THE VOICE OF HAWAII

VOL. XII.

HONOLULU, HAWAII, MAY 28, 1934

No. 31

300 Students To Receive Degrees Tuesday, June 5

Dr. Monroe E. Deutsch From University Of California Will Deliver Address

The twenty-third annual commencement exercises of the University of Hawaii will take place on June 5 at the mauka ewa corner of Cooke Field. Parents of the graduates and friends of the University are cordially invited to inspect the buildings and campus at 3:30 p.m. The exercises will begin at 4:30 p.m. with the academic procession of regents, faculty and the graduating class. The Royal Hawaiian band has been asked to provide the music.

Dr. Monroe E. Deutsch, vice-president and provost of the University of California, will deliver the commencement address. Mr. Charles R. Hemenway, chairman of the Board of Regents, will act as the presiding officer.

Prizes and awards will be presented by Dean A. L. Andrews while commissions in the Reserve Officers' Corps of the United States Army will be made by the Acting-Governor Raymond C. Brown.

President David L. Crawford will confer degrees to approximately 300 seniors and fifteen graduate students. Candidates for the degree of Bachelor of Science will be presented by Dean Arthur R. Keller; candidates for the degree of Bachelor of Arts by Dean William H. George; candidates for the degree of Bachelor of Education by Dean Benjamin O. Wist; and candidates for Advanced Degrees by Dr. Harold S. Palmer, Director of Graduate Studies.

All the graduating seniors are asked to assemble in cap and gown between Gartley Hall and the Library. They are to line up in twos according to the different colleges.

Each senior will be allowed two tickets which will entitle two persons to a reserved seat on commencement day. Both the tickets and commencement invitations are being distributed by Mrs. L. Hoffman at the president's office.

I. Sato Accepts Student-Teacher Position At Kyoto

Isamu Sato, prominent senior student, has interesting plans for the summer. Under the sponsorship of the Friend-Peace Fellowship, Sato is leaving for Japan, July 8, on the Chichibu Maru, to be student-professor at Doshisha University in Kyoto. While there, he hopes to do research work in political science, particularly studying problems of the Japanese government. He also will instruct students in English, and at the same time will be learning Japanese himself.

Before ending up at Doshisha, however, Sato plans to take in many other activities. He will be travelling with a number of mainland students and students from this University and with them will attend the American-Japanese Student Conference in Tokyo, July 19-26. This is the first year that such a conference is being held but it is hoped that it may be made an annual affair. After the conference, Sato states that he hopes the group may take in a few sight-seeing tours to southern Japan, Korea and then to Manchukuo, returning to Doshisha in time for school beginning in September.

Sato says that he will probably stay at Doshisha University for two years, after which time he hopes to go to Eastern United States to study for his higher degrees.

Isamu Sato has been an outstanding student throughout his four years at the University. As a student of International Relations, he has taken active participation in affairs of that nature.

SPEAKERS AT CLASS DAY EXERCISES

Francis Aiwohi, last year's president, who will present the class gift.

Isamu Sato, president, who will transfer the lamp to the incoming senior class president.

Oswald Bushnell, president of the A.S.U.H., who will pass the gavel to his successor and who will deliver the ivy oration.

Helen Quon, editor of Ka Palapala, who will transfer the quill to the newly-elected editor.

Curtis Heen, president-elect of the A.S.U.H., who will receive the symbol of his office.

Waialae Club Selected For Senior Class Dance

As a climax to all commencement events, the Commencement Ball, given by the Senior Class, will take place on the night of Commencement Day, June 5, at the Waialae Golf Club. According to Ainsley Mahikoa, chairman of the affair, plans have been completed.

With decorations creating an Hawaiian atmosphere, the dance will commence at 9 o'clock and end at 1 o'clock. At midnight, a light supper will be served to seniors and their guests at tables placed about the lawn and the lanai. Biggy's band of nine players, which has been recently re-organized, will provide the music for the evening.

The dance will be strictly an invitational affair, and the bids, which may be obtained from the chairman at Hawaii Hall, are non-transferable. Each bid admits one couple, of which at least one member must be a senior, who will receive a rose, the class flower, at the entrance to the hall.

Honored guests of the evening will include President and Mrs. David L. Crawford, Dean and Mrs. A. L. Andrews, Dean and Mrs. A. R. Keller, Dean and Mrs. B. O. Wist, Dr. and Mrs. Earl M. Bilger, Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Hemenway and Dean W. H. George.

University Summer Session For 1934 Opens On June 25

Featuring the sociological and educational aspects of race relations, the University six-week summer session will open June 25. According to Dr. Thayne Livesay, director, 80 courses will be offered. Of this number, 18 courses will be offered by the School of Pacific and Oriental Affairs which will be directed by Dr. Romanzo Adams and Dr. Andrew Lind; two by the Hawaiian School of Religion of which Dr. Paul Minear is the director; and seven will be given at the Hawaii National Park from June 18 to July 27. Dr. Francis E. Peterson will direct the last-mentioned branch.

Notable leaders of education will be included on the faculty. In the School of Pacific and Oriental Affairs, specifically-invited professors are: Dr. Felix Keesing, formerly of the University of New Zealand; Dr. Paul L. Dengler, director of the Austro-American Institute of Education in Vienna; Arthur E. Lindborg, formerly superintendent of education in Samoa; Raymond G. Gettel of University of California; Dr. Oswald F. Black, psychologist to the government of South Africa; Dr. Everett V. Stonequist of Skidmore College; and Dr. P. C. Chang of Nankai University.

Visiting professors in the regular departments will include Dr. Richard E. Burton, noted writer and lecturer in Columbia University; Howard C. Hill of University of Chicago; August Vollmer, famous police administration teacher of University of California and Miss Elizabeth Keppie of Pasadena Junior College.

Willis Thomas Led '34 Class Through Tough First Year

In 1930, the present senior class, under the leadership of Willis Thomas, president, Fred Kruse, vice-president, Earnest Watanabe, secretary, and Ainsley Mahikoa, treasurer, took its place on the campus. Freshman week led the class thru a strenuous program of lectures on what college requires of its students and what students should work toward in college. Times have changed since 1930—freshman week activities that formerly stretched through a whole week have now been compressed into two days. This compression has meant the elimination of many awesome and wordy lectures to which the class of 1934 as freshmen were subjected.

Freshman initiation, lively, full of action and heated freshman resentment, filled the entire week following the freshman week. True to tradition, no freshman was able to draw down the limp flag hoisted at the top of the greased pole, so that the overbearing sophomores continued to laud it over the freshman for weeks after initiation was over.

Under the guidance of Fred Kruse, president, Ainsley Mahikoa, vice-president, Thelma Sproat, secretary, and Edward Fukunaga, treasurer, the class began its sophomore career. Early in the fall the class financed a colorful sophomore dance in the gymnasium featuring Biggy's Young Hotel Orchestra. This was the outstanding activity of the sophomore year. In the spring of that year the class held a picnic at Kailua beach. The picnic included a treasure hunt.

National Honorary Society Accepts 22 Senior Members

Phi Kappa Phi, national honorary scholastic society, formally accepted into membership twenty-two seniors, and three faculty members of the Teachers College on Tuesday, May 15, at an initiation ceremony held in the Student Room.

The initiation ceremony began with the presentation of the initiates to the vice-president, Dr. Harold A. Wadsworth, by the Marshall, Professor Louis A. Henke. They were then referred to the president, Dr. Frank T. Dillingham, who inducted them into the chapter. These members were selected on the basis of scholarship and character: Susumu Matoi, Toshie Tanio, Manuel Kwon, Francis Aiwohi, Jack Mizuha, Masako Kubota, Matsuko Masuda, Edward Kent, Doris Kotake, Sun Oi Chun, Dorothy Nip, Wai Jane Char, Yoriko Kaya, Doris Tsugawa, Hong Lin Wong, Kimie Shitamoto, Dorothy Sakamoto, Setsu Okubo, Fumiko Segawa, Oswald Bushnell and Daisy Yamaguchi. The faculty initiates included Mr. William McCluskey, Dr. Ephraim Sayers and Dr. Francis E. Peterson.

Dr. John Donaghoo, one of the charter members of this society, Dr. Romanzo Adams and Dr. Royal Chapman were the speakers of the evening.

Seniors Will Enjoy Class Party Tonight

A hilarious party is being planned for the seniors at Charles Atherton House on Monday, June 4, at 7:30 p.m. A unique program is being arranged by Harold Hall, chairman of the affair. Besides the program, there will be card games and dancing. One of the features of the evening will be the presentation of the sixteen "Real Deans" who were selected from among the seniors by a committee of faculty members and students. Refreshments will be served.

Only seniors and a few special guests are invited.

Speaker

President D. L. Crawford, who will deliver the farewell address and receive the gift from the Class of '34.

U. Of H. Represented At Anglo-Japanese Students' Meeting

Five students will officially represent the University of Hawaii at the first American-Japanese Conference to be held in Tokyo, Japan, this summer from July 15 to 26. An additional number may attend the conference on a special arrangement. A large delegation from mainland colleges and universities are also attending the conference.

After the conference, a tour through Japan and Manchukuo is scheduled. The delegates will have unusual privileges, as expenses for housing, meals and transportation in Japan during the conference and for the trip through Japan and Manchukuo will be paid by the Japan Student English Association. A registration fee of $15 is the only expense incurred by the delegates while in Japan.

The underlying purpose of the conference is to exchange ideas and opinions so that the delegates may discover and analyze coincidences and conflicts of opinion of the people on various problems confronting the world today. The discussion topics will deal with economics, politics, religion and philosophy, education and international problem. Lectures on Oriental culture will be given by prominent Japanese professors.

The conference is under the auspices of the Japan Student English Federation. Many other organizations in Japan are supporting the affair, with the World Council of Youth co-operating.

All students who are interested in touch with Isamu Sato, at the Charles Atherton House as soon as possible.

Honorary Dramatic Fraternity Elects Incoming Officers

Theta Alpha Phi national honorary organization for the promotion of dramatics, held an impressive initiation for the newly elected members, Osamu Hirota and Katsuki Shimazu, last Tuesday evening at the home of Dean A. L. Andrews. Hirota is a junior, while Shimazu is a sophomore. All three have considerable experience in dramatics, having had major roles in the Japanese plays of Theatre Guild production.

Officers for the University of Hawaii chapter for the coming semester are Raymond Tan, president; Raymond Won, vice-president; Mr. Willard Wilson, treasurer; and Dean Andrews, advisor. The secretary was not chosen as there are no other old members who will be back next year. Besides the officers, the other members are Earl Kubo, Shizuko Nakano, Hajime Fujimoto, Margaret Kamm and David Wong.

The chapter was responsible for the carrying out and supervising of the "Dramatic Nights," in which the four classes competed for the koa plaque, offered to the class presenting the best night's entertainment.

Rev. Brown To Deliver Baccalaureate Sermon

The baccalaureate service of the class of 1934 will be held at St. Andrews Cathedral on Sunday, June 3. Rev. E. T. Brown of St. Clement's church will deliver the sermon. President Crawford also will take part in the ceremony.

At 10:45 a.m., the graduating class, in caps and gowns, will assemble in the Davis Memorial Hall, the parish house, ewa side of Cathedral. The faculty, also in caps and gowns, will assemble in the Memorial Building, on the walkway side of the Cathedral.

From 275 to 300 seats are reserved for the seniors and faculty. The public is invited to occupy the remaining seats.

As the baccalaureate service is an important part of the graduation activities, every senior is expected to be present at the ceremony.

Students Receive Medals, Plaque At Award Assembly

Awards were given to students and faculty members who were outstanding in various A.S.U.H. activities, during the school year of 1933-34, at a special Award Day assembly held at Farrington Hall, Thursday, May 24, at 9:30 a.m. This is the first time in the history of the University that such a day has been specially set aside to give recognition to students taking part in the various activities. It is the hope of Oswald Bushnell, president of the A.S.U.H. that this event will become an annual affair on this campus.

The faculty members who received special awards were: Arthur E. Wyman, director of Theatre Guild plays, and Mr. Willard Wilson, advisor of Ka Leo.

The Theta Alpha Phi plaque for the best "Dramatic Night" performance was given to the sophomore class. Francis Ching, president, accepted the plaque on behalf of his class.

Those receiving awards in their respective activities were:

A.S.U.H. Officers—President Oswald Bushnell, Vice-President Lucius Jenkins, Secretary Minerva Sakiki.

Dramatics—Theatre Guild—Oswald Bushnell, president; Kenneth Conningham, business manager; council members: Thelma Sproat, Fred Kruse, Hajime Fujimoto.

Ka Leo awards: Katsuto Nagaue, Margaret Bairos, Hong Lin Wong, Frances Wilson, William Murphy, Ella Chun, Kenneth Bull, Oswald Bushnell.

Class Day Next Monday, June 4 On Cooke Field

Banner Representing Class Of 1934 Will Fly From Hawaii Hall Staff

A large senior class banner placed on the flagstaff of Hawaii Hall just beneath the American flag on Monday, June 4, will indicate the opening of class day of the Class of '34. The graduating seniors will observe the annual class day activities on that day beginning at 4:00 p.m. The members of the class in caps and gowns will form a procession in front of Hawaii Hall. Led by President David L. Crawford and Isamu Sato, class president, they will proceed to the mauka ewa corner of Cooke Field where the platform will be situated. Here, a brief but impressive ceremony will take place.

The platform will be beautifully decorated with flowers and plants. The class numerals, made up of red and white flowers to carry out the class colors, will decorate the speakers' table. On the platform will be seated the following: President Crawford, who will deliver the farewell address and also receive the class gift; Oswald Bushnell, who will deliver the traditional ivy oration and also transfer the office of presidency of the A.S.U.H. to the incoming president; Francis Aiwohi, who will present the class gift; Helen Quon, who will transfer the editorship of publications to the incoming editor; and Isamu Sato, who will transfer the lamp of learning to the president of next year's senior class.

Appropriate musical numbers, both vocal and instrumental, will be rendered by well-known musicians. Mrs. Ralph Fishbourne will render several piano selections; Miss Laura E. Brown, vocal solos and Miss Martha Cannon, violin selections.

The ceremony will close with the singing of the Alma Mater.

Thelma Sproat is chairman of class day activities.

Order of Program

1. Opening words—Isamu Sato.
2. Piano selection—Mrs. Ralph Fishbourne.
3. Ivy oration—Oswald Bushnell.
4. Vocal solo—Miss Laura E. Brown.
5. Presentation of Class Gift—Francis Aiwohi.
6. Transference of A.S.U.H. presidency—Oswald Bushnell. Transference of editorship of publications—Helen Quon. Transference of Senior Class presidency—Isamu Sato.

Aloha!

One week from tomorrow, we Seniors will march out from the portals of this University. The struggle of four years for our goal will be reached.

Within the span of four years, we may have not won many first places or prizes, but at least we have tried to do our best to make the years replete with activities and achievements for our Alma Mater. In student government, athletics, dramatics, journalism, and forensics, our representatives have been many; and they have been active in building up bigger and better achievements for these fields.

As Commencement draws near, we—two hundred and fifty strong—are happy and yet sad—happy because our goal at this University is realized, and sad because our accomplishments, activities and struggles will be memories of the yesterdays. To friends and faculty members whom we leave behind as we go forth to meet life's greater battles, we bid a fond Aloha.

Rethinking College Education

It used to be some years ago when a college education was the immediate stepping stone to a more or less successful professional or business career. But now things have changed. The undue emphasis on "mass" in all human activities including education and industry without regard to its effects upon the other phases of our economic and social life has led us into a very paradoxical and peculiar situation which is now familiar to all of us.

However, since the memorable date of October, 1929, a fundamental change is coming. The old time philosophy of individualism and laissez-faire is gradually disappearing. A new era of planned and controlled regulation of our political and economic life is in order. The emphasis will be more and more on quality than quantity. The whole mental attitude of the people is changing.

With the coming of the new era in our social, political, and economic life, there is a need for a thorough rethinking of the purpose and objective of college education. The old philosophy of education must be modified to meet new conditions. We must come to a frank realization of the purpose of higher education.

It is sometimes heard among both the professors and students that people ought to stay in school because depressions don't last forever, and that sooner or later prosperity will be parading down the street. Then jobs will again appear. Is the value of college education or the objective of college training to be judged on the basis of the different phases of the business cycle? Should the incentive to acquire a college education to be determined by the ups and downs of the stock market? Or is there something in a college that is far more stable and important, something that is unaffected even by the height and depth of depressions?

There ought to be a certain objective and ideal in higher education which should transcend all other phases and which is continuous and unchangeable no matter what the condition of the outside world may be. The development of those mental and physical qualities which are needed in the upbuilding and the maintenance of a new economic and social order. This must be the fundamental purpose of college education in the future.

There is a need for a serious rethinking in college education, if our educational system is to have any part to play in the shaping of the new era that is fast approaching; if we are not to allow the average politician to rule the "educated." There is a great need for a wholesale investigation and modification of the ideals and objectives of higher education.

"Our young people criticize the older generation for being backward and conservative in its ideals and ways of thinking, but the truth of the matter is, our young people are the most conservative and complacent human beings."—A well known educator and social leader.

A Message To The Seniors

To the Class of 1934:

You have my best wishes. What should I wish you?

I could wish you an easy, carefree life. But there comes to mind the figure of Admiral Byrd, alone in a little hut in the Antarctic wastes. Should I not wish him back in "God's Country" lolling at ease in a cushioned chair? I think of Carl Sandburg, the son of an immigrant section-hand, turned out at the age of twelve to fight his own battles unaided,—bootblack, dishwasher, day laborer, field hand. Should not his friends have wished that he might be sent to college and then be given a congenial position involving little work and big pay? Lindberg did not step from college into the director's chair of aviation companies.

To men such as these, life has not meant assured ease and comfort, but an opportunity for adventure. They could not know what the future held in store for them; indeed, they made their future.

No one knows what the future holds for you. But we may be sure its greater rewards will go not to those who can take it easy, but rather to those who in the face of discouragement carry on the fight with courage and determination.

—Arthur L. Andrews.

American-Japanese Student Conference

The first American-Japanese Student Conference will be held in Tokyo this summer. Outstanding students from the United States, Hawaii and Japan will gather together under one roof to exchange opinions and ideas so that they may discover and analyze coincidences and conflicts of opinions of the people on various problems confronting the world today.

An official statement from the sponsors of the Conference says: "We have recently become conscious that international affairs cannot be left to our politicians and diplomats alone. Real peace can be built only upon the combined hearts of peoples, especially of promising students upon whom the world of tomorrow depends." It is very encouraging that in spite of the competition in armaments and trade carried on by the powers of the world, the students of the world are actively engaged in the serious study of national and international problems and are co-operating with each other in working toward a common end. Students are keenly interested in studying the literature, language and the cultures of the different peoples of the world. This phase of university education ought to receive increased attention in the future. President Crawford is strongly in favor of having students from America go to the Orient to study of the ideas and customs of the Orientals. For it is only through a thorough understanding and appreciation of the viewpoints and cultures of the different peoples that the basis of permanent peace can be laid.

The University of Hawaii will be officially represented by five students at the American-Japanese Conference. They will have an excellent opportunity not only to express their ideas and viewpoints but also to learn the rich culture of the Orient.

The End And Yet The Beginning

JUNE the fifth will spell graduation to the Seniors and at the same time mark the beginning of a new challenge. Four years of companionship, joy and college life will come to an end and in its place will be the ever competing and persistent challenge of life.

The period of studying has reached a point where striving is more important. No longer will you have to attend regular classes, take examinations and do what your professors say. Your time will not be scheduled and no longer will you be dependent. Instead you will have to apply what you have learned to the facts of life and strive to attain your objective. Whether it be merely to earn a living or to seek a career or to serve your country, the amount of courage and confidence with which you attack this new challenge depends on what you have gained from your four years of academic work and personnel contact while in college.

As there is a beginning and end to everything in life, the passing on of your "good times" in college will develop into an air of seriousness and independence.

However, we hope that the conclusion of your work in this institution has completed an invaluable foundation for you to stand on and meet this new challenge in order that you may be able to find the significant and far more interesting facts of life which awaits you.—R. T.

Congratulations, Seniors!

SINCE this is the Senior edition of Ka Leo, we think that it is a very appropriate time for us to compliment the work which has been done by the graduating class.

We could make a long list of their achievements but time and space will not allow us to do so. However, we can say that the four years spent by the present Senior Class in this University have been filled with activities which have in more than one way brought fame and credit to our Alma Mater.

In looking over their record, we found that they have taken leading and prominent roles in our student government, dramatics, journalism, forensics and other University functions. They have not only taken parts but they have done their share well.—R. T.

We Thank You

THIS being the last issue of the 1933-34 edition of Ka Leo, we wish to express our sincere thanks to many individuals and firms who have unselfishly contributed to the "Voice of Hawaii."

To the University officials, especially Mr. Beck of the University Information Service, Capt. Bartow of the Military Department, Coach Klum of the Athletic Department and "Pump" Searle, our graduate manager, we wish to thank them for their consistent and willing aid to this publication.

To our "friends of the press," the Honolulu Advertiser, the Honolulu Star Bulletin and the Hawaii Hochi, we offer our thanks for their unselfish loans of cuts which have helped to add color and reality to our paper.

We also wish to thank our advertisers who have found it valuable to advertise in our journal and hope that they have profited by it.

To the many others who have given their kokua, we say MAHALO!—R. T.

Senior Crystal Reader

Forecast—Jimmy Fujimoto to be married soon—; Kathleen Arnold will come down to her normal weight when her sugar daddies graduate and don't feed her anymore; Isamu Sato to become a comedian, while Roberta Irving accepts an engagement ring from Jerry Dolan; Hong Lin Wong has to wait another year before Ray Tan finishes school. Edna Allen is hard to "date up" so she must have a steady; George Douse will become a Sugar Technologist (H.S.P.A.); while Billy Howell will look on and envy him; Bill Among says he can't afford to get spliced until he gets that football coaching job. Ainsley Mahikoa will become a priest; Lucius Jenkins is going to manufacture javelins while Frances Aiwahi will return for his fifth year teaching course. Allan Fujinaga and Norman Ignacio to become Smith Hughes Agriculture instructors; Big Capellas will be Hakalau bound (single, but only for a short time—Oh! Sweet Adeline.) Benny Centelo doesn't know what he wants to do; Helen Quon to become editor of "Suppressed Desires."

Ceddy Weight has already asked Leavitt; Able Lyman to raise Irish Roses for a certain Miss Bevins; John Andersop is to become plantation bound; Eddie Kent is going to try a nine-year plan (That's when Alexa Davidson graduates); Howard Martin to sell love insurance to Gladys Guldorf; Beth Bartlett to plant an orchard of pears; Violet Fong and An Kewn hew to organize a spinsters club; D. Kobatake to become an engineer—(contract bridge); Rio Akana is going to join Violet Fong's spinster club.

Edward Fukunaga, being the keeper of our money, expects to look for the pot of gold at the end of the Manoa rainbow. Have you ever seen Harry Duncan with bread in his coffee? Ruth Donald intends to teach Polly Jarrett a little Oxford English; Virginia Hammond and Betty Henne also have boy friends (Tisk! Tisk!); Beatrice Hussey expects to complete a play entitled "The Solitary Nun"; Soo Sun Kim to go into the steamship business (S.S. Kim); Rose Toomey intends to write a letter (To Me) about this article; Yutaka Murakami is to be operated on by Satoru Nishijima (practicing physician).

Dorothy Snodgrass claims she is to become a bachelor upon receiving her degree while Harold Hall is still wondering why people drink preceding the making of a toast; but Rose E. Roman says it's done to wash down the crumbs.

Hollywood Makeup Man Demonstrates To Class

Demonstrations in theatrical make-up were held by Mr. A. Bernard Shore, official Max Factor representative now in the Islands, before "Doc" Wyman's play production class in Farrington hall on Thursday morning, May 24. Matilda Vierra, Campbell Stevenson, and Edward Hustace, members of the class, were used by Mr. Shore as models.

During the course of the lecture and demonstration, Mr. Shore gave interesting anecdotes about his experiences in making up well-known stage and screen celebrities as Helen Hayes, Pauline Fredericks, and Boris Karloff. He cleverly brought out the fact that make-up is not merely dabbing on a lot of paint and powder, but requires a great deal of study of the subject as well as the part to be portrayed.

In making up Matilda Vierra, Mr. Shore used the straight make-up only accenting the natural features so that they will stand out under the stage lights. Character make-up was demonstrated on Campbell Stevenson, who, according to Mr. Shore, "has a future in Hollywood with the proper training," for according to his observation and experiences in the movie city, personality and intelligence are much more important than good looks in the "talkies".

That the make-up artist must know the principles of line, color, and contour was brought out in the course of the talk. Mr. Shore "pencilled in" mustache and beard on Edward Hustace to show that differences in races and types must be shown in the line that the beard follows.

Mr. Shore has taught the "gentle art of make-up" in the University of California as well as worked in the studios and dressing rooms of actors and actresses as a part of his work with Max Factors.

Farewell To A Prof From A Grad

Forget Dr. Cameron—how can we? We can still hear him say: "Don't you see, class—this is so simple that even your primitive ancestors could understand it as they swung lustily by their tails from the ancient sycamore tree,—it's the chocolate drops that I'm referring to. Now, the first drop is delicious and the second not so good, while the third isn't so good as the first or the second, and so on until the tenth and final drop results in a stomachache. Now don't you see, class, as the rate of consumption increases, the rate of utility decreases. Don't you see, class?"

We admire his personality, his fairness and ability to put over that which he is teaching through his vivid illustrations.

Dr. H. B. Schaeffer, president of Lenoir-Rhyne College, resigned recently because the board of trustees refused to eliminate college football as an inter-collegiate sport at that institution.

Zoology Instructor On Scientific Tour Through Europe

Mr. Jens M. Ostergaard, instructor in the Zoology department of the University, will sail on the Malolo on June 2 for a six months' scientific tour of Europe.

Mr. Ostergaard, who has been affiliated with the Zoology department for more than 14 years, will spend his six months' leave of absence abroad where he will visit the famed museums of natural history in Copenhagen, Berlin and Paris.

Upon arriving in San Francisco, Mr. Ostergaard will cross the continent by rail, with a stop-over at the Chicago World's Fair, before proceeding to the East coast. He will visit the American Museum of Natural History in New York, before sailing for England on the "Aquitania."

After an absence of 37 years, Mr. Ostergaard will visit his relatives in Denmark before leaving for the Mediterranean countries where he expects to study the distribution of the marine molluscs in the Red Sea.

In culmination of his research work abroad, Mr. Ostergaard will study the fossil invertebrate animals found in Denmark, and from his findings, will prepare his thesis: "Upper Cretaceous Strata." Returning to Hawaii via the Panama Canal, Mr. Ostergaard expects to arrive in the Islands at Christmas.

International Theme Carried Out At Last Meeting of the Quill

Hawaii Quill terminated the year's activities with a final meeting at the home of Dean and Mrs. A. L. Andrews on Liloa Rise May 14. The entire evening was devoted to entertainment of an international theme, followed by the formal introduction of the incoming officers. Oswald Bushnell, president of the Quill, presided over the meeting.

The University Aluminae Quartette rendered a group of four vocal selections, accompanied by Miss Jane Fairweather at the piano.

Helmuth Hoerman presented a short talk on certain outstanding aspects of the German theatre, telling of his own experiences while he was a student at a German theatrical school. By way of illustration, Mr. Hoerman passed around an interesting scrap-book filled with programs and pictures of German actors and actresses.

India was represented by Mrs. Ruth Thomas who performed on the Indian setar some ancient classical musical compositions of India. As an encore she presented a group of short interpretative beggar sketches in which she imitated the various ways of beggary in India.

MEMBERS OF THE A.S.U.H.

I want to thank you for electing me president of the A.S.U.H. for the coming year. I will endeavor to carry out to the best of my ability the duties of my office.

With the aid of the Student Council, it will be my policy to give the students a "new and square deal."

President-Elect, A.S.U.H.

"WHAT TO WEAR"

By H. H. for M. C. B.

If it wasn't for men — women wouldn't have to wear any clothes and vice versa (I mean versa).

After the weather has been taken into consideration, the good old malo, when abbreviated and made out of taffeta, proves the choice for this summer's wear. And why not? It's been proven that clothes don't make the man, they break him,—and furthermore, man makes the clothes! (Want to argue about it?)

If anyone is thinking about joining the nudists' colony; don't forget to wear your lipstick (Kiss-proof preferred). Be careful not to wear any Kress jewelry as that is a sign of gawdiness and distracts from the streamlines. A black chiffon handkerchief adds a touch of daintiness in case anyone is overweight and wants to be sporty.

Corsets reinforced with barbed wire proves uncomfortable and shouldn't be worn by people if they expect to sit.

The effectiveness of baldheadedness is greatly offset unless one's eyebrows and eyelashes are also removed—of course this is strictly personal,—(if you want to trim your ears you might be accepted in the Mexican hairless dog show, to be staged shortly.)

Earrings should never be worn on one ear only—it affects one's equilibrium. In case finger-nail polish is to be used, use a home-made remedy of—;

3 parts distilled water
2 parts lampblack
1 part nitric acid.

This is bound to give a chic orchid color. (Want to argue about it?) Veils are of no avail while fans are more alluring if nothing else is worn.

Shoes!—Yes, shoes are O.K. if one can afford them. Word has just arrived that canvas nightgowns are the last word for deluxe evening wear.

Awards Presented To R.O.T.C. Winners At Final Review

Notable accomplishments of the University R.O.T.C. Unit, which were both distinctive and many, terminated when the final review of the year was held in honor of Major General B. H. Wells, commander of the Hawaiian military division, last Wednesday at Cooke Field.

Features of the review included the presentation of awards to the winners of the different contests held during the year and commissions to cadet officers graduating from the course.

In the best soldier contest, Cadet Captain Yutaka Murakami, of Company K, was the victor over fourteen other contestants, and he was presented with a gold medal by Mr. Joseph M. Farrington, manager of the Honolulu Star Bulletin, which sponsored the contest. Cadet First Sergeant Frank Judd received the silver medal for placing second place, while Cadet Corporal V. T. Tom was awarded the bronze medal for third place.

A sabre was presented to Captain G. Kobatake of Company H for commanding the best company, while the company was given the banner, "Best Co., 1933-34."

High-score participants in both men and women rifle matches received medals. In the men's division, Frank Hustace, who was the highest scorer in the match open to all cadets and Charles Fernandez, who made the highest score of the first year basic men, were recipients of the medals.

Betty Judd took the award for making the highest score in the open match for women, while Barbara Bevins received the medal in the match for first year women.

Commissions were also presented to the following graduating cadet officers: Cadet Colonel Ainsley Mahikoa, Cadet Lt. Colonel Edward Kent, Cadet Captains Waldo Bowman, Richard Burkland, Eugene Capellas, Lawrence Capellas, Harold Hall, Alfred Hodgman, Allen Hurd, Gilbert Kobatake, Howard Martin, Walter Matsumoto, Yutaka Murakami and Cadet First Lieutenants Allen Andrade, George Ching, Patrick Cockett, Kenneth Conningham, Gerald Dolan, Henry Hopewell, Noboru Iwaoka, Jack Johnson, Bung Chong Lee, Richard Matsumoto, Hatsu Tomita, David Wong and Graydon Young.

Annual Banquet of Pi Gamma Mu Held At Lau Yee Chai

Members of the Hawaii Alpha Chapter of Pi Gamma Mu recently held their annual banquet at Lau Yee Chai, at which time an election of officers for the year 1934-35 was held and the newly elected members were presented.

The new members are as follows: Dorothy Nip, Kimiye Shitamoto, Doris Kotake, Matsuko Masuda, Lorna Jarrett, Russel Lester and Jack Mizuha.

The chief speaker of the evening was Dr. P. C. Chang of Tientsin, China, who spoke on the new education of China. The old educational system has proved inadequate for the times. There is a need of re-organization and this re-organization is taking the form of a re-orientation in regard to organization, content and the motive force of social reconstruction. The educational system must be built to meet the needs of the people, not the people to fit the educational system. The scholar and the farmer must be as one.

Yang Chung Hui To Honor Senior Members

The Yang Chung Hui farewell banquet honoring the senior members of the club will take place at the Oriental Chop Sui House at 6:30 p.m., June 1. After dinner an evening of bridge and other card games is being planned at one of the members' home.

Irene Leong and Kee Fun Wong will act as co-chairmen, assisted by Chew Young Wong, Ellen Liao and Peace Tan, invitation; Helen Leong, Marietta Ching and Ethel Chun, decoration; Margaret Lee, Bessie Yuen and Helen Seu, refreshment; Irene Leong, Aileen Kam, bridge party; Betty Lo, Leatrice Wong, publicity.

Mrs. Brash Honored At Aloha Luncheon

Mrs. Mae Brash, a member of Phi Epsilon Mu, was honored at an aloha luncheon given last Saturday at Lau Yee Chai's by her mother, Mrs. Manuel Olmos.

Mrs. Brash is leaving with her husband for the mainland where they will spend the summer months.

Among the guests at the luncheon were Mesdames F. U. Ferry, Edward Olmos, Manuel Olmos, George Carlson; Misses Betty Henne, Barbara Mandeville, Peggy Bairos, Juliette Andrade, Margaret Bechert, Patricia McMahon, Mary Furmidge, Mae Soares, Ida Heeb and Patricia Olmos.

J. S. A. Farewell Dance At Fuller Hall

The J. S. A. general unit is planning a farewell social and dance at Fuller Hall, Friday night, June 8. Admission will be by membership card. The incoming officers will be welcomed before the dance at the Executive Board Banquet at Lau Yee Chai.

Committees for the dance are: program, Ayako Mihara, Hideko Sasaki; decoration, Charles Tanaka, Henry Watanabe; refreshment, Flora Asahina, Henry Ogawa; admittance, Shigeichi Imada, Max Itoga.

Ke Annueue Dance Held At McDuffies

The annual Ke Annueue dance was held at the home of McDuffies, 1006 11th Avenue, on May 19.

Sogas Entertain At Farewell Buffet Super

Mr. and Mrs. Yasutaro Soga were hosts at a farewell buffet supper honoring the graduates of the Nihongo Kenkyu Kai (Japanese Language Club) at their home, on Spreckels Street on May 20.

General chairman of the evening was Yasuo Yokota. The program was arranged by Gladys Harada and Yoshinobu Kagawa.

Aggie Clubs Entertain At Big Farewell Luau

The agricultural organizations, Aggie Club, Alpha Beta and F.F.A., held a farewell luau on Saturday, May 19, at the University cafeteria at 7:00 p.m.

All food for the luau, the kalua, lau laus, etc., were prepared by the club members.

The new officers of the next year were introduced by Harold Hall, master of ceremonies.

Special guests were: President and Mrs. D. L. Crawford, Dean and Mrs. A. R. Keller, Dr. and Mrs. E. M. Bilger, Dr. and Mrs. F. G. Krauss, Prof. and Mrs. J. M. Westgate, Prof. and Mrs. L. A. Henke, Prof. and Mrs. H. A. Wadsworth, Prof. and Mrs. C. M. Bice, Prof. and Mrs. F. E. Armstrong, Dr. and Mrs. C. P. Wilsie, Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Freeland, Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Beers, Mr. and Mrs. N. King, Mr. and Mrs. A. S. T. Lund, Mr. and Mrs. P. Yap, Mr. and Mrs. F. Bothelo, Mr. and Mrs. N. Pekelo and Mr. D. Akana.

Te Chih Sheh To Be Guests At Breakfast

A Te Chih Sheh breakfast was given by Mrs. Lam for members of the sorority at 9:30, May 27. At the same time the sorority honored Nora Wong who upon graduation is sailing for further study at Fashion Art School in California.

The sorority is also making plans for its annual banquet to be held on June 9. This affair is for the purpose of installing the new officers as well as a farewell affair for the seniors.

Mr. Masunaga Speaker At Bacteriology Dinner

The second annual dinner of the University of Hawaii Bacteriology Club was held at The Deans' on May 17 with Mr. Eichi Masunaga of Kalihi-Kai Leprosy Hospital as the guest speaker.

Mr. Masunaga was introduced by Oswald Bushnell, the master of ceremony for the evening. Besides the main speaker, Dr. O. N. Allen gave an inspiring talk on "Our Hope for the Future." Ralph Tanimoto also spoke on "Our Past Activities."

Special guests were Dean and Mrs. A. R. Keller and Mr. and Mrs. E. Masunaga.

The officers of the club are Ralph Tanimoto, president; Alison Watt, vice-president; Marion Okimoto, secretary and treasurer.

Dr. O. N. Allen is the advisor of the club.

Dr. and Mrs. Thompson Entertain At Tea

Dr. and Mrs. Edgar Thompson were hosts at an informal tea for the students of Sociology 269 on Sunday, May 20, at their home at 1525-C Wilder Avenue, from 4 to 6 p.m.

Retiring Professors Honored By Athletes

A typical Hawaiian luau was given in honor of Dr. Romanzo Adams, Professor John S. Donaghho, and Professor John H. Wise, retiring professors from the University of Hawaii, by the University athletes headed by "Pump" Searle at the Waialua Fresh Air Camp on May 20. About 175 students and friends were present.

Dean Bilger Invites Senior Women To Tea

Dean Bilger will be at home to the senior women of the University from four to six o'clock on Sunday, June third, at 2323 Seaview Avenue, opposite the campus.

Geography Of Far East Offered For Summer's Session

Because the eyes of the world are focused upon the Far East at present, a course in regional geography of the Far East, known as Geography S255, will be offered for the first time at a summer session of the University, this summer. Dr. John W. Coulter, who was recently elected into the Association of American Geographers, will be the instructor.

The course, dealing with the regional geography of Siberia, Manchuria, Japan, China and the Philippines, will emphasize the economic activities of the people in relation to the natural environment. Dr. Coulter will also include accounts of the trip he made to the Orient in 1932 in his lectures.

games of all kinds, a cafeteria dinner, and dancing in the evening.

During the junior year the class was led by Francis Aiwohi, president, Thelma Sproat, vice-president, Oswald Bushnell, secretary, and Edward Fukunaga, treasurer. The major activity of the class that year was the Junior-Senior Promenade, the most elaborate event in the history of the University held in mid-spring at the Royal Hawaiian Hotel. The presentation of the Lei Queen was the main feature of the evening. At this occasion Martha Punohu, a member of the class, was crowned Lei Queen. This coronation afforded the central theme for a short Hawaiian pageant staged on the beach lawn back of the Royal Hawaiian Hotel.

The class in its senior year is headed by Isamu Sato, president, Thelma Sproat, vice-president, Roberta Irving, secretary and Edward Fukunaga treasurer. A class picnic was held in the late fall at Kailua beach. A full program of games, swimming and dancing afforded amusement and activity for the merry-makers at the picnic.

The most important activities of the year, mainly the Class Day ceremony and the commencement ball are yet to be held. The Class Day ceremony is to be held back of Gartley Hall on June 4, from 4:30 to 5:30. The Senior Ball is to be given on June 5 at the Waialae Golf Club.

Owen D. Young, diplomat and financier, will deliver the commencement address at the University of Nebraska.

Treasurer

Edward Fukunaga, who has been in charge of class finances for the past three years.

Cupid's Arrow Hits Prominent '34 Student

Cupid is at work once again, and his time, his arrow ties a bond between Miss Aiko Morishige and Edward T. Fukunaga, Senior Class treasurer. The announcement of their engagement was made last Tuesday evening.

Miss Morishige is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ihei Morishige of Waimea, Kauai, and she is at present employed at the Cherry Store. Fukunaga, who has held the position of treasurer of the Class of '34 for the past three years, will leave for a trip to Japan next month.

The Senior Class extends its best wishes and congratulations to its treasurer.

FORMER UNIVERSITY STUDENT WINS HONORS AT UNIVERSITY OF WASHINGTON

George Hogan, formerly a student at the University and now a junior in the College of Fine Arts at the University of Washington, recently won distinction along architectural lines.

The architectural problem, "Wall Fountain," submitted by Mr. Hogan, was placed on permanent exhibition in the University's library. Mr. Hogan is an Islander, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Hogan of Kaimuki, and he plans to remain at the University of Washington to complete his architectural studies.

Thirty-five students and alumni of the Michigan College of Mining and Technology are working with the U. S. Geodetic Survey.

Dr. Minear To Join Faculty Of Garrett Institute This Fall

Dr. Paul Minear, professor at the Hawaii School of Religion, will leave at the end of the summer session to join the faculty of Garrett Biblical Institute at Evanston, Illinois. Mrs. Minear will accompany him.

Dr. Minear came to the University in September from the Yale Graduate School, where he took his Ph.D. in New Testament. He had intended to stay here indefinitely had not the very attractive offer come from his own school.

Garrett Institute is affiliated with the Graduate School of Northwestern University and is the largest Methodist seminary in the country. It trains ministers for all of the Central States. Dr. Minear will be in the New Testament Department.

Sportsdom Will Miss Versatile Senior Players

Captains Of All Athletic Teams Belong To Graduating Class

As has been the case with the previous graduating classes, the class of 1934 will carry away with it many versatile and valuable athletes from the various branches of sports of our Alma Mater. But Dame Fortune has been visiting us, for no one sport will be seriously crippled because the losses will be equally distributed in all activities. Yet the various coaches will find it difficult to fill up the gaps left by these men as they were all good leaders and instrumental in strengthening their respective teams.

Football will miss William Among, John Anderson, Francis Aiwohi and Albert Lyman. Among, Anderson and Lyman are linemen while Aiwohi is a backfield ace. Among hails from Kona, the land of coffee and humuhumunukunukuapuaas, and is a four-year letterman. He was transformed into a guard by "Proc" Otto Klum because of his natural ability during his junior year. His gameness plus his popularity made him captain of this year's team. Albert Lyman, another veteran letterman and a product of Punahou, played guard and tackle and relieved Proc of many worries with his uncanny type of playing. He made his football career count, making three trips to the mainland. Anderson transferred from Oregon State after the completion of his sophomore year and decided to take up football. "Smacker," as he is usually called, earned an end job and was rewarded with a trip to Denver. Aiwohi, a four-year letterman, was one of the most colorful backs to play for the Varsity. "Dynamite comes in small boxes," a popular saying, truly applies to this griddier. When fall comes around "Proc" has to go some to replace these men.

Basketball is perhaps the least affected sport as far as losing the lettermen is concerned. Graduation will take away only one member and he is Soo Sun Kim, a four-year letterman and this year's captain.

The name of S. S. Kim is mentioned whenever basketball is mentioned. He had a whole lot to do in putting basketball "up there" in the University. This flashy forward accompanied the basketball team on the trip to the Orient last year.

Baseball will miss Lionel Fukabori and Richard Yamada. Both hail from McKinley and have helped "Proc" in rounding up formidable teams. They have been rewarded much by playing baseball as they have made two trips to the Orient. Fukabori is a good experienced pitcher and was relied upon very often to bring home the bacon. Yamada, a four-year letterman, covered the shortstop and second base positions and was used wherever "Proc" wanted to fill a gap.

Track will lose four letterman. They are John Anderson, Ben Centeio, Lucius Jenkins and Yoshimi Maeda. Anderson, an all-around athlete, is a member of the record-holding one-mile relay team. He ran second on that best one-mile relay team of the territory. Captain Centeio, another veteran letterman, is also a member of that team. This lad is a pride of St. Louis and there are good reasons why he is their pride. Besides running anchor on that championship team, he beat Kufferath to the surprise of all in the quarter mile run last year. Besides these feats he made the trip to the Orient as a member of the University baseball team in 1932. Jenkins was the only reliable man the Varsity had in the pit events during the past years. He was at one time the record

Senior Wahines Cop Casaba Championship In Exciting Contest

Upsetting the dope, the senior women's basketball team took the championship away from the juniors, the favorites, who were out to hold on to the title they won last year, 1933.

Captained by Elizabeth Buchanan, in the most exciting game of the season, the seniors beat the juniors 32-22. Due to Barbara Leavitt's sure-fire shots, the score piled up basket after basket. Other reliable alternating forwards were Thelma Sproat and Florence Akana.

The seniors' tall center, Wilhelmina Schwallie, over-reached her opponents with ease and proved a match for the junior hope, the equally tall Rachel Howland.

Other classes fell before the senior onslaught with these scores: senior-soph, 33-16; senior-fresh, 38-12.

With a record turn-out, the eleven members of the team were able to substitute for each other, keeping a fresh team constantly in play. The team members were: Elizabeth Buchanan, Thelma Sproat, Betty Judd, Wilhelmina Schwallie, Barbara Leavitt, Florence Akana, Kim Lan Ho, Virginia Hammond, Louise Forsythe, Rose Toomey and Beth Bartlett.

holder for the javelin throw in the territory. Coach Deverill will have to go some to develop a man like him. Maeda is a sprinter and he proved a valuable man in running on relay teams. Although short in stature, he had the fight to plug in anything he undertook.

Swimming is another sport that will not be hit hard because of graduation.

Only Captain Weight is the member of the senior class. He did not fare so well this year, but during his prime he was very instrumental in forming championship teams for "Pump" Searle. He is a sprinter of reknown and began to swim from his Punahou days.

Harold Hall, Richard Pond and Suzuki will be saying "Aloha" to the tennis teams of the Varsity. Hall, who captained the team last year, is a popular man both on and off the courts and his absence will be sorely felt. Dick Pond, one of the outstanding players of the territory, will also be sorely missed. Suzuki has been improving every year and he is due for a big year in the near future. But unfortunately he is also graduating.

With high hopes for the future, these afore-mentioned athletes pass on into the world to carry our Alma Mater's message of service in whatever work they will undertake. WELL, ALOHA AND SUCCESS TO YOU ALL!

Senior Women Make Creditable Showing In Athletic Meets

Swimming

The Swimming meet opened the Women's Sports for the year 1933-1934. Due to lack of women and strong competition of the other classes, the seniors placed third in the meet.

The outstanding senior mermaid was Virginia Hammond who won the hundred-yard backstroke.

Volleyball

Volleyball followed next and the seniors finished second. The cooperation and the fine playing of the team was the cause of the success. The following made up the team: R. Toomey, K. L. Ho, W. Schwallie, E. Buchanan, T. Sproat, L. Forsythe, V. Hammond, B. Judd and Florence Akana.

Baseball

With strong competition coming from both the Freshman and Junior classes, the seniors were forced to finish third place. Thelma Sproat, the senior heavy hitter flashed in every game.

Tennis finishes the final number on the Women's program. Due to Jupiter Pluvius and lack of courts, a few matches were not able to be played. However, the senior netters have strong hopes of finishing second. Those making the team are: first singles, Akana; second singles, Kinoshita; first doubles, Judd and Leavitt; second doubles, Sproat and Henne.

Miss M. Dietz Offers Commercial Subjects

Miss Margaret Dietz, director and owner of the Margaret Dietz Commercial School and former supervising principal of the Honolulu city schools, is a graduate of Columbia Teachers College of New York and of the Prince School of Store Service Education in Boston. She also studied at the Harvard School of Business Administration.

Shorthand, Typing, Bookkeeping and Business English are the core studies around which is built up a splendid system for the training for real problems in business life.

Of special interest to college graduates is the Commercial Teacher Training course offered by Miss Dietz, as it entitles them to teach commercial subjects in any high school here or on the mainland.

Army Tracksters Win Annual A. A. U. Meet; Deans Placed Third

Army track athletes won the annual A.A.U. track meet at Kamehameha Field on May 12. The Palama team was second and the University third. Maui and Citywide finished behind the University. In winning the A.A.U. championship for the third successive year, the service athletes scored 86 3/4 points to 56 1/4 of Palama and 37 1/4 of the University. Maui had 9 1/4 points while Citywide made 2 digits.

This local track championship event saw three records broken in the discus, javelin, and 220-yard low hurdles, respectively. A new criterion of 146 feet 6 inches was established by Kahler of Palama in the discus, while a new javelin mark was set by Karpinski, Army, at 189 feet 3 inches, beating Jenkins, University, 1932 mark of 187 feet 3 inches. In the 220 yd. low hurdles Richard Furtado, U. H., broke his old record of 24.8 seconds with a new mark of 24.7 seconds around a turn.

Furtado, University star, was the outstanding man of the meet, scoring more points than any other individual. The erstwhile sophomore athlete accumulated 15 points by winning the high jump, broad jump, and the 220-yd. low hurdles.

Larry Capellas, Dean captain-elect, turned in the biggest surprise of the day when he outprinted Charlie Ornellas, stellar Palama runner, in the 380 yd. run to win the event, in 2:03 seconds.

The 440 yd. dash was won by Leandro, Palama, in a close, none too popular decision race from Lex Brodie, freshman track star in the time of 51.2 seconds.

The University of Hawaii made a creditable showing with the number of entries she had. The college athletes this year made more points than any other University team has made in the past four years.

The University of Kansas has on the walls of its auditorium autographed photographs of famous people who have visited that institution.

Akana, Judd, Sproat Win 'H' Sweaters For Good Work In Sports

Outstanding senior sportswomen are Florence Akana, Thelma Sproat and Betty Judd who have won the coveted prize, the sweater of their choice, on which is to be monogrammed the block H. This athletic letter is the white H on a green background, the reverse of the boys' color scheme.

Starring in basketball, volleyball, baseball and tennis, these girls have piled up points each year, reaching the 100-point mark with the culmination of 1934 tennis intra-mural matches.

Alternating equally well as guards or forwards, all three girls contributed to the winning score by which the senior basketball team of 1934 became champions.

Due to the fact that freshman team records were not kept in 1931, other senior girls missed the top prize by a few points, but they passed the 50 point mark, earning eligibility to the small size block H letter. These other stellar team members have been: Barbara Leavitt, Matsuko Kinoshita, Elizabeth Buchanan, Louise Forsythe, Virginia Hammond and Wilhelmina Schwallie.

Schools Should Be More Liberal, Says Wisconsin Men Dean

(By Associated Collegiate Press)

MADISON, Wis.—If Scott H. Goodnight, dean of men at the University of Wisconsin, had his way about it, the modern college and university would do away with grade-points, probations, and executive committee actions, but he would not thereby create a paradise for the student.

"I am not all sure that we would not be much better off in our colleges if we scrapped a large part of our machinery, raised the pass mark to something approaching a high C and awarded a flat failure to each and every performance below that standard," the dean said in outlining his new formula for the handling of what he calls "play-boys."

"Let the play-boy accumulate a nice collection of failures for two or three semesters, and let the realization percolate through to father and mother that sonny boy had spent a couple of thousand dollars without making any perceptible progress toward a degree, and I don't believe the college would have much to do about it.

"But I suppose it is useless to hope for anything of that sort. We appear inevitably committed to the molly-coddling and spoon-feeding program."

The rigid supervision of students in all phases of their academic life was criticized by the Wisconsin dean, who in his long years of service at Wisconsin has established a reputation for extreme liberal views.

"There is too much advising and counselling, too many intelligence tests, executive committees, scholastic chairmen, junior and senior deans.

"We do too much for our students. I believe they would get a better discipline and attain a better training if we weren't so constantly on the alert to protect them from their own mistakes.

"We carry paternalism to too great lengths. And the discouraging factor is that the further we go the more is expected of us and the more we are blamed for what we don't accomplish."

Those present were Mrs. G. Fujimoto, Mrs. S. Soga, Gladys Harada, Dorothy Teshima, Fay Fukuda, Marion Okimoto, Amy Akinaka and Sumiye Kimura.

Mrs. Yasutaro Soga and Mrs. Gi-ichi Fujimoto have been selected as the new advisors of the Wakaba Kai.

COMPANY H CAPTURES BANNER FOR 1933-34

Winning over Company K by a margin of eight hundredths of a point, Company H, commanded by Cadet Captain Kobatake, captured the title as the best company for the year 1933-34. As a result, the company has been designated as the color company for the next school year, in addition to receiving the banner, "Best Co., 1933-34."

The final rating of the companies is as follows:

Company H.....	94.43
Company K.....	94.35
Headquarters Company.....	93.73
Howitzer Company.....	93.28
Company I.....	92.91
Company F.....	92.64
Company L.....	92.25
Company G.....	92.03
Company M.....	91.85
First Battalion.....	93.97
Third Battalion.....	92.99
Second Battalion.....	91.85

In the final platoon precision drill held last Monday, a surprise was registered when Company I copped first place and Company H took fifth place. The Dwkins Benny cup was presented to Captain Walter Matsumoto who commanded Company I.

The companies in order of their placement in this drill were: Company I, Company M, Company K, Howitzer Company, Company H, Headquarters Company, Company L, Company G and Company F.

Judd And Du Bois Win Mixed Doubles Crown

To Charley Du Bois and Sophie Judd go the mixed double championship of the University for 1934. They earned their crown by defeating the combination of Hodgman and Mountford in three hot sets last Monday. After losing the first set 6-3, Charley and Sophie came back strong in the next two sets to win in 6-3, 6-3 scores.

This is Sophie's second mixed doubles championship, having won her first last year teamed with Harold Hall.

Phillips Commercial Has Classes For U Students

University training is a most desirable asset so far as a secretary, a stenographer or an office assistant is concerned. It has been the experience of the Phillips Commercial School that certain business men, themselves university trained, insist on employing only assistants who have the poise, the confidence, the enthusiasm, and the educational background to be derived only from a school of higher learning.

To fill this need for trained workers, the Phillips Commercial School will this year continue its policy of holding special classes for

New Slant On Russia, Germany Interesting Also Informational

At last we have a new slant on Russia, and this is provided for us in the new volume by a New York newspaper woman who journeyed to Moscow and other vital centers of the U.S.S.R. to gather something of the human side of the giant Soviet experiment. "From Broadway to Moscow", Marjorie E. Smith takes us from the depressionistic United States to the communistic "land of the fallen czars." With the trained eye of the newspaper woman she examines for us the everyday life of one nation of social science more realistic and less pedagogic.

With the social revolutions sweeping the world there seems to be a decided swing in literature to a recording of the many trials-in-human-living that are being made by government leaders everywhere. "From Broadway to Moscow" is one of these, and it is admirably supplemented with a new study of a "German Family," by L. C. N. Stone. This story of a household composed of an English widow with two children who marries a cultured German presents a vivid picture of the results of the Hitler regime in the light of the pre-Nazi and present-day life of the German people. This entertaining and enlightening volume provides one with a portion of the background that is necessary if one is to understand the front-page news that emanates from Germany today.

NO MORE RUNNING OUT OF INK

You can see when your pen needs re-filling

This is the special transparent model. Shows when to refill.

IMAGINE a fountain pen that holds twice the usual quantity of ink (102% more, to be quite exact), without any increase in size! A pen with a reversible point, so that you write your regular fine or medium or broad hand on the under side, and an extra fine or hairline hand on the upper side. A pen that fills by vacuum-pressure, yet has no pump, no piston-packing, no long rubber sac—nothing to go suddenly out of order.

An artist widely known for his talents in industrial design was especially commissioned by Parker to style this new pen. Have you ever seen any fountain pen more beautiful? Wholly new, wholly unlike any other barrel ever before created! And still entirely leak-proof and non-breakable! We confidently predict that this shimmering union of luminous pearl and jet, built up layer by layer, will set fountain pen fashions for many years to come.

Visit your dealer at once and see this fountain pen. You will be amazed, delighted, thrilled that such an extraordinary writing instrument has at last been perfected. For your own use, or as a gift to a friend, no other fountain pen at any price offers so much! Ask for the genuine Parker Vacumatic Filler.

QUINK makes all pens write better! Only the best ink should be used in the new Parker Vacumatic Filler. We recommend Parker's Quink—cleans as it writes. Secret solvent prevents clogging. At all good stores.
