

PACIFIC SCIENCE

A QUARTERLY DEVOTED TO THE BIOLOGICAL AND PHYSICAL SCIENCES OF THE PACIFIC REGION

VOL. X

OCTOBER, 1956

NO. 4

Previous issue published July 16, 1956

CONTENTS

	PAGE
Diatoms in the Ocean Deepes. E. J. Ferguson Wood	377
Beachrock in the Hawaiian Islands. K. O. Emery and Doak C. Cox	382
Fritillaria arafaera n. sp., a Form of the Sibling Species: Fritillaria haplostoma — Complex (Appendicularia: Chordata). Takasi Tokioka	403
A New Gadiform Fish from the Continental Slope off Southeastern Australia. T. R. Cowper	407
A New Subfamily of Urostylidae from Borneo (Hemiptera: Heteroptera). W. E. China and James A. Slater	410
The General Biology of Balanus glandula Darwin. Harold Barnes and Margaret Barnes	415
Observations on Two Species of Liagora. T. V. Desikachary	423
Notes on Ecology, Systematics, and Development of Some Mysidacea and Euphausiacea (Crustacea) from New Zealand. Brian M. Bary	431
Three New Copepods from Brackish-Water Lakes of Japan. Takashi Ito	468
NEWS NOTES	474
INDEX TO VOLUME X	475
INDEX TO VOLUMES I—X	486

PACIFIC SCIENCE is published quarterly by the University of Hawaii Press, in January, April, July, and October. Subscription price is $3.00 a year; single copies are $1.00. Check or money order payable to University of Hawaii should be sent to University of Hawaii Press, Honolulu 14, Hawaii, U.S.A.