

Stanford To Meet Hawaii in Second Debate

Stanford-UH Hold Initial Major Debate

Four Effective Speakers Argued
Last Night Before Interested
Honolulu Crowd

Stanford university's visiting debaters last night met the University of Hawaii's duo in the first major intercollegiate debate between the two schools in the Central Union Parish hall.

Represented by Robert Mallet and Frances Ford, Stanford upheld the negative of the question, "Resolved: That the Roosevelt proposal to reorganize the Supreme Court be adopted." Hawaii's affirmative arguments were presented by Robert Taira and Cletus Hanifin.

That the Supreme Court, by its policy-making decisions, is thwarting the will of the people, the contention of the affirmative. They pointed out that decisions are greatly dependent upon the personal social philosophies of the justices and that the present proposal struck at the root of the problem by changing the present conservative interpretation of the flexible Constitution to liberal one.

Both Stanford speakers, speaking on the negative, expressed appreciation for the reception given them—in their arguments, they contended that the Supreme Court was intended to be, and should be, a conservative body to check upon the other two branches of government which were "continually embroiled in the stew of politics." In addition, they pointed out the dangerous precedent that would be set, paving the way for a breakdown of democracy in the future.

Mr. Riley Allen, editor of the Honolulu Star-Bulletin, chairmaned the debate, which was arranged by Shogo Abe, ASUH debate manager.

Six-Weeks Exams Off!

By NORMAN CHUNG

University of Hawaii students who have not yet had their six weeks exams, rejoiced today at a notice from the office of Miss Helen O'Neil, that there will be no more six weeks exams this week!

Reason for the cancellation of the quizzes is the arrival on the campus early tomorrow of Baron Loof Lirpa, Danish nobleman and noted educator. Baron Lirpa is well known in America for his exploits here and in Europe. Decorated by the Austrian, Italian and Danish governments for his work in the field of emanuensistology, he was featured in a front page story in the Honolulu Star-Bulletin about a year ago.

Upon his arrival tomorrow, Baron Lirpa will attend the Stanford-Hawaii debate at Farrington hall at 9:30. An ardent enthusiast and authority in forensics, he was an orator of note at Yale University in 1916.

In the afternoon, Baron Lirpa is scheduled to speak at the meeting of Sigma Kappa Kappa in the Library reserve room. Friday at nine o'clock, he will speak in Farrington hall. This special convocation will permit students to be excused from their classes to attend. Those, however, who insist on their examinations may have them by special appointment with their instructors.

Baron Lirpa's topic at this convocation will be the controversial question which has been discussed from one end of this campus to the other, namely, "Did the Students Really 'Bite' On This Article?" Please don't be angry, dear reader, tomorrow is April Fool's day, and we just couldn't resist the temptation. Loof Lirpa! I mean April Fool!

Manuscripts May Be Called for Immediately

Authors, who have entered the Charles Eugene Banks Memorial contest may have their manuscripts back by calling at the office of Dr. Harold S. Palmer, Dean hall, room 4.

Manuscripts not called for by June 1 will be destroyed. It is requested that they be reclaimed promptly.

Bento's Cast Trains Daily

Tickets Have Been Issued to Senior Class Members

Tickets have been distributed to the members of the senior class for Stanley Bento's musical, which will be staged in Farrington hall on April 15.

The musical, "Strictly Amateur," was written by Stanley Bento, a prominent member of the University of Hawaii Theatre Guild. The show will be presented under the auspices of the senior class.

Rehearsals are being held daily, with a selected cast of campus musicians and dramatists. The cast includes Sam Kaapuni, Juliet Carroll, Muriel Brown, Ann Powers, Abe Akaka, Estelle Young, Mickey Carmichael, Jessamine Christy, Margaret Withington, Lucia White, George Reeves, Walter Mookini, Henry Fong, Tom Billings, Arthur Gorelangton, Tom Fraser, Sam Randall, Edith Mowry, Genie Pitchford, Swede Desha, Seido Ogawa, Anastacio Luis and Bill Chun.

When Prof. Arthur E. Wyman, director of UH Theatre Guild, who is now on a leave of absence, read Bento's musical, he highly commended it. He said that it is one of the best accomplishments that a local student has done in this field.

Radio Play to Be Aired Mon.

Story of Johnstown Flood Is Third KGMB Presentation

The third in a series of radio dramas being presented by students in English 165 will be given over KGMB next Monday evening at 8.

Having as its theme, an episode in the lives of a young couple during the great Johnstown flood, this playlet was chosen for the wide range of emotional play possible in its enactment.

The role of the courageous young husband is being taken by James Carey while Ann Powers portrays his young wife. Cyril Helton is the farmer with his whimsical drawl.

Bertha Blomfield-Brown takes the role of Mrs. Rodney, another important character part. Metcalf Beckley will be the Rev. Beal.

The play is being presented under the auspices of the University Theater Guild and is directed by Mrs. Lucinda Bukeley.

Bertha Blomfield-Brown Is Given Banks Contest Prize

Unanimously voting upon "Ai-noa," a short play, the judging committee of the Charles Eugene Banks contest awarded Bertha Blomfield-Brown the cash prize of $20. The prize is this year's portion of the fund, raised in memory of Mr. Banks, a former literary editor of The Honolulu Advertiser, and a writer and poet.

It has been the custom, since the inception of this contest in 1933, to announce the winner of the contest on or about April 3, Mr. Banks' birthday.

The judges of the contest were Mrs. Beatrice Ayer Patton, a writer; Mr. William Costello of the Honolulu Star-Bulletin, and Dr. A. M. Stevens of the Punahou

Ten Picked for Semi-Finals in Essay Contest

Preliminaries Show Calibre of

From this number, five will be chosen to compete in the finals, the winners of which will speak at a special convocation scheduled for April 15.

Judges of the preliminaries which were solely for the rating of the manuscripts were Miss Laura Schwartz, Mrs. Muriel Bergstrom and Mr. Theodore Morgan.

In the semi-finals, the judges will be Dr. Willis Coale, Dr. William Taylor and Dr. Harold Hoflich.

Dr. W. Norwood Brigance, Dr. Bruce White, Dean William H. George, Dr. Charles Hunter and Mr. Willard Wilson will serve as judges of the finals.

Varsity Coeds Keep Records

Women Sharpshooters Continue High Scoring Spree

Lydia Chun continued to score ten perfect bulls'-eyes in the women's rifle team matches against University of Kansas and Pennsylvania State College according to records compiled early this week. Mew Kun Ching also scored a perfect while the three remaining team members scored 99 points for a team total of 397 points.

The women sharpshooters are setting some sort of a record with their consistent high scores. Cornell University joined Carnegie Institute in being the only teams able to defeat the women to date. Cornell reported a team score of 500 points or every one of the five members registering a perfect return.

Lucia White, Phyllis Van Orden and Virginia Jackson comprised the remaining members of the team. Others who fired included Dora Chun and Marjorie Carter, 98, Amy Richardson and P. Hocker, 97, and Wai Kam Hee, 96.

Scores received from University of Kentucky and University of Oregon indicated that the Deans have won. The team scored 496 points against Kentucky's 490 and Oregon's 493 points.

Extra! Extra! No Paper on Campus This Saturday

Due to pressure of the six-weeks exams, the members of Ka Leo staff will go on a "book-reading" strike. Consequently, there will be no issue of Ka Leo on the campus Saturday.

Things look mighty bad in the present situation. Members of the staff have been condemned for many things, including not going on a strike for a long time. Hence, we plan to!

This is not a moment's idea of any of the staff members too. This is a premeditated affair. From the very first edition of this year's Ka Leo, the members have gone into a conference and have condemned those who condemn them. So, the world goes . . . yeah, each at each other's neck, if you please . . . our necks are strong.

Try editing the paper and keep up with your studies sometimes . . . we have . . . but can you? So, don't come crying into our office for your paper on Saturday. We won't be around. All right, you paid for the issues, but do you care if we flunk our exams?

35 Pieces of Art Displayed

Majors, Tam, Miss Andrade are Leading Exhibitors

Thirty-five paintings and drawings, the best work of the first semester done under Prof. Huc M. Luquiens, are being exhibited in Hawaii hall.

Leading exhibitors are Robert Majors, graduate student from Chouinard Art school, Reuben Tam, former Ka Leo editor, and Dorothy Andrade, transfer student from USC. Both Majors and Tam exhibited recently at the Academy of Arts and received excellent comment from Madge Tennent, artist and critic.

Subjects included in the student show are landscapes and marines done in oils and watercolor, flowers and other still life, and nude studies. The show will be replaced in several weeks by an exchange exhibit from a Mainland school.

Wastage of Talent Awakens Canada To Need for Aid

Ottawa, Ont.—(ACP)—How to stop further "wastage" of Canadian talent by opening educational opportunity to all intelligent young men and women was discussed in the House of Commons recently when a system of national scholarships was proposed.

The scholarships would make it possible for exceptional students financially unable to continue their education to obtain training in universities, agricultural colleges and technical schools.

The proposal is not acceptable to the government in the form in which it was presented, explained Norman Rogers, Labor Minister. Debate will probably direct attention to the matter on the part of the authorities more directly concerned with education than the Dominion Government.

It is the duty of the provincial government to look after such matters in education, concluded Rogers.

HAWAII QULL CONTEST

Students contemplating entering Hawaii Quill's literary contest are reminded that the deadline for submitting manuscripts has been moved to April 9 because of the six weeks exams.

Norman Chung, John Stone To Represent UH Tomorrow

Frances Ford, Robert Mallet To Speak Again
In Intercollegiate Debate Against Local University Duo

Hawaii will uphold the negative of the question, "Resolved: That the Roosevelt proposal to reorganize the Supreme Court be adopted" in an intercollegiate debate against the visiting Stanford duo at 9:30 a. m. tomorrow in Farrington hall.

Norman Chung, associate editor of Ka Leo, and John Stone, ASUH secretary, will represent Hawaii in this talk. Chung is a sophomore, while Stone is a junior.

Frances Ford and Robert Mallet, seniors, are the Stanford debating duo. Both are experienced speakers, as was shown in last evening's debate.

President David L. Crawford will preside at this contest, with James Carey and Metcalf Beckley, both of Ka Leo staff, serving as timers.

The debate will begin promptly at 9:30 a. m. Students and friends who expect to listen to the arguments are urged to be in Farrington hall promptly, as time is limited.

The Stanford debaters will leave Hawaii Friday for home. While in Honolulu, Mallet boarded at the Charles Atherton House, and Miss Ford was a guest of Dean and Mrs. Ernest Webster.

Debaters Meet For First Time

Mallet of Stanford Opposes
Chung of Hawaii

Appearing before the Round Table club, Stanford's Robert Mallet debated Norman Chung of this university in a discussion-debate in which each team was represented by only one member. Each speaker summarized his entire case, Stanford taking the affirmative against Hawaii's negative.

In addition to the speakers, Miss Frances Ford of Stanford and Cletus Hanifin, John Stone, Robert Taira and Mr. Theodore Morgan of Hawaii were present.

The meeting was the first between Hawaii and any Stanford team in Honolulu. It was held at the YWCA.

Oriental Institute Receives Valuable Literary Collection

The University of Hawaii was presented with 709 volumes of Chinese classical literature last week upon the celebration of its 30th anniversary by Pian Cheng, noted Chinese poet. These volumes were a part of Mr. Cheng's private collection.

Keenly interested in the work of the Oriental Institute, Mr. Cheng hopes to stimulate interest in China by promoting better international understanding, especially as regards the civilizations and cultures of the Oriental countries.

SIX-WEEKS REPORT

Instructor's report sheet for the six-weeks period should be called for by the end of this week at the Registrar's office. Complete reports must be in by next Tuesday.

With its theme, "The Philosophy of the Youth of the World," six sessions were held in which a speaker presented the thoughts of various countries which was followed by an informal discussion.

Fellowship and recreation were just as important on the program for the three days. Introduction games, sunrise service, group singing, volleyball, baseball, dancing and stunt night were carried on smoothly.

Thursday night Dr. Charles Moore, professor of philosophy, spoke on "The Fundamental Problems of Philosophy."

ROTC Unit Holds Ball Saturday Night

Hawaii Union Plans Kamaaina Hula

First it was counting sheep but members of the Hawaii Union will probably count strands of grass for the rest of their lives in order to fall asleep. Why? They're offering a prize of a genuine antique hula skirt at their dance, Kamaaina Hula, which is to be held in the University gymnasium on April 10, to the person who makes the best guess as to the number of strands in the skirt, but the catch is that the members of the organization will have to count the strands first in order to know who to award the prize to!

Popular coeds who will serve as hostesses for the evening include Barbara Smythe, Ruth Murphy, Thelma Fujii, Mamie Jensen, Helen Amoy and Kuulei Emoto.

The gymnasium will be decorated in keeping with the theme of the dance.

Members working on the various committees include Shogo Abe, Robert Taira, Seido Ogawa, and Susumu Awaya, reception; John Stone, tickets; Seido Ogawa, Tokuji Kubota and Minoru Shinoda, decorations; Abraham Akaka and James Dyson, program; Taro Tanaka, cleanup; Shogo Abe and Edison Tan, invitations.

Soph Social to Honor Frosh

Members of the sophomore class will be hosts to the freshmen at a social to be held at Atherton House on April 15. A diversified program is being drawn up by Iwalani Smith.

All members of the sophomore class who have paid their dues will be admitted free of charge while others will be charged ten cents.

Dancing will be enjoyed. Music is to be furnished by Al King and his orchestra.

Refreshments will be served free.

Wanda Lee Benoit Sails Friday

Wanda Lee Benoit, popular freshman student, is sailing for the mainland this Friday on the Malolo with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. F. Benoit.

She has been very popular on the campus and will be missed by her many friends.

Recent revelations show that a dozen University of Alabama students became six sets of man and wife during the Christmas vacation.

Esther Au, a popular member of Yang Chung Hui, became the bride of Richard Q. Y. Wong at 8 Wednesday evening at the Waialae Golf club. About 2,000 friends of the young couple were present. The bride was given in marriage by her father. The Rev. Stephen Mark officiated.

Beatrice Lum was the maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Mary Au and Rosie Wong. Carol Wong and Irene Chinn, dressed in dainty white organdie, made pretty little flower girls. Serving the groom were Harold Wong as the best man, Albert Lai and Ah Tung Wong, ushers.

The ceremony was held in front of a lattice work decorated with ti leaves and calla lilies. The side screens were of ti leaves and gardenias.

Mrs. H. L. Chung sang Because I Love You Truly, accompanied on the piano by Juanita Lum-King.

A reception and dancing were held later.

The couple are making their home at 2953 E. Manoa Road.

Annual Military Affair Expected to Draw Crowd

Consternation was written all over the face of the drop kicks when they called their companies to attention and proceeded down the line to collect money for the Military ball on Saturday. Expecting a deluge of currency, they were ready to use their caps in case of necessity, but they ended up in the rear rank empty-handed. Tsk! Tsk!

Undaunted, the first sergeant of K Company, dug his hands into his pocket and fished out eight measly pennies to pay for two tickets. With a shrill voice, he announced his discovery. Trouble? That'll come too soon.

Shy because they had not wanted to be the only ones contributing to the coffers, the plebes promised solemnly to turn money in for at least one ticket. Even Barlow Hardy, he of the excessive avoirdupois, promised to dig up a fem from the wilds of Kauai to take to the dance. Jack Wakayama expressed intentions of bringing along his harem to add to the gaiety of the dance. Laichee Take-moto has borrowed some grease from the ossie furs to oil his creaking hinges along his knee caps. The PMS & T has announced that all advanced men be required to come in full military attire and although, as Charles McClean would be wont to say it, "They'll want to show off in them anyway," they'll add to the gala decoration that has been planned.

While the kaydets are flopping all over themselves in the extended order drill on the field, everyone's mind is turning to the MILITARY DANCE on Saturday. Errors were made a couple times, but when the truth was out, the captains excused them, knowing how it must feel to think of dancing and field work simultaneously.

Going to the Military Dance? Of course I am!

Ima Sophie Instructs Neophytes In Latest Ball Room Etiquette

By IMA SOPHIE

Having instructed you on the elementary principles of getting into the swing of dancing, I've brought it upon myself to teach you the intricate steps of executing the turns properly. Unlike the military turns which call for straight corners, you must turn gracefully and in a well-rounded curve. Having successfully maneuvered your partner to the far end of the gymnasium, you are faced with the problem of doing an about turn, or a to the rear march, so that you can start all over.

Facing the wall, advance and plant your left foot twelve inches in front of and to the left of the right. Place the right alongside the left with a twelve inch interval. A "stand at ease" in the reverse would do very well. At the third count, close your left to the right as when called to attention and wait for the next beat of the drum. On the next count, turn gracefully pivoting on the ball of the right, the heel raised slightly. On the next count, raise the right heel slightly and pivot gracefully on the ball, at the same time bringing your left foot twelve inches to the left of the right. On the next count, bring your right alongside the left.

You should now be at an angle directly 45 inches from your original position. If necessary, repeat the movements and you should be all ready to resume your march down the floor.

With these fundamentals of ball room dancing plus the military precision gained on the drill field, you should be ready to be a better dancer than Jack Wakayama. Ima's letter to the professor of military scy has been put off until two year's hence, because he got promoted to the advanced course.

The officers, anyway, like to don their unies and an official order from the PMS&T would only be added salve on their vanities. I've sold my tickets to the big dance on April 3. Have you?

I tried to get a date for that night, but the lady friend turned me down cold. Wait till I tell her who I am, then perhaps she would rather go with me than with my drop kick. The big goof! Just because he spots two more chevrons than me, he gets the cream of the crop. I'm disgusted. Anyway the university girls are only after what they can get. Wait till the fresh crop of freshmen get on the campus next year. I'll choose my sponsor from that bunch. That is, if I survive the military camp and get on the good graces of the captain. I'll show 'em.

Leslie Howard says Luckies are "tops" with his throat

"Years ago, as an ambitious young actor, I was impressed how well my throat liked Luckies and how well they suited my idea of a perfect cigarette. That impression still stands. In my recent tour of 'Hamlet', with its many performances each week and the attendant tax on my throat, I have been convinced anew that this light smoke is both delightful to my taste and the 'top' cigarette for an actor's throat."

Leslie Howard

THE FINEST TOBACCO—
"THE CREAM OF THE CROP"

An independent survey was made recently among professional men and women—lawyers, doctors, lecturers, scientists, etc. Of those who said they smoke cigarettes, more than 87% stated they personally prefer a light smoke.

Mr. Howard verifies the wisdom of this preference, and so do other leading artists of the radio, stage, screen and opera. Their voices are their fortunes. That's why so many of them smoke Luckies. You, too, can have the throat protection of Luckies—a light smoke, free of certain harsh irritants removed by the exclusive process "It's Toasted". Luckies are gentle on the throat.

Deans Capture ASUH Senior Cage Title

Beat Matsons in Colorful Championship Struggle On Saturday in UH Gymnasium

46-38. That was the outcome that gave Luke Gill's boys the title of the ASUH senior cage league Saturday night in the U gym. The Manoans had to play basketball as they never had done before to turn back the championship-famished Matson five. And they did.

Truly the Manoans played as if inspired. They reached heights they never succeeded in climbing up to before. Their great showing fittingly brought to an end the Deans' most successful cage season in years in that it climaxed Hawaii's ever improving brand of play. The team that dropped a 28 to 34 game to the Wandering Vagabonds in its debut is no more. Instead in its place remains a team which is now famed for the greatest bit of team work seen in years. There has been no team in seasons which played together as did the Rainbows. Individual stars were the asset of the other top teams of the conference, but in the case of the Deans, team work was its slogan.

It looked pretty dark for the Deans after the first few minutes of play when the Matsons led by a considerable margin. But the Uhans, aided by the sharp shooting of Tommy Kaulukukui, Frank Cockett and Tony Morse, managed to knot the count at 21 all as the half ended.

As the half opened the Manoans began to creep away from the Matsons. With Tommy Kaulukukui, Tony Morse, Frank Cockett, and Swede Desha dumping the ball through the hoop with erratic abandon, the Matsons had but a ghost of a chance to beat the high riding Rainbows.

The capacity crowd that witnessed the game was treated to a great guarding exhibition put up by both squads. Captain Morse made one of the most brilliant stops of the season in the second half. A Matson cagester had the ball right under the basket and was just in the act of throwing it in through the hoop, when Morse came like a bullet to block the throw. There were others, too numerous to mention.

Valuable notebook, manuscripts and letters of the late Amy Lowell, poetess, have been presented to the Harvard University library by Miss Lowell's literary executrix, Mrs. Ida Russell.

Tomorrow afternoon, 12:35, at the University Gym, the sophomores and seniors will open the intramural indoor volleyball league.

The game will be in the 5 foot 7 inch Division with the soph and senior teams in the Unlimited Division clashing on Friday.

In outdoor competition, the sophs won the "Stumpy Division" championship during the earlier part of the year while the seniors were victorious in the Unlimited Division. However, with indoor competition all teams are conceded a chance to upset the score.

Ka Leo picks no winners because every class showed their ability to play championship ball on certain days during the Outdoor Volleyball League.

Tommy Next Captain

Tommy Kaulukukui, a popular member of the Dean football, basketball and baseball squads, was selected to pilot next season's basketball team yesterday afternoon at the locker room. It was disclosed at the meeting that each member of the championship Dean cage team will be awarded medals in the near future.

Manager Charles Hapai announced that six boys have earned the "H." The boys are Kaulukukui, Swede Desha, Tony Morse, Francis Apoliana, Frank Cockett, and Al Espinda. They will also receive a medal.

The Rainbows' final win over the Matsons last Saturday night brings to a close one of the most colorfully staged civilian cage title races on Oahu.

With the crowning of the Deans as the champions, replacing the Elks, the most difficult task remains in this year's most successful basketball season. That is the job of selecting the outstanding players of the entire season.

You have seen the two teams above and have wondered why the writer has not named so and so for the first team.

Only a few all-star selections have been chosen to the satisfaction of everyone. And this would probably be no exception to the rule, but it is hoped that it would be one that would be accepted.

George Forbes, Tommy Kaulukukui, George Hansen, Tony Morse, Jack Killits and Dunn are on the first squad simply because the writer is of the opinion that they should be there and no other place. All of them contributed something or other that helped in advancing the position of their respective teams in the title chase. Forbes and Kaulukukui were without a doubt the most outstanding forwards in the league. They did not succeed in registering 20 to 25 points in a game, but the little total they scored came when their teams needed the points badly.

There are many who are inclined to think that June Corben of the Log Cabins should get the nod over Tommy on the first squad. But this scribe is not one of them. Corben may be able to find the meshes in a game when the going is easy, but let the encounter get fast and furious, in the latter case he acts like he was a needle in a hay stack. His showing in the first Elks game showed plainly that he should not be considered over the Grass Shack.

Morse and Killits were easily the best guards in the league. Both were fast and led their respective teams in a great manner. Dynamite Dunn of the Cabins is placed on the final berth on the first squad because of the fact that he was the best all around cagester in the league.

Corben, Cockett, Desha, Byerly, Espinda and Parker should be placed on the final team. All performed well.

There were others who were good, but were not selected due to one reason or other.

Sophomores Cop Mat Gonfalon in Intramural Meet

Taking the Intramural Wrestling tournament by storm, the Sophomore class won three of the five titles, thereby creeping up on the Seniors' lead in the interclass competition standing.

C. Izu and P. Kim, both Sophs, took the 112- and 118-lb. titles respectively, while R. You and K. C. Hee, second year men, both shared the co-championship in the 145-lb. division. J. Matsumoto took the 126-lb. title over M. C. Wong, a frosh, and R. Noda, junior, took the decision over Teruya, frosh, in the 135-lb. section.
