

Female Genital Mutilation

What is it?

Is it a violation of international human rights norms?

Even if it is an ancient element of a community's customs and traditions?

Does it depend on how much mutilation occurs?

Should Western nations pass judgment on this practice?

By granting asylum to women facing this practice?

By intervening in some more aggressive fashion?