.

Players Hit Stride and Some Turn In Best Game of Career

Alfred Espinda, husky end, probably played the greatest game of his football career. We have seen him perform during the last three years and last Saturday he reached great heights, breaking up Spartan interference, running down punts, snagging passes, and doing just about everything an end needs to do. And only a few years ago a physician had told him never to participate in strenuous activities.

Susumu Tanaka, quarterback, furnished a bit of gridiron melodrama, calling signals with blood smeared all over his face. His expert quarterbacking is Coach Klum's answer for a need of a reliable brain outside of Ben Eleniki's and Kaulukukui's.

Vernon Akee Choy, halfback, was the offensive and defensive surprise of the afternoon. After playing most of the season on the bench because of a bad leg, he brought back reminiscences of Tony Morse's powerful line smashing and blocking.

Francis Meyer, elongated fullback, reminded us of Bill "Asook" Ahuna on the touchdown play . . . a whirl of hip behind the line of scrimmage, then a streak past the line.

Herbert Cockett, guard, and former end, probably found his right position. We never saw a better guard since Gus Ahuna was laid up with a fractured knee.

Einar Gerner, tackle, showed us he was on the up and up. For a time there were rumors that he was slacking down on us, but his performance Saturday dispelled all gossip.

Francis Kauka, tackle, noisiest player on and off the field, next to Warren "Bull" Haynes, surprised us by holding his position for the entire 60 minute grind. From now on we'll let him use our typewriter, even mine, which happens to be the best in the Ka Leo office.

Kayo Chung, center, turned in one of his best performances to date. We remember him as a frail little package of gridiron material whose only forte was courage when he first matriculated here. He weighed 145 pounds then. Today, he tips the scale at 170 pounds.

Space and time won't permit us to say the things we'd like to say for the boys . . . Wendell Bayne, Sammy Kaapuni, Joe Kaulukukui, Art Stranske, Chuck Johnson, Ben Eleniki, Nolle Smith, Leonard Espinda, Sol Maialoha . . . and all the rest.

Intramural Barefooters Travel to Country; Beat Waimanalo by 20-0

Bill Among's 130-lb intramural barefootball team journeyed down to Waimanalo to play the Waimanalo Sugar Plantation 140-lb team on Sunday at 9 o'clock and returned victorious. The score was 20 to 0. Mits Fukuda, fullback, scored the first touchdown by returning a punt 35 yards in the second quarter. A pass for the extra point was incomplete.

After a series of plays had moved the ball down to the Waimanalo's 15-yard stripe during the third quarter, George Hagiwara on a fake reverse hit the center of the line and picked his way through the Waimanalo team for the second score of the game. Takei Kimura made a perfect placement.

Hagiwara made the final touchdown in the fourth quarter on another fake reverse that netted 10 yards. The ball was put in scoring position after a fumble was recovered on the Waimanalo 20 and another series of line plays brought the ball to the 10-yard stripe. Bernard Young's placement was good.

Starting for the University were: William Richardson, center; Morio Ishado and Francis Oyakawa, guards; Masami Iwamura and Philip Yee, tackles; Tommy Wong and Francis Ako, ends; Akio Kubota, quarterback; Dick Wong and Bernard Young, halfbacks; and Mits Fukuda, fullback.

Leading the veterans are the Deans' ace, goalie Tim Ho, George McEldowney, James Carey, Katsuo Miho, Kanemi Kanazawa, David Butchart, Peter Chang and Hartwell Blake.

Graduation took away Captain John Butchart, John Whitmarsh, and Maikai Gonsalves.

All those who have not yet turned out for the squad are asked to report at the school field this afternoon.
