ETHEL WINTER
guest artist

A soloist for many years with the Martha Graham company, Ethel Winter has toured the United States, Europe and the Orient. She has the unique honor of being the first dancer to perform Miss Graham's famous roles in "Salem Shore," "Herodiade," and "Frontier." Miss Winter's varied background encompasses solo work with the NY City Center Opera Co., summer stock, Broadway and television appearances. Her equally varied teaching career includes Bennington, NY University, and the actor's Neighborhood Playhouse. She is currently on the faculty of the Juilliard School of Music and the Martha Graham School of Contemporary Dance.
