

Guantanamo Bay, Cuba

1898 – Spanish-American War – sinking of the U.S. Maine in Havana harbor

Cuban Independence

1901 – Platt Amendment to Cuba's Constitution – said the United States could intervene to preserve Cuban independence or a stable Cuban government

1902 – U.S. troops withdrew from Cuba

1903 – U.S. presence at Guantanamo Bay begins

1906-09 – U.S. troops in Cuba

1917-22 – U.S. troops in Cuba

1934 – Platt Amendment abrogated – New treaty reduced U.S. presence to “leasing” of base at Guantanamo Bay. According to the treaty, U.S. presence can be eliminated only by mutual agreement or by a U.S. decision to abandon the base.

Guantanamo Bay, Cuba

1898 – Spanish-American War – sinking of the U.S. Maine in Havana harbor

Cuban Independence

1901 – Platt Amendment to Cuba's Constitution – said the United States could intervene to preserve Cuban independence or a stable Cuban government

1902 – U.S. troops withdrew from Cuba

1903 – U.S. presence at Guantanamo Bay begins

1906-09 – U.S. troops in Cuba

1917-22 – U.S. troops in Cuba

1934 – Platt Amendment abrogated – New treaty reduced U.S. presence to “leasing” of base at Guantanamo Bay. According to the treaty, U.S. presence can be eliminated only by mutual agreement or by a U.S. decision to abandon the base.