

"KANAK INDEPENDENCE NOW":

THE PROGRAM AND PLANS OF THE KANAK INDEPENDENCE FRONT OF NEW CALEDONIA FOR INDEPENDENCE FROM FRANCE BY SEPTEMBER 1984

BY : YANN CELENE UREGHI

Yann Uregel is the prominent leader of the Kanak Independence Front of New Caledonia. The Front is a coalition of five political parties: The Caledonian Union (UC), The Caledonian Socialist Party (PSC), Kanak Socialist Liberation (LKS), United Front for Kanak Liberation (FULK) and Melanesian Progressive Union (UPM). In 1979 the front won 14 out of 36 seats in the Territorial Assembly. The immediate goal of the Front is to gain recognition by the United Nations Committee on Decolonization that New Caledonia is a colony that France should grant independence to. Mr. Uregel is visiting Hawaii on his way to the United Nations to gain international support for the Kanak people.
