

PACIFIC SCIENCE

A QUARTERLY DEVOTED TO THE BIOLOGICAL AND PHYSICAL SCIENCES OF THE PACIFIC REGION

VOL. XII

APRIL 1958

NO. 2

Previous issue published February 3, 1958

CONTENTS

	PAGE
Distribution and Ecologic Aspects of Central Pacific Salpidae (Tunicata). James L. Yount	111
Some Trematodes of Fishes from the Central Equatorial Pacific. Edwin S. Iversen and Earl Hoven	131
Two New Doliolids from the Eastern Pacific Ocean. Takasi Tokioka and Leo Berner	135
A New Hedyotis from Kauai, Hawaiian Islands. Benjamin C. Stone and Irwin Lane	139
Revisionary Notes on the Phoxocephalidae (Amphipoda), with a Key to the Genera. J. Laurens Barnard	146
Studies on Luminescence in Marine Snails. Y. Haneda	152
Contributions to the Knowledge of the Alpheid Shrimp of the Pacific Ocean Part III. On a Small Collection from Onotoa, Gilbert Islands. Albert H. Banner	157
Records of Scattering Layers from New Zealand Seas. B. M. Bary	170
NOTES: An Unusually Large Salp. Eugene L. Nakamura and James L. Yount .	181
First Pacific Record of the Whale-louse Genus Syncyamus (Amphipoda: Cyamidae). Thomas E. Bowman	181
Brighamia citrina (C. N. Forbes & Lydgate) St. John, comb. nov. Harold St. John	182

PACIFIC SCIENCE is published quarterly by the University of Hawaii Press, in January, April, July, and October. Subscription price is $4.00 a year; single copy, $1.25. Check or money order payable to University of Hawaii should be sent to University of Hawaii Press, Honolulu 14, Hawaii, U.S.A. Printed by The Advertiser Publishing Company, Ltd., Honolulu 2, Hawaii.