

Annual Award Day Friday At 12:45

Outstanding service to the Associated Students will be recognized by the ASUH at a special Award Day assembly to be held in Farrington hall on Friday noon. Thomas Kaulukukui, president, will preside.

The Kaiulani JPO, which was featured on a Youth on Parade program recently, will present half an hour of music, swing and novelty numbers.

Associated Women Students' awards will be presented by Florence Wilder. Candidates running for the various class positions will be presented at that time.

ASUH awards to be presented include debate, publications, athletics and student council medals.

Ka Palapala will award no gold medals. Editor Bill Ishikawa foregoes privilege of receiving a gold medal in order that two other members of his staff may receive silver medals.

Silver medals will be awarded to Florence Wilder, Shonosuke Koizumi, Larry Mizuno, and Herbert Choy, while Ernest Silva, Barlow Hardy and Iwao Mizuta will receive bronze ones.

On Ka Leo, Akira Fukunaga and Tom Imada will receive gold medals; Norman Chung, Barney Yamamoto and Gregory Ikeda silver ones, while James Carey, Shirley Oka, Bert Nishimura and Isabella Aiona will be awarded bronze ones.

Athletic awards will also be presented to students who have earned their letters in football, expert riflismen, basketball, soccer, rifle marksmanship, golf and the girls' rifle team.

Sinclair To Leave On India Visit During Summer

No English-speaking university in the world has an Indian department such as that planned by the University of Hawaii, says Gregg M. Sinclair, director of the University's Oriental Institute.

Professor Sinclair will leave in July for India, where he will visit colleges and universities with a view to obtaining men and means for the Institute's program.

"Our Indian department will be unique," said Mr. Sinclair, "in that, like our Chinese and Japanese department, it will embrace philosophy and religion, language and literature, history and civilization."

The Institute started the dissemination of Indian culture when it had Dr. Kalidas Nag here last year from Calcutta University. Recently the Institute received more than 1000 books from India, as a result of Dr. Nag's visit.

Advisory Week To Aid Students In Selecting Programs For 1938-39

This week the university administration launched its pre-registration campaign. The object of this campaign is to aid students in electing their programs for next year and to make registration day next year less congested for both students and faculty advisers.

Pre-registration is no longer compulsory, but each student is asked to take part by seeing his faculty adviser sometime during this week for an advance approval of his schedule for the fall. Schedules of courses are available at the registrar's office together with blanks for working out schedules. Catalogues for the new year are on sale at the bookstore.

With full student cooperation this program will simplify fall registration greatly. It is intended to prevent hastily and ill-considered course schedules. Notices describing procedure are posted on the bulletin boards in Hawaii hall. Faculty advisers will be in their offices throughout the week except during actual class time.

The registrar's office advises stu-

IMPORTANT NOTICE TO NEXT YEAR'S SENIORS

All members of the present junior class who will be candidates for the Bachelor's degree either in February 1939, June 1939, or after the 1939 Summer Session should file with the Registrar BEFORE THE END OF THE SEMESTER an application for the degree properly filled out. Forms for this are being sent to students in the campus mail and are also available at the Registrar's office. DO THIS DURING PROGRAM ADVISORY WEEK while you are planning your work for next year.

Frosh Donate $300 To Library

Money To Be Used For Purchase Of Browsing Shelf, To Be Ready In Fall

Close to a total of $150 through voluntary contributions was realized by the members of the freshman class for their "browsing" room project, President L. Howard announced recently.

In order to reach the necessary goal, the class recently approved the council's suggestion of withdrawing an addition of $150 from the class treasury, making a total of $300.

The money will be used to purchase 350 popular and worthwhile books selected by the members of the freshman class. The books will be placed in a convenient place in the literary when University opens next fall.

YWSchedules Dance Drama Tomorrow; 12 To Take Part

Members of the University YWCA will present a dance drama "Moods of the Ocean" in which 12 girls will participate, tomorrow afternoon at 4 o'clock in front of Hawaii hall.

Iwalani Smith, chairman of the dramatics committee is in charge. Charlotte Wong, assisted by the Membership Committee is in charge of tea refreshments. Rosie Chock and Evelyn Chong are handling the invitations.

This affair is for all YWCA members and their friends.

Refreshments are to be served at 4 o'clock and the program will begin at 4:30 sharp.

ROTC Juniors Will Go To Camp

Twenty-Six Advanced Course Cadets To Spend Summer At Schofield

Stalwart ROTC cadets of the first year advanced course will go out to summer camp to defend the Warrior of the Pacific rifle trophy for the eleventh consecutive year. They have the hard task of breaking the all-time record of 217.14 points established by the team last year.

Twenty-five candidates are undergoing rigorous physical examinations to become eligible for the summer camp which will be held in the National Guard Woods, Schofield Barracks. Camp begins July 5 and closes August 15.

Major Marcel A. Gillis, professor of military science and tactics, will be field officer in charge of the camp. Assisting him will be major John A. Otto, adjutant, Major Carlisle B. Wilson, Captain William J. Carne and Captain Arthur M. Parsons.

Firing will be done on the new course, which includes running a distance of 25 yards before firing in the rapid fire group. The cadets will go on the range from July 5 and will fire for record by July 16. Other events scheduled include demonstrations by crack Schofield troops and drill and command of the cadets.

Candidates for summer camp include Hartwell Blake, Junichi Buto, Hon Chung Chee, Duke Cho Choy, Einar Gerner, Arthur Gorelangton, Kam Cheong Hee, Gregory Ikeda, Yam Yau Kam, Francis Kauka, Rodman Lindow, George McDowd, Ichiro Okada, George Reeves, Gerald Rowland, Clifton Takamura, Denis Teraoka, Shigeru Tsubota, Robert Warren, Ralph Woolsey, Masami Yoshimasu, Frank Marzano, Philip Weber and Richard King.

Captain Howard D. Criswell is terminating his two year tour of duty in the Hawaiian Islands, returning to the mainland sometime in August or September. No one has been officially appointed to relieve his command.

Two Plays To Be Presented

Play Production Class To Offer "The Snare" And Repeat Chekov's "The Boor"

Two one-act plays will be offered Tuesday evening, June 7, at 8 in Farrington hall under the auspices of the Play Direction class.

The first play to be given will be "The Snare" from French's one-act plays. Cast in this modern comedy, which is laid in a woodland, are: Alice Sullivan, female lead; Tommy Starcher, as Lord Brookfield and Fred Furer, as Peters. Miss Marian Quinn will direct.

Anton Chekhov's farce, "The Boor," which was offered at a regular convocation two weeks ago, will be the other play to be presented. The cast will be the same with Marjorie Carter and Bob Stafford playing the two leading roles. Ralph Siu will play the part of Luka; Lauren Ward, a gardener; Charles Judy, a workman.

The presentation is open to the public and no charge will be made. Members of the regular stage crew will be in attendance back stage.

Twelve Nominated For Soph Offices

Election of next year's sophomore class will take place Friday, June 3.

The nominees for the various offices include: President, John Foster, Frank Rothwell, and Thomas Chang; Vice-President, Cordelia Seu, David Pietsch, and Lani Hanchett; Secretary, Esther McDole, Sonoko Okamura, and Isabella Aiona; and Treasurer, Kenneth Lum, Man Kwong Au, and Marion Anderson.

Kappa Epsilon Hears Speaker

John Foster and Mac McKinney Are Initiated Into Social Organization

"I would never like to serve in the infantry during a war," Harry F. Anderson, world-war artillery officer and former university professor, told the Kappa Epsilon Theta group Sunday. "It's positively dangerous!"

Anderson was the guest of honor and speaker at the year's final beach picnic of the University fraternity, held at Hanauma bay. He spoke of his experiences overseas, where he was attached to the French artillery service. "A French cavalry officer is always a socialite; their artillery officers are invariably brainy—and if they are just brave, they go into the infantry," he said. His talk was replete with dramatic and humorous incident, and was enthusiastically received by the "Adventurers' club."

A feature of the affair was the initiation into the "Cardinals' club" of Johnny Foster and Mac McKinney, and unsuccessful but pleasant attempts of various others to join. This event was introduced by Anderson, a member of long standing.

Anderson is a graduate of the University of Washington, and is business manager of the "Advertiser."

Gettell Speaker At Convocation

Will Talk On "Tendencies" In American Government; Award Day Date Changed

Dr. Raymond Gettell, of the University of California department of political science, will be speaker at convocation this morning in Farrington hall. Dr. Gettell will speak on "Tendencies in American Government." He is giving a series of lectures in Honolulu, sponsored by Mrs. Dorothy Hedemann. He has written a number of books on economics and is a public speaker of eminence in the field of current events.

Dr. Gettell delivered the commencement address at the Kamehameha Schools' auditorium on Monday afternoon. He will be in Honolulu until June 11.

Awards which were to be presented this morning will be made instead, tomorrow at 12:45. At that time, President Thomas Kaulukukui will present medals, certificates, pins, letters and jackets to winners of athletics, publications, honor and debate awards.

Alumni Drive Forging Ahead Satisfactorily

Forty-six members of this year's graduating class have already joined the alumni association, Otomatsu Aoki, alumni drive chairman, told Ka Leo yesterday. One hundred and fifteen seniors have been contacted and prospects are that a large number of these will join the association.

Aoki also made the following statement: "Naturally, it is impossible for members of our committee to contact all the members of the senior class. Therefore, we must ask for the cooperation of every senior in putting the drive over the top. Students who have not been contacted may pay their dues to Mrs. Farden at the Personnel Office."

Alumni dues are one dollar per year.

NEW CATALOGS

New catalogs are now on sale at the Bookstore, it was announced yesterday. University authorities made it clear that no catalogs will be sold at the publications office.

Duke Choy Leads As Twelve Elected To Student Council

From The Dean

The Student Personnel Office is very anxious to have correct summer addresses for all students. Any who know they are to be elsewhere than at the home address given at registration time will confer a favor by calling at the office and leaving the summer address at which they will be sure to receive mail promptly.

For dishonesty in a test one senior has recently been expelled from the university, and two others implicated have received "Fs" in the course. The severity of this treatment of a senior is explained by the fact that this was a second offense.

Final Parade Held Friday

Annual Inspection Will End Year's Training; Major Wilson Heads Examiners

Military duty as cadets of the University ROTC will be terminated tomorrow when the annual inspection will be held with all of the units participating. Major Carlisle B. Wilson, of Kamehameha School for Boys, will be in charge of the board of inspecting officers.

The regiment will assemble under arms at 7:30 a. m. on John H. Wise field, with Cadet Colonel Kenneth Lau commanding. His staff will consist of Cadet Lieutenant Colonel Ah Sum Leong, Cadet Major Robert F. Gill, Cadet Major Albert Chock, and Captain Russell Quaintance.

Commanding the first battalion for the last time is Cadet Major Kanani Kanazawa. Cadet Captain Richard King is adjutant. Cadet majors of the second and third battalions are Richard Noda and Roy Ahrens, respectively. Their adjutants are Cadet Captains Philip Weber and Jack Porteus, respectively.

Of the first battalion, company commanders leading the A, B and C companies for the final review are Nan Young Chung, Kinji Kanazawa, and Bert Nishimura. Second battalion officers are Walter Mookini, Sau Hoy Wong and Richard You. Third battalion officers are George Mau, Jewett Yee and Mitsuoyoshi Fukuda.

After the inspection, the classes will meet for one hour to be tested. The university has maintained a high average, receiving an excellent rating for several years.

The registrar further advises that no diploma will be awarded until all outstanding indebtedness to the University has been liquidated.

Next year's student councillors, elected Tuesday, were as follows: Seniors—Norman Chung, Katsuso Miho, Joan de Vis-Norton and Tsutomu (Tom) Imada;

Juniors—Duke Cho Choy, Robert Stafford and Fenwicke Holmes;

Sophomores—John Foster and Cordelia Siu.

A total of 453 votes were cast, showing a smaller response to the ballot box on the part of the student body than was the case in the recent ASUH officer's elections.

In the race for senior councillors, Chung led the field of 16 candidates by receiving 190 votes. Miho received 167 votes; de Vis-Norton, 142 and Imada, 119. Ellen Stewart was fifth highest on the list with 117 votes polled.

Choy Gets Highest Vote

From the field of 14 candidates for junior councillor posts, Choy amassed a total of 218 votes to lead the entire ticket on votes received. Stafford received 148 votes and Holmes, 143.

John Foster polled 152 votes in the race for sophomore councillors from a field of nine candidates. Seu, the other successful candidate in this division, polled 136 votes. Walter Chuck, third on the list, was barely nosed out by two votes, having received a total of 134 votes.

New Council to Meet

James Carey, ASUH president-elect, has scheduled a gathering of next year's council for Tuesday, June 7, at 12:45 p. m. in Hawaii hall 22. A general discussion of plans for next year will take place at that time.

Fellow Students:

The time has come to say farewell. It is therefore fitting at this time to extend thanks and appreciation to all of you for your cooperation in making the activities put forth by the ASUH a success.

Although the activities were few, they have been on the whole quite successful—thanks to your help. To the group that made the ASUH dance a big success, I extend my thanks. The same can be said to the clubs and individual people who so generously contributed their services in making the Carnival and the recent Ground Breaking Ceremony successful.

It has been a pleasure working for and with you. Loads of success to you in whatever you undertake, and may you contribute your services as generously to next year's administration as you did to this year's.

Thank you, good luck, and aloha.

Appreciation From the Students Extended To Ralph Yempuku

Some three years ago, when the intramural sports program was mentioned, it was necessary to put quote marks around the word "program." A few students participated in the limited program. Very little notice was given it by anybody.

During the past year, the slogan "Every Man In Athletics" has been made highly successful. Not literally, of course, but the number of men participating in intramural sports has skyrocketed.

The program itself has been expanded so that it now includes a myriad of sports. Most important, however, is the fact that the number of students participating has been so greatly increased.

The credit for this sudden increase must go to Ralph Yempuku, director of intramural athletics.

His task was to push an intramural program, largely dead. His work has been varied. He has personally supervised all competition, both interclass and interclub. He has given up his lunch hour and his afternoons for this. Among his tasks was the keeping of a record for each student participating in each sport; keeping equipment in good shape, making schedules, refereeing and supervising, taking care of any emergencies that arose, maintaining fair play—all these were in the day's work for Yemp.

He was of invaluable aid to Pump Searle.

Yemp's greatest quality is that he can understand the boys. An intramural sportsman during his days in school, he comprehends the quirks and temperament of every one of his charges.

His patience, selflessness, modesty and capacity for hard work have made him indispensable to the future of intramural sports next year.

For everyone who has at some time or other come in contact with him, for everyone who has ever participated in an intramural sport, for everyone who recognizes his value to the sports program, for everyone who favors an expanded sports program, we express to Ralph Yempuku our sincerest appreciation, thanks, and wishes of good luck for the future.

Snatches from News

This speaks for itself:

President Charles F. Wishart of Wooster University in Ohio said: "In 26 states there are laws requiring teachers to take an oath of loyalty to the Constitution. It is not only the singling out of one class of men that disturbs us, but the signal that this may be an entering wedge toward a situation when a professor's loyalty to the Constitution will be interpreted not in the light of constitutional guarantees of free speech, but in the light of the particular meaning which may be read into that document by the Fascist minded legislators."

Ka Leo has received first class rating for the year 1937-38 from the National Scholastic Press association. The credit for this fine work goes to Akira Fukunaga, editor of the paper until May 1. His untiring efforts have been recognized by the national press group and we feel it is about time that the students recognized it too.

* * * *

This is the last issue of Ka Leo this year. If present plans materialize, students will have an even livelier paper next year.

One of the greatest barriers to "complete coverage" of campus events has been the limited Ka Leo staff. Students who wish to work on the paper are earnestly requested to turn out for positions on the staff next year . . . for a better Ka Leo.

Commencement Plans

Senior class activities of the class of 1938 will be officially terminated Wednesday evening, June 22, at 7 o'clock when graduates and their guests will hold their banquet and dance at the Waialae Golf club. Douglas Yamamura, TC senior, is chairman.

Bids will be issued Monday and Tuesday from 11:30 to 1:30 at the ASUH office. All seniors are asked to call for them as reservations will have to be made.

Final senior activities will begin Sunday, June 19, at the Central Union Church at 10:30 a. m. Seniors will assemble by 10 a. m. in caps and gowns at the parish house. Dr. Walter M. Horton will be guest speaker.

The final Aloha to the various campus buildings will be given by speakers who have been chosen by the senior council as the class day activities on Monday, June 20. Seniors will assemble at Teachers College in caps and gowns at 8:15 p. m. The transfer of the Lamp of Knowledge and the gavel will be made at exercises to be held in Farrington hall. Edison Tan, senior president, will give the class gift. Commencement rehearsals will follow.

Degrees will be awarded to graduates at the Twenty-seventh Commencement Exercises on Tuesday, June 21, at 4:30 p. m. in the amphitheater. Dr. Will Carson Ryan of the Carnegie Foundation for the Advancement of Teaching will deliver the main

AJSC Delegates Will Tour Orient After Annual Meeting

A conference at Tokyo and stop-overs in Kyoto, Kwanasai district, Kobe, Moji, Dairen, Hainking, Mukden, Kaizyo, Fuzan, Shimonoseki will be high spots in the itinerary for American student delegates to the Fifth America-Japan Student Conference and subsequent tour, to be held in Japan and Korea from July 18 to August 19.

Executive Chairman Lewis Schmidt states that selection of delegates should be made by a faculty committee, in observance with the following specifications:

(1) No delegate should be over 25 years of age.

(2) Preferably, delegates should be either sophomores or juniors. Outstanding freshmen, however, may be chosen. Above all, the delegate should intend to return to his or her home campus next year. (This applies only to new delegates, not to those who attended the Fourth Conference.)

(3) Delegates should have a reasonably high scholastic average.

(4) The delegate should possess a reasonable knowledge or an interest in Oriental and world affairs, and be willing to participate intelligently in discussions at the Conference.

(5) No delegate who has been on a Conference trip to Japan will be eligible. Former delegates of Conferences held elsewhere will be eligible, however.

An alternate should be selected for each delegate, to "pinch hit" in case the delegate is unable to attend. Furthermore, if some schools fail to fill their quotas, other schools' quotas will be enlarged accordingly, thereby giving alternates an opportunity to become regular delegates.

Not more than half of the delegation should be composed of Fourth Conference delegates who will not be returning to school next fall. Thus it is permissible to permit more than half the delegation to consist of last year's delegates provided not more than half of the delegation will be leaving school at the end of the current school year. The fundamental aim in selecting the delegation is to build up in each school a group which will be present to carry out its part of the work in preparing for the Sixth Conference, to be held in America next summer.

According to present plans, the American delegation will sail from San Francisco on July 1. The boat makes a stop in Honolulu and then sails to Yokohama. The Conference proper will be held in Tokyo for one week. Social, economic, cultural, and political problems will be discussed.

Following this, the American delegation will make a tour of Japan and Korea lasting from three to four weeks, at the expense of the Japan Student association. There will be numerous opportunities to see Japanese industrial, farm, and home life at first hand. Americans will return to the United States by way of Seattle, leaving Yokohama August 17. The exact sailing time must await approval from Japan.

Walter Horton To Speak At Final Convocation

Speaking at the final student body convocation on Thursday morning, June 9, will be Dr. Walter Marshall Horton, Fairchild Professor of Theology of Oberlin Graduate School of Theology, Oberlin College, Oberlin, Ohio, and recognized by many countries as one of the foremost educators on Christian ethics and theology. His topic will be "Modern Man's Quest for Life."

Dr. Horton is listed in the "Who's Who in America, 1934-35," as a theologian. He arrives in Hawaii next week on his first stop of a trip that will eventually circle the globe within this year.

Besides speaking at the convocation next week he will also deliver the Baccalaureate Sermon for the Senior class on Sunday morning, June 19, at the Central Union church.

A group of representative students and faculty members co-operating with the Church of the Crossroads have planned for a series of discussions under the title of "Re-thinking Life and Religion" at the Church of the Crossroads, on Thursday, Friday and Sunday evenings, 7:30 o'clock, June 9, 10, and 12, with Dr. Horton as the leader.

Members of the committee are Thomas Kaulukukui, ASUH president; Lucia White, AWS president; Katsuso Miho, YMCA president; Sau Chun Wong, YWCA president; Sarah Horswill, Episcopal club president; Dean Ernest Webster and Miss Cenie Hornung of the Student Personnel Office; Rev. Galen Weaver and Mr. Newton Peck of the Church of the Crossroads; Dr. Dwight Rugh, YMCA secretary, and Mrs. Randolph McMurtry, YWCA secretary.

Dr. Horton, a comparatively young man in his field, is known, also, as the author of several well-known books. Among them are "Theism and the Modern Mood," "God," "A Psychological Approach to Religion," "Contemporary English Theology," and "Contemporary Continental Theology."

Annual Dean Prize Rules Announced by Committee

Nominations of candidates for the annual, faculty-offered, Dean Prize were in the hands of the Dean Committee yesterday. This contest is to determine who, in the opinion of their instructors, have shown the most evidence of real aptitude for scientific research. The candidates are all seniors majoring in departments of the University in which student research is carried on.

Candidates will submit supporting documents to the Dean Committee on June 4. In these brief abstracts the candidate should present material covering his statement of the problem, the method of obtaining advance information, his method of attack and the difficulties met and methods of overcoming them. He should also include a statement of the time spent on the problem and a brief statement of results obtained.

For the purpose of judging the candidate, the committee seeks further evidence in regard to the enthusiasm for the solution of the problem and the spontaneity of the work, the candidate's skill in analyzing the problem, his skill in searching for facts and devising tests of his material, and his skill in handling these materials. Special emphasis is also placed upon the candidate's self-reliance and inventiveness as well as upon his ability to write, in good English, a clear and concise report of the work he has done.

One or more $25 cash prizes will be awarded, depending upon the judgment of the awarding committee as to the merits of the candidates proposed.

The committee of four, headed by Dr. Paul S. Bachman, wishes to emphasize that detailed evidence is necessary to determine the candidate and that students should not be proposed merely because of good scholastic records, but rather because of ability to pursue research.

Rainbow Vanities

By Leonora Neuffer

From drama to slapstick, amateur thespians and vaudeville aspirants of twelve campus women's organizations gave students and outsiders an afternoon of fun and amusing entertainment Friday in Farrington hall.

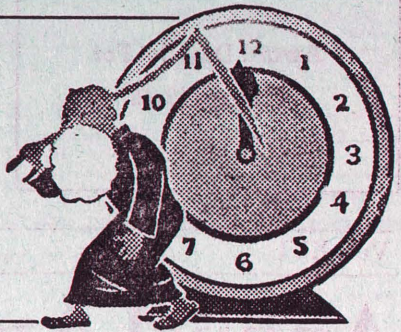

"Omelet," a take-off on Shakespeare's "Hamlet," was the first skit of the series, given by the YWCA. "Boots," given by the Ke Auenue girls dressed in breeches, boots, cartridge-belts and their boy-friends' ROTC hats followed. Third was "Vitamins," given by the Home Ec. club. With "Auditions," Phi Ep presented a fake radio audition next. Poh Song Whe, with "Metamorphosis," about a Korean who came to America and had a change of heart. "Behind the Scenes in an Old-fashioned Meller-dramer," by Gamma Chi was next, followed by Wakaba Kai's story of the collection of funds for the Union Building, and Ka Pueo's "Malihini Conceptions." Hui Pookela's "Reminiscences," Hui Noeau's "Queen of the Kitchen," Te Chih Sheh's "Lum Sum Po," and Yang Chung Hui's "Pigtails" completed the program.

First prize for the best skit was won by Hui Pookela, who presented "Reminiscences" of a couple of old alumni. Second prize was carried off by Ka Pueo, who made a hit with the "Big Pineapple," a Hawaiian version of the "Big Apple."

In the poster contest, Yang Chung Hui won first prize, and Hui Noeau, second.

Time Staggered On

By NORMAN K. CHUNG

This is the last edition of Time Staggered On. Not that we think that the announcement will cause anyone to weep with regret...but we just thought that, with this knowledge, students would better enjoy their summer vacations.

It must be quite a relief to the student body to know that the standard of campus journalism is due for some improvement next year. We've been told often enough that (to put it politely) the colyum smells.

It is, however, with a slight twinge of emotion and a little regret that we quit trying to make people laugh. Feeble as our attempts were, we enjoyed passing on a few smiles to you.

After pounding out a semi-weekly screed for two years, we kinda hate to see the colyum vanish into thin air...something like discarding an old pair of pajamas.

Without attempting to solicit pity or sympathy, the fact remains nevertheless, that trying to write a humor colyum is far from a humorous job...especially when it's done twice a week. Anyone who doubts this should try writing down all the jokes they know and then try to stretch those over two years.

Then, too, there are other hazards. "Humor" colyumists often stray out of their field and take cracks at things they shouldn't. We still remember a pome we wrote about the Union building bids...and we also remember how many people deserved...and got...our apologies. We hope they've all forgotten...or at least, forgiven.

As weeks went past, and we pounded out our screeds, we often wished that the "damned colyum" had never been thought of. Now, that it's time for curtains, we feel just a little genuine sorrow.

We somehow feel as if we're losing an old friend...something that we could look back upon, dead as it was, with a feeling that we were accomplishing something in trying to make people laugh.

What with sociology, econ, poly sci and a dozen other courses pounding at students' brains, we felt that something had to be done to ease the tension a little...to make them smile...or grin...or laugh.

Perhaps we've failed...from the comments we've received, we're sure of it.

Now, we've talked...or written...too much. Something like a fogey who likes to reminisce. We're not a fogey—we hope—but we have tried to tell you how we've felt...and do feel now.

And finally, if at sometime during the last two years...you and you and you have smiled at something in Time Staggered On...that is, if you've smiled for any reason besides pity...then it's been a success. Time Staggered Out now...murmuring ALOHA!

Tovarich Review

By Norman Chung

Prolonged, hearty applause at the close of each act told well enough of Tovarich's success. A capacity audience was held spell-bound during the two acts by the superb acting of veteran John Halliday.

His naturalness, his finesse, his adept handling of lines and the professional touch that he gave the production, combined to make him, as was expected, the outstanding performer on the Farrington hall stage.

Highly touted in press reports, praised by New York critics, he lived up to every notice given him.

The vehicle, Jacques Deval's Tovarich (Comrade), was appropriate. Its charm lay in its fast pace. It fairly reveled in action, witty lines and colorful dialogue. Arthur E. Wyman, handling the role of Gorochev, was especially good, managing his role with the dignity and finesse that becomes a person of his stage experience. Judging from the rest of the play, his directing was up to its usual high standard.

Vivian Sanger's portrayal of Louise, a house maid, was appreciated by the audience. Robert Stafford as George Dupont, handled his metamorphosis from a snobbish, spoiled brat into a "regular feller" well.

Jean Bodge was satisfactory as the Grand Duchess Tatiana Petrovna. Eileen Blackey's performance as Fernande Dupont was especially pleasing as was Charles Gregory in the role of Charles Dupont.

Natalie Bishop had only a small role, but made the best of it. Don Burnett was good as Martelleau. Others in the cast were Dana Fisher, E. H. Allyn, Nancy Old, Stanley Bento, Theda Boynton and Dorothy Blake.

Scenery and lighting, under the direction of Stage Manager Earl Hageman and Masato Harada were pleasing.

Especially impressive were the beautiful gowns worn by the women. Dorothy Miller, Emma Chu and Irvine Baptiste were in charge of costumes.

Freshman Ferment ..

This (sigh) is the last squawk from the voice of Hawaii for the scholastic year 1937-38 and therefore the final fizz of Freshman Ferment. Why? You probably don't care but I'll tell you anyhow. Though the grade point powers that be may have other plans for me, I intend to become a sophomore before long.

Only Norman's policy of keeping sub-editors properly subdued holds this piece of startling information on page 2. All welcome news, I have been told, is front page stuff. If there is truth in the rumor then, it is the firm conviction of people who read that this rates an extra all by itself.

"Ahh!" I can almost hear you gloat as you turn the pages of the first issue of September 1938, "I see where they stopped Silva from making a bigger ass of himself."

But I wouldn't practice up on gloating for the occasion if I were you. Not only is gloating un-Christian but wouldn't you look silly if right in the middle of a gargyle gloat you should stray across a column headed, "Sophomore Slime" or maybe something worse (just give me time and you'll see) written by none other than noble defer of gloaters, the young scion of the house of Silva. That certainly ought to get your gloat. (You keep out of this, Fenwick Holmes!)

You who read and suffer have observed the birth, the life span and the death of a child of a brain which even close friends warned was not strong enough to have children.

Pax eternam. (Ed. note: Does he have to bring the church into even this?) May the class of '42 leave well enough alone.

Hawaiian Linguists Celebrate At Luau

Opened to the eager gaze of seventy hungry students, a steaming imu was the center of interest at the luau held at Hauula Park Sunday by the combined Hawaiian language classes of the university, under the direction of Prof. Henry P. Judd.

Hawaiian delicacies of all kinds were featured at the feast, which was conducted in true native style. Lomi-lomi salmon and poi, coconut cake and pudding, roast pig and chicken, and pineapple sticks and punch were only a few of the delicious dishes enjoyed.

Students gathered in the early afternoon for games, sports and swimming. The imu was uncovered at dusk, followed shortly by the feast. Prof. Judd gave thanks in the Hawaiian tongue.

Representative students spoke briefly after the meal, and an impromptu entertainment of singing and dancing followed, during which Minerva Carroll danced the hula, and "Annabelle" da Silva demonstrated the new ballroom adaptation. Ending the entertainment, Prof. Judd addressed the group in Hawaiian over the Hauula Park loud-speaker system.

Iolani Luahine was in general charge of the arrangements. Committee chairmen were George Aki and Kayo Chung, advanced Hawaiian class; Haunani Cooper, intermediate class, and Adelle Lemke and Joe Kaulukukui, freshmen.

Attendance was restricted to members of university Hawaiian classes.

AWS Banquet Held; Scholarships Given

Following "Rainbow Vanities" Friday was the annual AWS banquet at Yee Hop's. Announcement of officers for the coming year and awarding of scholarships followed a chop sui dinner. Prize winners in the "Vanities" were announced by Lucia White, who presented Grace Richardson and Muriel Swift with scholarships.

The officers for the coming year are: president, Jane Christman; vice-president, Sarah Horswill; secretary, Muriel Swift; treasurer, Ah Mee Young; adviser, Miss Cenie Hornung. After announcement of the officers, Mrs. Mary Dillingham Frear presented retiring President Lucia White with the AWS ring. Following the presentation of the ring, Mrs. L. N. Bilger, honorary member, delivered an inspiring address. With a short message from Miss Cenie Hornung, and the singing of the Alma Mater, the program closed.

TC CLUB

Members of the TC '39 club will hold a farewell banquet Friday evening at Yee Hop's.

Deans Victors In Annual Rainbow Relays Saturday

Amassing a total of 95 points to the Citywide's 67 points, the University of Hawaii's varsity spikesters captured for the second consecutive year the Rainbow Relays, which was sponsored by the ASUH. Palama followed with 55 points, and Waimanalo trailed with 23 points.

With Joe Kaulukukui taking the lead over Borgan of the Citywide, the rest of the boys on the 1/4 mile relay team never relinquished the lead. Al Lee took the stick from Kaulukukui, increased the lead slightly and made a perfect pass to Jimmy Clarke. Clarke ran his 110 yards and passed it to Francis Meyer, who nosed out Gil Larsen of the Citywide for the first place and a new record. The time was :43.1 breaking the old record by eight-tenths of a second.

Summary of Meet

The two mile relay event was placed on the winning column for the green and white, when Roy Strohl made a beautiful sprint in the last half of his 880 yard run. The team was composed of Ralph Brown, Joe De Silva, Walter Donaghho, and Strohl.

In the other relays university placed second in the 4 mile relay, third in the 1 mile relay, second in the medley relay and the 1/2 mile relay.

Lee Captures Three Firsts

However, in the 100 yard novice event the green and white ran loose and got three men in the first three places. Al Lee, the hurdling ace, proved himself to be a sprinter also by capturing the first place in the time of 10.4. He also took first in the 220 yard low hurdles just after he ran the 100 yard novice. This and a strong wind accounts for his time of 25.5. Lee's other first place was made in the 1/4 mile relay. In the 100 yard novice, Joe Kaulukukui and Ed. Lum followed Lee in the order named. John Bustard placed second and Ben Young fourth in the 220 yard low hurdles.

Field Events

Captain Gus Ahuna and Art Stranske carried the Rainbows to the fourth and third place respectively in the discus throw. Bill Gee was the sole representative of the varsity spikesters in the broad jump and in this event he captured fourth place. Stranske placed third in the shot put event. In the javelin throw Francis Springer placed second.

Smith Wins Pentathlon

Nolle Smith, winner of the ASUH open pentathlon, won the first annual pentathlon event in the 14th Annual Rainbow Relays. Smith placed first in the high jump, the 100 yard dash, and the 220 yard low hurdles. He grabbed third place in the javelin throw and the 880 yard run. Springer was second and Jack Becker fourth in this pentathlon event.

Sports Summary

By Walter Chuck

Lack of experienced but loads of inexperienced material was the basis for athletics in the University of Hawaii for the season of 1937-38.

Coaches of the various sports found that freshmen were the most numerous among the turnouts for each sport. As a result our athletic season has not been up to par. However, the experience gained by the frosh will do much to produce teams in future years that will put the green and white high among the leaders of the sports world.

The football season was rather disastrous to the players as well as to their backers. It cannot be said that the team lacked the proper spirit. Lots of fire and fight was displayed in every game, but experience counted against the team. However, the bitter lessons learned in previous games proved fruitful. The victory over Denver, however narrow it was, did a lot to bolster up the spirits of the team and its backers.

In basketball history repeated itself. Experience was once more sadly lacking, but the fire and enthusiasm displayed by the players put us about half way from the leaders of the league and half way from the losers. Several major upsets were made by the so called "greenies."

However, in track the green material proved themselves to be the better. We were nosed out in the AAU Meet, but managed to win by a large margin in our own Rainbow Relays. All the members of the track team deserve much credit.

The Hawaii Junior Baseball league is closing with the Deans near the top. So far they have dropped only two games, both being heartbreakers. We are sure that the Deans will win the pennant or be very near the winners.

Swimming has shown that many Deans will be remembered in the paddling world.

Soccer proved that the "U" lads can boot. Our hoot mon players ended as runners-up in the league in Honolulu.

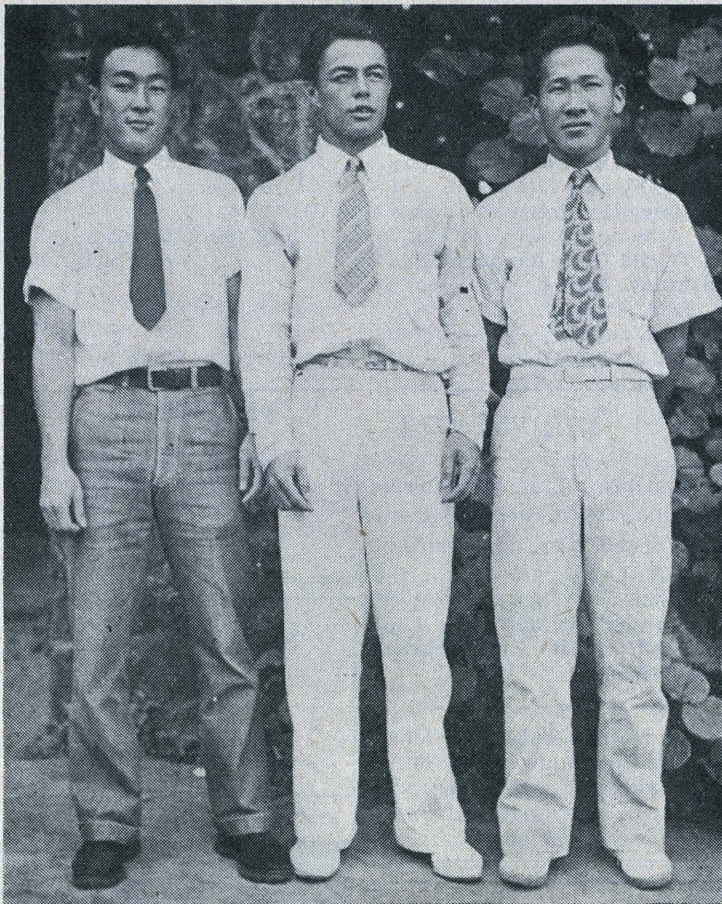

Tennis appears in the spotlight next. Here our racqueteers did splendid work, ending up as runners-up in the Class C and Class B leagues.

Wrestling proved to be one of our biggest guns with many fine individual wrestlers. The green and gold colors were carried to many championships in both the AAU and the ASUH meets.

Those names which will be remembered in sports history as leaders of the teams in the sports world of '38 will be (with apologies to the undergraduates): Captain Tommy Kaulukukui, leader of the basketball, football, and baseball squads; Captain Gus Ahuna of the track squad; Captain Tim Ho of the hoot mon players; Masami Iwamura, manager of the swimming squad; Captain Richard Noda of the wrestling squad; Captain Henry Ogawa of the tennis squad; and Captain Buck Quon of the golf squad.

To our coaches, Otto Klum, Luke Gill, Felix Keesing, "Pump" Searle, Wilfred Oka, Joe Spencer, Richard Furtado, and Stanley Bento, lots of credit for their good work.

Intramural High Scorers

Leaving in July will be Dean Ernest C. Webster, bound for the Mainland and a leave of absence.

Mrs. Ruth Waterman has also been granted a leave of absence to teach in California for a year.

Frosh Victorious In Final Intramural Count

For the first time in the history of intramural athletics in the University of Hawaii a freshmen class has captured the chop sui dinner offered by the ASUH to the class which amasses the greatest number of points in a year's competition in athletic events among the four classes.

This year's freshmen class, the class of '41, has captured that distinctive honor by gathering a total of 293 4/6 points. Their nearest rival was the juniors who made 274 2/3 points in a year of competition. Following the juniors were the sophs who gathered 251 5/6 points, and trailing were the seniors with 184 1/3 points.

Frosh Stars

William Richardson is credited with participating in the most sports for the honor of his class. Throughout the whole year he has played in nine sports which the intramural program offered. Minobu Uyehara, Al Zane, Bunny Wong, and Pat O'Sullivan follow with a total of eight sports. Dickie Wong is next with seven athletic competitions to his credit. S. Spiller, Dan Lau, and Bill Chun follow with six each.

To Have Dinner

The ASUH will give the winners its annual chop sui dinner. This will be at Yee Hop's chop sui house, June 9 at 6:30 p. m. All freshmen who participated in the intramural athletics for the year 1937-38 will be given invitations. These may be secured from Director of Intramural Athletics Ralph Yempuku on the week of June 6-12.

Summary of Class Standing

The following is a summary of the frosh class standing for the year:

Outdoor volleyball 5' 7"—tied for first; unlimited—first; indoor volleyball—5' 7"—second; unlimited—tied for first; basketball unlimited—tied for second; 135 pounds—second; football—second; golf—second; wrestling—third; soccer—fourth; water polo—tied for first; track—first; ping pong—tied for third; kicking football—second; cross country run—first; swimming—second and baseball—fourth.

Hakuba Kai Loses

By defeating the Hakuba Kai in a regularly scheduled interclub indoor volleyball tussle, the Commerce lads remained undefeated as they captured the pennant of the series.

The highly touted H Club went down to defeat at the hands of the future business lads, CSA, Aggies, YMCA, Hakuba Kai, Engineers and TC, each had their chance to defeat the leader of the league, but each failed, and at the end of the series the flag of the Commerce club waved high above the others.

As a result the victors will be awarded a dinner. The time, place and date will be announced later. Much credit must be given to Sadao Tsumoto who was the captain of the team. As captain he did a splendid job of leading the rest of the business lads to their chop sui dinner.

Hats off to the winners—the Commerce club.
