

Diplomatic Immunity

Why should diplomats have immunity?

Do they have complete immunity from criminal prosecution?

For actions outside their official duties?

How about from civil actions being filed against them?

Can the country they represent waive their immunity?

Are diplomatic premises “inviolable”?
What does that mean? Why?

Do embassies have to comply with building codes?

Can the host nation investigate crimes committed on embassy premises?

How do “consuls” differ from “diplomats”?
