for's dream 1-20 - "I was a nightmare. It was in their house and today - You were leaving today, I came in the room and there you were, having dinner on a Victorian catch all hung from the wall, painting large bears on the walls. They were bouncing. On the narrow wall, one bear had his legs up and on his feet stockings, I opened a drawer and inside there was a drawing begin and you said you were going to paint it later. I was afraid of what the owner of the house would say when they came back, I tried to stop you, urged you, saying there was little time left to catch the train. It was a nightmare," from Mr Roberts.
