LIFE AFTER THE LIS PROGRAM

Job Hunting

View this presentation at go.hawaii.edu/j6i
View the handout at go.hawaii.edu/mu
HELLO!

Liz Teoli
Instruction Librarian, WCC
teoli@hawaii.edu
SO, YOU GRADUATED AND WANT TO FIND A JOB?
THINGS YOU SHOULD KNOW:

- You are amazing
- You deserve a job
- You are not alone
THINGS YOU SHOULD KNOW:

◈ If you want to work for a specific organization look at their website
◈ Hawai‘i is small
PLACES TO SEARCH:

✎ Job Links @UHM LIS
  - University of Hawai‘i LIS Program LIS-JOBS

✎ Tip: most job boards are open, get added to some from other library schools
  - Simmons College
  - University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign
PLACES TO SEARCH:

✧ Work at UH

- Tip: Don’t just search for “Librarian” jobs. Try looking for APT positions.
- Tip: Civil service vacancies are found on the DHRD site (clerks, techs, etc…)
- Search HireNet Hawaii for Casual Hire positions with UH
  ◇ Also search here for positions with Hawaiʻi Pacific University
PLACES TO SEARCH:

- Hawaii State Public Library System
- Department of Human Resources Development (DHRD)

Tip: Be sure to check both of these sites
Tip: Look into casual hire work with HSPLS
PLACES TO SEARCH:

- Indeed
  - There are lots of national sites, this is my favorite.
  - The limiters on the side make searching simple.

- So many sites, please check the handout.
THANKS!

Any questions?

Liz Teoli
Instruction Librarian, WCC

teoli@hawaii.edu
CARL, YOU'RE GOING TO GET OUT THERE

AND YOU'RE GOING TO CATCH THAT RED DOT

The

End
SLIDE CREDITS

Special thanks to all the people who made and released these awesome resources for free:

- Presentation template by SlidesCarnival
- Photographs by Unsplash