Rainbows Seek Upset Over OSC

Carpenter, Samuel Spark Foe's Attack

Playing before a pre-game estimated crowd of 18,000, the University of Hawaii Roaring Rainbows enter the Pineapple Bowl this afternoon rated three TD underdogs in the face of a powerhouse Oregon State college eleven.

But the 'Bows are determined to prove the experts wrong in this, the final tilt of the season for local intercollegiate competition. The Manoamen's spirit is at a new peak, and an upset today is entirely possible.

FANS IN THE stadium will see two of the top backs of the Pacific Coast conference in action against the Rainbows. Ken Carpenter and Don Samuel have been instrumental in building up the Beavers' great reputation as an offensive machine on the gridiron.

The team from Corvallis, however, will be sorely missing the

All the colors of the rainbow will descend onto the stadium turf in festive pre-game and half-time activities at this afternoon's Pineapple Bowl Classic.

At 2 p.m. sharp, the queen's float, designed by the UH art department, will enter the field, announced Epy Yadao, spirit and rally director.

SEATED ON THE float will be Queen Doris Berg and her attendants, Jacqueline Booth, Madeline Chun, Aletha Goodwin and Anita Lee, all clad in holokus of different colors.

UH President Gregg M. Sinclair, together with Oregon State college President A. L. Strand, will crown Queen Doris, Yadao said. Representatives of various racial groups, clothed in native costumes, will then present hookupu gifts to the queen, it was further announced.

IMMEDIATELY preceding the kick-off, the four seniors on the UH eleven, Jyun Hirota, Louis Collins, Phil Haake and Charles Dowson, will be presented leis and gifts from the Senior class, it was revealed by Kats Miho, class president.

"This will be the last game these boys will be playing for the university," Miho pointed out, "and we want to express our Aloha to them."

HARRIET SERAI, Genevieve Takemoto, Ivanelle Mountcastle and Dorothy Wong, who are members of the Senior class cabinet, will make the presentation, he said.

At half-time, football fans will see color in motion as 100 coeds in multi-hued muumuus dance to the music of "Lovely Hula Hands," accompanied by the band and an ukulele group, according to Dickie Tongg, half-time program chairman.

THIS WILL be followed by "Naka Pueo," danced to a background of mass ukulele strumming, Tongg added.

Further color will be provided by the snappy Farrington high school band, playing for Oregon State. In addition, the local chapter of the OSC alumni has assembled a cheering section which they say will out-yell and out-sing the UH bleachers.

A POST-GAME get together is slated for 7:30 p.m. at Sans Souci club, Waikiki, revealed Doris Obata, chairman of the party. Gridders and guests from both UH and OSC have been invited to the affair, Miss Obata said.

QUEEN OF THE PINE BOWL—Attractive UH freshman Doris Berg, 13 year old native of Honolulu, reigns as queen of the day here at the Pineapple Bowl. The Punahou graduate is 5 ft. 4 inches tall, has brown hair flecked with gold, and large brown eyes. She is Caucasian with a touch of Hawaiian. Serving as Her Highness is only a sideline for Doris, for she plans to be an English teacher after graduation from UH. Her favorite hobbies are surfing and canoeing. She won her crown over a field of nine other candidates, by virtue of the Gamy Gaiters, her sponsor, selling more than $2500 worth of Pine Bowl tickets. (Photo by Massey)

Rainbow Songs And Cheers

Alma Mater

In green Manoa Valley our Alma Mater stands
Where mountain winds and showers refresh her fertile lands.
The Flag of Freedom beckons above her shining walls;
To larger truth and service
Our Alma Mater calls.

Oh! You Rainbows

Oh! you Rainbows, hats off to thee,
To thy colors true we shall ever be Loyal, strong, united are we.
Rah! Rah! Rah! for U of H
Rah! Rah! Rah! for U of H
Rah! Rah! for U of H.
(Repeat)

Here's To Our Dear Hawaii

Here's to our dear Hawaii
Here's to the Green and White,
Here's to our Alma Mater
Here's to the team with Fight, Rah, Rah, Rah.
Here's to old warriors calling
Here's to old battles won,
Here's to Hawaii's victory
Here's to each valiant son.
(Cheer) Hit 'em high
Hit 'em low
Come on, team
Let's go!
(Repeat song)

On Hawaii

On Hawaii, on Hawaii
Plunge right through that line.
We are here to root and cheer you
On to victory, rah rah rah.
On Hawaii, on Hawaii
Victory's our aim.
Fight Rainbows, fight fight fight.
We'll win today. (Clap)

Fight For Old Hawaii

Deans so true, we are back of you,
Honolulu's team supreme.
From the mauka to makai
Can be heard our battle cry.
Come on you Green and White, and
Fight for old Hawaii
Fight for you and me.
A rainbow streaks the sky, holds our colors high.
With a wiki-wiki kick your opponents you will lick, so
Fight for old Hawaii,
On to victory
While Diamond Head nods go ahead,
And win this game today.

On To Victory

Unfurl the Rainbow banner, let it spread across the sky,
From the mountains to the ocean, they shall hear our victory cry.
The U. of old Hawaii, we will cherish your fair name
As the years go ever onward, may we add unto your fame.
(Chorus)
On, on, on, Hawaii! On to victory!
Wave the Rainbow banner high, far across the sea.
On, on, on, Hawaii! Fight to win today!
Fight, fight, down that field and we'll cheer you all the way.
So on, on, on, Hawaii, etc. (repeat chorus)

Cheer, Cheer

Cheer, cheer for dear Green and White
Sons of Hawaii, come on and fight
Forward, forward, down the field
Fight on and fight to victory.
Break through that line and smash them up,
Pile up the score till victory's won
Fight and fight and fight, fight, fight
For the dear Green and White, fight, fight.

Axe Yell

Give 'em the axe, the axe, the axe,
Give 'em the axe, the axe, the axe,
Give 'em the axe, give 'em the axe,
give 'em the axe.
Where?
Right in the neck, the neck, the neck,
Right in the neck, the neck, the neck,
Right in the neck, right in the neck,
right in the neck.
There.

MEET AGAIN

Beavers Beat UH In First Pine Classic

By SAM OKINAGA
Ka Leo Managing Editor

Sponsored by the ASUH and the pineapple industry, the first annual Pineapple Bowl Classic was ambitiously initiated Jan. 1, 1940, when gridders from the same Oregon State college and UH battled to a 39-6 score, with the visitors on top.

A few hours before the game, magnificent floats representing various commercial concerns paraded the streets lined with eager spectators. Queen for the day, majestic Minerva Carroll, and her lovely attendants reigned over the game and the 25,000 fans went home satisfied with their first Bowl game, although the home team had gone down in defeat.

THIS FIRST Bowl game marked the end of 20 years of coaching by the fabulous Otto "Proc" Klum.

Second Pineapple Bowl queen, Winona Hollinger, bowed graciously to Fresno's Raisin queen, Barbara Fike, after Luke Gill's Roaring Rainbows were outpointed by virtue of a 15 yard field goal that gave the Fresno eleven a 3-0 triumph.

PRECLUDED BY the outbreak of war Dec. 7, 1941, the third Bowl Classic was postponed until Jan. 1, 1947, when UH fielded its first post-war team.

Queen Cissy Jensen and her six attendants provided the feminine pulchritude but the Deans, under their new coach Tommy Kaulukukui, and the men from Utah monopolized the attention of the fans as the Rainbows squeezed through a thrilling 19-16 win.

RAINBOWS' PASSING twins Sol Kaulukukui and Dick Mamiya spelled havoc to the Utes' aerial defense as Charley Bessette pulled down two tosses from the duo which registered 12 points on the scoreboard.

Receiving national recognition as the most exciting Bowl game in 1948, Kaulukukui's stalwarts came from behind in the last 30 seconds of the fourth annual Pineapple Bowl game to defeat stubborn Redlands, 33-32.

AS QUEEN SHIRLEY Moss glanced at the timer checking his pistol for the final "gun," Sol flanked a pass to Bessette, who snagged the pigskin near the makai sidelines, neatly sidestepped a Bulldog and desperately dived over into pay dirt.

UH's Great 'Old Man'

THE PRIDE OF HAWAII—Winding up his third year as head coach of the University of Hawaii Roaring Rainbows, Tommy Kaulukukui is looking ahead to next year's season when he intends to continue giving football fans colorful, exciting games to watch, here and on the Mainland. Although this year his team has suffered staggering set backs, both in scores and player injuries, it should be realized Tommy has guided his boys against some of the biggest names in collegiate football. He and the Rainbows have earned warm acclaim from every opponent. It is not difficult to understand why Tommy merits the respect, confidence and admiration of the UH student body.

As We See It...

A Job Superbly Done

With today's Pineapple Bowl Classic, the UH student body marks the close of one particular phase of its rejuvenated school spirit, of which we are all happy and proud. Perhaps one of the finest expressions of that spirit was demonstrated last Tuesday when the student-sponsored Pine Bowl float and jalopy parade toured the city, leaving awed and wide-eyed spectators in its wake.

This spectacular feat takes on even more significance when one considers that thousands of students are home, enjoying their Christmas vacations. But a shortage of personnel and manpower was not able to hold back the Green and White tide.

It goes without saying that the students in the stands this afternoon will more than make up in volume and quality of singing and cheering for the lack of quantity in the UH section. The student body is to be commended for the key role it has played in awakening the community to the realization that there is a university in the Territory.

PINE BOWL SCENE

Overheard at airport Wednesday evening:

1st Beaver: Some burg, huh?

2nd Beaver: Yeh, some Berg!

We found out the reason for the Oregon team's nickname at the airport. The coeds who greeted them will definitely testify that they are eager beavers.

Snack Bar Snatches: This game is too dangerous; someone is always kicking off.

Everyone came to the game to see Oregon lose. For instance, history majors came to see Oregon Trail and zoology majors came to see the Beavers tail.

ASATO AND THE WOLFMAN—After the UH-Nevada tilt Dec. 17, it was commonly acknowledged that diminutive, dynamic Jimmy Asato is destined to become one of the brightest luminaries on the Manoa grid horizon. Combining lightning speed with sheer determination, Jimmy proved to be a thorn in the Wolfpack's side all night. The Ka Leo camera snapped this unusual photo of Jimmy just before he was pulled down from behind by an unidentified Nevanadan, after picking up sufficient yardage to make a Rainbow first down. Creeping in on the left is Nevada Fullback Bill Osborne. Jimmy replaced Charley Bessette at righthalf on the first string, and is expected to add thrills to this afternoon's Pine Bowl Classic. Only 21 yrs. old, he weighs in at about 165. UH Cagers Barely Eke Out 44-41 Win Over Commercial All Stars

Frosh Five Displays Far More Class In Trouncing Hapless Mid-Pacific 55-33

By BOB BJORN
Ka Leo Sports Editor

In spite of a 30-16 lead at the half the UH Roaring Rainbows casaba squad came dangerously close to dropping the game with the Commercial league All Stars last Thursday night at the gym. The 'Bows managed to edge their opponent in the final moments of play, 44-41.

Coach Al Saake's Frosh team, which has shown surprisingly well this season, pounded out an easy 55-33 win over Mid-Pacific in the preliminary. The Frosh now have a record of four victories and no defeats.

IN WINNING their sixth straight of the current season, the Varsity made a poorer showing than their younger brothers. But for the aggressive fight and expert foul shooting of Capt. Bobby Wong, Thursday night's game might have ended with a different winner.

The 'Bows appeared over confident throughout most of the second half, permitting the All Stars to narrow the gap on the scoreboard. A missed lay up shot by Damien Rocha, who had the court all to himself at the time late in the fourth period, averted a knotted score and probably saved the day for Art Gallon's men.

NEXT OPPONENT on the Rainbow schedule will be National Photo Supply next Friday night at the gym. National Photo is rated as one of the top teams in local competition.

It was reported that the Frosh will not play in the prelim for this contest.

Interclub Casaba Loop Entries Due Jan. 3-7 In Intramural Office

Entries for the inter-club basketball tournament are due immediately at the Intramural office after school resumes next Monday, Don Gustuson announced recently.

These entrance papers are necessary for any club to be eligible for competition in the league, which is scheduled to get underway soon after next Monday.

Physical examination clearance slips must be secured from the dispensary by all participants, Gustuson reported.

Line-Backer

PAU FOR ALMA MATER—Co-capt. Louis Collins, 200-lb. battering ram fullback, will end his football playing days at UH at today's Pineapple Bowl Classic. Here since 1940, Louis has carved a sensational career on the gridiron and is expected to be in peak form this afternoon.

Elusive Back

ALOHA APPEARANCE—When Co-capt. Jyun "Curly" Hirota takes to the gridiron today, he will have donned the green and white uniform of the Roaring Rainbows for the last time. After a brilliant four-year career in football, "Curly" is ready to join UH's hall of fame of great athletes.

Takekawa, Wong Coach First UH High School Five

University high school's first basketball team will be coached by Claude Takekawa, student Intramural director, and Bobby Wong, captain for the Varsity casaba squad.

Wong will be laying out the strategies for the high school squad, and is slated to get his first taste of the problems of a coach.

THE STRENGTH of the Green and White quintet will be unknown in city wide competition, but the co-coaches are hoping to set a good record for their team.

Happy New Year

Beavers Favored Over 'Bows By 3 Touchdowns

services of its standout quarterback, Don Mast, who was stricken with flu just prior to departure time from Oregon.

OSC FINISHED fifth in the PCC, winning two, losing three, and tying two, but was one of the most feared darkhorses throughout the season.

The Beavers' number one threat play, which spectators will see many times this afternoon, is the pass-run which affords the ball carrier an equal choice of passing or running the pigskin. Carpenter normally fades to his right on this play, while Samuel, who is a southpaw, goes to his left.

FOR THE 'BOWS, Johnny Dang, Dick Mamiya, Jimmy Asato and Jyun Hirota will be carrying the brunt of backfield assignments, with ends Harry Kahuanui, Ken Nakamura, and Phil Haake on the receiving line for overhead attacks through the air.

Coach Tommy Kaulukukui, moreover, has been trying out several new aerial tricks, which feature guards pulling out, and End Kahuanui heaving the pigskin, and it is likely that some of these deceptive plays may be worked in the contest today.

OF COURSE, the men to watch on OSC's squad are Carpenter and Samuel. The former, at left half, topped the PCC in passing with 36 completions out of 56 attempts for an average of .643. He also carried the porker for 387 yds. Ten of his passes were good for scores.

Samuel, at right half, racked up 48 points to tie for second place honors in individual scoring. He finished in fourth place in total offense with 848 yds., and eighth in punting with a 35.2 average.

OFFENSE SHOULD rule the day with both teams pointing toward big scores. The Rainbows will attempt a continuation of the dogged determination which they displayed against Nevada, while Coach Lon Stiner's aggregation will be out to wind up their season's activities with a smashing victory in the Pine Bowl.

UH Quarterback Mamiya, a master of the hidden ball or "bootleg" play, should use his expert knowledge of grid strategy to excellent advantage against the visitors. Co-capt. Louis Collins and Hirota, and towering End Haake will be playing their last game for the Green and White. All three are seniors.

IN WEIGHT averages, the Bea-

OUTPASSED

Nevada Beats Deans Easily

Less than 15,000 fans saw the Nevada Wolfpack trounce the Roaring Rainbows, 73-12, Dec. 17 at the stadium.

Led by All American Stan Heath, the Nevadans pounded out three touchdowns in each of the first three quarters and two in the final period to down the hard fighting 'Bows.

UNLIKE THE Rainbow eleven which faced Texas Mines, UH fought with raw courage and determination to try to offset the heavy favorite from Reno.

The victors gained 442 yds. on the ground and 334 from passing to net 776, against a total of 314 for the Manoamen. Heath tossed 17 aeriels, completing nine for 205 yds. and two TDs.

Riflemen To Fire In Interclass Meet January 3 To 7

Riflemen on campus are scheduled to fire in an interclass match at the UH firing range next from Monday, Jan. 3 to 7.

Approximately 100 marksmen, who have been practicing under M/Sgt. James T. Heard of the Varsity rifle team, will participate in the match.

THE TOP FIVE targets of each class will determine the winners in each division. The Varsity and the ROTC teams will also be selected from the contest.

The newly selected ROTC team will then compete in the William Randolph Hearst and the Sixth Army Inter-collegiate rifle matches scheduled from Monday, Jan. 10 to 21. Match targets will be fired here and then sent by mail to the Sixth Army headquarters in San Francisco for scoring.

vers top the local team in both line and backfield departments, insofar as their respective first strings are concerned.

On the line, OSC is heavier by nine lbs. per man, and in the backfield the men from Corvallis claim 15 lbs. more per player than the Rainbows.

LEAVING UH AND COLLEGE FOOTBALL—Early in the 1948 season, Phil Haake, lanky end on Coach Tommy Kaulukukui's Varsity, was tabbed the "Tarzan" of the team by his teammates for his husky stature and rugged playing on the gridiron. Phil has proved consistently throughout the season that he is worthy of the nickname. "Tarzan's" pleasing personality, pass-snagging wizardry and speedy runbacks on punts will be greatly missed next year by Coach Tommy and the Varsity, for today is his final game for UH.
