Robert Allerton Bequest

After making specific bequests to individuals and institutions, the late Robert Allerton—active then honorary trustee, benefactor and friend of the Academy—assigned one-third of the net income from the remainder of his estate to the Honolulu Academy of Arts. The remaining two-thirds was bequeathed to the Art Institute of Chicago. It is with deep gratitude that the Academy announces this generous gift which will do much toward assuring the continued development of our museum in which Mr. Allerton was so deeply involved during his lifetime.

Tadashi Sato Exhibition

More than forty works by Maui artist Tadashi Sato will be featured in a one-man exhibition on view through April 4. The show includes oils, watercolors and photographs of commissioned works which are permanently installed in buildings on Maui and Oahu. The Academy is pleased to present this outstanding exhibition by a local artist who has achieved a high degree of national prominence.

Posada Prints

An exhibition of prints by the Mexican artist Guadalupe Posada and his followers, including Diego Rivera and Pablo O'Higgins, may be seen at the Academy through March 28. This collection represents the Mexican School of the late 19th and early 20th centuries. Many of the prints were lent by Dr. and Mrs. Jean Charlot; others are from the Academy's permanent collection. In connection with this exhibition, Dr. Charlot will be presented in a lecture for Academy Members on March 18 at 10:30 a.m., and for the public at 8:00 that same evening.

THE COVER: Winslow Homer

1964. Detail.

Eur-Asian Graphics

Opening on April 22, this exhibition of design by international artists includes fine examples of graphic art selected by Professor Kenneth Kingrey of the University of Hawaii during a recent trip around the world. Consisting largely of book covers, letterheads, posters and the like, the exhibition was gathered from Japan, Hong Kong, India, Italy, Poland and many other countries. This important event marks the opening of the Festival of Music and Art of this Century, which is co-sponsored by the University of Hawaii and the East-West Center.

The Academy will present a lecture on graphic design for Members at 10:30 a.m. on April 28, and for the public at 8:00 p.m. on April 29. A visiting graphic designer will be secured for these two lectures, his name to be announced at a later date.

Tamarind Impressions

Opening on April 26 will be an exhibition of lithographs from the Tamarind Lithography Workshop of Los Angeles. Inspired by the enthusiasm of artist June Wayne, the Ford Foundation has subsidized the Workshop's operations since 1958. Miss Wayne, who was named director of the Workshop by the Ford Foundation, has collaborated with the American Federation of Arts in preparing this exhibition. Included are more than 30 lithographs and additional material which illustrates the various techniques used in lithography.

The Memorial Fund - 1964

The Director reports that during 1964 gifts to the Academy's Memorial Fund were made in memory of Mr. Robert Allerton, Mrs. Isaac M. Cox, Mrs. Elsie Das, Mrs. Walter F. Dillingham, Mrs. Bebe Denman Howard, Mrs. Norman C. Schenck and Mrs. Emily Wrenn.

New Membership Privilege

Members of the Academy are now able to take out a one-month guest membership for visitors from out-of-state or from a Neighbor Island. It is hoped that this new privilege will be useful to Members expecting guests who would enjoy participating in Academy activities. For additional information, please call the Membership Office at 583-693.

About Membership

New Members have joined the Academy in unprecedented numbers in recent months. A cordial welcome is offered to the following, who joined between October and the end of January.
