HULA MU'UMU'U (2000)

Oli and Choreography Michael Pili Pang

Text traditional

Performers Noelani Goldstein, Michael Pili Pang

The hula mu'umu'u is also known as the dance of the maimed spirit. It tells the story of Manamanaikalua as she moves along the tide pools looking for a meal of sea creatures, seaweed and limpets. While at the seashore she discovers a hala (pandanus) lei and begins to claim the lei as her own; for the lei is a gift from the gods. At the end, the gods are moved by the endeavors of this determined girl and returns the use of her hands and feet.
