

Continuing Legal Education Program -
Constitutional Law, Status Issues, and Indigenous Rights

Jon M. Van Dyke

William S. Richardson School of Law

University of Hawaii at Manoa

jvandyke@hawaii.edu

Saipan - April 28, 2001

Guam - May 1, 2001

Table of Contents

1. Honolulu Advertiser article, “Decolonize Pacific, U.N. chief urges”	1
2. Van Dyke, “The Evolving Legal Relationships Between the United States and Its Affiliated U.S.-Flag Islands”	2
3. Commonwealth of the Northern Mariana Islands v. Atalig	75
4. United States of America v. Leon Guerrero	84
5. Saipan Hotel Corp. v. National Labor Relations Board	91
6. Saipan Hotel Corp. v. National Labor Relations Board	95
7. Saipan Stevedore Company v. Director, Office of Workers’ Compensation Programs	97
8. Basiente v. Glickman	105
9. Kirschenheiter, “Resolving the Hostility: Which Laws Apply to the Commonwealth of the Northern Mariana Islands When Federal and Local Law Conflict”	111
10. Guam Society of Obstetricians and Gynecologists v. Ada	147
11. United States of America v. Zhou Liang	154

12. Government of Guam v. The United States	159
13. People of Guam v. Guerrero	169
14. Gumataotao v. Director of Department of Revenue and Taxation	175
15. Gutierrez and Bordallo v. Ada and Camacho	181
16. Leon Guerrero v. Clinton	186
17. Van Dyke, Di Amore-Siah, and Berkley-Coats, “Self Determination For Nonself-governing Peoples and for Indigenous Peoples: The Cases of Guam and Hawaii”	194
18. Wabol v. Villacrusis	215
19. Anaya, “International Developments Regarding Indigenous Peoples”	227
20. Rice v. Cayetano	241