In this workshop for current UHM undergraduate students, participants will be exposed to basic-level business etiquette - the verbal and non-verbal behavior expected in Japanese business environment. The instructor will touch upon some important concepts and provide a crash-course in what to do (and what not to do) when meeting with Japanese people for business purposes. The participants must have at least one-year of Japanese language background. They must also agree to keep their zoom video on during the workshop. The workshop is limited to 15 participants.
