DEDICATION

Ka Palapala 1954 is dedicated to the memory of Colonel Adna G. Clarke, late Professor of Police Administration and one of the most respected and admired figures on the University of Hawaii campus. Wounded while fighting for his country in the Philippines fifty-four years ago, Colonel Clarke joined the UH faculty in 1932. He served the University loyally and well until his death last year. Organizer of the Military Order of the Warrior of the Pacific, active in civic affairs and the American Legion, Col. Clarke was best known on campus for his unwavering interest in student affairs. He became a living symbol of school spirit. That symbol still lives in the hearts of students who knew Adna G. Clarke.

President

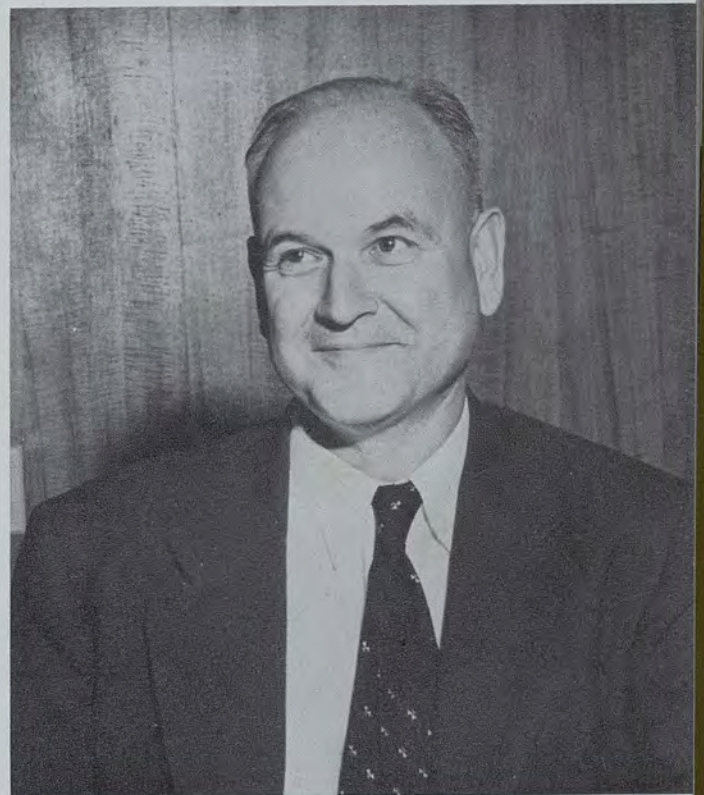

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

The Duke of Wellington is reputed to have said that the battle of Waterloo was won on the playing fields of Eton. I take no issue with this statement. In fact, I would project it further.

Our world is smaller than the world of Wellington. Although its potential for physical destruction has infinitely increased, quite as many causes have revolved around ideas as around physical possessions, and quite as many battles have been won and lost across the conference table as on the battle field. So that now one might say that the outcome of the titanic struggles in a shrinking world is forecast in the classroom.

What we are taught there constitutes the weapons of war, the forces for peace—knowledge and understanding of the course of humankind, tolerance, intellectual and moral integrity. These are the weapons with which you, who represent the rich cultures of many lands, have been armed: ideas. You can appreciate the wisdom of the words of the Philippine scholar who once said: "Ideas have no fatherland."

GREGG M. SINCLAIR
President

DR. PAUL S. BACHMAN
Vice President

Board of Regents

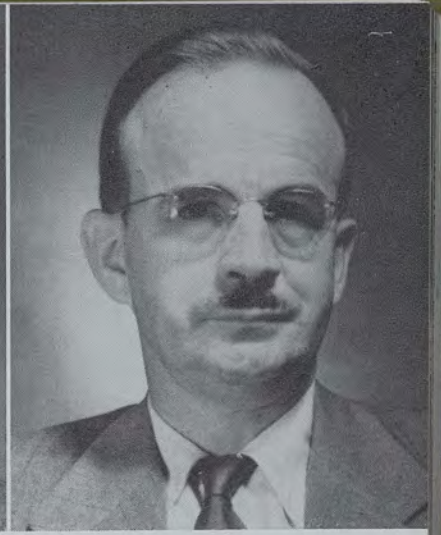

The University is governed by a Board of Regents, at least one of whom must be an alumnus. Four members of the present Board have attended the University. Two of the members are ex-officio: Gregg M. Sinclair, President of the University, and Clayton J. Chamberlin, Superintendent of the Department of Public Instruction. It is mandatory that each of the major islands be represented. Oahu is represented by Philip E. Spalding, retired businessman, chairman; Fred K. Lam, physician and surgeon, vice-chairman; J. Garner Anthony, attorney at law; and Hung Wai Ching, realtor. Hawaii is represented by Richard Penhallow, assistant manager of the Parker Ranch; Maui, by Katsuyuki Izumi, physician and surgeon; and Kauai, by Jack H. Mizuha, attorney at law. Paul S. Bachman, University Vice-President, is secretary.

The affairs of the University are under the general management and control of the Board of Regents. The Regents' powers extend to policy, appointments, finances, property, and fees. They derive their authority from the Organic Act and from Statutes of the Territory, and are governed by a set of By-laws. They serve without remuneration.

Administrative Assistants

The Administrative assistants, the efficient, inconspicuous workers of the administration, play an important part in the everyday operation of the University of Hawaii. Without them matters such as the budget, library, exams and schedules, as well as the direction of the various bureaus and schools, would be in complete turmoil.

These administrative assistants are: Jeanne D. Johnson, Director, Bureau of Student Activities; Mary Lou McPherson, Director, Bureau of Student Residences; Arthur A. Dole, Director, Bureau of Testing and Guidance; Harold A. Wadsworth, Director, Cooperative Extension Service in Agriculture and Home Economics, and of the Hawaii Agricultural Experiment Station; Y. Baron Goto, Associate Director, Co-operative Extension Service in Agriculture and Home Economics.

Louis A. Henke, Associate Director, Hawaii Agricultural Experiment Station; Spencer W. Tinker, Director of the Aquarium; Henry B. Vasconcellos, Director of Athletics; Robert W. Hiatt, Director, Hawaii Marine Laboratory; Harley H. Zeigler, Director, Hawaii School of Religion; Frank T. Inouye, Director, Hilo Branch; Norman Meller, Director, Legislative Reference Bureau; Thomas Nickerson, Director, Office of Publications and Information; Myrtle S. Brodie, Director of Personnel, and Assistant Treasurer; Colin J. Herrick, Director Psychological and Psychopathic Clinic; Virginia A. Jones, Director, School of Nursing; Katharine N. Handley, Director, School of Social Work; Albert J. McKinney, Director, University Extension Division; Edmund F. Spellacy, Veteran's Advisor; Joseph M. Skorpen, Treasurer; Helen B. MacNeil, Registrar; and Carl G. Stroven, Librarian.

Advisor

The senior class, well represented in athletics, forensics, art, publications, music organizations, was led by President Lloyd Suyama. Aiding him were Jimmy Shiramizu, vice-president; Frances Takakawa, secretary; Zac Kobayashi, treasurer; Dr. Shunzo Sakamaki, adviser.

Under the chairmanship of Mae Hadano, Cordelia Tatsuguchi, and Masa Odo, the social committee successfully carried out a senior-faculty mixer, New Year's Eve formal, a picnic playday at Haleiwa, and a junior-senior prom.

In addition, an art show was sponsored by the class, a Ka Leo senior supplement published, a jam-session and a skating party rounded out the activities. Bringing the year's activities to a close, a senior banquet was held in June with Herbert Kujubi as chairman of the event.

Cabinet members who played an integral part in planning and carrying out the activities were Lily Ishihara, liaison; Ben Masutomi, commencement; Middie Steinhauser, Bacculariate; Tom Fukunaga, athletics; and Stanley Won, publicity.

This year the ASUH has recognized five real deans who, inspite of heavy scholastic schedules, have participated actively in student affairs. Playing an integral part in UH organizations and continually working toward the betterment of the ASUH, these real deans are deserving of the highest award bestowed by the student senate.

Real Deans

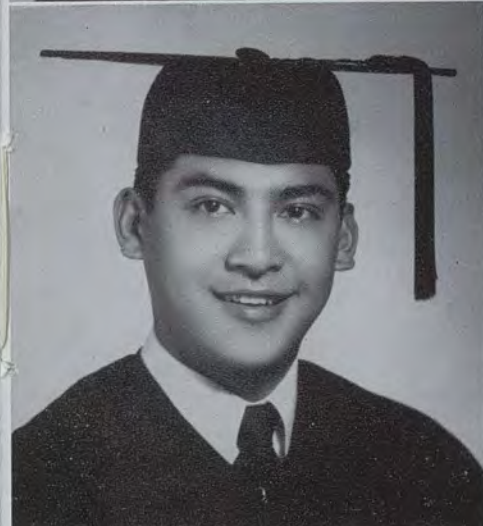

ROBERT AMAI—Serving as a member of the BODF for three years, Bobby chaired the committee in 1953-54. This conscientious chemistry major also served on Orientation and Homecoming committees. An active TG member, Bob was president of Peng Hui fraternity during his senior year.

LESLIE NAKAMURA—Another active YMCA man throughout his University career, Leslie controlled the purse strings of the ASUH ably during this past year. Friendly and very efficient, he has accumulated a record of outstanding work in many ASUH committees and organizations.

RICHARD NISHIOKA—Richard is deserving of his award for his ASUH and class work. Junior class president and a senator during his senior year, he still had time to be an active member of the ASUH Finance, Election, Awards, and Constitutional Amendment committees.

PAUL PATRIA—Personable and friendly Paul participated whole-heartedly in numerous activities throughout his four years at the University. An outstanding member of the YMCA, from the very beginning, he brought about a closer and more efficient integration among campus organizations as ICC President during the past year.

ARCHIBALD WUNG—Level-headed, hard-working Archie has a four year senator record to be proud of. Enrolled in engineering, he still found time to devote his services to the betterment of the ASUH, and was an active member of Peng Hui fraternity.

Spearheaded by competent class officers, the juniors made 1954 a memorable year. They worked coactively to make the year's program a success.

Highlighting the social calendar of events were the class picnic and the Sophomore prom held at the Ala Wai Clubhouse. On campus, Sophomore Week included a fashion prevue, art exhibit, and a formal-etiquette skit.

Other class activities were the publication of the class newspaper, "Soph Scoop," and an active participation in intramural sports.

As a service to other University students the Sophomores operated a bookstore exchange throughout the semester.

The freshmen social calendar included a Frosh Round-Up dance in January, an inter-class dance with the Sophomores, Frosh Day in March, the prom in April and, to climax the year, the Frosh picnic in May.

Maurice Masuoka and Danny Platt placed first and second respectively in the annual Freshman Oratorical contest. Equalling this achievement in other fields was the active participation of freshmen in the Theater Guild productions, the Ka Palapala beauty contest, campus drives and sports.

After an unusually long budget session the 1953-'54 ASUH Senate started its year by approving a budget of $71,355. The Senate next occupied itself by organizing various standing committees. The Job Research group was especially active among the special committees. Others were the Rules and Awards committees, and committees to investigate athletic awards and the relations of BOG and ASUH. ASUH appointed committees included Aloha Week, Public Relations, Elections, Poster, Spirit and Rally, Student Handbook, Freshman Orientation and Student Directory.

During the year James Takushi, Shirley Tong and Dan Au replaced the vacancies created by Abel Perry, Ronnie Bright and Joe Chang. Various projects completed were extension of library hours, the first phases of lighting of Arthur L. Andrews Outdoor Theater, adoption of election, spirit and rally, and public relations procedures.

SOSA

The Student Organizations and Social Activities Committee is responsible for establishing rules and policies of student social and recreational activities on and off the campus.

The functions of the SOSA are to provide advisory service to campus organizations in program planning, handling finances and group leadership; to help students find activities in which they would like to participate, and to work with students interested in developing more understanding of the highest type of leadership and service; to constantly study, promote, and help evaluate student activities; to help groups apply SOSA policies to particular events.

The Board of Publications is a student-faculty group created by ASUH to establish broad policies for the guidance and direction of all authorized student publications. This year BOP attempted to draw up standard operating procedures for student publications. Much research was done on this matter by the board members.

Chaired by Lawrence Ikezaki, the board had many lengthy meetings this year to discuss the problems of Ka Palapala and Ka Leo O Hawaii. One of the main problems was that of the understaffed Ka Leo. BOP also handled the drawing up of publication contracts for Ka Pap, Ka Leo and the student directory during the first semester.

Hemenway Hall, the college union building, was opened in 1939 for the enrichment of personal relationships among students, faculty, and alumni. In 1940 it was given the name it now has in honor of Charles Reed Hemenway, a lifelong friend of the University.

The responsibility of supervising and coordinating activities at the Hall is assumed by the Hemenway Hall Board of Governors, better known as BOG. This board is composed of eight students, an alumnus, three faculty members, two ex-officio members, and the Program Counsellors.

An official organization for all University women, the AWS started its social and cultural program by sponsoring an inter-cultural fashion show and exhibit during the ASUH Summer Session program. Its Frosh Orientation fashion show launched the association's events for the 1953-'54 school year.

Under the leadership of Doris Kaneko and Audrey Hirota, the Volunteer Secretarial pool gained greater prestige and permanence as an important service group on campus. The "Menehunes" again proved their value as they guided tour groups on Pan-Pacific day.

Women's Week, the most elaborate AWS event, included a Manless Breakfast, Sorority day, Movie night, two one-act plays, WAA Field day, and a Sock Hop.

Functioning as an organ for the clubs on campus, the Inter-Club Council started its program for the year with a series of discussions re-evaluating the functions and purposes of the ICC.

New services to clubs which previous Inter-Club councils had not offered were discussed. The monthly meetings of the ICC served as planning meetings for various ASUH activities among which were the Leadership Training Conference, the Easter Orphan's Party, and the ICC Song-Fest.

The University of Hawaii's Pan Pacific festival marks the observance of Lei Day on campus. Months of planning on the part of university students culminates in an elaborate festival which attracts a host of tourists as well as islanders.

The crowning of a Pan Pacific queen highlights the traditional pageant which depicts the historical Hawaiian Olympics.

Representative of the heterogeneous group on the UH campus is the International Food Village. Carrying this theme further is the international fashion show and dance.

A lei and floral display of rare island blossoms, a variety show, an aquacade—all these events constitute the Pan Pacific program.

Pan Pacific

The University of Hawaii's Orientation program has as its purpose to acquaint new students with University objectives, services and facilities.

Student-faculty committee chairmen are appointed by the ASUH president and the University president to coordinate the planning of an elaborate orientation program. Some three hundred students and faculty members took an active part in planning the 1953-'54 orientation program.

The program, which culminates several months of planning, includes social and educational aspects of campus life. A week of socials, lectures, and exhibits, climaxed with registration day, provides an opportunity for new students to not only orient themselves with the University but also to acquaint themselves with one another.

Home Coming

Under the supervision of Melba Fujimoto, Homecoming events were held on November 6. The program consisted of lectures by selected guests, free movies, an aquacade, MOWP rifle match, musical selections by UH choir, and various club exhibits depicting phases of UH life.

Alumni activities were under the chairmanship of Mrs. Anita Moepono. A barbecue dinner was held at the University amphitheater, followed by a dance in Hemenway Hall welcoming alumni.

Added attractions were the Homecoming Song Contest and the selection of a Mr. and Miss UH. Paul Patria and Alma Ishida were chosen on the basis of their service to the University, scholastic standing and personality.

Administration

In September, when the Hilo Branch entered its seventh year of operation, a record number of 115 full-time students were registered. This figure was an increase of over 50% over the previous year. Dr. Frank T. Inouye began his second year as director of the Branch.

To acquaint the incoming freshmen with the upper classmen, a three-day orientation camp was held at Camp Hale O Aloha. A welcome dance was also given by the sophomores. Freshman enthusiasm for college life was not dampened by the antics at Initiation night, October 3.

The Associated Students of University of Hawaii, Hilo Branch was ably led by Leila Okino. Assisting her were vice-president William Kama, secretary Kayoko Shimizu, and treasurer Raymond Kawamura.

Among the many projects were the Little Rainbow Dance of December 12, and the freshmen-sophomores picnic in November. Climaxing the year was the annual Christmas banquet and dance held in December at the Palm Terrace.

The AWS was busy with activities, too. In November the women held a successful food sale. To help send the basketball team to Honolulu, the AWS had a sweet bread sale while the YMCA Club sponsored a dance. As its annual project the AWS sent hand-made Christmas cards to servicemen at Tripler Army Hospital. Activities for the year ended with Women's Week, April 18 to April 24. Some of the activities of the week were a luncheon, tea, a fashion show, and a dance. Katherine Matsumoto was the president of the AWS for the first semester; Doris Kunimoto succeeded her in the second semester.

Christmas came and went all too quickly and the students soon found themselves in the whirl of final exams. After several nerve racking days, they started on a much needed three weeks vacation. At the semester break picnic the students home from the main campus got together with the Hilo Branchers.

A Chinese philosopher once said, "One picture is worth a thousand words." With this in mind, the 1954 Ka Palapala staff undertook the job of presenting a true picture of campus life.

Amid the helter skelter of a typical publications office, Editor Howard Lee worked unceasingly in this undertaking. Months of careful planning and painstaking work resulted in satisfying achievement.

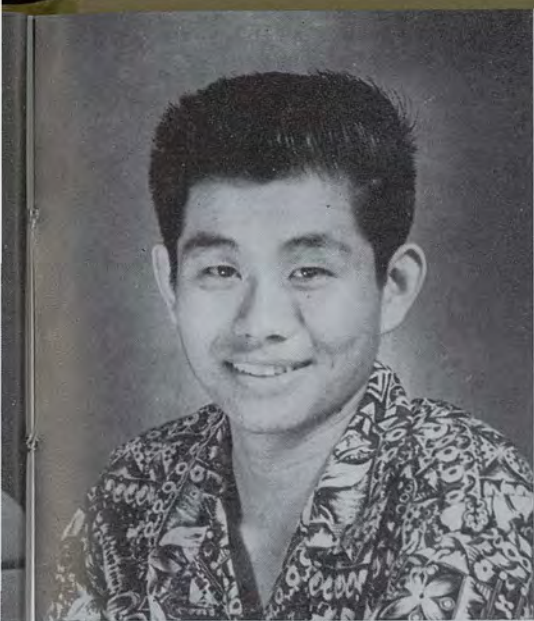

Key figures playing a prominent part in the annual production were associate editor Kenneth Furukawa, who contributed many invaluable ideas; Ruddy Tongg, make-up editor; and Takeshi Asada, art editor. Also working as a vital part of the Ka Palapala staff were business managers Thomas Lau and Jonathan Kajiwaru.

Photographers Charles Sonoda and Roy Uejio spent unnumbered hours snapping and developing pictures, while section editors set about the task of mounting and pasting.

In April the final deadline was met, and staff members cleared their minds of worry as the 1954 KA PALAPALA rolled off the presses at Paradise of the Pacific.

With the bustle of meeting deadlines past, staff members of Ka Leo O Hawaii wiped the printer's ink from their hands as the end of the 1953-'54 school year brought with it the last issue of the student newspaper.

Handicapped by a shortage of reporters, members of the staff, under the editorship of Victor Kobayashi, joined forces to produce first semester editions. Art, music, math-science, and political supplements was the outstanding feature of the issues published.

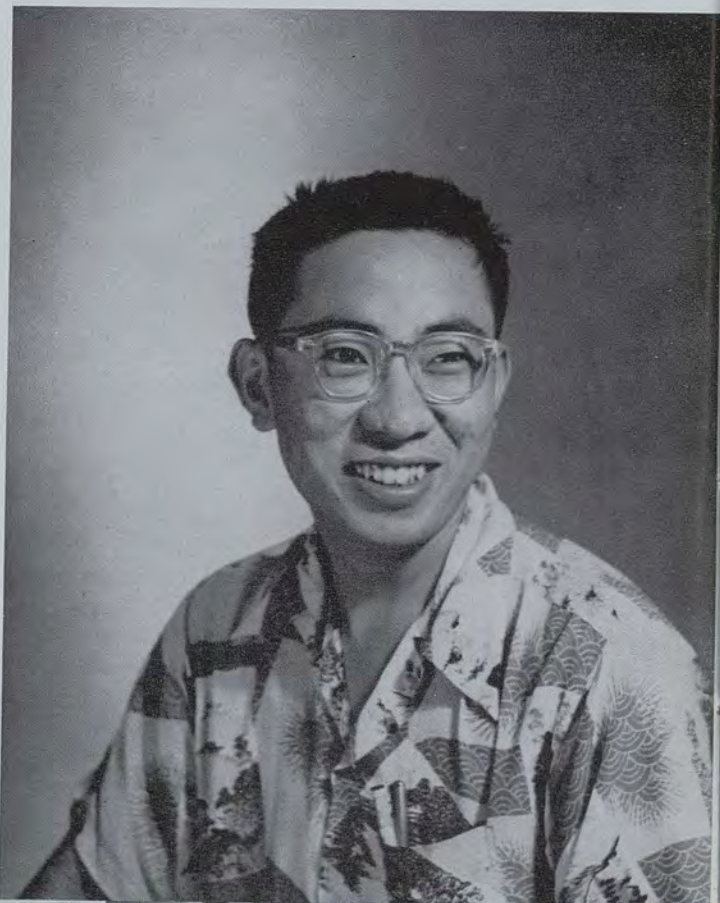

Second semester editor Sarah Obayashi enthusiastically set about the task of training cub reporters. The inexperienced but promising group cooperated to produce second semester publications. Special supplements included the Women's Week, April Fool, Religious Week and ASUH editions.

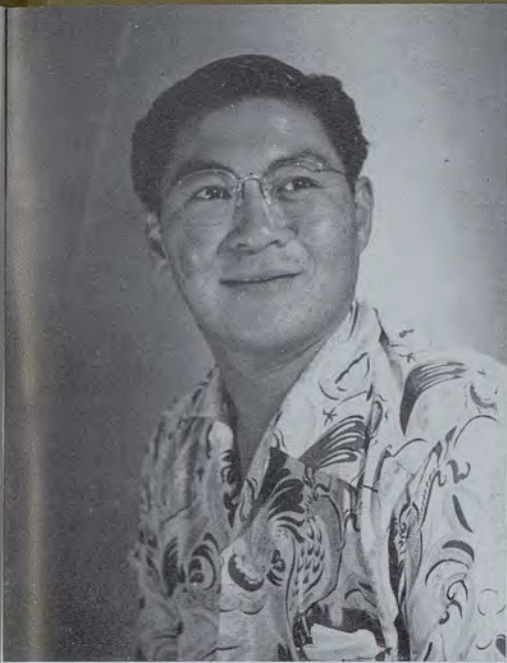

Interest-catchers of Ka Leo were columns such as Turnabout by Peter Reed, Square Peg by Robert Umphress, Flotsam by Dixon Ince, and Impractical Arts by Maybelle Nakamura. On the sports page the columns were Time Out by Joshua Agsalud and Driftwood by Benny Wood.

The abstract cartoons of Lloyd Suyama were always the object of much of the campus talk concerning Ka Leo. Letters to the Editor, featured on page two, received a great impetus this year.

The Board of Debates and Forensics initiated the year's events with a Frosh Oratorical contest held in October. During the course of the school year, two other oratorical contests were held—the Charles Reed Hemenway memorial contest in March, and the annual All-Hawaii Oratorical in May.

With Dr. Orland Lefforge as coach, the BODF debate squad, in early December, met a visiting Lewis and Clark debate team in a series of inter-collegiate debates.

Discussion teams under the coaching of Mr. Lloyd Newcomer worked on two questions during the year—one dealing with the religious attitudes of university students, and the other dealing with the desirability of organizing social and business groups along racial lines.

Besides presenting discussions before interested high schools and civic organizations on Oahu during the latter part of the first semester and the early part of the second semester, island trips to Maui, Kauai, and Hawaii were made by discussion members in March and April.

A message from the king for the Malo-Maker.

The University Theatre Group, under the direction of Drs. Joel Trapido and Earle Ernst, presented five productions ranging from nostalgic comedy to naturalistic tragedy.

Four one-acts selected from the group's annual play-writing contest comprised the first offering of the season. A cast of faculty members under the direction of Dr. Earle Ernst brought Christopher Fry's The Lady's Not for Burning to Honolulu in December. Professors who turned actors for the occasion were Dr. Carleton Green, Dr. Grove Day, Dr. John Stalker, Dr. Joel Trapido, Dr. Joseph Smith, and Miss Lucie Bentley.

Eugene O'Neill's comedy of nostalgia, Ah Wilderness, was the third production of the season. The cast directed by Dr. Joel Trapido included Dixon Ince, Helen Topham, Barbara Exner, Carl Esser, James Sikking, Molly Conant, and James Komeya.

Two operas, Amahl and the Night Visitors and Gian Schicci, were staged in conjunction with the UH music department. The last play of the season was Peking Man recently translated from the Chinese.

Army ROTC

COL. GILES E. CARPENTER
PMS&T

The University of Hawaii Army ROTC unit, under the command of Colonel Giles R. Carpenter, has offered basic and advanced courses in the Infantry and the Field Artillery.

The cadet regiment, led by Cadet Colonel Richard I. Fukumoto, consisted of approximately 600 cadets. These cadets were organized into three infantry battalions and one artillery battalion. The process of training from a freshman recruit to a senior cadet officer is thorough and demanding. After completion of the first year advanced course, sixty-four infantry cadets attended six weeks of summer camp training at Fort Lewis, Washington, and twenty-one artillery cadets went to Fort Sill, Oklahoma. The Camp Commanders reported Edward K. Shikata and Robert H. Tanimoto as the outstanding UH cadets at the two summer camps.

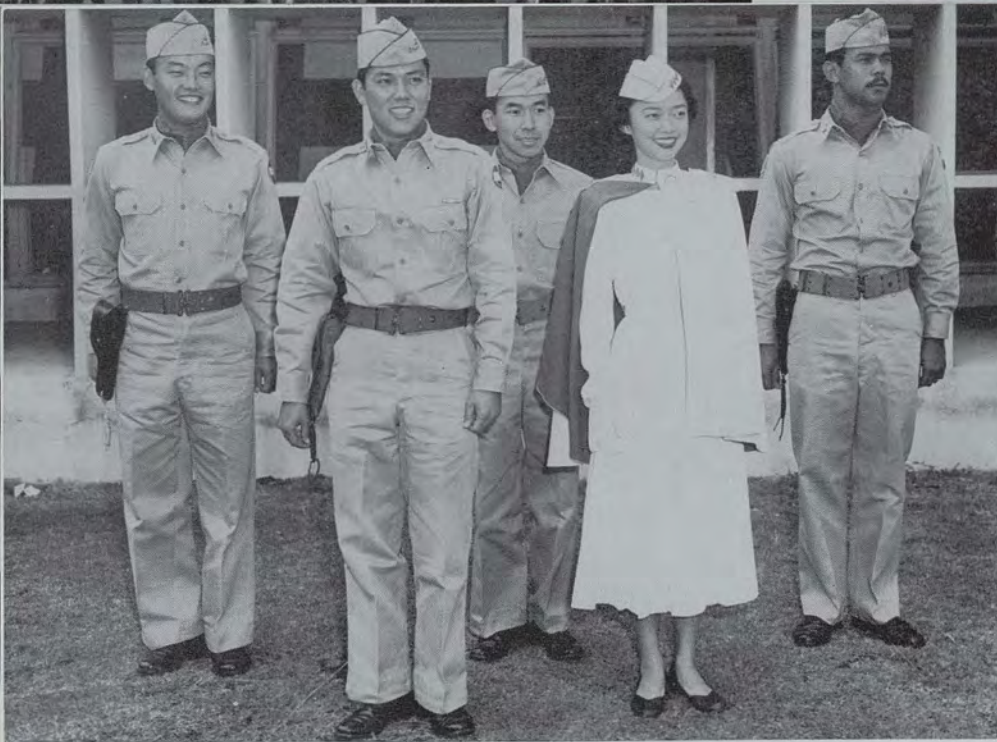

Evidence of the outstanding caliber of the senior cadets was demonstrated by the fact that fourteen infantrymen and nine artillerymen were designated Distinguished Military Students by The Department of The Army. These men were permitted to apply for a direct commission in the Regular Army.

The year's activities were climaxed at the annual Graduation Parade on 18 May at which time the eighty-three senior cadets received their commissions as Second Lieutenant in the Army Reserve.

Air Force ROTC

COL. WILLIAM W. JONES
PAS&T

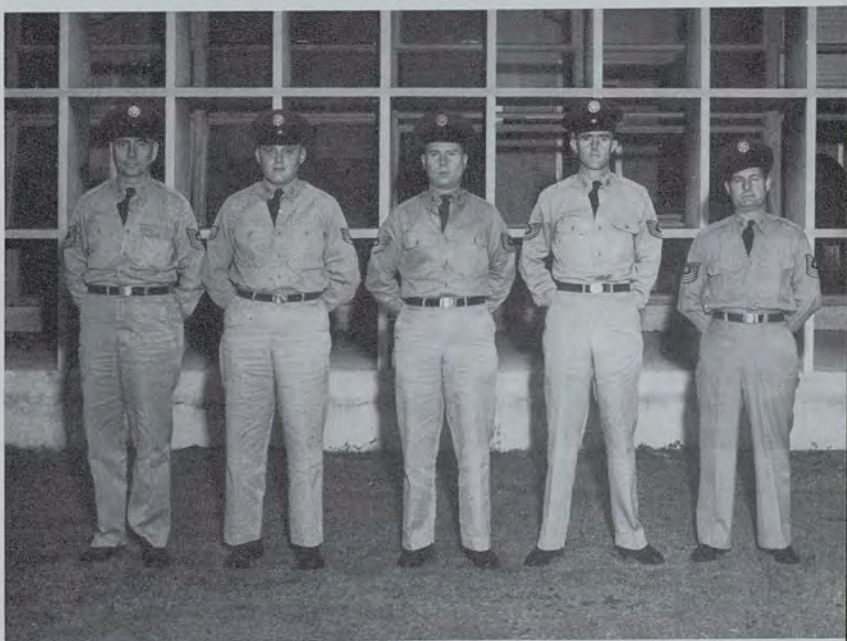

Under the command of Col. William W. Jones, USAF, the AFROTC entered its fifth year with an enrollment of 556 cadets.

The Cadet Air Force Wing, commanded by Cadet Col. Herman W. Jarrett, was organized into Groups of three Squadrons each. The two Group Commanders were Cadet Lt. Col. Lewis W. Poe and Cadet Lt. Col. Stanley Y. Furukawa.

The joint Army-Air Force ROTC Band which provided the music for drills and ceremonies was commanded by Cadet Major Eugene L. K. Y. Dang. The Band was trained by Dr. Norman C. Chapman of the UH Music Department.

The AFROTC curriculum provides cadets with a balanced course pointed towards officer development and career training and prepares them for specific assignments with the Regular Air Force, the Air National Guard, and the Air Force Reserve. Commissioned graduates may attend flight school as student officers and are also eligible for advanced courses of study leading to advanced degrees in scientific, technical, and administrative fields.

BAC

Chairman

Under the chairmanship of Charles L. Hapai, the Board of Athletic Control holds the reins for all competitive athletics at the University of Hawaii.

Among the duties of the BAC are to formulate, unify, and direct athletic policies at the University of Hawaii, and to issue awards, letters and other insignia to those athletes who have met eligibility requirements.

Football

The 1953 football season marked the second year of grid reign for Coach Henry (Hank) Vasconcellos at UH.

Working with a smaller squad, Hank went about his chores of whipping the Rainbow aggregation into shape with more vim and vigor than ever. After much experimenting, he reorganized his squad, capitalizing on the abilities of individual players. With the return of the non-platoon system and eighteen lettermen, he fired his chargers to face a much stronger slate this season.

As athletic director and head football coach at the University, his untiring efforts put football on top financially. Assisting Coach Vasconcellos in developing a fast, spirited team were Sus Tanaka, end coach; Kayo Chung, line coach; James Asato, backfield coach.

The UH Rainbows finished the 1953 football season with a five-six won-lost record. After defeating two member teams of the local UIC, the Manoans suffered five consecutive defeats.

After playing fair ball in the San Diego tilt, the visiting Hawaii team gained momentum and gave Utah a spirited fight before succumbing 47-24. Grabbing an early 8-6 lead, Coach Vasconcellos' chargers wilted under the superior weight and drive of the COP Tigers and bowed to a 26-8 defeat.

Returning home, the Rainbows were upset by Navy and edged by the championship-bound 49ers. The loss of Dick Ueoka, because of a leg injury received in the 49er tilt, deprived UH of a speed-burning receiver and capable defensive man. The Rainbows roared back in the following contests to rout Army, 28-6, and Barber's Point, 26-0. However, the heavy PH Marine line proved superior and the Manoans were forced to yield 27-7. The Marines later finished the season in second place.

The Roaring Rainbows were fired up for their only local inter-collegiate contest, and buried Lewis and Clark by a 34-12 victory. Nozoe, Toma and Watanabe, UH tri-captains, played exceptionally well along with versatile Joe Matsukawa. The four seniors led their team mates on to victory to cap the season and their collegiate grid careers.

UH - Islanders

The first game of the 1953 season fared well for the blades of Coach Henry Vasconcellos, who began his second year of mentorship for UH. The abolishment of the two platoon system proved a boon to the belabored Rainbows who were encumbered by a lack of aspirants for the football team.

Rainbows scored touchdowns once in the second and fourth periods. UH strategy relied appreciably upon passing. Both touchdowns were made on aeriels from Joe Matsukawa to Ray Naylor and Dick Ueoka. UH realized five completed passes for 69 yards. The Islanders gained 45 yards on four completed passes.

On defense the college lads showed amazing recuperation when backed up against their goal line. Dogged resistance in the goal-to-go margin seemed a latent trait whenever such predicaments arose.

Ken Silva and Leroy Ka-ne ran well for the Islanders with the latter scoring their lone touchdown in the third period. Both were real threats to the Rainbows.

Hawaii was the pre-game favorite by a slight margin over the Kaneohe Marines. The game seemed ominous for UH, however, when after nine minutes of play Marine Bob Radford bulled seven yards for the initial score. The Marines used the powerful single wing to good advantage. Nichols converted.

In the second period Joe Matsukawa passed to Ray Naylor gaining nineteen yards. The ball was three yards short of the goal. Ed Kawawaki burst from T formation to score six points. Matsukawa added the extra point.

In the third canto Marine John Seward recovered Don Imamoto's fumble on the forty-two yard-line. A sustained drive culminated with Bob Radford's nine-yard spurt for the Marines second tally.

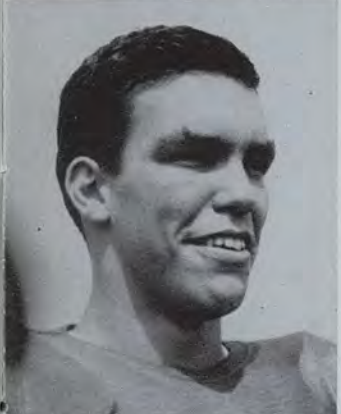

A bad pass from center and Norman Oda's alertness accounted for a Hawaii safety. Joe Balangitao returned the kickoff to the forty-seven yard-line. Matsukawa then passed to Bob Schulte who snared the ball on the twenty-five and raced into the end zone. Matsukawa converted.

Hawaii's rout over the Marines was assured when Hartwell Freitas intercepted Radford's pass on the forty-nine and lateralled to Walter Nozoe for a twenty-five yard return. On third down Edward Kawawaki skimmed through the Martinets, increasing the margin to 22-13. The placement try was unsuccessful.

Joseph Matsukawa displayed fine field generalship and passing. Ueoka, Naylor, Watanabe, and Schulte were stalwarts in the front rank. The seasoned bulwarks made wide gaps in the line enabling Ed Kawawaki to streak through for great gains.

UH - San Diego

Playing their first inter-sectional game of the year, the Rainbows were defeated by the powerful San Diego State Aztecs. This was the fifth meeting for the two teams since 1939, giving the Aztecs the edge, three games to two.

The San Diego team, which was rated as the best in the school's history, overpowered the lighter Rainbows in the first half to lead 26-0 at the intermission. Hawaii threatened in the first quarter after penetrating deep into Aztec territory on a brilliant run by End Dick Ueoka. Taking a handoff from Quarterback Joe Matsukawa on his own 22, he carried the ball down to the San Diego eight yard-line behind precise blocking. Here the Aztec defense stiffened, and the UH lost possession of the ball.

A third quarter pass from Matsukawa to Raymond Naylon that was good for 21 yards set up Hawaii's only touchdown. Although the Rainbows lost the ball after the next set of plays, they recovered a San Diego fumble on the Aztec 18 yard-line. In five plays they maneuvered the ball down to the one yard-line, from where Hartwell Freitas pushed over to score. Matsukawa's conversion split the uprights to make it seven points for the University of Hawaii.

Later in the third quarter Hawaii threatened once more after Matsukawa completed a 16 yard-pass to Ed Kawawaki. However, this threat was nullified when the Rainbows lost the ball on downs.

UH - Utah

The visiting University of Hawaii Rainbows suffered their second mainland defeat, a 47-24 scalping, at the hands of the powerful Utah Redskins.

With the effects of San Diego's thumping still telling, the Rainbows were simply overpowered and found themselves trailing 20-0 before the end of the first quarter.

The puissant Redskins made maximum use of a heavy forward wall and versatile backfield that outran and outpassed the local lads. The light UH line, outweighed 25 pounds per man, provided Joe Matsukawa with some nice holes and blocks. Matsukawa, who was converted from quarterback, proved equally proficient at the halfback slot, as he ran and passed Hawaii back into the game. He set up both first half touchdowns with his passes and scored the first himself on a beautifully executed pass-optional play. The second TD resulted from a Matsukawa to Dick Ueoka aerial. The latter outran the Ute secondary to haul in the pass, but Hawaii still trailed 27-14 at the half.

UH - COP

The University of Hawaii team led the heavily favored College of Pacific Tigers at half time before succumbing by a score of 26 to 8. This game, the final on the University of Hawaii's mainland schedule, was played before a crowd of 11,000 in Stockton, California.

The Tigers took the lead 6-0 in the first quarter on a 62-yard pass from Quarterback Bill Jacobs to Halfback Art Leibscher. Henry "Bruno" Ariyoshi broke through to block the try for point. The Rainbows then pulled ahead in the second quarter by scoring a safety and a touchdown in succession. A clipping penalty put COP on its own one yard line, and on the following play Center Ed Toma caught Tiger Quarterback Bill Jacobs behind his own goal to score the safety. On the first play following the kickoff, UH Quarterback Dick Watase faded back and threw a pass to End Colin Chock that was good for 42 yards and a touchdown. Matsukawa attempted the conversion, but the kick was blocked. This put the Rainbows ahead 8 to 6 at the half way mark.

In the third quarter the Tigers managed to move the ball down to the Hawaii ten yard-line. The Rainbows stopped the drive and marched to the midfield stripe. Conover intercepted a pass for COP and returned the ball to the Hawaii 28. The Tigers scored on a third down pass and took the lead 12-6. They added two more touchdowns in the final quarter to make the final score 26-8.

UH - Naval Base

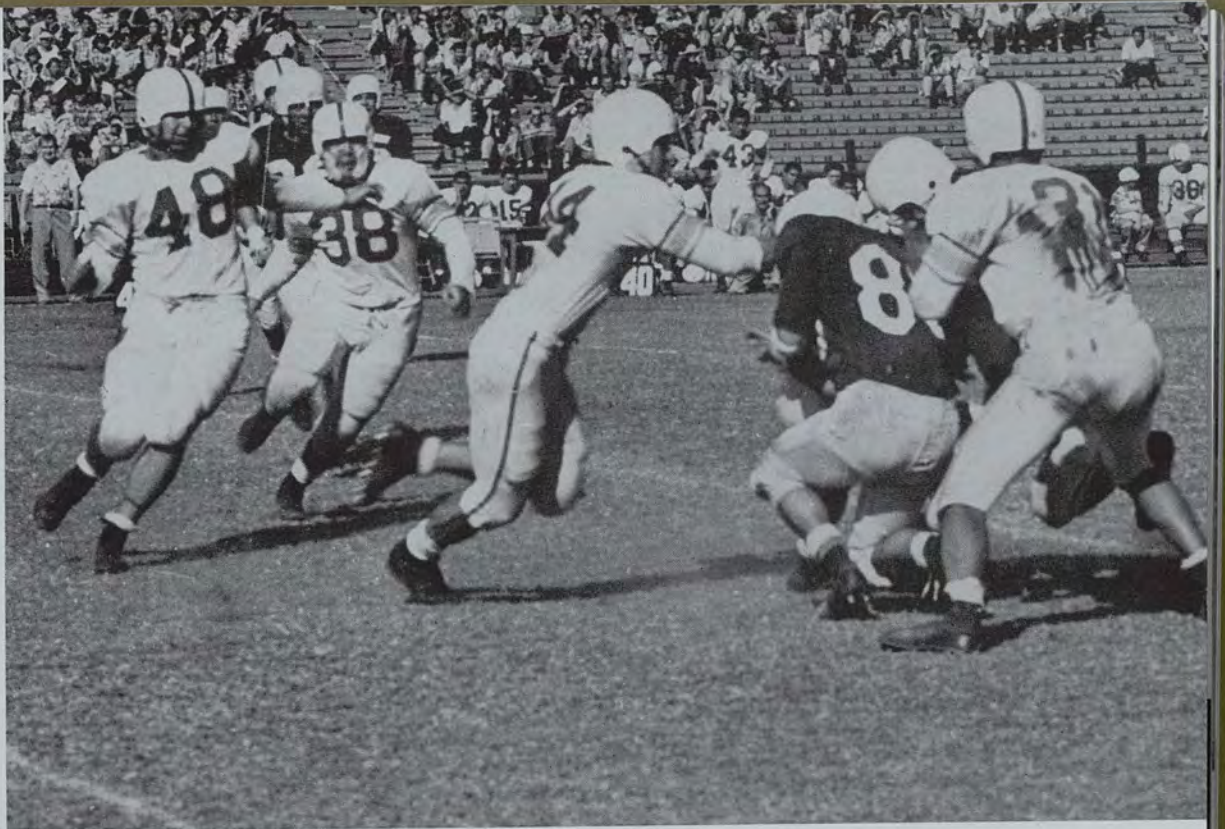

An intercepted UH pass in the fourth quarter spelled the downfall of the Rainbows, as the Pearl Harbor Sailors edged Hawaii 12-7.

With a deceptive backfield consisting of three capable flingers, the collegians marched 84 yards in nine plays to push over the game's initial tally. A 21-yard touchdown pass from Matsukawa to Dick Ueoka climaxed the sustained drive.

Navy retaliated in the second period with Eddie Miller and Quarterback Chris Lopez paving the way. A 31-yard aerial to Ed Gipson was the key play in the march, while Miller's two-yard plunge provided the payoff punch.

The sailors again drove deep into Rainbow territory, but were stopped on the UH six yard-line. Hawaii's Joe Balangitao muffed and Navy's Gordon Feazel recovered on the UH nine yard-line. On the third play, Larry Scullion fumbled and Eric Watanabe pounced on the loose poker for the Rainbows. But on the next play, Hartwell Freitas dropped the ball and Scullion gathered it in for Navy on UH's 17. Two successive losses amounting to 37 yards pushed them back.

In the final period, Navy punted into the end zone and the Rainbows took over on their own 20. After a short gain by Freitas, the collegians were penalized for illegal use of hands and the ball moved back to the 11. Two plays later, Herring scored after intercepting Matsukawa's pass on the UH 12, and clinched the game for Navy.

UH-Pearl Harbor Marines

The Pearl Harbor Marines, spearheaded by a 222-pound line and the speed-bursts of Skippy Dyer, buried the UH Rainbows 27-7.

The Marines tallied first on Pete Ballaban's boot-leg which climaxed a 42-yard drive. The 28-yard TD jaunt caught the Rainbow secondary spread out.

Skippy Dyer outsped the UH secondary to haul in Dick Denman's 42-yard pass to put the Marines ahead by a 14-0 margin at the half. Mike Michon and Beenal Crow supplied the points after touchdown.

Coach Vasconcellos' chargers retaliated in the second half by marching 80 yards to score. With Dick Watase playing quarterback and Joe Matsukawa at the halfback slot, the UH posed a constant threat with a double barreled backfield. Watase connected on a 51-yard pass to Ray Naylor and later a four-yard bullet from Watase to Bob Shulte put the Rainbows back in the game.

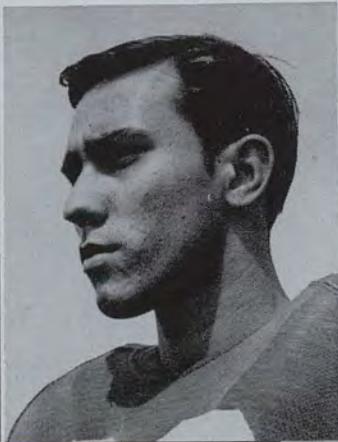

The Marines clinched the game by scoring twice in the final period—once on a 64-yard dash by Dyer and the other on an off tackle slant by Crow. The fine line play of 255-pound Marine tackle Willie McClung stopped UH thrusts, while Dyer, a 155-pound scatback, provided the speed and offensive punch.

UH - Army

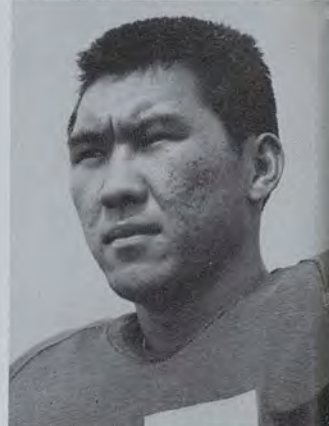

The Rainbows snapped their five-game losing streak by outcharging a heavier Army team on a muddy field to triumph 28-6.

The Musketeers from Schofield were unable to stop the diversified Rainbow attack which netted 260 yards on the ground and 130 via the airlines. Ed Kawawaki broke the ice with an eight-yard dash around left end, but Army retaliated when Herm Clark, 250-pound ex-Chicago Bear tackle, pulled out of the line to ram over the equalizer from eight yards out. Eric Watanabe blocked Dick Gomard's try for point and the collegians continued to lead 7-6 at the end of the first quarter.

Joe Matsukawa put the Rainbows out in front by a 14-6 margin before the half with a well executed pass to Ray Naylor for nine yards and a touchdown. This capped an 80-yard drive that started on the UH 20 and carried over the Army goal in ten plays.

In the fourth period a 36-yard pass from Matsukawa to Colin Chock highlighted a 60-yard drive from UH 40-yard line. Hartwell Freitas smashed over from a foot out.

Late in the game, Archie Iwanaga intercepted Robert Andrade's pass on the Army 40. Six plays later, the UH second stringers pushed over the final touchdown—a one yard slice off left guard by Don Imamoto. Matsukawa split the uprights for his fourth conversion in four attempts.

HENRY ARIYOSHI

Sparked by the outstanding grid play of Joe Matsukawa, the Roaring Rainbows white-washed Barber's Point 26-0 to cop their fourth league win.

Unleashing a tremendous offensive that netted 393 yards, elusive 'Bow backs operated behind an aggressive forward wall to score in every canto except the last.

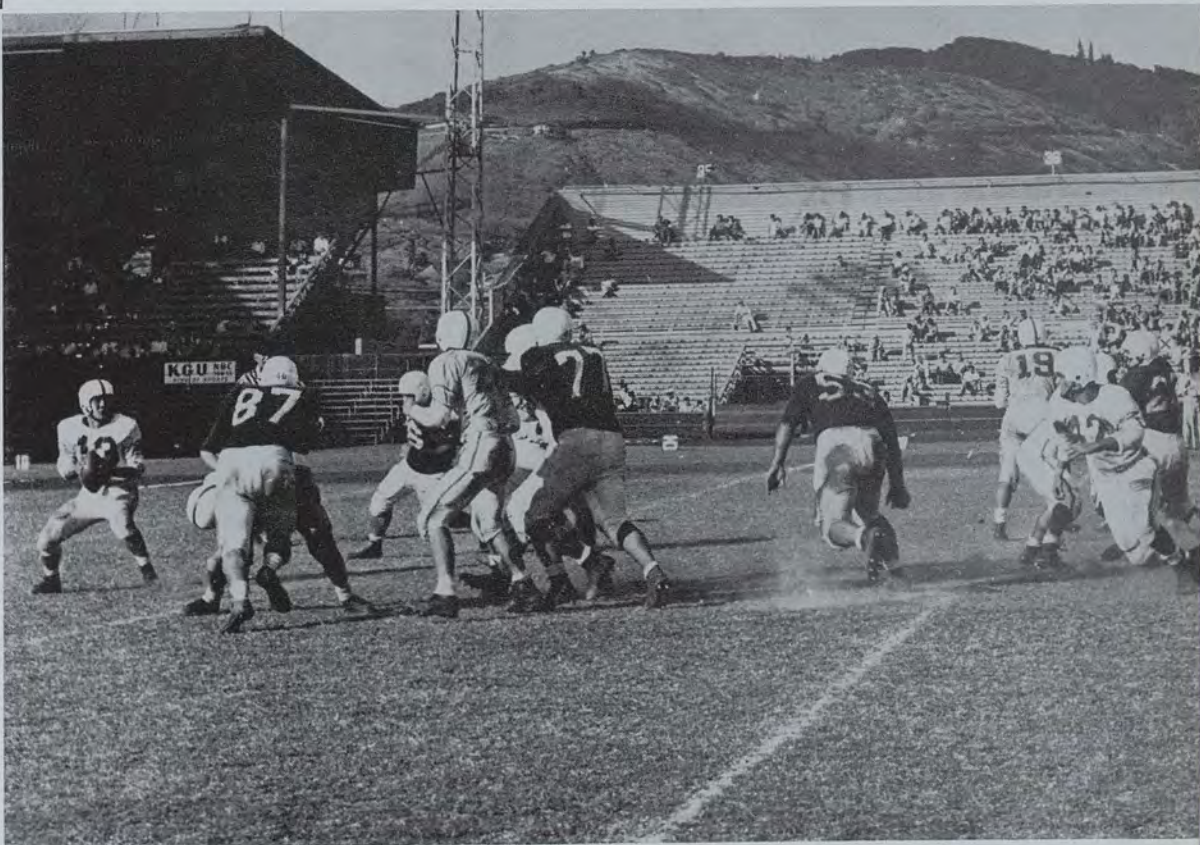

The collegians drove 93 yards in seven plays to hit pay dirt the first time they handled the ball, the clincher being Matsukawa's 18-yard blast off right tackle. Speedy Ed Kawawaki contributed a thrilling 50-yard ground-gainer in the march. Matsukawa's conversion made it 7-0.

Five minutes later Joe Balangitao lit the score boards again with a 25-yard left end sweep. This time Matsukawa failed to convert to leave the score 13-0. A Matsukawa-Ray Naylor aerial good for 21 yards set up the tally.

Late in the second period UH scored another "7" as hard-driving Fullback Hartwell Freitas boomed six yards for a TD and Matsukawa kicked goal. Matsukawa ran a total of 27 yards and passed to Kawawaki for 19 more to move the yardsticks.

Behind 20-0 at the half, the sailors stormed back but could not stem a final Manoa tide in the third period. Heady Dick Watase climaxed a 79-yard march by clicking with Naylor for a 54-yard pass to up the score to 26-0.

UH - 49er's

A fighting University of Hawaii eleven held the highly regarded Forty-Niners to a seven-all stalemate in the first half, but succumbed to the champions' superior weight and reserves to suffer a 27-13 defeat.

The collegians grabbed an early 7-0 lead on the strength of a 39-yard TD jaunt by Ed Kawawaki and beautiful downfield blocking. Dick Watase's pass to Ray Naylon for 18 yards, and Joe Matsukawa's neat 11-yard slant off tackle set up Kawawaki's sprint that climaxed a 74-yard drive.

The Forty-Niner's roared back with big Johnny Dang ripping off 27 yards in four tries. Bill Kaae swept left end from 7 yards out for a touchdown and Wally Dupont converted to knot the game up 7-7.

In the second half, the club aggregation grabbed a 14-7 lead when Dang powered over from the Hawaii two. Kaae, Dang, and Dick Nelson spear-headed the thrust which covered 50 yards.

In the final quarter Dupont streaked 57 yards to score, weaving his way through a maze of UH tacklers. Hawaii retaliated when Kawawaki returned the kickoff 28 yards to place the ball on the UH 45. Matsukawa then hit Naylon for 18 and, in a beautifully executed pass-optional play, rifled a 33-yard aerial into the waiting hands of Kawawaki on the 49er goal line. Several plays after the Rainbow kickoff, Nelson exploded inside right tackle, broke into the open, and galloped 50 yards into the end zone for the final score.

Reaching peak form in their last game, the Rainbows scored a 34-12 victory over the visiting Lewis and Clark Pioneers before 7,000 fans in the Colonel Adna G. Clark dedication game.

Inspired by the biggest student crowd of the season, the Manoans' offensive drives racked up three touchdowns to give UH a commanding 21-0 half-time lead. Ed Kawawaki's nine-yard right end sweep, Don Imamoto's 12-yarder around right end, Joe Balangitao's one-yard smash down the middle, and Joe Matsukawa's three conversions accounted for the tallies.

The vengeful Pioneers, who lost 21-20 to UH last year, entered the scoring column twice in the second half. Showing a fine offense, the visitors scored on a 57-yard pass-lateral play in the third period and a one yard delayed buck in the last period. Halfback Jim Smith and Fullback Gene Flippin chalked up the touchdowns.

The Battling 'Bows retaliated with two TD plays, both coming from the arm of Matsukawa. The passing "wizard," who completed seven out of 14 for 100 yards, spiraled 32 yards to Right End Dick Ueoka and 24 yards to Left End Ray Naylon for the equalizers.

UH - Lewis & Clark

Developing the best cage team in UH history, Al Saake guided the veteran-studded Rainbows to their first University Invitational Conference championship since the league's inception three years ago.

Sparked by team captain Willie Lee, UH's all-time great, the 'Bows enjoyed their greatest season and merited consideration for post-season attractions.

In December the 'Bows took a rugged eighteen-day West Coast jaunt. They compiled a 3-9 record, but seven of their losses went to teams which ranked at that time in the nation's top twenty. UH nearly upset powerhouses California and Oregon State, losing 73-70 in Cal in a double overtime and 55-50 to Wade "Swede" Hallbrook and company.

Returning to local shores, UH swamped Whitworth, Southern California, Utah and Universals. With the completion of the UIC tourney, UH engaged Army, inter-service titlists, for the territorial championship. Despite a sparkling performance of slick ball handling by Walt Taguma, UH succumbed 70-65.

In post-season selections, guards Bob Leisher and Fred Furukawa, forward Al Manliguis, and center Willie Lee placed on the Advertiser all-locals team. Leisher, Furukawa and Lee repeated on the Star-Bulletin team.

Under head coach Tomas Ige, the baseball aggregation garnered diamond laurels for the University of Hawaii.

This season was a memorable one for the UH nine for they were the first squad from the Manoa campus to be admitted into the Hawaii Baseball League. The Rainbows' entry into the circuit brought the HBL back again to a balanced league of six teams.

Although the Rainbows fielded a considerably untried team in the "major league" of Hawaii, they added greatly to the prestige of the University and helped put baseball on a larger scale on campus.

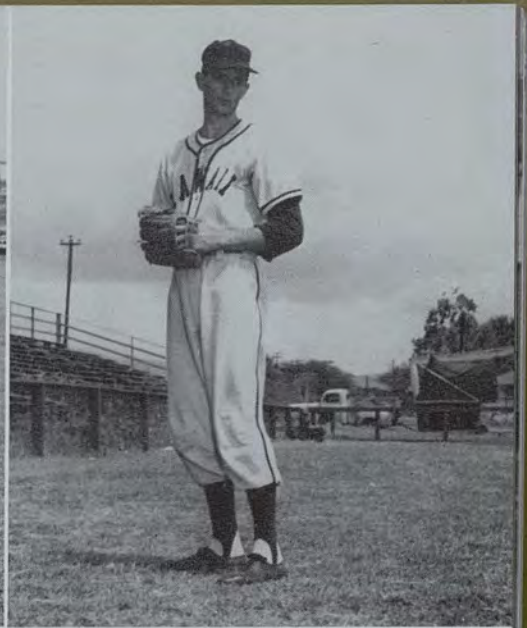

With eight returning lettermen forming the core of the team and a fine array of former high school players, Coach Ige molded his team into a strong aggregation.

After rigid training and preliminary bouts, Coach Herbert Minn's University of Hawaii boxing team emerged from the annual Oahu Amateur Boxing Association's Christmas benefit with a 4-2 win-loss record. Seiji Naya, former all-Japan featherweight champ, established himself as one of the outstanding boxers in that tourney by virtue of his first round knockout over John Henley. In some of the other bouts in which UH'ers participated Tom Nunotani, George Morita, and Tom Shimabuku punched out decisions over their opponents.

In the second OABA smoker the UH boxers carried off top honors, winning four of their five bouts. In the main event Seiji Naya blasted Charley Cates of Navy to gain a second round technical knockout. The bout was a spectacular battle with Cates taking the first round, but Naya came back with a two fisted attack in the second round that rocked his opponent. The ring physician ordered the fight stopped because of a bad gash over Cates' right eye.

In the other bouts, Shiotani avenged his earlier loss to George Manabe by copping a close decision, while Harry Fujinaka and Griffith Okada also out-pointed their opponents.

Although lacking experienced lettermen, the University of Hawaii Swimming Team, under the skilled mentorship of Coach Soichi Sakamoto, stroked its way to third place in the first Rainbow meet. Led by team captain Art Fujino, who was presented with the outstanding men's senior swimmer, the Rainbows annexed thirty-two points in their opening meet.

Art Fujino copped the 100-yard breaststroke and the 200-yard backstroke to avenge his loss to teammate Grafton Jhung in the previous night's 100-yard backstroke event. Wayne Tomita was second in the 440-yard freestyle, while the team of Fujino, Jhung and Bailey snagged second place in the 300-yard medley relay. William Nakamoto won second place in the one meter diving, men's senior division.

The manager is Daryl Anderson. With the exception of captain Fujino, the entire team will return for the 1954-'55 season.

Swimmers Fujino, Jhung, and Denna practice the backstroke.

MOSES OME
Coach

Capitalizing on the fact that he had five returning championship squad members, Coach Moses Ome produced one of the top teams in the local track scene. With the five returning tracksters and a host of newcomers, Coach Ome's squad fared well.

Highlighting the UH track season was the Rainbow meet with Barber's Point, Tripler, Fort Shafter, and Schofield in which UH totaled 69 points over its opponents. Newcomers Howard Brubaker, Gordon Scruton, Fred Sakurada, Reginald Doi and John Burmeister spearheaded the Rainbow victory.

The 1954 Rainbow Relays, the Maui meet and the AAU meet loomed as important meets for the Rainbows. Veterans Milnes Kurashige, Ken Nakatani, Myles Marshman, Alvin Zane and Ted Sparrow formed the nucleus of the squad which proved to be the decisive factor in the 'Bows' meets.

JAMES SHIRAI
Coach

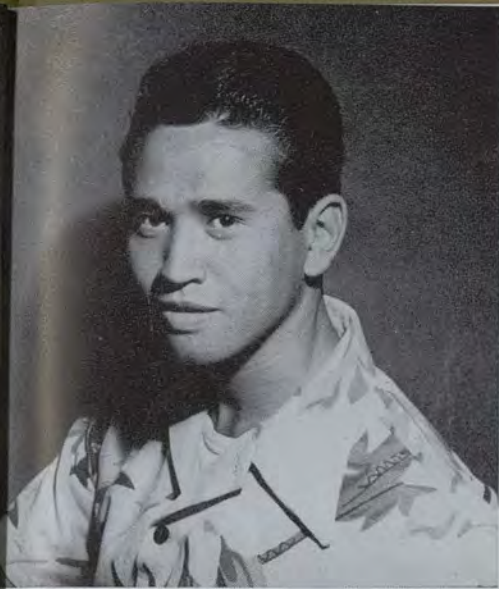

The varsity golf squad, under the mentorship of Coach James Shirai, golfed its way through an active year. For the first time UH golfers were entered in the Commercial League. Varsity golfers also sponsored an Open Rainbow Tournament, which was open to all ASUH students and faculty member.

In spite of the fact that the team lost to the Army squad in the beginning of the year, they were more than compensated by winning over Hickam Air Force and the Kaneohe Marines.

Some of the outstanding divot diggers who will surely prove an asset to the squad next year are Art Fujita, Barry Okuda, Tom Maa, Clyde Sniffen, and Wendell Kop.

Captain

With a nucleus of six lettermen, the University of Hawaii tennis team entered the Class C Tennis Tournament.

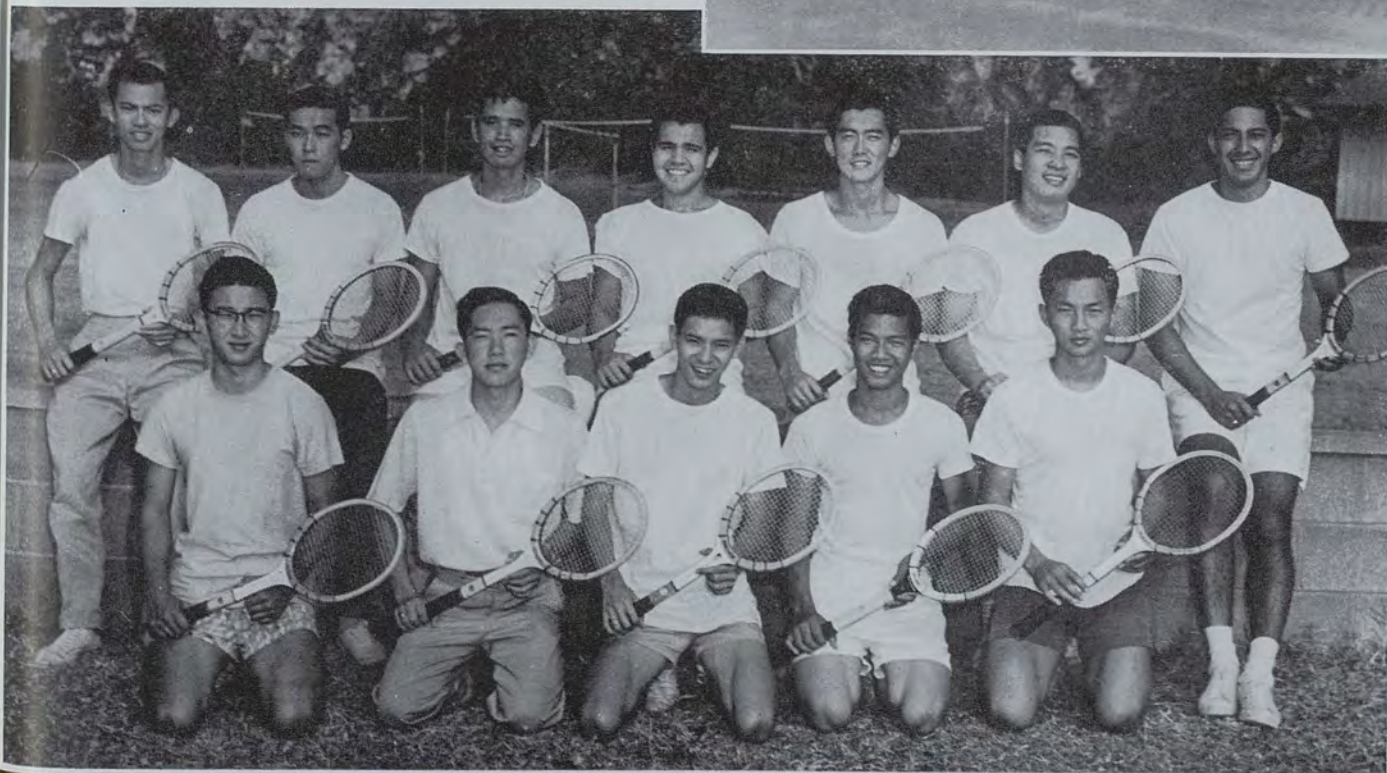

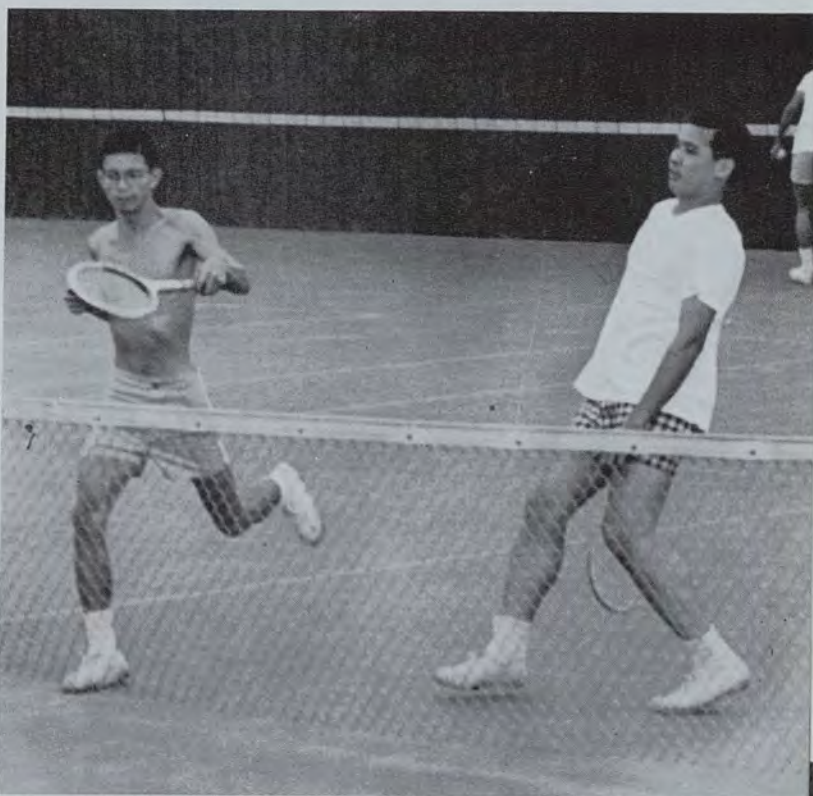

Although lacking in tournament experience, members of the squad, predominately sophomores and freshmen, improved as the season progressed. With the return of leading players, next year's team promises to be extremely well-balanced.

Starting players were Captain Kenneth Sereno, Jonathan Kajiwara, Lee Ramirez, Ronald Morikawa, Stanley Chung, Douglas Hee, Charles Heen, Saburo Nishida, Michael Chun, and Calvin Kam. Reserves who proved to be invaluable in bolstering the squad were Harrison Jong, Takashi Ando, and Paul Lee.

ED CHUI
Director

Another year of intramural activities, highlighted by active participation and keen competition, was completed under the direction of Ed Chui.

The sports calendar began early in the school year with an all-campus bowling league and touch football. Haumana A copped the much-sought-after interclub title for football, while the seniors took the interclass crown. Donald Nishimura, Tamotsu Unemori, and James Wakafuji shared the bowling honors.

Novice and open basketball followed, with Commerce C, headed by Thomas Fukunaga, copping the novice championship. In the open league, Phi Delts won the crown for the third consecutive year.

In individual events, Stanley Chung took the singles novice tennis championship; Takao Shikuma broke the record in winning the novice kicking title; Eugene Yoshioka hit 29 out of 37 for the freethrow record; and Nelson Yoshioka received the golf honors.

Interested in fostering athletic activities at the UH, the Women's Athletic Association sponsored a well-planned program of intramural sports. Membership was open to all women students who cared to participate in the activities.

Interclub volleyball, under the management of Cora Lui, was the first of the athletic events. The Heper club won the title of interclub volleyball champs. Interclass basketball followed, and the seniors copped this title. Other events for the year included babminton and tennis.

During Women's Week, the WAA staged its women's athletic field day. Once again this year Yolanda De-bisschop paced the Heper club to an easy victory. The Yang Chung Hui and Te Chih Sheh sororities tied for second place.

Elected to the executive positiona of this organization were Betty Ann Lim, president; Euphemia Chung, vice-president; Carol Ching, secretary-treasurer; and Edwina Kanoho, eligibility chairman. Miss May Gay served as faculty advisor for the association.

The University of Hawaii's Young Men's Christian Association celebrated its thirty-second year of existence with a program of study, worship, and action.

Discussion groups, speakers, apple polishings, trips to various institutions, and workshops constituted the first phase of the program—study. The second phase took the form of daily morning worship services and special worship services. Action through active participation in the WSSF drive, Community Chest drive and other campus and community events completed the year of study, worship and action.

Socials provided an important means of fostering fellowship among the members and other groups. Underlying all the activities were the goals: to develop Christian personalities and to build a Christian society.

Home Economics

The primary objectives of The Home Economics Club are to familiarize members with the field of home economics, to encourage participation in home, community and University activities, and to provide amiable student-faculty relationships.

During the year "Good-Will" Thanksgiving and Christmas projects, socials with various campus clubs, and a senior banquet were undertaken.

Officers of the organization were Lily Ishihara, president; Betty Fo, vice president; Helen Miyashiro, secretary; and Doris Asahino, treasurer. Faculty advisor was Mrs. Mary Bartow.

UH Christian Fellowship

The goals of the University of Hawaii Christian Fellowship are to enlarge Christian fellowship, to build Christian character, and to work in accord with the ASUH.

The year's activities began with a leadership conference and the annual freshmen reception. Participating in Homecoming and the Pan Pacific Festival kept the organization busy.

Regular meetings were held twice a week at which time pertinent topics on the Christian Life were discussed by members. Bible study groups and missionary meetings also met the purposes of the group.

Founded in 1947 by Helen Noh, the music club fosters fellowship among music students and assists in furthering music on the campus and in the community.

The club plans a yearly cultural and social program in conjunction with ASUH activities. Monthly meetings included speakers on music and music education. The music faculty and the music students gave public recitals. Members of the club also attended community concerts.

The big project of the year was the Music Festival in May, sponsored by the Hawaii Music Educators Association. The group helped with various divisions of the festival.

Social activities included the annual Christmas party and a farewell banquet.

In keeping with its purpose of promoting good fellowship on the campus, Hui-O-Haumana enjoyed another banner year on as well as off the campus.

The club gained considerable respect in the realm of sports as it attained honors in the intra-mural sport programs.

A joint social, Christmas party, and an informal party were some of the highlights of the year. Adding to the spirit of the University, a combined cheering section with Hale Laulima proved highly successful at the football games.

Leaders of the club in its fourth year were President Arthur Fujita, Vice-President Toshiaki Kawasaki, Secretary Noboru Matsuoka, and Treasurer Yoshio Miyamoto.

American Society of Civil Engineers

Officially recognized by the national association on February 20, 1951, the University of Hawaii Student Chapter of the American Society of Civil Engineers, composed of students in the engineering profession, strives to develop a professional consciousness, to provide contact with the engineering profession, and to promote a spirit of congeniality among members.

The chapter sponsored periodic lectures by prominent engineers, movies and field trips. The engineers also found time to lay their slide rules aside to attend socials and picnics with other campus organizations.

Special meetings with the local section of the ASCE offered an excellent opportunity for club members to "talk shop."

The Commerce Club was organized for students interested in business and economics. This year the club published a greatly improved Occupational Directory to aid business graduates in job placements. Members were also introduced to the mechanics of the local business cog-wheel through discussions and lectures by prominent businessmen.

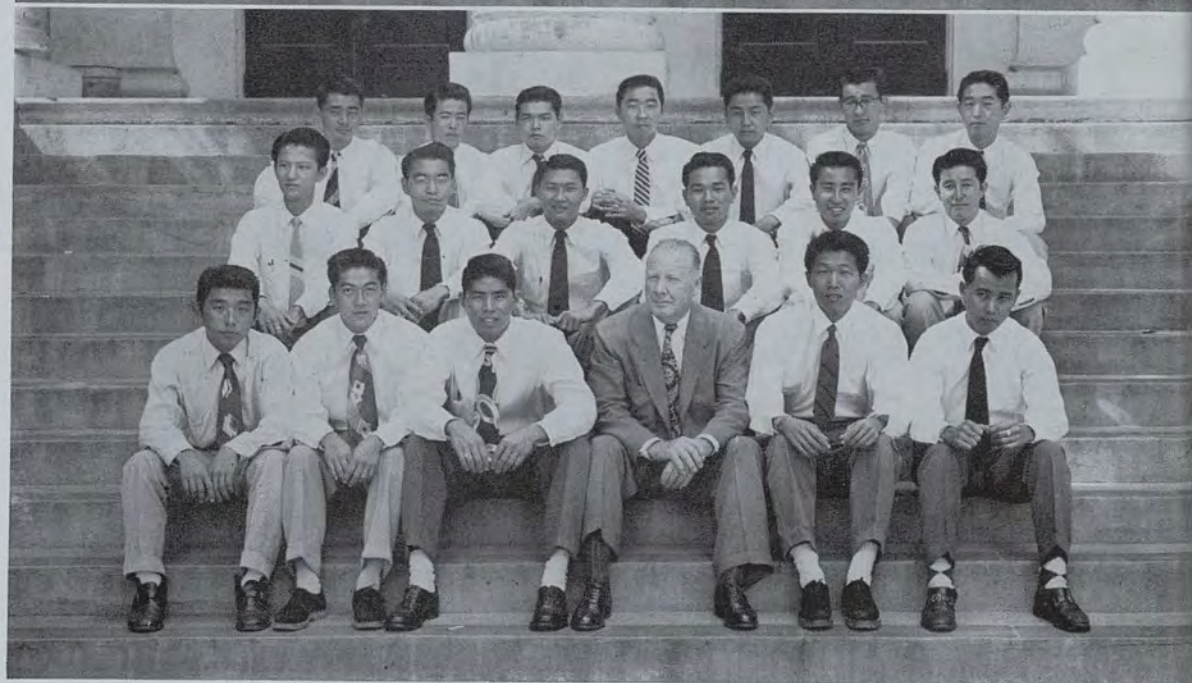

Other activities included handling Community Chest collections on campus, distributing 2000 free Commerce Club blotters, and managing food booths during Homecoming and the Pan-Pacific festival.

The Pumpkin Promenade, the Commercial Ball, a semester-break picnic, and the annual senior banquet provided students a fun-filled social calendar.

Advisor for the Commerce Club was Kathleen Pierson.

Aggie Club

The Agricultural club proposes to foster fellowship among university students in related fields. The club's purpose is actively linked with participation in all ASUH functions.

The traditional initiation picnic at Hanauma Bay launched the season's social activities. Joint socials were held with the Home Economics and TC clubs.

Educational lectures and farm tours were part of the year's program. Much of the club's time was engaged in caring for its plant nursery.

Teachers College Club

Teachers College Club, a professional club open to all students interested in education, is known throughout the campus as TCC. Members of the club worked on many ASUH, BOG and class committees as a service to the University.

TCC also sponsored inter-club mixers, open house at the TC clubroom, semester-break camp, and the annual scholarship dance. "The Clubroom," the only one of its kind on campus, provided for students activities from serious professional discussions to wild card games.

Hui Pookela, the only senior women's honorary society on campus, again carried on in its tradition of service to the University and the community. This honorary society, organized in 1928, celebrated its twenty-fifth anniversary with a silver tea.

Selection of members in the club of "The Chosen" is based on service, leadership, character and scholarship. Twelve girls were selected last May to become members of the club.

Activities of the club as a whole were limited for individual members actively participated in other campus events and organizations. However, the members acted as hostesses at the senior-faculty mixer, worked on a Christmas project and took steps to gain membership in the National Mortar Board Society.

Officers of Hui Pookela were Joyce Matsumoto, president; Anna Yuen, vice-president; Mary Fujimoto, secretary; Nora Fukuhara, treasurer. Mrs. Bruce White and Miss Ione Rathburn were advisors.

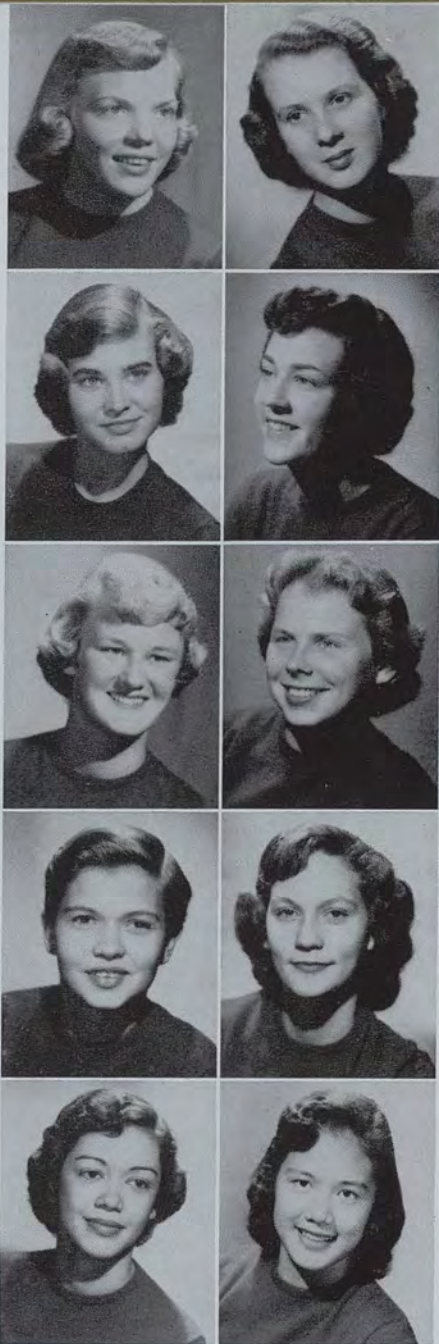

The Phi Sigma Rho sorority was founded in June, 1944. Its purposes are to develop personality and character and to promote scholarship and participation in co-curricular activities.

Functions of the sorority included a muumuu party, a picnic super at Waimanalo, and a morning brunch at President Dorothy Huey's home in Kahala.

After the traditional hazing week and an overnight initiation on windward Oahu, new members were pledged into Phi Sigma Rho at a formal candlelight ceremony.

The sorority was represented in several campus organizations including the AWS, Welcoming committee, Ka Palapala committee, Art Club, Heper Club, and Theater Guild. The club also participated in the campus project Operation Cookie for Tripler Hospital patients, and inter-club sports.

Arnold Air Society

The Arnold Air Society this year gained national society membership under the leadership of Phile Chun, commander. An honorary organization for advanced Air Force Reserve Officers Training Corps cadets, the club entered its fourth year of activity on campus.

Aiding Commander Chun on the executive council were Howard Tarleton, executive commander; Edward Adams, adjutant recorder; Euton Wong, operations officer; Paul Sequeira, Jr., secretary-treasurer; Victor Kobayashi, public relations officer. Advisor was Colonel William Jones, professor of air science and tactics and head of the local AFROTC unit.

Senior members initiated the juniors in advanced AFROTC during the second semester. The new members were formally sworn into the society by Colonel Jones.

Hui Lokahi, founded thirty-one years ago, has the distinction of being the first fraternity organized at the University of Hawaii. The fraternity has always fostered close fraternal relations among its members.

The club started the year with a joint Varsity-Alumni rush picnic at Kawelo Bay. The Hui entered the intra-mural sports program and fared well despite the fact that many of its members were let-termen and ineligible to participate.

The traditional fraternity dance and an Aloha party for the senior members ended a pleasant year for the organization.

Te Chih Sheh

Te Chih Sheh sorority, since its origin in 1930, has promoted an interest in the intellectual and social fields and has stressed friendship among sorority members and cooperation with the ASUH in various activities.

The first event of the year was the annual freshmen tea held at the home of Consul and Mrs. Tong-Lao. The multiple activities that followed included the initiation of the neophytes, socials with Tu Chiang Sheh and Peng Hui, and participation during the Aloha and Homecoming Weeks.

Highlight of the year was the traditional Narcissus Ball held at the American Chinese Clubhouse. Proceeds from this dance contributed to the club's scholarship fund. A formal initiation ceremony for the neophytes and the annual banquet concluded the year's activities.

Ke Anuenue, meaning "the rainbow," is an active organization on the university campus. It is a cultural sorority for Hawaiian or part-Hawaiian girls with the purpose of promoting good spirit and fellowship among its members. Marking its twenty-fifth year of existence, the sorority participated in Homecoming Day events, in the "Operation Cookie Drive," was in charge of the magnificent Pan-Pacific Pageant, and also aided in service and community projects. Later in the year, ten neophytes were initiated into the sorority and along with the older members many of these girls took active part in ASUH activities and student organizations. A most memorable and wholesome year was had by all, as the girls enjoyed various social functions among themselves and with other clubs. The unfailing guidance of the sorority's advisors, Mrs. Joan Wade and Tommy Kaulukukui was of great aid to Ke Anuenue as it experienced a very successful and most enjoyable twenty-fifth anniversary.

Phi Delta

The Phi Delta Sigma fraternity has as its purpose fellowship. Since 1928 the fraternity has participated in intra-mural and varsity sports. Many of the club members have gained recognition on the football, basketball and track squads.

Pledging functions highlighted first semester activities. The Phi Delts advanced the interests of the University by working on the Spirits and Rally committee, Ka Leo and BOG committees.

Officers for the school year were William Baird, president; Benjamin Wood, vice-president; Alan McKillop, recording secretary; Warren Reinbold, corresponding secretary; Marvin Ferreira, treasurer.

Yang Chung Hui

The Yang Chung Hui sorority, founded in 1924, is an organization of both cultural and social purposes. To participate in ASUH activities, to develop friendship with other organizations, and to acquaint people with Chinese culture are its main goals.

A rush tea for freshmen held at the home of Dr. and Mrs. Hing Biu Luke started the round of activities. An initiation was held following the pledging of eight neophytes.

The annual scholarship China Tea House Dance was the first formal of the school year held at the Hemenway Hall which was transformed into a garden of Old Cathay.

During the Christmas season a toy project conducted throughout the campus was held for the purpose of giving gifts to needy children. A caroling group was formed of both Yang Chung Hui and Peng Hui members.

Other school projects, socials, a Mother's Day Tea, and the installation of new members made up the program for the year.

Sigma Lambda fraternity was reactivated in 1950 as a non-racial, service and social student organization.

Highlighting first semester activities were the initiation of ten new members and an overnight camp. Club projects included ushering for the Theater Guild and assisting the construction of the ASUH Aloha Week float. The fraternity also sponsored a Japanese movie and a food booth during Homecoming Week. The year climaxed with the annual banquet honoring senior members.

Advisor for the club was Dr. Ryoji Namba.

Peng Hui, organized in 1929 for the purpose of promoting friendship and cooperation on the campus and encouraging more active participation in student activities, started the year off with a pledge program that brought nine new members into the fraternity.

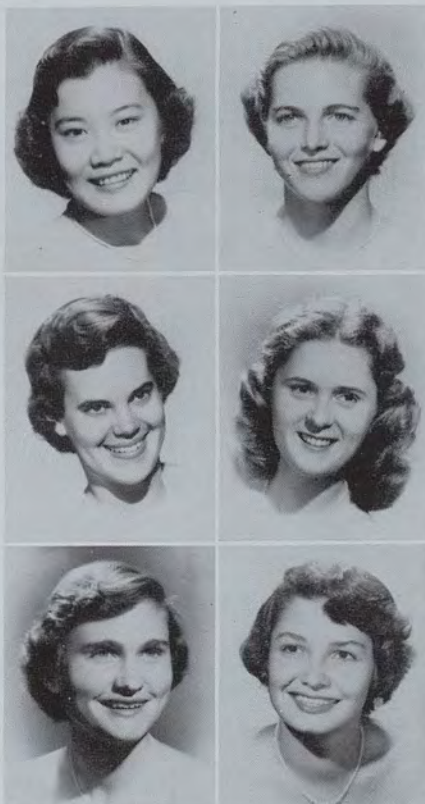

Highlights of a very eventful year included Christmas caroling, socials with various clubs, and the annual semester-break camp at Camp Erdman. Besides a picnic and Round-up for graduates and students, the Hui also took an active part in school activities.

Several members served on the senate while others held important posts in Ka Palapala and ASUH committees. As a service project, the club helped distribute tickets for the annual beauty pageant held in March. Peng Hui also participated in intra-mural sports and showed exceptionally well in basketball and bowling.

George Kagawa was the recipient of the Wah Kau Kong award which is presented each year to the outstanding UH sophomore in memory of a fraternity brother killed in action in World War II.

Gamma Chi Sigma sorority, organized to promote scholarship, companionship, and cooperation in all student activities, has been an active sorority for twenty-six years.

Rushing functions started with a Hawaiian Attire Tea in October. A picnic held at Kailua and a luncheon held at the Oahu Country Club followed. The eleven new members were pledged at a candle-light ceremony in December and initiated during the semester-break.

The year included an Egg Nog party with Gamma Tau Omega, ushering for Theater Guild and the Honolulu Community Theater, and an annual dinner-dance.

Advisors for the sorority were Mr. and Mrs. Dr. Saunders.

The primary aims of the Beta Beta Gamma sorority, formed in 1947, are to preserve and continue the Korean culture, to support ASUH activities, and to foster close relations among its members. Membership is open to girls of all races who are interested in supporting the purposes of the sorority.

Activities for the year commenced with the annual rush tea held in September, followed by initiation on campus and climaxed with an overnight camp. Other functions held during the year were a Christmas social, a picnic, and a farewell party for senior members. The girls sponsored Korean Culture Week and participated in many community events.

Advisors for the group were Dr. Anna Chung and Reverend Samuel Lee.

Wakaba Kai

The Wakaba Kai sorority was reactivated in 1949 for the purposes of promoting fellowship among University women, aiding in ASUH and community activities, and preserving the Japanese culture.

Club projects included participation in Pan-Pacific activities, the annual Girls' Day Cultural Program in March, and the Christmas visit to the Kualini Old Men's Home. An Easter party was also given for the Kualini Old Men's Home.

In May a Mother's Day tea was held for the mothers of members. An overnight camp during semester-break culminated initiation activities, and the annual senior banquet climaxed the year.

Advisors for the sorority were Mrs. Lillian Yajima and Dr. Christopher Gregory.

Hale Laulima

Twenty-nine girls called Hale Laulima, a cooperative dormitory for girls, their home for the past school year.

Highlighting some of the events for the year were the Bachelors' Dinner held in November and the annual spring formal. Other socials were held during the year with members of various dormitories and organizations.

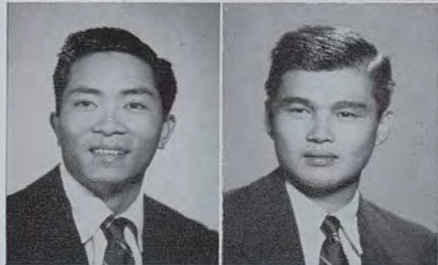

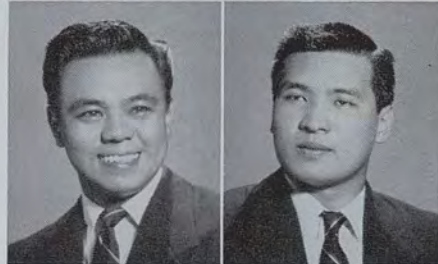

The Laulima-ites were lead by President Shirley Takeuchi and guided by Miss Jessie Stager, housemother.

Tu Chiang Sheh

Since its founding twenty-six years ago, Tu Chiang Sheh has enjoyed a rapid and steady growth.

With the fraternal qualities of brotherhood and fellowship, its members have succeeded in rendering service to the ASUH and the community. A few events were the annual Christmas formal, the kalua pig sale, caroling, and participation in the Pan-Pacific festival.

The traditional parties with Te Chih Sheh and Yang Chung Hui, dinner meetings, smokers, picnics, cocktail parties, initiation of the pledges and the semester-break camp at Mokuleia with Te Chih Sheh were enjoyed by all of the members. The fraternity's participation in the school's intra-mural sports program was highly successful. The year's activities were climaxed with a banquet honoring the graduating members.

Founded in 1937 by a group of world travelers and adventurers, Kappa Epsilon Theta today is traditionally carrying on its spirit of good fellowship with all university students.

An initiation ceremony climaxed the pledging period of fourteen new members. Other activities were stag picnics, dinner-dances, and inter-club socials. The brotherhood also took part in the intramural program and Pan-Pacific festival. Donating blood to servicemen at Tripler General Hospital highlighted the club's service projects.

Kappa Epsilon Theta is proud of its heterogeneous membership which fosters warm campus relations.

Gamma Tau Omega

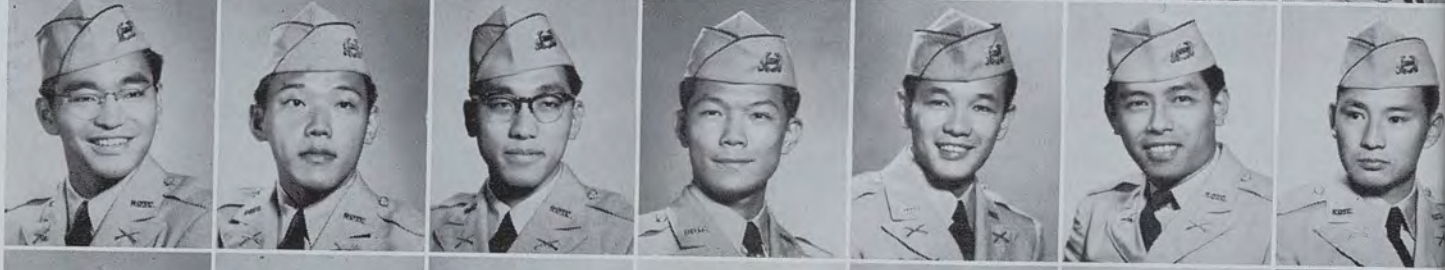

University of Hawaii's newest fraternity, Gamma Tau Omega, succeeded in promoting the development of school spirit and in fostering fraternal spirit among its members during its first year of activity.

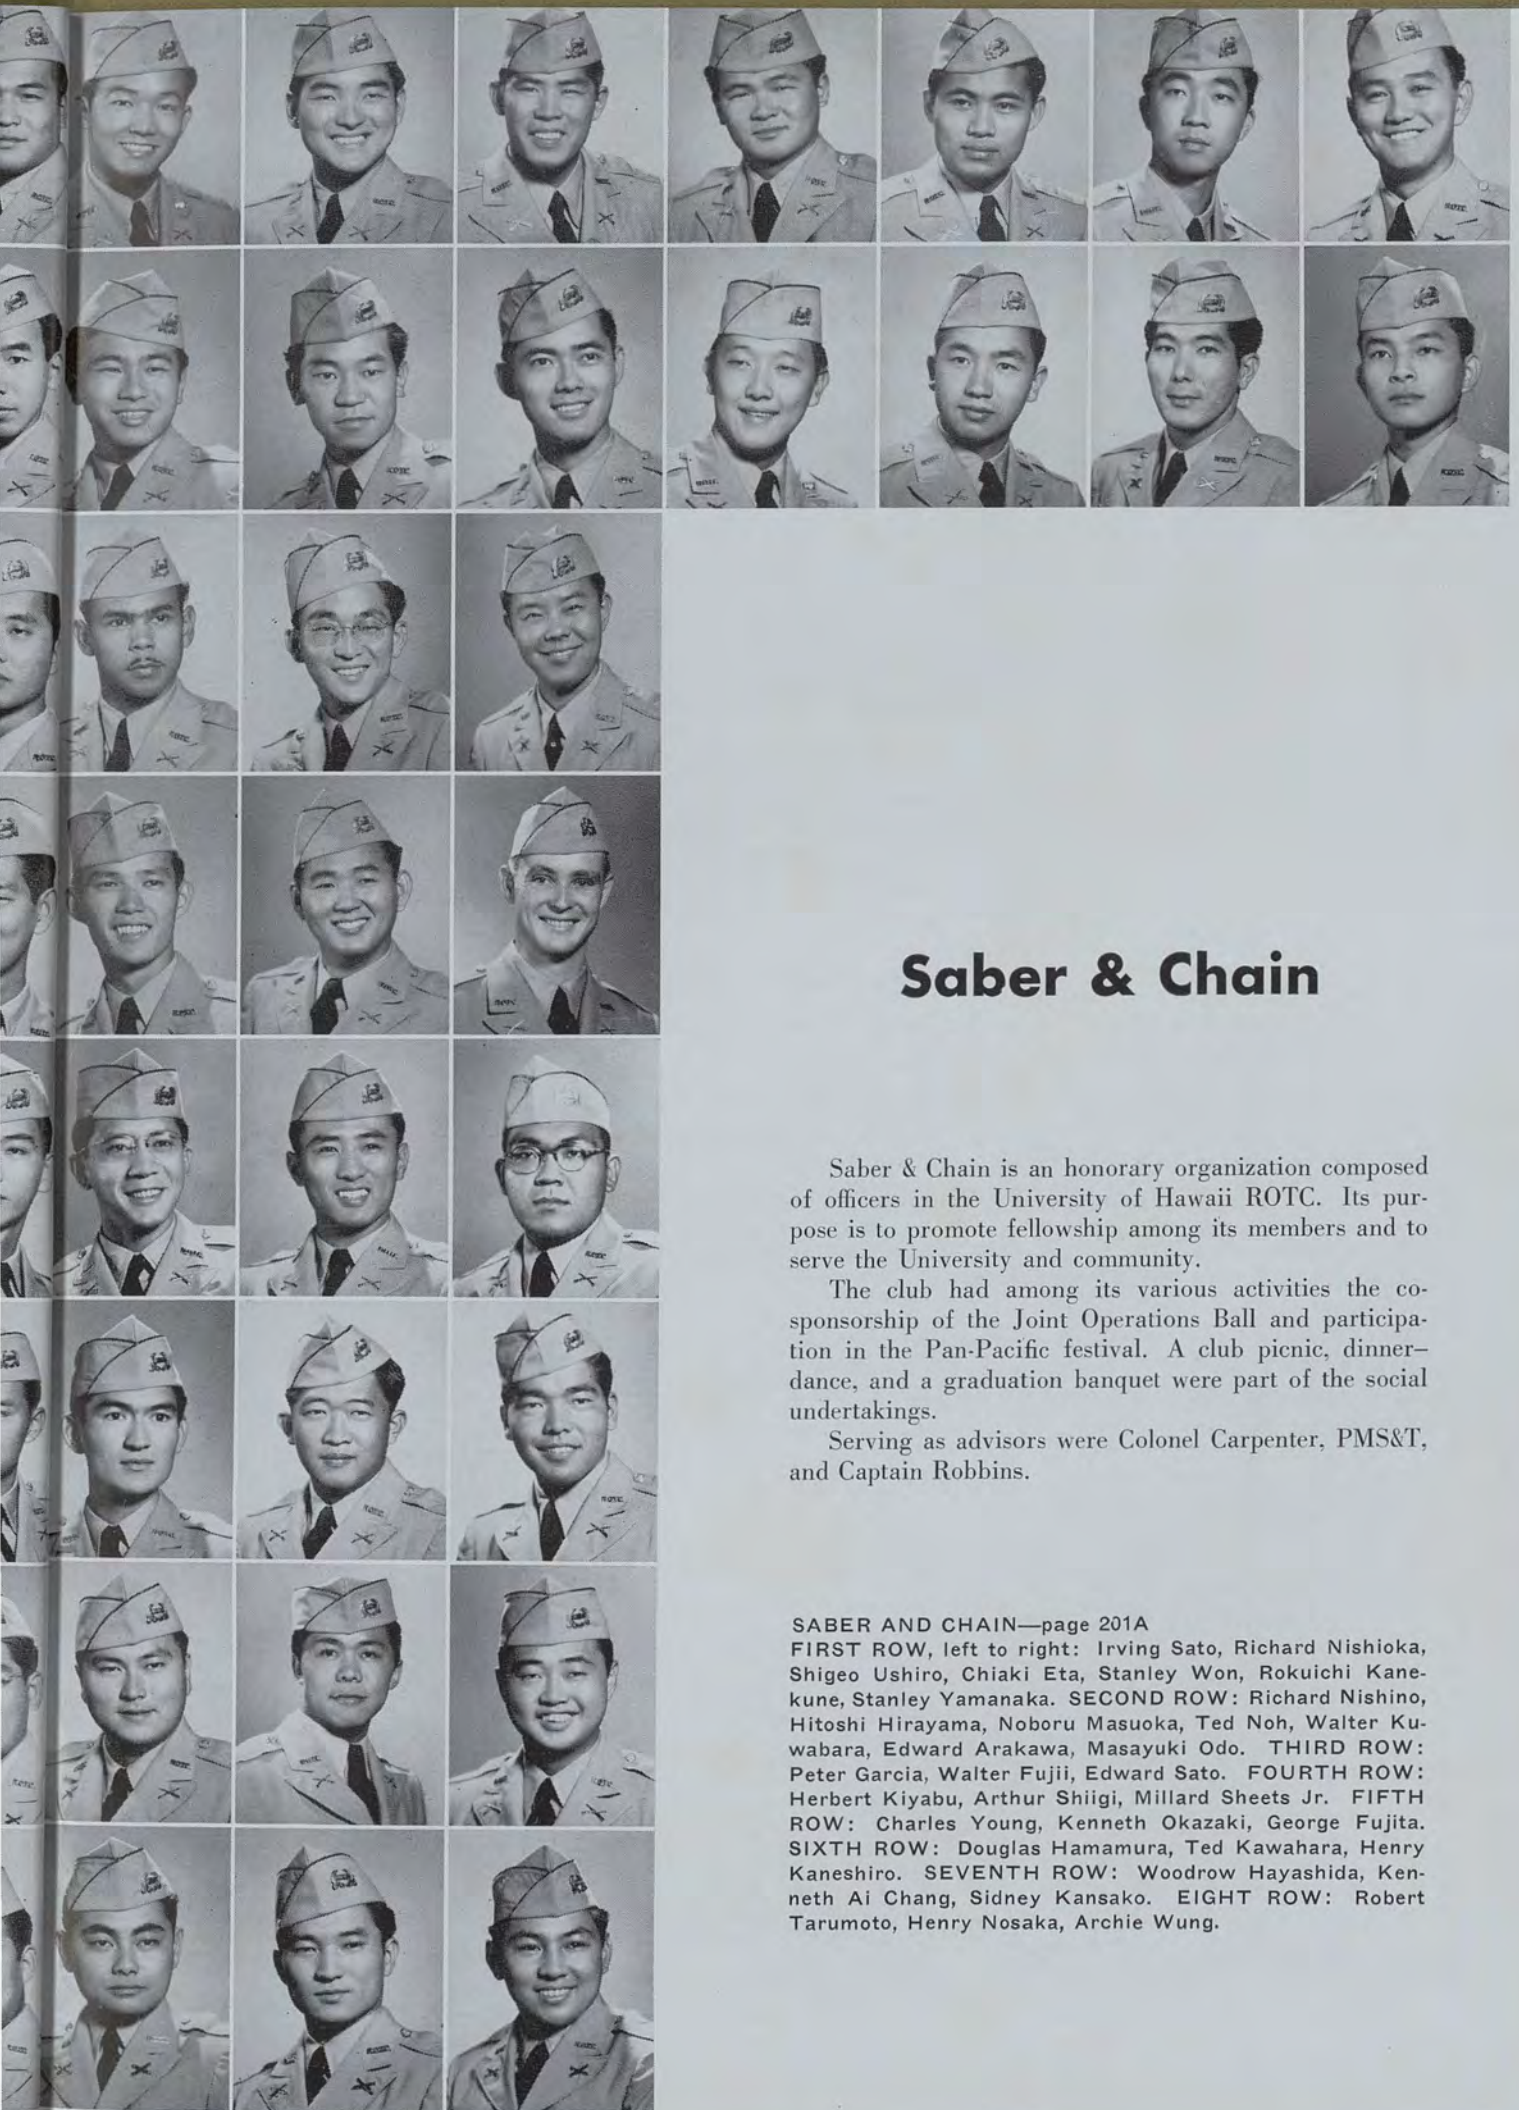

Among the highlights of fraternity activities was its pledging and initiation period which was one of the first held on campus. In campus events, the club came in second in the U.N. Clothing drive, ushered at Theater Guild productions, and also participated in intramurals. An Egnog Christmas party with the Gamma Chi Sigma sorority was the top social event for the club. Guests included other campus fraternities and sororities.

Saber & Chain

Saber & Chain is an honorary organization composed of officers in the University of Hawaii ROTC. Its purpose is to promote fellowship among its members and to serve the University and community.

The club had among its various activities the co-sponsorship of the Joint Operations Ball and participation in the Pan-Pacific festival. A club picnic, dinner-dance, and a graduation banquet were part of the social undertakings.

Serving as advisors were Colonel Carpenter, PMS&T, and Captain Robbins.

Phi Kappa Phi

Phi Kappa Phi was founded at the University of Maine in 1897, by men who saw the need for an honor society based on broader lines than any then in existence. Later chapters were formed at the University of Tennessee and the Pennsylvania State College and these chapters are now represented by the three stars on the seal. At present there are fifty-six institutional chapters.

The prime object of this organization of honor students from all departments of American universities and colleges, is to emphasize scholarship and character, and to stimulate mental achievement by recognition through election to membership.

KA PALAPALA BEAUTY PAGEANT OF NATIONS

The Ka Palapala Beauty Pageant of Nations originated in 1937, and is symbolic of the heterogeneous group on campus. This annual beauty pageant of nations, sponsored by the Associated Student of UH, gave rise to the name Ka Palapala Beauty Pageant when pictures of the racial queens were traditionally featured in the yearbook, KA PALAPALA. March 6, 1954 marked the thirteenth Ka Palapala Beauty Pageant held in the Andrews outdoor theater.

Contestants representing their respective racial groups — Chinese, Japanese, Korean, Filipina, Hawaiian, Cosmopolitan, Caucasian — entered two preliminary rallies, a street-dress rally and a bathing suit rally. Following the rallies, five semi-finalists from each racial group were selected to appear in the formal-dress pageant on the evening of March 6. From the semi-finalists seven queens were chosen to represent each racial group.

Each year the Hilo Branch of the UH enters one contestant in the racial group of her ancestry. This year Bernice Nakatsu from Hilo was entered in the Japanese group of semi-finalists.

Master of Ceremonies for the evening pageant was Webley Edwards. Judges chosen from the community were Joseph Condon, Commander William Lederer, Mrs. Gustav Ecke, Miss Dixie Koch, and Mr. William Ewing.

Cathy Chase

Caucasian

Rowena Sue

Chinese queen Rowena Sue, better known on campus as Susie, plans to major in elementary counseling. As president of the freshman class, Susie was chosen outstanding freshman woman of the year. She spends her leisure time playing tennis or actively participating in sorority activities.

Chinese

Cosmopolitan

Dorinda Stagner

Talented Dorinda Stagner, Cosmopolitan queen, calls Frear Hall her home. When not busy with sorority activities, Dori dances hula on KONA TV. Besides dancing hula, Dorinda is also engaged in writing a book on the history of hula.

Filipino

Dolly Garcia

Filipina queen Dolly Garcia is a honey-tanned sophomore lass enrolled in the college of Arts and Sciences. This sophomore who stands 5' 5", 128 pounds, professes eating to be her favorite pasttime. Looking forward to graduation, Dolly has her eye set on social work.

Mary Puaa

Nursing is the goal of Kamehameha alumna Mary Puaa, who reigns as the Ka Palapala Hawaiian queen of 1954. Known as Buzzie to nearly everyone, Mary's warm and friendly personality has won her a large circle of friends.

Hawaiian

Japanese

Elsie Toyama

To be an occupational therapist is the aspiration of Japanese queen Elsie Toyama, who comes from the island of Maui. Elsie's cheerful disposition has made her one of the most popular freshmen girls on campus.

Doris Cha

Shy, unassuming Doris Cha, an Arts and Sciences freshman from Hawaii, is this year's Ka Palapala Korean queen. Fond of reading, Doris is seriously taking courses in library science with the hopes of becoming a first rate librarian. Her interest in classical music compliments her ability to play the organ.
