PROCEEDINGS OF THE

The Sixth Annual Pacific Islands Studies Conference

"Hawaii in the Contemporary Pacific"

April 3 and 4, 1981

University of Hawaii

Sponsored by Pacific Islands Studies Program
Center for Asian and Pacific Studies, UHM
Pacific and Asian Affairs Council
Hawaiian Studies, UHM

Published in collaboration with the Social Science Research Institute
University of Hawaii

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Foreword
Dr. Robert C. Kiste i

INTRODUCTION
Mr. Abraham Piianaia 1

REGIONALISM: GOALS AND EXPECTATIONS
Mr. Jerry B. Norris 2

SOUTH PACIFIC VIEW OF HAWAII'S ROLE IN THE PACIFIC
Dr. Macu Salato, C.B.E. 9

LAW OF THE SEA: ITS IMPACT OF THE PACIFIC COMMUNITY
Mr. Gerald Sumida
and
Dr. John Craven 14

HAWAII'S TERRESTRIAL ECOSYSTEMS: BIOLOGICAL PROBLEMS AND ECONOMIC PROSPECTS
Dr. Mark Merlin 22

THE POTENTIAL OF AQUACULTURE DEVELOPMENT
Mr. John Corbin
and
Mr. William Brewer 26

PRESERVING HAWAII'S POLYNESIAN HERITAGE

IMPLICATIONS OF THE HOKULE'A
Mr. Gordon Piianaia 39

HAWAIIAN LANGUAGE
Mrs. Sarah Quick 42

HULA AND CHANT
Mrs. Ho'oulu Cambra 45

HAWAIIAN ORAL HISTORY
Mrs. Eleanor Williamson 48

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

For their dedication and support of the Conference and this Proceedings, I'd like to extend a Special Mahalo to: Brenda Foster, Executive Director of the Pacific and Asian Affairs Council (PAAC), Wanda Sako, PAAC Program Coordinator, Rona Rodenhurst, Assistant Director of the University of Hawaii's Hawaiian Studies Program and Claire Akau, Hawaiian Studies student help. Doris Lum, Administrative Assistant for the Pacific and Asian Affairs Council, deserves special recognition and appreciation for typing this Proceedings.

Karen Knudsen, Editor
Outreach Coordinator
Pacific and Asian Affairs Council
Pacific Islands Studies, UHM