

The Changing of the Guard in Japan: Its impact and significance for Japan's domestic politics and relations with the United States, China, Asia, and Europe.

A TALK BY YOSHIKO SAKURAI

Talk sponsored by the School of Pacific and Asian Studies, the Center for Japanese Studies, the University of Hawai'i at Mānoa Chancellor's Office, and the History Department.

Yoshiko Sakurai is well-known in Japan for her journalism and activism. She worked as an NHK national newscaster for 16 years before retiring to devote her full-time energies to writing. She has authored more than 45 books including the well-known "AIDS Crime: The Tragedy of Hemophiliacs." She also holds a degree in History from UH Mānoa. Her talk will look at Japan's recent election and its impact on foreign relations.

Date: October 13, 2009

Time: 4:30-6:00 pm

Place: School of Architecture Auditorium

Note: Parking is available on campus after 4:00 pm for $5. The architecture building has a large parking lot accessible from University Ave.

University of Hawai'i at Mānoa is an Equal Opportunity / Affirmative Action Institution

This seminar is free and open to the public. For more information, visit:

<http://www.hawaii.edu/cjs>

For disability access, please contact the Center at 956-2665 or cjs@hawaii.edu