

"Hay Fever"

Veteran Actors Take Leading Roles In First TG Production

By Clarissa Saiki

A cast of veteran actors will assure a successful performance of Noel Coward's comedy Hay Fever to be presented by the University Theatre Guild on October 17, 18, 23, 24 at Farrington hall at 8:15 p.m.

Lucille Breneman, graduate assistant of speech, will play the role of the retired actress mother. Miss Breneman is familiar to University students for her performances as "Mama" in I Remember Mama. She has also acted in many plays on the mainland where she was a member of the Ramona Outdoor Playhouse in Hemet and San Jacinto, California.

Father and Children Parts

David Bliss, the father, will be played by Louis Steed, arts and sciences sophomore, who has been in army productions. The children, Sorel and Simon Bliss, will be played by Jane Steen and Donald Hawley, arts and sciences sophomores. Miss Steen is remembered for her impressive acting as the daughter in The Beautiful People. Mr. Hawley was seen in Hello Out There. Both plays were Theatre Guild productions last year.

Arlene Kim, TC junior and a veteran of RUR, Ladies in Retirement, and Hello Out There, will play the part of Myra Arundel, a sophisticated woman about town. Richard Greatham, the diplomat, will be acted by Donald Wills, arts and sciences sophomore. The pretty girl who is not too bright, will be played by Matilda of Agatha's April, Phyllis Wiebke, arts and sciences sophomore.

Guest and Family Maid

The boxer guest, Sandy, and Clara, the family maid, will be played by Richard Phillips and Martha Stenberg, arts and sciences sophomores.

More students, particularly men, are urgently needed by the guild for acting and all backstage positions. Experience is not necessary and all interested are asked to sign up with either Dr. Earle Ernst or Dr. Joel Trapido in Farrington hall at any time.

New University Press Meets For First Time

To publish scholarly works of high merit which have not been printed in English before is the aim of the new University Press which met for the first time last week in Hawaii hall.

Authorized by the board of regents on September 5, the Press met to formulate policies, to examine sketches and to consider manuscripts which had been submitted for publication.

University Press members include Thomas Nickerson, University Publication Editor, chairman; William Davenport, Dr. A. Grove Day, and Dr. Carlton Green of the English Dept.; Dr. Joseph P. Maguire of the Classic Dept.; Miss Euphie H. Shields, acting librarian, and Leonard D. Tuthill of the entomology department.

Leebrick To Lecture

The Problem of Making a Peace Treaty with Japan is the subject of a lecture to be given by Dr. K. C. Leebrick, vice president of the University of Hawaii at 8:00 p.m. tomorrow night in Farrington Hall. This will be the first in a series of seven lectures scheduled for the first semester under the sponsorship of the University Extension division.

Dr. Leebrick recently returned from a "re-evaluation tour" of Korea and Japan made at the request of the armed forces. He is a recognized authority on Far Eastern affairs, having served in an advisory capacity to General McArthur's staff. The public is invited to attend the lecture free of charge.

Jane Okamoto Is New Assistant Social Supervisor

Miss Jane Okamoto, last year's ASUH secretary and Real Dean award winner, has been appointed assistant social supervisor of Hemenway hall.

Miss Okamoto is in Hemenway hall daily from 8:30 a.m. to 3:30 p.m. She assists students in recreational activities and also takes care of the lost and found department.

"Pens, wallets, glasses, money, jewelry, snapshots, and other articles are waiting for their claimants," Miss Okamoto said.

A new addition to the recreation equipment will be another ping pong table which will appear sometime this week, according to the young assistant supervisor.

Clarifying existing rules and policies, she said students should remember that no food is allowed in the hall; and in order to obtain cribbage boards, playing cards, checkers, ping pong equipment, students should leave a deposit.

Students To Vote For ASUH Council Members

Ballots will be cast this Friday for a ASUH treasurer, class councillors, Hemenway hall governors, and freshman class officers, under the single transferrable vote method as specified in the ASUH constitution. The election booths, to be located in front of Hemenway hall, will be open from 8:30 a.m. to 2:30 p.m.

Results will be posted on the ASUH bulletin board Saturday morning after approval by the student council, which meets Friday afternoon.

Student Council Approves Kosaki's New Appointments

The ASUH council approved the appointments of various representatives and committee chairmen at the last meeting, it was announced by Richard Kosaki, president.

Vice-president: Francis Imamura, Irene Imamura, Ed Matsumoto, James Nishi and Wallace Okamoto. (1).

Secretary: Rosealia Castillo, Sadie Hokama, Toshie Koyama, Alice Matsukage, Evelyn Nagoshi, Fusae Ozeki, Hazel Tatsuguchi, and Irene Watanabe. (1).

Treasurer: Alfred Abe, Miyoko Nakamura, Andrew Vidinha, Irene Yamato. (1).

Single Transferrable Ballot

Voters are requested to follow the single transferrable vote method as directed in the ASUH handbook.

Put the figure one (1) in the square opposite the name of your first choice. You may also express second, third and other choices by putting the figure two (2) opposite the name of your second choice, and so on. You may thus express as many choices as you please, without any regard to the number being elected.

Your ballot will be counted for your first choice if it can help elect him. If it cannot help elect him, it will be transferred to the highest of your other choices whom it can help.

You cannot hurt the chances of any candidate you prefer by marking lower choice for other. The more choices you express the surer you are to make your ballot count for one of them. But do not feel obligated to express more choices than you really have.

Do not put the same figure opposite more than one name.

If you spoil this ballot, return it

A Visiting Professor Gets Interviewed

Even Dr. Steiner's Praise Of The Islands Did Not Prepare Visiting Professor Brooks For Hawaii

A varied background gained from working at many jobs before he entered college, has given Dr. Lee M. Brooks, visiting professor of sociology from the University of North Carolina, a keen interest and appreciation of people in all walks of life.

Before entering college, Dr. Brooks worked both as a mill hand and as a member of a business staff. During the first World War, the genial North Carolina professor was connected with the army YMCA and after the war he directed young people's activities at one of the large churches in Boston.

He Knows Dr. Steiner

Dr. Brooks came to Hawaii not unfamiliar with the Islands after spending last summer in Washington with Dr. Jesse Steiner, who was visiting sociology professor here last semester. The two men met at the University of North Carolina when Dr. Steiner was a student during the time Dr. Brooks was working for his master's degree.

Dr. Brooks said he has found that even Dr. Steiner's praise of the islands did not prepare him for Hawaii.

Lavish Praise

"The very atmosphere of the place kisses one with affection," he said. "All the descriptions friends and books have given aren't adequate . . . one has to be here to comprehend the charm and hospitality of the Islands."

"Among the many delights of the Islands," he said, commenting on the campus students and faculty members, "are the sunny smiles and the lilt in the students' voices. They are pleasant and cordial. Our association with members of the faculty has been most interesting and stimulating."

Hickam Bombers Down Junior Varsity Eleven 19 - 0

University of Hawaii's Junior varsity football squad played its first game Saturday afternoon with the Hickam Bombers, going down to a 19-0 score.

Starting lineup for the Rainbow-men was: center, Bobby Crowell; guards, Toshio Tenno, James Tsuda, tackles, Edward Nakagawa, John Pekelo; right half, Ken Kawaguchi; left half, Billy Coleman; fullback, Kiyoshi Matsuo; quarterback, Alvin Haake. The power of the eleven was in its impressive line plunging and rugged individualists but the determining factor as to the score was due to the slushy pass defense that day.

The Army, reputed to be the strongest armed forces team in the territory capitalized on fumbles and intercepted passes for their winning. In the first quarter, the UH'ers, attempting a punt-out-of danger play were smothered by the heavier army who blocked the punt and recovered the loose ball in the University's end zone for the first score. End runs and passes in the more blood for the Bombers for the third and also the last period drew final score of 19-0.

... Editor's Mail Student Writes On Conditions of GYM

Editor, Ka Leo:

The University is expanding and the departments therein continue to grow. But what is happening to our gymnasium? Just this: the roof has bigger pukas, and when the rains come we shall be playing a game of water basketball. That is, if we don't get laid up with a broken back in the preliminaries.

This is no joke! And now that the University boasts of a physical education course in which one may major, it is about time something was being done. Who are we to go out to enlarge and improve public school physical education programs when at home we are not setting an example!

Somewhere money is being obtained for the erecting of frame buildings all over the campus—buildings not used by everyone. Yet the one building getting the hardest wear and tear is forgotten. There is talk of a University stadium while our one little gymnasium is crowded daily with both boys and girls of the University, plus T. C. elementary students. A good amount was made on the recent St. Mary's game; is any of this to be used for a new gym?

Ideally, the men and women should have separate gyms, but

With opportunity to sparkle mostly on defense, the Rainbows showed up fine line backers in Bobby Crowell, center, and Francis Lum, end from Iolani. The backfield had displayed in Kiyoshi Matsuo, fullback, from Farrington Hi, an elusive light weight back with plenty defensive savvy.

Coaching the Junior varsity was acting head coach Tony Morse with Francis Aiwohi and Kai Bong Chung, assisting.

Both teams worked from the "T" formation with adaptations. The officials for the game were all Army men who should by this time have gotten their promotions.

Men And Women Rifle Teams To Start Training

The university men and women's rifle team will start training under the supervision of Major Victor E. Warner next week. T.Sgt. Thomas H. Wells will coach the men's team while T.Sgt. Raymond Riddle will supervise the women.

Student managers of the teams will be Calvin Odo, and Evelyn Choi, arts and sciences seniors have been appointed student managers.

All ROTC men and all university women interested in rifle firing are requested to meet at the ROTC armory on Tuesday, Oct. 14 at 3 p.m.

Gallon To Coach Varsity Five; Manager Post To Be Filled

Art Gallon, formerly of Kamehameha, has been chosen to coach the UH Varsity Rainbow five.

Before any call for applicants for team berths may be made, however, a manager must be selected for the squad. The call is out now for someone to fill the vacant spot left by Jackie Wong, last year's Varsity manager, who will graduate this semester.

Jackie set the standard pretty high, and only an extremely capable person will be selected from among the aspirants. All interested should contact Coach Gallon at the gymnasium anytime during the week. Only juniors and seniors will be legible for the post of varsity team manager.

We'll be satisfied for the moment with a roof on the existing one. Let's preserve what we have already. Let's not lose the battle of progress for want of a nail!

—Evelyn Hope Pischel.

Versatile Athlete Is New Director Of Intra-mural Program

A man who was already an instructor of boys' YMCA swimming and gym classes when he himself was still a youngster of 14 is Mr. Donald Gustuson, director of men's intra-mural sports program and an instructor in health and physical education courses at the University.

Mr. Gustuson, whose record attests to his versatility in athletics, came from Longbeach, California to the University of Hawaii on a scholarship in 1932. In the same school year he became the undefeated wrestling champion of the university in his weight level. As he was obligated to finish his senior year at Whittier college where he had previously received a scholarship, he returned to California the following year. Upon graduation he resumed his YMCA work.

While in high school and in college, he was active in football, basketball, track, swimming, wrestling, boxing and gym work, and taught, as a student instructor.

Mr. Gustuson was on Maui for six years, four of which he spent teaching at Lahainauna high school. His boxing, wrestling, and tumbling teams there were so good that they were never defeated by any other high school in the islands.

During the war he worked for the USO, entertaining Uncle Sam's fighting men with his tumbling and acrobatic acts—two specialties in which he performed on vaudeville stages and in circuses from the time he was fifteen.

Nowadays he referees professional boxing matches at the civic auditorium and the Honolulu stadium.

Men, Women Varsity Swim Plans Made For Olympics Goal

Swimming practice for the Varsity Women's swim squad will be held on Friday, October 10. Heading the aqua-maids will be Captain May Freeth, sophomore, assisted by Esther Mukai. Team manager, selected last Friday, is Reiko Takakuwa.

Comprising the team, so far, are: Sprints: May Freeth, Mitzi Higuehi, Gladys Awai, Eulah Hodges, Ivy Mountcastle; Breast-stroke: Gladys Awai, Mitzi Higuehi, Ruth Awai; Back-stroke: Eula Hodges, Esther Mukai, E. Kanka; Diving: Higuehi, Mountcastle, Janssen.

All interested newcomers are asked to sign up with Coach Sakamoto at the swimming pool or report on Monday, the 13.

EDITORS NOTE:

In the Keanuue Sportsnote column in Friday's issue of Ka Leo, the name of the diver from Farrington was given as James Sato. It should have been James Endo.

Haake Spotlights Contest With Thrilling 49 yd Run

Powerful reserves spelt the marin victory Saturday in the Fighting Rainbow's 1947-48 mainland debut in Salt Lake City against a highly favored University of Utah eleven which emerged on the long end of a 35-0 tally. The Utes capitalized on their reserves and sent in thirteen substitute backfield men during the closing periods of the game.

A crowd of 23,518 fans witnessed the contest which was spotlighted by a thrilling 49 yard run by UH halfback Philip Haake after intercepting a Ute Pass on the Rainbow 10 yard line. The play netted the 'Bows the first of its two first downs of the game after 6 minutes of play in the third quarter. The Hawaii eleven made one serious threat late in the final quarter although most of the game was played deep in Rainbow territory.

Although the longest period Hawaii held the ball was for twelve plays in the first quarter, it took Utah's first string gridmen nine minutes of play, utilizing every trick they possessed, to score.

Taking one of Charlie Bessette's punts on their own 45 yard line, Utah, spearheaded by halfback

Mr. Gustuson derives great pleasure and satisfaction from working with young people, especially those who, for athletic or physical reasons, are not able to participate in varsity sports. He hopes to develop teams in both tumbling and weight lifting here at the university and asks that all interested students contact him.

Frank Nelson, drove goalward in six running and passing plays for the first score.

After six minutes of play in the second quarter, Ute halfback Hal Tate broke through the Hawaii 40 yard line, and with some beautiful blocking from his teammates, scored the second tally standing up.

CABLEGRAM RECEIVED FROM FOOTBALL SQUAD MONDAY

Appreciate ASUH cable telegram. Met a stronger polished team. Continuous injuries during game weakened possibilities of winning.

Shibuya, Hirota, Sal, Dower, LamHo, Watasaki, and Doi on injured list. Arrived in Billings Oct. 6. Given rousing reception. Billings pulling for us and a possible victory. Kometani scouted Montana State Bobcats and reports tough game ahead of us.

Tommy obliged to rearrange lineup. Practice starts Monday morning on Billings high school field.

Interesting educational trips planned by local community. New plays and formations being planned to offset expert and thorough scouting. Redskins did a good job against us. Will cable daily. All send aloha!

tana on Sunday and were scheduled to arrive yesterday. Throughout the trip, the gridmen have been the center of attraction wherever they have traveled. In San Francisco, Gil Lamb, RKO comedienne and m.c. at the Golden Gate theater where the boys saw cinema actress Constance Moore in person, mentioned the fact that the University of Hawaii football team was in the audience.

In Utah, the Rainbows were the guests of honor at a luncheon on the University of Utah campus sponsored by a women's sorority "The Spurs", after which they were introduced to the student body at a special assembly.

"We're trying to do our BEST" is the feeling expressed by the boys on the team.

Calling All Women!

All women on the campus who are interested in majorette work see Mr. Ernest McClain, new band leader, at the music building.

Plans for a flashy and quickstepping program of marching are being made for this year's football season and a good turnout is urgent.

Yang Chung Hui Holds Initiation At Mokuleia

The Yang Chung Hui initiation party was held at the Mokuleia beach home of Gladys Tam last Saturday and Sunday.

The members and four initiates left school at 1:30 p. m. Saturday, and returned Sunday evening. Fried chicken, chop suey, and wun ton min were enjoyed by the girls for dinner.

The initiates were Doris Chun, Marion Wong, Lisa Loo, and Ruby Choy.

Gladys Tam was the general chairman of the party. She was assisted by Shirley Yee and Snooky Chu.

A farewell luncheon was given for Charlotte Wong by the Yang Chung Hui members on Tuesday, September 30, at Mok Larn Chien.

She left on Wednesday evening for Temple University, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania where she will major in pharmacy. Charlotte was formerly the recording secretary of the Yang Chung Hui.

Those attending the luncheon were Mrs. K. F. Chong, advisor of the club; Dorothy Chu, Gladys Tam, Shirley Yee, Elaine Choy, Nancy Wee, Frances Yuen, Betty Wong, and Dorothy Wong.

TC Club Plans Picnic, Initiation at Hanauma Beach Saturday Nite

A paper moon twilight picnic at Hanauma bay on Saturday from 4 to 9 p.m. will be the first social activity of the Teacher's College club this year.

New members will be initiated into the club at the picnic and food and fun is promised for all. All interested TC students are asked to sign up at the club bulletin just outside the clubroom.

Marilyn Mayekawa, TC senior, is general chairman. Assisting her are Betty Yamashiro, food; Helen Ikenaga, program; Magdeline Tiu, invitations; Eddie Sakae, transportation and Alices Hayashibara, publicity.

Bates Speaks At Tu Chiang Sheh Initiation

Twelve pledges were formally inducted into the Tu Chiang Sheh fraternity in a solemn candlelight ceremony at the Paoa Ave. home of Francis Wai on September 29, in the presence of members of four chapters of the organization.

Pledges inducted into the group were Fred Chang, William Chun Hoon, George Lee, William Young, Lindy Loo, Francis Ching, Kwai Lum Young, Clarence Yee, Edward Ching, Newton Chinn and Dr. Kenneth Ho.

Guest speaker, Mr. Albert W. Bates, public relations director for Castle & Cooke, and a member of many national Greek letter fraternities, spoke on the subject of fraternities, their history, organization, and their social and moral benefits.

Officers and other members of the organization present at the induction were Clarence Fong, president; Wa Joong Lum, vice-president; Walter Wee, corresponding secretary; Kwai Lum Young, recording secretary; James C. Ching, treasurer; Harold Kam, Koon Imm Ching and Ray Ho.

YWCA News Notes From Hale Wahine

To co-ordinate the campus YW and YM activities, the cabinets of both groups will get together tomorrow at the YW Beach Club at Waikiki for a supper-meeting from 3:30 to 6 p.m.

The agenda for the business meeting includes discussion of plans for a Thanksgiving Retreat to be co-sponsored by the YM and YW in November. Jean Yamauchi and Stanley Kim have been appointed co-chairmen for this coming affair. Both are now looking for a suitable camp that is able to accommodate a large number of students. This Retreat will be open first to YW and YM members, then to the student body at large.

Another topic to be discussed tomorrow is the YW dance tentatively scheduled for November 22. Adora Aoki has been selected to head this project.

WITH BRANCHES THROUGHOUT THE ISLANDS

SERVICE TO STUDENTS OF THE
UNIVERSITY OF HAWAII

ARS LONGA By Mickey

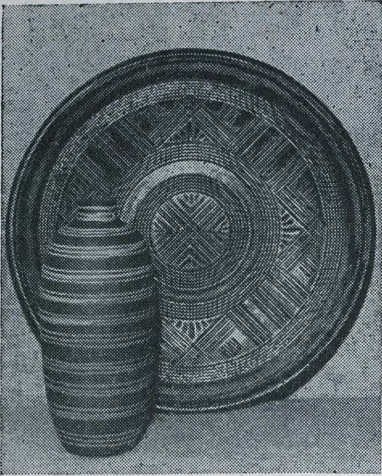

A visit with Prof. Claude Horan M. A. in ceramics, gives a new insight into aesthetic principles and a strong consciousness of the material substance in art. Prof. Horan observes that most of the Potter's art lies in expressing the natural possibilities of the clay itself.

The strength and simple dignity of Prof. Horan's own work demonstrates his feeling for the material and respect for the Sung Dynasty Chinese masters. Accenting the form of his clay he considers surface decoration justified only in so far as it brings out structure. The fruit bowl illustrated is a fine example of decoration emphasizing the character of the medium.

The smaller work shown above, a first prize winner in the Annual Ceramic Exhibition of the Butler Art Institute, is a direct statement of Prof. Horan's thesis in art. Here is an expression of the beauty inherent in the material and the philosophy present in the work. The perception of a quality within the clay is a challenge to give it voice. Expression even beyond utility contains the substance of the ceramic art.

The pleasure of ceramics, more than of the other arts, is limited to the artist rather than the spectator. The keen pleasure of working with pottery is the substance of what Prof. Horan hopes to give to his students. For his own interest in the field he is indebted to Herbert Sanders at San Jose State and Arthur Baggs of Ohio State university under whom he studied. From them he takes the stress of his teaching, understanding, and the nature of the material.

There is a sensitive resentment by Prof. Horan toward the misuse of clay in patterns foreign to it. Rococco styles and flowery decoration, not matter how technically proficient, he considers as digressions from the real meaning of ceramic art. This objection is best phrased in his own words, "Every material has its own essential possibilities and definite limitations, and the work of one who recognizes these will soon stand foremost in his field."

Marriage And Education Go Well Together: Vet Couples On Campus

About 50 veterans on the campus seem to be about the only ones who seem unsusceptible to the charms of enthusiastic freshman girls majoring in "maleology." The reason? They are happily married and many of them are attending school with their spouses.

Marriage and education go well together, according to a number of couples who were interviewed.

"But my wife wakes me up too early!" This is about the only complaint that Don Mayo, an ex-marine has to make about this marriage-education arrangement. Don is a sophomore majoring in religion. His wife, Alice, is a freshman with a music major.

Both are members of the Theatre Guild and are trying out for parts in "Night Must Fall." The couple lives in the veterans' housing area.

A woman vet of the campus is Mrs. Margaret Dunn, formerly of the Coast Guard. She is married to William Dunn, whom she met while stationed in Hawaii.

Both are seniors. Mrs. Dunn majors in zoology and minors in chemistry; her husband, vice versa. Both are taking eight credits this semester and find ample time for housekeeping.

Mr. Dunn, a kamaaina from Lahaina, Maui, is trying to coax his blond wife into liking Hawaiian dishes, but with little success. Mrs. Dunn specializes in preparing Lithuanian dishes.

ASUH lists reveal that about 50 "ineligibles," that is, happily married men, signed up for activity books so that they may take their wives to football games.

Joe Told Me...

By Betty Okazaki

Joe is one of the upperclassmen I know. He is tall, tanned, and very important — a "man-about-the-campus," they call him. He knows just about everything that's going on!

Since I came here, he has been giving me a lot of information about this and that—things that Froshies ought to know to get the most out of their U. I thought it would be swell if I passed it on to you.

Joe told me that more freshmen out to make use of Hemenway hall's main lanai. I've been there lots of times and had wonderful fun and relaxation as well as having made many new friends.

You can challenge some of the old timers at games of cribbage, checkers, ping-pong, or just plain poker. There is only one set of ping-pong however and one person is allowed to hold it for half an hour only. A deposit is required for the use of all games and cards, ranging from ten cents to twenty-five cents.

The lost and found department is also located in the main lanai, and Miss Jane Okamoto is in charge of it. Articles must be properly identified to be claimed.

Near Miss Okamoto's desk is a huge calendar on which campus activities are listed. Joe told me that freshmen should go there from time to time so that they'll know just what is going on.

In the next issue of Ka Leo, I'll let you in on some more dope that Joe told me.

On Serving Liver ...

Editor, Ka Leo:

We wonder if the cafeteria management is not trying to deceive patrons who have supper there. Ordinarily, the full course of the supper is displayed on the wall by the tray table. One evening last week, the sign was missing. What was the fare then?—LIVER.

This takes us back to one evening last semester when liver was on the menu. At that time, this fact was so announced by the sign. Consequently, very few had supper at the cafeteria. The following night, the menu read, "Stuffed Cabbage." What was stuffed in the cabbage?—yes, LIVER.

We hope the cafeteria management will be truthful about what they have to serve and not try to deceive the patrons into paying for something they do not want.

The Voice - Loud and Clear

Just outside our door hangs a shingle with the words "Ka Leo O Hawaii, The Voice of the Students," printed on it. Exactly how many students and how loud the voice is will depend upon the interest and cooperation of all members of the ASUH.

The first weeks of school brought dissatisfied rumblings around the campus, criticising practices of students, of organizations, and the administration. In past years we have observed similar rumblings make slight disturbances among the students, and then slowly rumble back into oblivion.

If things tend to follow the same course as in previous years, we can be right in assuming that few if any of these rumblings will ever come into the open or materialize into constructive criticism of the propositions involved. For some reason or other, students have been reluctant in giving vent to their desires and opinions on campus problems.

Such should not be the case in a university. It is true there are always a few whose voices are louder than the others and who raise a rumpus wherever they are. Persistent campus problems that bother all students should find their way into the columns of Ka Leo, the mouthpiece of the students.

We realize the need for a column devoted exclusively to letters from the students, where the greatest reasonable amount of freedom of discussion may be given them. It is up to the students to write and produce such a column.

It is not enough for students to rant and fume among themselves against existing conditions and practices on the campus. Concerted action and constructive results are possible only when discussion is frank and in the open.

No matter how small the minority is, they should be allowed opportunities for expression. Ka Leo aims to make provisions for the presentation of both sides of every question.

Progress in society comes when there are dissatisfactions with the status quo and these are expressed loud and clear. Let us bring these dissatisfactions to light through Ka Leo.

This is the Voice of the Students. Let us make it the voice of all 3,769 students.

Longer Skirts Rejected

If A Girl Has Pretty Legs She Should Show Them

Longer skirts?

The general consensus of the male population on the UH campus is a definite NO.

But who are they—or anyone—to argue with the dictates of fashion experts? No matter how ungainly, distorted, un-natural, and downright awkward young women look in longer skirts, the new fashion will prevail. But it may take some time for the trend to become established on the Manoa campus if the kanes have their way about it.

Bend an ear this way and listen to the bewildered men. And some women too.

Robert Fukuda, Board of Forensics chairman, "If a girl has pretty legs she should show them, and if they're goofy she should show them anyway and be honest."

Richard Herbine, arts and sciences soph, "In evaluating the opinions of those women in favor of longer skirts, it would be a good idea to take a look at their legs... As for those men in favor of longer skirts, they're just nuts."

Donald Tong, Ka Leo staff member, "Short skirts. After all, what are legs for? Let's utilize the Manoa breeze."

Francis Davis, UH cheerleader, "It all depends. If you have junk legs then by all means wear long skirts, but if you have nice legs, wear them short, of course!"

Dr. Karl C. Leebrick, acting president, "Short for campus wear is more becoming and also cooler."

Dr. Shunzo Sakamaki, associate professor of history, "In this Hawaiian weather, the shorter the better.

Cooler too."

Harold Bitner, men's counselor, "It all depends on the girl."

Dr. Arthur Marder, associate professor of history, "I am decidedly and unalterably a 'short-skirter'. First, nothing should be left to the masculine imagination, second, in the interests of perfect physical freedom for the women to chase the men on the campus."

Barbara Clark, women's counselor, "I was on the mainland this summer and they all seemed to be wearing them. It's the style now."

Denis Wong, arts and sciences soph, "I like them three inches below the knee because it makes them look slimmer with heels."

Maurice Eum, arts and sciences soph, "Short skirts. Hubba-hubba-hubba."

Shige Nakashima, arts and sciences senior, "I prefer short, naturally; They reveal more, don't they?"

Esther Won: "Long skirts look better on me because I'm tall."

Wai Win Seto, arts and sciences junior, "Never thought about it. But I'm used to seeing short skirts."

Eva Hunter: "I like long skirts because they make me look slimmer."

Chuck Shrader, frosh, "I like them short so I can see their knees."

Sgt. Raymond Riddle, ROTC instructor, "It depends on the occasion."

Jerry Marshack, UH cheerleader, "Since prices are going up, why shouldn't skirts?"

Evelyn Tara, ASUH secretary, "I'd rather have them short because most of the longer skirts the girls are wearing are very unbecoming. Shorter ones are more comfortable, too."

Robert Kimura, arts and sciences senior, "Short enough to see the dimples on their knees."

Mildred Tolentino, AWS soph councilor, "Long skirts are very graceful and feminine; that's why I like them."

Unkei Uchima, co-captain of Rainbows, "Short, naturally."

Lea Moch, French exchange student, "I prefer them long because then they make you look a bit taller."

Bobby Crowell, football player, "Long is nicer because the women look more refined, and anyway, it keeps me guessing."
