

EAST-WEST CENTER
FORMING AND INFORMING LEADERS

SPECIALISTS ON THE ASIA PACIFIC REGION 2009–10

www.EastWestCenter.org

“As Asia Pacific societies change, and the forces of globalization intensify relationships between the U.S. and the nations of Asia and the Pacific, the East-West Center’s mission of promoting a peaceful, prosperous, and just Asia Pacific region has become more vital than ever.”

CHARLES E. MORRISON
*President
East-West Center*

Photo: Japanese Garden at the EWC’s Hawai‘i Imin International Conference Center - Jefferson Hall

SPECIALISTS ON THE ASIA PACIFIC REGION 2009–10

Table of Contents

---

About the East-West Center .....	2
EWC News and Information Resources .....	3
East-West Center Specialists
Politics / International Relations / Economics / Development .....	4
Environment / Energy .....	20
Public Health / Population .....	26
Education / Media / Arts / Culture .....	33
Index
By Subject and Region .....	42
Alphabetical .....	46
East-West Center Board of Governors .....	47
International Dialogue and Exchange Opportunities .....	48

East-West Center Program Directors

PRESIDENT

Charles E. Morrison

DIRECTORS

Research

Nancy Davis Lewis

Education

Terance Bigalke

Seminars

Raymond Burghardt

Pacific Islands

Development Program

Sitiveni Halapua

EWC in Washington

Satu Limaye

External Affairs

Karen Knudsen

Strategic Planning and Partnerships

Carol Fox

The East-West Center promotes cooperation and understanding among the people and nations of Asia, the Pacific, and the United States. Founded in 1960 by an act of the U.S. Congress, the Center serves as a resource for information and analysis on critical issues of common concern.

The East-West Center is:

- A U.S.-based institution for public diplomacy in the Asia Pacific region with international governance, staffing, students, and participants.
- An international gathering place for cooperative research, education, and dialogue on issues of vital importance to the U.S. and the nations of Asia and the Pacific.
- A worldwide network of more than 55,000 alumni and 600 partner organizations.
- A 21-acre campus in Honolulu and a Washington, D.C. office focused on preparing the U.S. for an era of growing Asia Pacific prominence.
- Developing global leadership through educational programs that help current and future leaders understand the issues and people in this dynamic region.
- The host and administrator for the United States Asia Pacific Council, which brings together key American citizens involved in U.S.-Asia Pacific relations as a forum to inform and enhance U.S. engagement with the region.

Supporting the EWC

The Center's operational funds come from a U.S. Congressional appropriation, with program funding principally from private agencies, individuals, foundations, corporations and governments in the region. Financial support from the Center's friends and alumni is a powerful measure of our programs' value to the people and communities we serve. To learn more about ways to help support the work of the Center visit:

www.EastWestCenter.org/support-the-ewc/

This guide of East-West Center's international specialists serves as a resource for media professionals, Congressional staff, government officials, researchers, and the public. An on-line version of this guide providing updated information on our specialists is available at: www.EastWestCenter.org/news-center

The East-West Center also provides the following services:

- East-West Wire: emailed reports with information and analysis on the news and issues of the Asia Pacific region
- EWC News Releases
- Media briefings, interviews with EWC specialists, and exclusive op-eds for journalists
- Pacific Islands Report (www.pireport.org): the definitive on-line news source of the Pacific islands providing
  - A daily email service of story briefs
  - A searchable archive of PIR stories dating to 1997
  - Time zones, country profiles, links to government Websites, and more
- Publications on Asia Pacific-related issues written by the Center's researchers and other experts. Many are available for free downloading from our EWC Website, visit www.EastWestCenter.org/publications

Email announcements of all new publications are available by contacting ewcbooks@EastWestCenter.org and entering "subscribe" in the subject field.

For a complete list of all services, programs, and travel fellowships for journalists visit the EWC's Asia Pacific Center for Journalists:
www.EastWestCenter.org/journalists

Office of External Affairs:

Karen Knudsen
Director
(808) 944-7195
knudsenk@EastWestCenter.org

Media Relations:

Derek Ferrar
(808) 944-7204
ferrard@EastWestCenter.org

Public Information:

Floren Elman-Singh
(808) 944-7193
elmanf@EastWestCenter.org

Journalism Fellowships:

Susan Kreifels
Media Activities Coordinator
(808) 944-7176
kreifels@EastWestCenter.org

Pacific Islands Report:

Peter Wagner
Editor
(808)944-7608
wagnerp@EastWestCenter.org

East-West Center in Washington:

Satu Limaye
Director
(202) 327-9759
limayes@EastWestCenter.org

EWC Alumni Chapters and Activities:

Gordon Ring
Alumni Officer
(808) 944-7743
ringg@EastWestCenter.org

EWC Conference Facilities:

Marshal Kingsbury
Manager
(808) 944-7171
kingsburm@EastWestCenter.org

Muthiah Alagappa

Distinguished Senior Fellow

Office of the President, East-West Center

(202) 327-9750 (East-West Center in Washington)

alagappm@EastWestCenter.org

- International politics and security
- Comparative politics including political legitimacy, democratic change, civil society, and civil-military relations

Since joining the EWC in 1989 Muthiah Alagappa has held several positions including founding director of East-West Center in Washington and the first director of the integrated Research Program in Honolulu. He has been a visiting professor at Columbia University, Stanford University, Keio University, and Nanyang Technological University in Singapore. He is a Leverhulme Visiting Professor in the United Kingdom (fall 2008) and is the chief editor of the Studies in Asian Security book series. He has published numerous books and articles in leading journals and serves on the editorial board of several peer reviewed journals. His recent publications include: The Long Shadow: Nuclear Weapons and Security in 21st Century Asia (2008), Civil Society and Political Change in Asia: Expanding and Contracting Democratic Space (2004), and Asian Security Order: Instrumental and Normative Features (2003), all published by Stanford University Press. He holds a Ph.D. in international affairs from the Fletcher School of Law and Diplomacy at Tufts University.

Richard W. Baker

Adjunct Senior Fellow

(808) 944-7371

bakerr@EastWestCenter.org

- Foreign policy and policymaking, including U.S. security policy
- Southeast Asian politics and foreign policies (with a focus on Indonesia)
- Asia Pacific regionalism

Richard Baker joined the EWC research staff in 1988, following a 20-year career in the U.S. Foreign Service. He holds a master's of Public Affairs degree in International Relations from the Woodrow Wilson School at Princeton University. His Foreign Service assignments included Singapore, Indonesia, and Australia, and positions at the Department of State in Washington. He was the principal editor of Indonesia: The Challenge of Change (1999) and a co-editor and co-author of the 1997-2005 Asia Pacific Security Outlook series (he now leads the successor Asia Pacific Security Survey).

Mark Borthwick

Director, U.S. Asia Pacific Council

East-West Center in Washington

(202) 327-9760

borthwim@EastWestCenter.org

- U.S. foreign policy and policymaking
- Asia Pacific trade & investment policy
- Asia Pacific regionalism and institutional development

Mark Borthwick formerly served as a military intelligence specialist for the U.S. Army in Vietnam. He was also an assistant professor of sociology at Iowa State University; postdoctoral fellow of the Roundtable on Science and Public Affairs at Duke University; staff member of the House Subcommittee on Asian and Pacific Affairs; and Congressional Science Fellow of the American Association for the Advancement of Science. He served five years as chairman of the Pacific Economic Cooperation Council (PECC) International Coordinating Group and three years as director general of the Asia-Pacific Information Technology Summit.

Raymond Burghardt

Director

East-West Seminars

(808) 944-7615

burgharr@EastWestCenter.org

- U.S. foreign policy and policymaking
- Taiwan and cross-strait relations
- Vietnam: contemporary issues, history and relations with U.S.

Raymond Burghardt was appointed chairman of the American Institute in Taiwan (AIT) in 2006. He served as U.S. ambassador to Vietnam from 2001-04, as director of the American Institute in Taiwan (1999-2001), and consul general in Shanghai (1997-99). He was a Foreign Service officer in Beijing, Manila, Seoul and Hong Kong. He also served as a special assistant to President Ronald Reagan. He received his B.A. from Columbia College in New York, and did graduate study at Columbia's School of International and Public Affairs. He was a fellow at Georgetown University's Institute for the Study of Diplomacy.

G. Shabbir Cheema

Senior Fellow and Initiative Director

Asia Pacific Governance and Democracy Initiatives (AGDI)

(808) 944-7427

cheemas@EastWestCenter.org

- Democratic governance for human development in the Asia Pacific
- Civil society engagement, and electoral and parliamentary processes
- Cross-border governance, civil service reform, and anti-corruption strategies

G. Shabbir Cheema was program director for the United Nations Department of Economic and Social Affairs (2001- 2007) and the director of the Governance Division of the United Nations Development Programme (1995-2001). As a senior UN official, he provided leadership in crafting democratic governance and public administration programs at the country level, and designing research and training programs in electoral and parliamentary systems, human rights, and urban management and decentralization. He has been a visiting fellow at Harvard University's Ash Institute for Democratic Governance and Innovation. From 1980 to 1988, he was a development administration planner at the UN Center for Regional Development, Nagoya, Japan. He has taught at Universiti Sains Malaysia, University of Hawai'i and New York University. He is the author of Building Democratic Institutions: Governance Reform in Developing Countries (2005) and Co-editor of Decentralizing Governance: Emerging Concepts and Practices (2007).

Allen Clark

Senior Fellow

Research Program

(808) 944-7509

clarka@EastWestCenter.org

- Disaster management and humanitarian assistance programs
- Policy and institutions in support of sustainable national and regional development
- Social, cultural and environmental impacts of large-scale resource development

Allen Clark previously served as executive director of the East-West Center/Pacific Disaster Center Managing Partner Cooperative Agreement. He is a founder and former director general of the International Institute for Resource Development and chief at the U.S. Geological Survey's Office of Resource Analysis, and a consultant for the Agency for International Development, World Bank, Asian Development Bank and United Nations. Clark has worked directly in more than 50 countries and is the author/co-author of more than 250 publications and consultant to numerous national and international aid agencies and private industry. He holds a Ph.D. in geology from the University of Idaho.

David Cohen

Director, Asian International Justice Initiative

Adjunct Senior Fellow, Research Program

(808) 944-7236

djcohen@berkeley.edu

- International humanitarian law
- Human rights
- War crimes trials

Since 2001 David Cohen has served as director of the EWC’s Asian International Justice Initiative. At U.C.-Berkeley, he is also director of the War Crimes Studies Center and Sidney and Margaret Ancker Distinguished Professor of the Humanities. He monitored and reported on trials before the U.N. Serious Crimes Panel in Dili, Timor-Leste, the Ad Hoc Human Rights Court in Jakarta, Indonesia, and the Special Court for Sierra Leone in Freetown. He is currently developing programs for the Extraordinary Chambers in the Courts of Cambodia and the Supreme Court of Indonesia. He also oversees an international project on WWII war crimes trials, and has engaged in a comparative study of international criminal hybrid tribunals in Timor-Leste, Sierra Leone, Cambodia and Kosovo. Cohen is a former professor of law and social thought at the University of Chicago. He holds a Ph.D. in classics/ancient history from the University of Cambridge, and a J.D. from the UCLA School of Law.

Christopher Edmonds

Adjunct Fellow

Research Program

(808) 944-7362

edmondsc@EastWestCenter.org

- Economic development and poverty reduction in Asia
- International trade
- Rural and agricultural development

Christopher Edmonds is an economist with the Asian Development Bank (ADB) in Manila, Philippines, where he develops environmental and rural projects in Mongolia and China. He was an EWC research fellow (2003-06) and has worked in ADB’s Research Department and at the International Rice Research Institute. His earlier posts include work with a few universities, the International Labour Organization, and U.S. policy consulting firms (e.g., Abt Associates, SRI International, etc.). He has been a contributing author/editor of many books (e.g., Reducing Poverty in Asia: Emerging Issues in Growth, Targeting, and Measurement) and has published numerous articles in economics journals (e.g., Agricultural Economics, Journal of Asian Economics, etc.). He holds a Ph.D. and M.S. in Agriculture and Resource Economics from the University of California, Berkeley, and a master’s degree in public policy studies from the University of Chicago.

Dieter Ernst

Senior Fellow
Research Program

(808) 944-7321
ernstd@EastWestCenter.org

- Impact of corporate globalization strategies and info technology on economic growth
- Offshore outsourcing through global production and innovation networks
- Industrial policy implications for the United States and U.S.-Asia Pacific relations

Dieter Ernst is a former senior advisor to the OECD, Paris, and former research director of the Berkeley Roundtable on the International Economy (BRIE) at U.C.-Berkeley. He has co-chaired an advisory committee of the U.S. Social Science Research Council to develop a new program on Innovation, Business Institutions, and Governance in Asia. He has also served as a scientific advisor to several institutions, among them OCED, the World Bank, the National Bureau for Asia Research, the U.N. Conference on Trade and Development, and the U.N. Industrial Development Organization. He holds a Ph.D. in economics from Bremen University. He has published numerous books and articles on internationalization of innovation and the determinants of its diffusion within and across countries. His recent books include International Production Networks in Asia: Rivalry or Riches (2000), Technological Capabilities and Export Success: Lessons from East Asia (1998), and Innovation Offshoring: Asia's Emerging Role in Global Innovation Networks (2006).

Gerard A. Finin

Senior Fellow
Deputy Director, Pacific Islands Development Program

(808) 944-7751
fininj@EastWestCenter.org

- Globalization and sustainable development in the Pacific islands
- Policy analysis
- Development planning

Gerard Finin has worked in the Asia Pacific region for over thirty years, with research interests in governance, nation building, globalization and the dynamics of social change in small island states. His publications include The Making of the Igorot, a Manila Critics Circle finalist in 2006 for Best Book in the Social Sciences. He is co-editor of Pacific Islands Policy, a monograph series published by the PIDP. In addition to his appointment at the East-West Center, Finin is an adjunct professor at the University of Hawai'i and Asia-Pacific Center for Security Studies. He holds a Ph.D. in urban and regional planning and Southeast Asian studies from Cornell University.

Theresa Greaney

Adjunct Fellow

Research Program

(808) 956-7521

greaney@hawaii.edu

- Japanese economy
- International trade relations, theory and policy
- Multinational firms and foreign direct investment

She is an associate professor of economics at the University of Hawai'i at Manoa and previously taught at Syracuse University. She was a Visiting Scholar at the University of Tokyo's Faculty of Economics pursuing research on Japan's changing import behavior, sponsored by an Abe Fellowship. She has also received a Japan Foundation Fellowship to support her research at Japan's Ministry of International Trade and Industry Research Institute. Her research on Japan's import promotion policies, U.S.-Japan trade agreements and network effects on international trade has been published in numerous journals including the Journal of International Economics, Journal of Japanese and International Economics, and Japan and the World Economy. She holds a Ph.D. and M.A. in economics from the University of Michigan, Ann Arbor.

Sitiveni (Steven) Halapua

Director

Pacific Islands Development Program

(808) 944-7724

halapuas@EastWestCenter.org

- Sustainable development in the Pacific
- Development finance, trade and fisheries
- Conflict management

Sitiveni Halapua is a former senior lecturer in monetary economics; a senior research fellow at the Institute of Marine Resources and the faculty of Social and Economic Development at the regional University of the South Pacific in Suva, Fiji. He is also a consultant to the Central Planning Department of Tonga, the Central Planning Office of Fiji, and the Institute of Development Studies in Sussex, England. He holds a Ph.D. in economics from the University of Kent.

Eric Harwit

Adjunct Fellow
Research Program
(808) 944-7218
harwit@hawaii.edu

- China's political and economic transformation
- China's foreign trade and foreign investment policy
- China's automobile industry development and telecom policy

Eric Harwit is a professor of Asian Studies at the University of Hawai'i. He speaks fluent Chinese, and has conducted political-economic and market research projects in China for the past 20 years. He also teaches courses on East Asian political, economic and business development, as well as Asian history and culture. He is the author of the books China's Automobile Industry and China's Telecommunications Revolution. Harwit holds a Ph.D. in political science from the University of California, Berkeley, and a diploma from the University of International Business and Economics in Beijing.

Rana Hasan

Adjunct Fellow
Research Program
63-2-632-6449
rhasan@adb.org

- Economic reforms and labor market outcomes in Asia
- Poverty and inequality in Asia
- International trade

Rana Hasan is an economist with the Asian Development Bank in Manila, the Philippines. Previously he was an EWC Research Fellow and an affiliate graduate faculty member of the economics department at the University of Hawai'i at Manoa. He holds a Ph.D. in economics from the University of Maryland at College Park, and an M.A. in economics from the University of Delhi, India.

Meheroo Jussawalla

Senior Fellow Emerita

Research Program

(808) 944-7329

jussawam@EastWestCenter.org

- Information technology in Asia
- Telecommunications trade between U.S.-Japan
- Infrastructure growth in China and the markets for cellular mobile networks

Meheroo Jussawalla is on the editorial boards of the Information Economics and Policy Journal and Telecommunications Policy in London. She is a member of the board of directors at the International Institute of Communication in London, the board of trustees at the Pacific Telecommunications Council, and the research committee of the Pacific Telecommunications Council in Honolulu. She has taught and lectured in the U.S., Germany and India. She holds a Ph.D. in economics from Osmania University. She has published numerous books and articles. Her most recent books include U.S.-Japan Trade in Telecommunications and Global Telecommunications Policies: The Challenge of Change; Telecommunications: A Bridge to the 21st Century; and China Leaps into the Millennium.

Tarcisius Tara Kabutaulaka

Research Fellow (Adjunct – Jan. 2009)

Pacific Islands Development Program

(808) 944-7598

kabutaut@EastWestCenter.org

- Natural resources and development in the Pacific islands
- Governance, conflicts, conflict resolution and peace, and post-conflict development
- Rural development

Tarcisius Tara Kabutaulaka has written extensively on the Solomon Islands civil unrest and the intervention by the Australian-led Regional Assistance Mission to the Solomon Islands (RAMSI). Much of his work on international intervention focuses on Australia’s “cooperative intervention” policy in the Pacific islands. He was the chief negotiator for Guadalcanal Province and the Isatabu Freedom Movement at the Solomon Islands Peace Talks in Townsville, Australia, in 2000. He is an associate professor at the University of Hawai‘i’s Center for Pacific Islands Studies (Jan. 2009). Prior to joining the EWC, he taught history and political science at the University of the South Pacific in Suva, Fiji. Kabutaulaka has a Ph.D. in political science and international relations from the Australian National University in Canberra.

Michelle Staggs Kelsall

Deputy Director, Asian International Justice Initiative
Research Program

staggsm@EastWestCenter.org

- International humanitarian law
- War crimes trials
- Human rights

Michelle Staggs Kelsall is an Australian lawyer, who has been coordinating the work of the EWC's Asian International Justice Initiative since 2006, including the establishment of the Initiative's regional trial monitoring project at the Extraordinary Chambers in the Courts of Cambodia. From 2004–2006 she worked as a trial monitor, senior researcher, and as coordinator of University of California – Berkeley's trial monitoring program at the Special Court for Sierra Leone. She has served on an advisory panel for the U.N. Office of the High Commissioner for Human Rights in Geneva, focusing on the legacy of internationalized tribunals. She holds a Master's degree in Public International Law from the London School of Economics and Political Science, and a Bachelor of Laws degree from Macquarie University in Sydney, Australia.

Choong Nam Kim

Coordinator, POSCO Fellowship Programs
Research Program

(808) 944-7372

kimcn@EastWestCenter.org

- Korean politics and U.S.-Korean relations
- North Korean affairs
- Northeast Asian security

Choong Nam Kim served as assistant for political affairs to Korean Presidents Chun Doo Hwan and Roh Tae Woo from 1984 to 1990. He was a research professor at the Institute of Foreign Affairs and National Security in Korea. From 1994-96 he was assistant for public relations to President Kim Young Sam, and from 1969-80 he taught at the Korea Military Academy. He was a member of the Advisory Board at the Asia-Pacific Center of the RAND Corporation from 1989 to 2000. He holds a Ph.D. in political science from the University of Minnesota.

Yoon-Hyung Kim

Senior Fellow
Research Program

(808) 944-7435

kimy@EastWestCenter.org

- Globalization and regionalization
- Energy security in the North Pacific
- Sustainable transportation system

Yoon-Hyung Kim is an emeritus professor of economics at Hankuk University of Foreign Studies in Seoul, Korea. He was also a senior fellow at the Korea Development Institute and director general of the Planning Bureau, Ministry of Energy and Resources for the Republic of Korea. Prior to that Kim worked as an economist with the World Bank. He received his Ph.D. in economics from Stanford University.

Robert C. Kiste

Adjunct Senior Fellow
Pacific Islands Development Program

(808) 944-7720

kister@EastWestCenter.org

- Sustainable development, social and political change in the Pacific
- Governance and nation building
- Contemporary Pacific affairs

Robert Kiste is former director of the Center for Pacific Islands Studies at the University of Hawai'i (1978-2002). He is the co-editor of the Pacific Islands Policy Series of papers launched in late 2006. He serves on the editorial boards of the Pacific Islands Monograph Series, The Contemporary Pacific: A Journal of Island Affairs, and Pacific Studies and is a frequent lecturer on Smithsonian journeys in the Pacific islands. Kiste holds a Ph.D. in anthropology from the University of Oregon.

Scott Kroeker

Joint Commercial Commission Project Officer

Pacific Islands Development Program

(808) 944-7721

kroekers@EastWestCenter.org

- The future of political and economic development in Micronesia
- Trade and investment relations between the Pacific islands and the U.S.
- Regional cooperation alternatives for the Pacific islands

Scott Kroeker has focused his research on exploring ways of improving economic and commercial relationships between the U.S. and the Pacific islands through enhanced trade and investment activities. He is also examining alternative futures for Micronesia—looking beyond the current time periods covered by the Compacts of Free Association, and proposing new, more Oceania focused, regional cooperation approaches in the Pacific islands. He holds an M.A. in Pacific Islands Studies from the University of Hawai'i and is currently pursuing a Ph.D. in Political Science, with an emphasis on Alternative Futures and International Relations.

Satu P. Limaye

Director

East-West Center in Washington

202-327-9759

limayes@EastWestCenter.org

- Asia Pacific international relations
- U.S.- Asia defense and security relations
- India's foreign policy

Satu Limaye is currently leading “Asia Matters for America,” a major EWC project that tracks economic, social, and educational ties between the U.S. and Asia by each U.S. state and congressional district. Prior to joining the EWC, he was a researcher at the Institute for Defense Analyses (IDA). From 1998-2005 he was director of research and publications at the Asia-Pacific Center for Security Studies (APCSS), a reporting unit to the U.S. Pacific Command. He has been an Abe Fellow at the National Endowment for Democracy, and a Henry Luce Scholar and head of South Asia programs at the Japan Institute of International Affairs. He regularly reviews manuscripts for academic journals and has also written, edited, and co-edited numerous books and studies, including Japan in a Dynamic Asia; “India” in America’s Security Role in a Changing World, A Global Strategic Assessment 2009; and U.S., Australia and Japan and the New Security Triangle. He received his Ph.D. in international relations from Oxford University where he was a George Marshall Scholar.

Christopher A. McNally

Fellow

Research Program

(808) 944-7239

mcnallyc@EastWestCenter.org

- China's capitalist transition and industrial/financial reforms
- International political economy
- East Asia security issues

Christopher A. McNally is a political economist studying the interests, institutions, and ideas underlying formations of capitalism. At present, his research focuses on contemporary varieties of capitalism, in particular the nature and logic of China's capitalist transition. He is also working on a book project that studies the implications of China's capitalist renaissance on the global order. He has held fellowships conducting fieldwork and research at the Asia Research Centre in West Australia, the Institute of Asia Pacific Studies at the Chinese University of Hong Kong, and at the Shanghai Academy of Social Sciences. He received his Ph.D. in political science from the University of Washington. He has edited three volumes including China's Emergent Political Economy — Capitalism in the Dragon's Lair (2008). He has also authored numerous policy analyses, editorials, and academic articles in journals such as The China Quarterly, Asian Perspective, and Comparative Social Research.

Charles E. Morrison

President

East-West Center

(808) 944-7103

morrisoc@EastWestCenter.org

- Asia Pacific Economic Cooperation (APEC) forum
- Asia Pacific international relations, economic issues and security issues
- U.S.-Asia policy and trade policy

Charles E. Morrison has been president of the East-West Center since 1998. He has been associated with the Center since 1980 in various capacities, including heading its former Institute of Economics and Politics. A U.S. Senate aide early in his career, he has also been a research associate at the Japan Center for International Exchange. He has served as the international chair of the Pacific Economic Cooperation Council since 2005, and is a member of other national and international bodies that promote trans-Pacific security and economic cooperation. His Ph.D. is from the Johns Hopkins School of Advanced International Studies, where he also once taught on Southeast Asia. He speaks and publishes widely on U.S. Asia policy issues and the countries of the region, and gives special emphasis to regional cooperation, particularly the APEC process.

Seiji Naya

Distinguished Visiting Senior Fellow
Research Program

(808) 944-7523

naya@hawaii.edu

- Asian Development Bank
- ASEAN and ASEAN Free Trade Area
- Asian economic development, regional trade cooperation and policies

Seiji Naya is an emeritus professor of economics at the University of Hawai'i. He was formerly the director of the Hawai'i State Department of Business, Economic Development and Tourism; chief economist at the Asian Development Bank; a Rockefeller Foundation visiting professor at Thammasat University in Thailand; director of the EWC's Resource Systems Institute; and a faculty fellow at the National Bureau of Economic Research in New York. His professional experience includes more than 40 years in teaching, policy research and analytical study on economic development and cooperation of developing Asian countries. He was also leader of the U.S. cooperative research team that provided a basis for early U.S. economic policy toward ASEAN. He holds a Ph.D. in economics from the University of Wisconsin.

Peter Petri

Non-resident Senior Fellow
Research Program

ppetri@brandeis.edu

- Trade, finance and international economic integration
- Asia Pacific Economic Cooperation (APEC)
- East Asian/Pacific Rim economies

Peter Petri is the founding dean of the International Business School at Brandeis University. He has been a Brookings Policy Fellow, a Fulbright research scholar at Keio University and a visiting scholar at the OECD Center. He is involved in U.S.-Asia activities and serves on the board of the U.S. Asia Pacific Council, the International Advisory Group of the Pacific Economic Cooperation Council's Trade Policy Forum, and the PAFTAD International Steering Committee. He also served as former chair of the U.S. APEC Study Center Consortium. Petri is on the editorial boards of the ASEAN Economic Bulletin, the Singapore Economic Review and the Journal of Asian Economics. He received his Ph.D. in economics from Harvard University. His recent publications include Renewing the Pacific Partnership; Does Trade Deliver What it Promises?; Regional Cooperation and Economic Recovery (ISEAS); and A Multilateral Model of Japanese-American Trade.

Michael Plummer

Non-resident Senior Fellow

Research Program

mplummer21@yahoo.com

- Economic development in Asia and ASEAN
- International economic integration
- Asia Pacific regionalism

Michael Plummer is resident professor of international economics at the Johns Hopkins University, School of Advanced International Studies, Bologna Center, Italy. He serves as editor of the Journal of Asian Economics and is director of the American Committee on Asian Economic Studies. He has held the Fulbright Chair in Economics at Tuscia University (Italy), been a Pew Fellow in International Affairs at Harvard University, and a visiting scholar in the economics departments of many universities in Europe and the Asia Pacific, such as the University of Auckland and the Institute of Southeast Asian Studies. Plummer has held professorial positions at Brandeis University, Kobe University (Japan), and the Monterey Institute of International Economics and was a visiting professor at several universities, including in the Summer Macroeconomic Policy Program of the Harvard Institute of International Development. He has a Ph.D. in economics from Michigan State University.

Denny Roy

Senior Fellow

Research Program

(808) 944-7244

royd@EastWestCenter.org

- Northeast Asian political and security issues
- China-Taiwan military-strategic affairs and foreign policy
- International relations theory and human rights politics

Denny Roy served as a Research Fellow and Professor at the Asia-Pacific Center for Security Studies (2000-07). He was also a faculty member in the National Security Affairs Department at the Naval Postgraduate School in Monterey, California. Prior to that he was a Research Fellow with the Strategic and Defence Studies Centre at the Australian National University in Canberra, and held faculty appointments in the political science departments of the National University of Singapore and Brigham Young University, teaching about international relations and Asian politics. He has lived and worked in Taiwan, Korea and Singapore, and has authored several books and articles for scholarly journals such as International Security, Survival, Asian Survey, Security Dialogue, Contemporary Southeast Asia, Armed Forces & Society, and Issues & Studies. He holds a Ph.D. in Political Science from the University of Chicago.

Sheila A. Smith

Adjunct Fellow
Research Program

ssmith@cfr.org
(202) 319-3618

- Asia Pacific international relations and U.S. policy
- Regional security relations
- Japan's foreign policy and domestic politics

Sheila Smith is a senior fellow for Japan Studies at the Council on Foreign Relations where she is directing the project on Northeast Asia Security Architecture. She was previously an EWC fellow and an affiliate graduate faculty member at the University of Hawai'i. She was project director for Shifting Terrain, a cross-national study which focused on changing attitudes toward the U.S. military presence in Japan, South Korea and the Philippines. Her academic affiliations include associate in research of the Reischauer Institute of Japanese Studies at Harvard University and committee member of the Social Science Research Council Global Security and Cooperation Program. She has done extensive fieldwork in Tokyo and Okinawa, as well as research fellowships at the Japan Institute for International Affairs and the Research Institute for Peace and Security. She holds a Ph.D. in political science from Columbia University.

Jon M. Van Dyke

Adjunct Senior Fellow
Research Program

(808) 956-8509
jvandyke@hawaii.edu

- Human rights and humanitarian law

Jon Van Dyke is a professor at the University of Hawai'i Richardson School of Law, teaching constitutional law, international law, international human rights and ocean law. He was an EWC research associate/adjunct research associate from 1979-91, and director of the Spark M. Matsunaga Institute for Peace at the University of Hawai'i from 1988-90. He earned his J.D. at Harvard Law School. He has authored numerous publications including International Law and Litigation in the U.S.

Barbara Wanner

Senior Projects Coordinator
United States Asia Pacific Council
 (202) 327-9761
 wannerb@EastWestCenter.org

- U.S.- Asia Pacific relations
- U.S. Congressional policy toward Asia
- U.S. Administration policy toward Asia

Barbara Wanner writes the USAPC’s Washington Report, a bimonthly publication that provides an “inside-the-Beltway” perspective on developments in U.S.-Asia Pacific relations. She also provides commentary on developments in the U.S. Congress that affect transpacific relations and plans programs for Congressional staff on salient issues in U.S.-Asia relations. In addition, she coordinates the programs of the U.S. Asia Pacific Council (USAPC) related to Asia Pacific governmental organizations, supports the research initiatives of the Pacific Economic Cooperation Council (PECC), and works with the USAPC Director in planning its annual Washington Conference. Wanner holds an M.A. in Political Science from Columbia University and a B.A. in International Relations from Bucknell University. She also received a Certificate in International Business from Georgetown University.

Eric Wittersheim

Fellow
Pacific Islands Development Program
 (808) 944-7326
 witterse@EastWestCenter.org

- State-building, nationhood, and democracy in the South Pacific
- Contemporary politics, human rights, indigenous issues, and leadership in Melanesia
- Documentary film-making about contemporary issues in the region

Eric Wittersheim is a political anthropologist who has been involved with South Pacific societies for more than 15 years, first through human-rights activism and political journalism, later through academic research and film-making. He directed and produced an award-winning documentary, “Grassroots, Those Who Vote,” about elections in Vanuatu. He has served as an expert or auditor for UNESCO’s World intangible heritage program, the French National Research Agency, and the French government. He published After Independence. Vanuatu, a Democracy in the Pacific and Societies in the State in Melanesia (both in 2006) and co-edited Tradition and the State in the Pacific (2002). His annotated edition of former New Caledonia leader Jean-Marie Tjibaou’s writings and speeches (1996) has recently been translated into English. He is currently co-editing the book Indigenous Struggles, Postcolonial Paths in the Americas and the Pacific and working on a new general history of the Pacific with Dr. Isabelle Merle. He holds a Ph.D. from EHESS, Paris.

Fereidun Fesharaki

Senior Fellow

Research Program

(808) 944-7527

fesharaf@EastWestCenter.org

- Energy policy and planning in Asia
- OPEC and the global outlook
- Oil and gas market analysis and the downstream petroleum sector

Fereidun Fesharaki joined the EWC in 1979. Born in Iran, he attended the OPEC Ministerial Conferences in the late 1970s as energy adviser to the prime minister of Iran. He has been an adviser to major oil companies, trading companies, state-owned companies and governments in the Middle East, Pacific Basin, Latin America and the U.S. In 1993, he became president of the International Association for Energy Economics, and has served on the editorial boards of leading journals on energy economics and policy. Since 1989, he has been a member of the Council on Foreign Relations. Fesharaki has also served as a member of the advisory board of Nippon Oil Company of Japan and Far East Oil Price Index in Singapore, and a member of the Pacific Council on International Policy. In 2002, he was appointed senior associate of the Center for Strategic and International Studies in Washington, D.C. He holds a Ph.D. in economics from the University of Surrey.

Melissa L. Finucane

Senior Fellow

Research Program

(808)944-7254

finucanm@EastWestCenter.org

- Cognitive, emotional, and socio-psychological factors affecting human judgment and decision making
- Cultural values and the perception of environmental, health, and financial risks
- Aging and decision competence

Melissa Finucane received an M.Psych. and a Ph.D. in psychology from the University of Western Australia in 1997. During 1997-2001, she worked as a research scientist with Drs. Paul Slovic, Terre Satterfield, Ellen Peters, Robin Gregory, and others at Decision Research, Eugene, Oregon. From 2001-07 she worked as a research investigator at the Center for Health Research Hawai'i. She is a member of the Society for Judgment and Decision Making and has published in numerous journals, including: Journal of Behavioral Decision Making; Risk Analysis; Journal of Risk Research; Social Science and Medicine; Health, Risk and Society; The Contemporary Pacific; Psychology and Aging; Journal of Environmental Management; and others.

Jefferson M. Fox

Senior Fellow, Research Program
Coordinator, Environment, Vulnerability and Governance Studies

(808) 944-7248

foxj@EastWestCenter.org

- Land cover/land-use change in Southeast Asia
- Forest fragmentation and degradation
- Community-based management of natural resources in South and Southeast Asia

Jefferson Fox conducts research on land-use and land-cover change in Asia and the impact of these changes on the region and the global environment. Other areas of study include resource management systems and land cover transitions in Montane Mainland Southeast Asia — its role in altering regional hydrological processes under a changing climate; the ethics, values and practice of spatial information technology and society; and natural resources and violent ethnic conflict in the Asia Pacific region. He has worked formerly with watershed management projects in Nepal, and lectured in the Geography Department at Gadjah Mada University, Yogyakarta, Indonesia. He is an affiliate graduate faculty in geography and anthropology at the University of Hawai‘i. He holds a Ph.D. in development studies from the University of Wisconsin-Madison.

Gerald G. Marten

Adjunct Senior Fellow

Research Program

(808) 944-7411

marteng@EastWestCenter.org

- EcoTipping Points: Lessons for turning environmental decline to a course of restoration and sustainability
- Ecological control of disease-transmitting mosquitoes
- Human ecology and sustainable development

Gerald Marten served as a research associate in the EWC Environment and Policy Institute from 1978 to 1987. Following that he was research professor in the Department of Tropical Medicine at Tulane University. He recently retired as professor in the School of Policy Studies at Kwansai Gakuin University in Japan. He is currently affiliate professor in the Department of Anthropology and the Department of Urban and Regional Planning at the University of Hawai‘i. He holds a Ph.D. in zoology from the University of California, Berkeley.

A. Terry Rambo

Adjunct Senior Fellow

Research Program

66-43-202-366

rambo@kku.ac.th

- Upland development in Vietnam
- Sustainable land use
- Global environmental policies

Terry Rambo is a visiting professor at the Program on System Approaches in Agriculture, Department of Agronomy at Khon Kaen University, Thailand. He is also visiting professor at Hanoi Agricultural University in Vietnam. He has lived in Southeast Asia for 12 years, conducting research and teaching in Vietnam, Thailand and Malaysia. He received his Ph.D. in anthropology from the University of Hawai'i. He has authored and co-edited numerous publications including Bright Peaks, Dark Valleys: A Comparative Analysis of Environmental and Social Conditions and Development Trends in Five Communities in Vietnam's Northern Mountain Region and The Fallacy of Global Sustainable Development.

Sumeet Saksena

Fellow

Research Program

(808) 944-7249

saksenas@EastWestCenter.org

- Environmental risk assessments
- Human exposure-based decision making
- Public perceptions of environmental risks

Sumeet Saksena recently served as a fellow in the Centre for Environmental Studies at the Tata Energy Research Institute in India. He is a member of the International Society of Exposure Assessment, the Committee on Indoor Environment Quality at the U.S. Department of Energy, the advisory group for the Millennium Ecosystem Assessment, the Standing Research Advisory Committee of the Central Statistical Organization in India, and the Technical Working Group of the Cities 21 Pilot Project at the International Council for Local Environmental Initiatives. He holds a Ph.D. in environmental sciences and engineering from the Indian Institute of Technology in Mumbai, India.

Eileen Shea

Adjunct Fellow

Research Program

(808) 944-7253

Eileen.Shea@noaa.gov

- Climate assessment, risk management, and forecast applications
- Environmental science, assessment and public policy
- Ocean and coastal resource management

Eileen Shea is the chief of the Climate Services and Monitoring Division of the National Climatic Data Center and director of the National Oceanic and Atmospheric Administration (NOAA) Integrated Data and Environmental Applications (IDEA) Center. Shea is an expert on climate-related challenges and opportunities in the Pacific islands, including water resources, coastal community planning and economic development, and public health and safety. She was the founder and initial executive director of the Center for the Applications of Research on the Environment at the Institute of Global Environment and Society. She previously served as deputy director of the NOAA Climate and Global Change Program. Shea holds a B.A. in marine biology from the University of Delaware and undertook master's work in environmental law and marine resource management.

Toufiq Siddiqi

Adjunct Senior Fellow

Research Program

(808) 944-7456

siddiqit@EastWestCenter.org

- Energy policies in South Asia
- Climate Change and Greenhouse Gas Emissions in Asia
- Environmental impacts of increased energy use in Asia

Toufiq Siddiqi is president of Global Environment and Energy in the 21st Century, a non-profit organization based in Hawai'i. Siddiqi has over 30 years of research in the fields of energy and environment, particularly global climate change. He served as regional adviser on energy at the United Nations Economic and Social Commission for Asia and the Pacific, based in Bangkok. Prior to that, he was an EWC senior fellow in the Environment Program and an associate professor at Indiana University. He has been a lead author for the Intergovernmental Panel on Climate Change, and the first visiting senior fellow at the Global Environmental Facility. Siddiqi has been a consultant to several international organizations, including the United Nations Development Program, the World Bank and the Asian Development Bank. He holds a Ph.D. in nuclear physics from Johann Wolfgang Goethe University in Frankfurt (Germany) and a Master's degree from Cambridge University.

Kirk R. Smith
Adjunct Senior Fellow
Research Program
(510) 643-0793
krksmith@berkeley.edu

- Risk assessment, exposure assessment and environmental epidemiology
- Health and climate impacts of air pollution
- International energy, health, and climate policy

Kirk Smith is a professor of Global Environmental Health at the University of California, Berkeley. He conducts research on environmental, climate, and health issues related to energy and economic development in poor areas of the world. Smith has current field research projects in India, Nepal, China, and Central America relating to health and climate impacts of air pollution. He is a member of the U.S. National Academy of Sciences and holds a Ph.D. in biomedical and environmental health sciences from the University of California, Berkeley.

Alan White
Adjunct Fellow
Research Program
(808) 587-6218
alan_white@tnc.org

- Coastal Resource Management in Asia and the Pacific (emphasis on the Philippines)
- Conservation, ecology, economics and institutional arrangements for marine protected ecosystems in Southeast Asia

Alan White is a senior scientist with The Nature Conservancy's Global Marine Initiative focusing on advancing marine protected area networks and integrated coastal management. He is a recognized expert in the management, conservation, ecology, and economics of coastal resource management systems and marine protected areas based on 26 years of fieldwork in the Philippines and other parts of Southeast Asia. During his career, White has served as chief of party, team leader, project director, and technical expert on contracts to provide consulting services to a variety of agencies, including USAID, Asian Development Bank, and the United Nations Environmental Programme. After completing a Ph.D. in Marine Resource Management from the University of Hawai'i, he implemented a three-island management project in southern Philippines that established the first functional marine reserves in the country. He has published articles in numerous journals including Coastal Management and Environmental Conservation.

Kang Wu

Senior Fellow
Research Program

(808) 944-7521

wuk@EastWestCenter.org

- Energy and economic issues in the Asia Pacific region
- Oil and gas market analysis in the global context
- China energy studies

Kang Wu is a China and Asian energy expert. He heads the China Energy Project of the Research Program at the Center. His research work includes economic analysis of energy policies, energy security studies, energy modeling, and assessment of clean transportation fuel use in Asia. Wu is the author and co-author of numerous books, journal articles, research papers, project reports, and other publications. He speaks frequently at international conferences, forums, workshops and training programs, and his research has been widely cited by press and industrial media worldwide. He holds a Ph.D. in economics from the University of Hawai'i.

ZhongXiang Zhang

Senior Fellow
Research Program

(808) 944-7265

zhangz@EastWestCenter.org

- Climate and economics
- Energy and environmental policy in China
- Trade and the environment

ZhongXiang Zhang is an adjunct professor of economics at both the Chinese Academy of Social Sciences and Peking University. He is also executive director of the Chinese Society for Environmental Economics. He was a visiting fellow at Pennsylvania State University and Stanford University; a senior fellow at University of Groningen in the Netherlands; a research fellow at Wageningen University in the Netherlands and the Energy Research Centre of the Netherlands; and researcher with the National Development and Reform Commission in Beijing. He has been a consultant to many organizations, including UNCTAD, UNDP, UNEP, OECD, IPCC, ADB and the World Bank. He is a co-editor of International Journal of Ecological Economics & Statistics, and serves on the editorial boards of seven other international journals. He is among the most cited authors by the IPCC Climate Change 2001 and 2007. He holds a Ph.D. in economics from Wageningen University.

Tim Brown

Senior Fellow
Research Program
(808) 944-7476
tim@hawaii.edu

- Epidemiology of HIV, AIDS, and STDs in Asia and the Pacific
- Development and policy application of epidemic models
- Risk behavior and behavioral surveys

Tim Brown is currently working with UNAIDS, Family Health International, RTI International, Futures Institute and other regional partners to develop estimation and projection tools and methodologies for global and Asia-specific application, to implement more comprehensive integrated policy analysis of Asian HIV epidemics and expand advocacy for more effective responses, and to support the strengthening of strategic information systems for HIV in Asia and the Pacific. He has served as a consultant to several organizations including the World Health Organization, the Global Programme on AIDS; and the UNDP Regional Project on HIV and Development.

Jiajian Chen

Senior Fellow
Research Program
(808) 944-7426
chenj@EastWestCenter.org

- Fertility and reproductive health in China
- Infant and child mortality
- Integrated analysis and advocacy to improve HIV/AIDS responses

Jiajian Chen is an affiliate graduate faculty of the Population Studies Program at the University of Hawai'i, teaching methods of demographic analysis. He is the former chief of the Health and Outcomes Statistics Section and a senior research analyst in the Health Statistics Division at Statistics Canada. His current research in China focuses on effects of population policy and economic reform on fertility, family, and reproductive health. His recent publications include: Son preference, use of maternal health care, and infant mortality in China; Fertility Estimates for Provinces of China: 1975-2000; and Gender differences in the effects of self-rated health status on mortality among the oldest-old in China. Chen earned a Ph.D. in social demography from the University of Western Ontario.

Minja Kim Choe

Senior Fellow
Research Program
(808) 944-7475
mchoe@hawaii.edu

- Family and gender issues
- Health behavior of adolescents and young adults
- Fertility and reproductive health

Minja Kim Choe joined the EWC in 1983, and has co-authored and published numerous books, monographs and journal articles on fertility behavior, infant mortality, health behavior of adolescents and youth, marriage, gender roles, demographic methods and statistical methods. Her research includes work in Korea, Japan, China, United States, India, Nepal, Bangladesh, Philippines, Thailand and Indonesia. She holds a Ph.D. in epidemiology-biostatistics from the University of Hawai'i.

Roland Fuchs

Senior Fellow
Research Program
(808) 944-7518
fuchsr@EastWestCenter.org

- Population, urbanization and development in Asia
- Regional impacts of climate and environmental change and adaptation policies

Roland Fuchs was previously the director of START (the global change System for Analysis, Research and Training), which assists developing countries to conduct research on regional aspects of environmental change, assess the impacts of such change, and provide information to policy-makers. Before joining START he served as vice-rector for academic programs of the United Nations University headquartered in Tokyo, Japan. Prior to that he had served as chairman of the Department of Geography and special assistant to the president at the University of Hawai'i. He also served concurrently as an EWC adjunct research associate. He was formerly president of the International Geographical Union (IGU) and secretary-general of the Pacific Science Association (PSA). He holds Ph.D. in Geography and has served as a visiting professor or researcher with universities in Russia, Nepal and Taiwan as well as in United States. His publications include Urbanization and Urban Policies in Pacific Asia and Megacity Growth in Asia.

Sang-Hyop Lee

Fellow

Research Program

(808) 944-7428

leesang@hawaii.edu

- Labor and human resources
- Aging and the elderly labor force
- Child education and health

Sang-Hyop Lee is associate professor of economics at the University of Hawai'i. His primary research objective is to find key measures of the human resources factor in production and consumption and their relationship with economic development. He examines how individual and family decisions interact with market conditions to determine education and health, and their impacts on earnings. His recent studies focus on how population aging affects labor markets, individual's decision to work, and other interactions with the economy. He holds a Ph.D. in economics from Michigan State University.

Yeon-Ju Lee

Adjunct Fellow

Research Program

(808) 944-7417

yjlee@hawaii.edu

- Gender stratification
- Population aging and intergenerational relations
- Family changes in East Asia

Yeon-Ju Lee is an associate professor of sociology and of population studies at the University of Hawai'i. Lee was a post-doctoral fellow at the University of Chicago. She received her Ph.D. from the University of Wisconsin-Madison. Her publications include: Risk Factors in the Rapidly Rising Incidence of Divorce in Korea; and Gender, Lifetime Socioeconomic Environments, and Health Among the Elderly: The Cases of Taiwan and Japan.

Nancy Davis Lewis

Director

Research Program

(808) 944-7245

lewisn@EastWestCenter.org

- Geography of health and disease
- Global environmental change and emerging infectious disease
- Gender, health and development

Nancy Lewis has focused her research on the geography of health and disease, human ecology, gender, health and development in the Pacific islands and recently on climate variability and change and human health. She is also interested in the policy implications of the human dimensions of global change and the translation of science for public policy. She has contributed to the Millennium Ecosystem Assessment and has served as a consultant to the World Health Organization. Lewis is the vice-president of the Pacific Science Association and serves on the Charter Board of the International Association for Ecology and Health and on the editorial boards of The Contemporary Pacific: A Journal of Island Affairs; Pacific Science; Ethics, Place and Environment; and EcoHealth. Prior to joining the Center, she was an associate dean of the University of Hawai'i's College of Social Sciences (1993-2001) and a professor in the Department of Geography. She holds a Ph.D. in geography from the University of California, Berkeley.

Andrew Mason

Senior Fellow

Research Program

(808) 944-7455

amason@hawaii.edu

- Economic development and population change
- Economic consequences of aging
- Intergenerational transfers

Andrew Mason is an economics professor at the University of Hawai'i. He is a member of the Center on the Economics and Demography of Aging at the University of California, Berkeley, a member of the Harvard Program on the Global Demography of Aging, and a Fellow of the World Demographic Association. He has been a visiting professor at the Institute d'Etudes Politique de Paris; a visiting scholar in the Sloan School of Management at the Massachusetts Institute of Technology; and a consultant to the World Bank, Asian Development Bank, U.S. Agency for International Development, U.S. National Academy of Sciences and United Nations. He has a Ph.D. in economics from the University of Michigan.

Karen Oppenheim Mason

Adjunct Senior Fellow

Research Program

(808) 944-7407

masonk@EastWestCenter.org

- Population
- Gender and development
- Family change

Karen Mason was formerly the president of the Population Association of America and director of the EWC Population Program. She was also director for Gender and Development at the World Bank in Washington, D.C. (1999-2004). Her work focuses on population policy, gender equality, social and economic development, and family change. She has a Ph.D. in sociology from the University of Chicago.

Vinod Mishra

Adjunct Fellow

Research Program

(301) 572-0220

vinod.mishra@macrointernational.com

- Social and behavioral dimensions of HIV/AIDS pandemic
- Reproductive and child health, fertility and family planning
- Air pollution and environmental effects on health

Vinod Mishra is the director of research in the Demographic and Health Research Division of Macro International in Calverton, Maryland. Formerly a fellow in Population and Health Studies at the EWC, he has more than 15 years of research experience and more than 100 publications. He holds a Ph.D. in Sociology and master's degrees in Public Health, Sociology, and Statistics. His current research focuses on HIV/AIDS, nutrition, and reproductive health issues in developing countries.

Robert Retherford

Senior Fellow

Coordinator, Population and Health Studies

(808) 944-7403

retherfr@EastWestCenter.org

- Populations of Japan, India and Nepal
- Aging and health
- Fertility and family planning, and infant and child mortality

Robert Retherford is an affiliate graduate faculty member in sociology at the University of Hawai'i. He has authored numerous reports and articles based on India's National Family Health Surveys, and has written extensively on fertility, family, and aging in Japan. He has been a consultant to or received grants from the United Nations Population Fund, the United Nations Economic and Social Commission for Asia and the Pacific, and the National Institute of Child Health and Human Development. He holds a Ph.D. in sociology from the University of California, Berkeley.

Ronald R. Rindfuss

Senior Fellow

Research Program

(808) 944-7402

rindfusr@EastWestCenter.org

- Social demography, marriage, and family change in the U.S. and Asia
- Trends and variations in fertility in the U.S. and Asia
- Population and the environment

Ronald Rindfuss is the Robert Paul Ziff Distinguished Professor of Sociology and Carolina Population Center Fellow at the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill. He has a Ph.D. in sociology from Princeton University. His publications include: Land Use Change: Complexity and Comparisons; Child Care Availability and First Birth Timing; Networks and Contexts: Variation in the Structure of Social Ties.

Gerard Russo

Adjunct Senior Fellow

Research Program

(808) 944-7412

russo@hawaii.edu

- Health policy, insurance and economics
- Economics of HIV/AIDS prevention and screening
- Tobacco taxation and smoking policy

Gerard Russo is an associate professor of economics at the University of Hawai'i. He has conducted research on household health-care spending and health-service utilization in Indonesia, the Philippines and Thailand. He is currently leading a team of researchers studying policies to expand health insurance coverage for Hawai'i's underinsured population under a U.S. Health Resources and Services Administration, State Planning Grant to the Hawai'i State Department of Health. He holds a Ph.D. degree in economics from Northwestern University.

---

Nicholas H. Barker

Leadership Education Coordinator

Education Program

(808) 944-7591

barkern@EastWestCenter.org

- Leadership education and training
- Indigenous models of leadership in Asia Pacific

Nicholas Barker is the head of the Asia Pacific Leadership Program and the Leadership Certificate. He is also affiliate graduate faculty in the Department of Anthropology and the Center for Southeast Asian Studies at the University of Hawai'i. His anthropological interests include religion and power in Southeast Asia, and long-term field work has been conducted in the Philippines. Recent projects include the BBC/Discovery documentary, "Beyond Endurance." He holds a Ph.D. in cultural anthropology from Cambridge University.

Terance W. Bigalke

Director

Education Program

(808) 944-7323

bigalket@EastWestCenter.org

- International education
- Indonesian history
- Southeast Asian regional history

Terance Bigalke directs the Education program division of the East-West Center including student programs, faculty and professional development programs, and educational policy research. From 2001-2004 he was dean of EWC student programs. Before joining the Center, Bigalke was Malcolm Mouat Director of World Affairs at Beloit College in Wisconsin from 1989-2001, where he also taught courses on the history of Southeast Asia and modern Indonesia as an adjunct member of the Beloit faculty. Prior to that he was assistant director of the Midwest Universities Consortium for International Activities based at Ohio State University, and a program officer with the Ford Foundation in Jakarta, Indonesia. He has conducted research in Indonesia and the Netherlands, and studied in Thailand and Mexico. He received an M.A. in Southeast Asian history from the University of Hawai'i as an EWC grantee, and holds a Ph.D. in comparative world history from the University of Wisconsin at Madison, with a focus on 19th and 20th century Indonesia.

Elizabeth Buck

Special Assistant to the President for Education

(808) 944-7315

bucke@EastWestCenter.org

- Developing Asian studies at the undergraduate level
- Higher education in the Asian and Pacific region

Elizabeth Buck is former director of the EWC Education Program. She also is co-director of the Asian Studies Development Program, a joint program of the Center and the University of Hawai‘i, designed to expand teaching about Asia at U.S. and Asian colleges and universities. She is a member of the Center’s Education 2020 Program. Buck has a Ph.D. in political science from the University of Hawai‘i.

William Feltz

Coordinator, Arts Program

Office of External Affairs

(808) 944-7612

feltzb@EastWestCenter.org

- Performing arts of Asia and the Pacific islands
- Ethnomusicology and the visual arts

William Feltz is a musicologist and arts administrator. He is responsible for arts workshops, residencies, exhibitions, performances, seminars and international tours presented by the Center. He has coordinated or assisted with arrangements for more than 400 public performances and exhibitions representing nearly every country in Asia and Oceania. Feltz has an M.A. in ethnomusicology from the University of Hawai‘i.

Carol Fox

Director

Strategic Planning and Partnerships

(808) 944-7172

foxc@EastWestCenter.org

- Preservation of culture and environment in the Asia Pacific
- Strategic Planning
- Non-profit/NGO marketing and fundraising

Carol Fox works to develop partnerships that broaden and diversify the Center's support base. She has been engaged with philanthropy since 1980, when she was invited to help create the first fundraising campaign for the U.S. National Gallery of Art. As special assistant to the director, she organized the Gallery's special events. She served as the first director of development and public relations at Hawai'i's Bishop Museum and later as director of program development for The Nature Conservancy (1986-2002), where she worked on Hawai'i conservation projects. She also helped establish this organization in the Asia Pacific and create a conservation partnership with China's government. She advised environmental movements in Taiwan, Hong Kong, and Indonesia, and founded the Asia Pacific Council, a group of Asian and U.S. business leaders devoted to enhancing prosperity through conservation and the sustainable use of natural resources. Prior to coming to the EWC in 2005, she was deputy director of the Honolulu Academy of Arts.

David Grossman

Senior Adjunct Fellow

Education Program

(808) 944-7767

grossmad@EastWestCenter.org

- Citizenship education in the Asia Pacific region
- Global, international and intercultural education
- Teacher education

David Grossman is professor and interim dean of education at Chaminade University of Honolulu. He previously served as dean of the Faculty of Language, Arts and Sciences and co-head of the Centre for Citizenship Education at the Hong Kong Institute of Education (1995-2007). Prior to that he served as an EWC senior research fellow (1988-95) and director of Stanford University's Program on International and Cross-Cultural Education (SPICE). Grossman holds a Ph.D. in International Development Education from Stanford University and masters' degrees in East Asia studies and teaching social science from Harvard University. His recent publications include: Citizenship curriculum in Asia and the Pacific; Social education in Asia: Critical issues and multiple perspectives; and Improving Teacher Education through Action Research.

John N. Hawkins

Senior Consultant
Education Program

(808) 944-7769
hawkins@gseis.ucla.edu

- Education and development in Asia
- Higher education reform
- Politics of educational planning and practice

John Hawkins is professor of social sciences and comparative education and director of the Center for International and Development Education at the Graduate School of Education and Information Studies, University of California, Los Angeles (UCLA). From 1986-1999, he served as dean of International Studies at UCLA. Hawkins is the author of 15 books and numerous articles on education, social change and development in the Asian region. He received his Ph.D. in comparative education from Vanderbilt University.

Peter Hershock

Educational Specialist
Education Program

(808) 944-7757
hershocp@EastWestCenter.org

- Asian content in U.S. college and university curriculum
- Cultural and religious resources in the Asia Pacific region
- Contemporary issues from Buddhist perspectives

Peter Hershock coordinates summer institutes, workshops and field-study programs for the EWC Asian Studies Development Program. His research focuses on cultural and conceptual dimensions of issues related to education, development, human rights and community in the Asia Pacific region, with special emphasis on equity and diversity. He received his Ph.D. in Asian philosophy from the University of Hawai'i.

Karen Knudsen

Director

Office of External Affairs

(808) 944-7195

knudsenk@EastWestCenter.org

- Public diplomacy
- Challenges facing U.S. education policymakers
- Hawai'i's education system and reform movements

Karen Knudsen directs the Center's News and Information operations, Arts Program, Associates (alumni) Office, program representatives in the region, EWC briefings for government officials (local, national, and international), and community and public relations. She was elected in 2006 to a fifth four-year term on the Hawai'i State Board of Education (BOE). She has worked in public affairs at the Hawai'i State Judiciary and in public relations at Milici Valenti Ng Pak Advertising. She is a former Pacific area specialist with the Pacific and Asian Affairs Council and outreach coordinator for the University of Hawai'i's Center for Pacific Islands Studies. She was a Peace Corps volunteer in Chuuk, Federated States of Micronesia. She holds an M.A. in Pacific Islands Studies from the University of Hawai'i.

Susan Kreifels

Media Programs Coordinator

East-West Seminars

(808) 944-7176

kreifels@EastWestCenter.org

- U.S.-Asia Pacific media issues
- Professional women's issues in the region
- Reporting on the military in the Asia Pacific

Susan Kreifels teaches journalism at Hawai'i Pacific University and the University of Hawai'i. She previously worked as a journalist, covering Asia and the Pacific islands while based in Manila, Tokyo, Washington, D.C., Honolulu and Guam. She reported for the Honolulu Star-Bulletin, USA TODAY, Dallas Morning News, Journal of Commerce, Pacific Stars and Stripes and the Pacific Daily News. Kreifels co-hosted a radio talk show on U.S. media for Japan's NHK public radio. She has spoken on international journalism issues at the China School of Journalism in Beijing and the Copple-Hearst Lecturer at the University of Nebraska School of Journalism. She was the founder of International Women in Communications in Tokyo and a founding member of the Asian Journalists Association. She has an M.A. in education from the University of Nebraska and completed a year of graduate work in Japan Studies at The Johns Hopkins School of Advanced International Studies.

Daniel W.Y. Kwok

Adjunct Senior Fellow

Research Program

(808) 944-7551

kwokd@EastWestCenter.org

- Chinese history, thought and culture
- Confucianism and human rights

Daniel Kwok is professor emeritus of History at the University of Hawai'i at Manoa, where he served for more than 30 years as a professor, department chair, director for the Center for Chinese Studies, and director of the Asian Studies program. He was also a visiting scholar in the department of Chinese at the University of Hong Kong and a visiting professor of modern Chinese history at Nanyang University in Singapore. Kwok has served on the editorial board of the Journal of World History, Journal of Asian Studies, and the Journal of American-East Asian Relations. He earned a Ph.D. in History and an M.A. in Far Eastern Studies from Yale University.

Scott MacLeod

Senior Education Specialist

Education Program

(808) 944-7373

macleods@EastWestCenter.org

- Leadership education
- Regional economic development and risk analysis
- Applied Asian studies

Scott MacLeod previously served as director of the Asia-Pacific Management Cooperative Program in Vancouver, Canada. In 2002, he became the founding chair of the McRae Institute for International Management, with activities in 19 countries in Asia and Latin America. He has been awarded numerous research grants from the Ford Foundation, Canadian Social Sciences and Humanities Research Council, and the Canadian Department of Foreign Affairs. MacLeod also has conducted fieldwork in Nepal, Hong Kong, China, Malaysia, Indonesia and Singapore. He received his Ph.D. from the University of British Columbia.

Deane Neubauer

Senior Consultant
Education Program
 (808) 944-7599
 deanen@hawaii.edu

- Comparative Higher Education
- Globalization
- Health policy

Deane Neubauer is the coordinator for the Education 2020 Program at the Center. He is professor emeritus of political science at the University of Hawai'i and also serves as a senior research fellow to the Globalization Research Center at the University of Hawai'i. His work explores globalization as a major force of social change throughout the world. In 1980, Neubauer became the founding dean of the College of Social Sciences at the University of Hawai'i. He later served as interim chancellor of the University of Hawai'i at Manoa (2001-02) and as interim vice president for academic affairs for the University of Hawai'i system (2001-04). He received his Ph.D. from Yale University in 1965.

Victor Ordonez

Adjunct Fellow
Education Program
 (808) 944-7641
 ordonezv@EastWestCenter.org

- International development education
- Educational policy and management
- Leadership in education

Victor Ordonez is a member of the Education 2020 Program at the Center. He was formerly with UNESCO, first as director of the Basic Education Division in Paris, and later as director of its Principal Regional Office for the Asia Pacific. Prior to his work with UNESCO, he was a visiting professor at the University of California, Los Angeles, and dean of the Graduate Schools of Education and Business at De La Salle University in Manila. He served as undersecretary in the Department of Education, Culture and Sports in the Philippine government and chair of the Presidential Commission on Education Reform. He holds a Ph.D. in Oriental Philosophy from the University of Santo Tomas in the Philippines.

Michael Schuster

Curator, East-West Center Gallery

Office of External Affairs

(808) 944-7543

schusterm@EastWestCenter.org

- Art of Asia and the Pacific
- South and Southeast Asian culture
- Asian theater and puppetry

Michael Schuster is a specialist on arts of Asia and the Pacific, and served as folk arts coordinator for the Hawai'i State Foundation on Culture and the Arts (1999-2002). He has studied Asia Pacific arts for 30 years, training with master artists from India, Burma, Indonesia and Japan. He has served on panels for the National Endowment for the Arts, the Western State Arts Federation, and the advisory panel for community outreach at Shangri La, owned by the Doris Duke Foundation for Islamic Art. He holds a Ph.D. in Asian theater from the University of Hawai'i.

Namji Steinemann

Director, AsiaPacificEd Program for Schools

Education Program

(808) 944-7596

steinemn@EastWestCenter.org

- K-12 education on Asia and the Pacific region
- Policy and curriculum issues for improved Asia Pacific-related education
- Asian American history and related issues

Namji Steinemann is associate director of the EWC Education Program and directs the AsiaPacificEd Program, a national program that helps K-12 schools meet curriculum, assessment and instructional needs concerning the Asia Pacific region. She is the former vice president of the Asia Society's Education Program and the chief architect of the Society's Asia in the Schools program. She also served as executive director of the National Commission on Asia in the Schools. Formerly, Steinemann was a Peace Corps teacher in Thailand. She currently serves on the editorial board of Education About Asia, and is active in the National Council for Social Studies Teacher Education and Professional Development committees, and the Notable Social Studies Trade Books for Young People Selection Subcommittee. She is a graduate of East Carolina University and has lived in Korea, Thailand and France.

Geoffrey White

Adjunct Senior Fellow
Pacific Islands Development Program
(808) 944-7343
white@hawaii.edu

- Pacific islands studies
- Ethnicity, nationalism, and cultural policy
- History and memory of World War II

Geoffrey White is a professor of anthropology at the University of Hawai'i. He is co-editor of the East-West Center book series, Contemporary Issues in Asia and the Pacific, published by Stanford University Press. He is also on the editorial boards of American Ethnologist, Ethos, and The Contemporary Pacific. His work at the East-West Center is concerned with cultural politics in the Pacific islands region as well as national memories of the Pacific War. He is co-organizer of annual workshops on teaching about Pearl Harbor and the Asia Pacific War for American and Japanese school teachers. He holds a Ph.D. in anthropology from the University of California at San Diego.

David Y.H. Wu

Adjunct Fellow
Research Program
(808) 944-7324
wud@EastWestCenter.org

- Chinese culture and identity
- The globalization of Chinese cuisine
- Politics of national identity in cultural policies

David Wu has served as a Fellow and Academy Consultative Council Member in the Institute of Ethnology at the Academia Sinica in Taipei; as a professor and anthropology department chair at Hong Kong Chinese University; as an EWC senior research fellow; and as a graduate faculty member at the University of Hawai'i at Manoa. He has conducted fieldwork in China, Hawai'i, Japan, Korea, Papua New Guinea, Singapore, and Taiwan. He holds a Ph.D. in Anthropology from the Australian National University.

Politics / International Relations / Economics / Development

Asia Pacific

Muthiah Alagappa ( international politics and security, conflict management ) .....	4
Richard Baker ( regionalism, foreign policy ) .....	4
Mark Borthwick ( trade and investment, foreign policy ).....	5
Raymond Burghardt ( U.S. policy, policy making ) .....	5
Shabbir Cheema ( democratic governance for human development ).....	6
Allen Clark ( disaster management, resource development ).....	6
Dieter Ernst ( corporate globalization and information technology ) .....	8
Rana Hasan ( economic development, international trade ) .....	10
Yoon-Hyung Kim ( globalization, regionalism, economic relations ).....	13
Scott Kroeker ( Pacific islands: regional cooperation ) .....	14
Satu Limaye ( international relations, defense, security, ASEAN ).....	14
Charles E. Morrison ( international relations, economics, security, U.S. policy, APEC, ASEAN ).....	15
Seiji Naya ( economic development, regional trade policies, ASEAN ).....	16
Peter Petri ( APEC, ASEAN, trade, finance, economic integration ).....	16
Michael Plummer ( ASEAN, economic integration and development ) .....	17
Sheila Smith ( international relations, U.S. military presence ).....	18
Barbara Wanner ( the U.S. Congress and trans-Pacific relations ) .....	19

Northeast Asia (China, Japan, North Korea, South Korea, Taiwan, Mongolia)

Raymond Burghardt ( Taiwan, China: international relations, U.S. foreign policy ).....	5
Christopher Edmonds ( China: economic development, international trade ).....	7
Theresa Greaney ( Japan: trade policy, international economics, industrial organization ) .....	9
Eric Harwit ( China: politics, telecom, information technology, auto industry ) .....	10
Meheroo Jussawalla ( China, Japan: telecommunications and info tech ).....	11
Choong Nam Kim ( N. &amp; S. Korea: politics, security, U.S. relations ) .....	12
Yoon-Hyung Kim ( S. Korea: economics—electricity and telecom ) .....	13
Christopher McNally ( China: capitalist transition, economic reforms ) .....	15
Charles E. Morrison ( Japan, East Asia, APEC, ASEAN ) .....	15
Denny Roy ( Northeast Asian political and security issues ).....	17
Sheila Smith ( Japan: foreign policy, domestic politics ).....	18
John Van Dyke ( E. Asia: maritime disputes, human rights ).....	18

Southeast Asia (Burma, Cambodia, Laos, Thailand, Vietnam, Brunei, Timor-Leste, Indonesia, Malaysia, the Philippines and Singapore)

David Cohen ( Indonesia, Timor-Leste, Cambodia: human rights, rule of law ) .....	7
Richard Baker ( Indonesia: politics and economics, SE Asia foreign policies ).....	4
Raymond Burghardt ( Vietnam: contemporary issues, U.S. relations ).....	5
Michelle Staggs Kelsall ( Indonesia, Timor-Leste, Cambodia: human rights, rule of law ) .....	12
Charles E. Morrison ( APEC, ASEAN ).....	15
Seiji Naya ( ASEAN ) .....	16

South Asia (Bangladesh, Bhutan, India, Maldives, Nepal, Pakistan, Sri Lanka)

Christopher Edmonds (India: economic development, poverty reduction in Asia) .....7

Rana Hasan (India: Economic reforms and labor markets; international trade, development)...10

Satu Limaye (India: foreign policy) .....14

Pacific Islands

Gerard Finin (Pacific islands: globalization and sustainable development, civil conflicts) .....8

Sitiveni (Steven) Halapua (Fiji, Tonga: sustainable development, conflict management, trade and fisheries) .....9

Tarcisius Kabutaulaka (Solomon Islands, Australia: rural development, governance, conflict resolution) .....11

Robert Kiste (Pacific islands: sustainable development, social and political change) .....13

Scott Kroeker (Micronesia: political and economic development) .....14

Eric Wittersheim (Melanesia: politics, state-building, nationhood and democracy) .....19

Environment / Energy

Fereidun Fesharaki (energy policy in Asia, OPEC, oil and gas market) .....20

Melissa Finucane (human judgment, decision making, and risk perception about environmental/health issues) .....20

Roland Fuchs (global environmental change, pollution) .....27

Gerald Marten (ecology, environmental tipping points) .....21

Sumeet Saksena (Asia Pacific: environment statistics in developing countries) .....22

Eileen Shea (climate risk management, environmental assessment and public policy, ocean resource management) .....23

Alan White (Coastal resource management in Asia and the Pacific) .....24

Kang Wu (Asia Pacific: energy demand and supply assessment, oil and gas market analysis) .....25

Northeast Asia

Fereidun Fesharaki (Japan: oil supply and government policy) .....20

Kirk Smith (China: health and climate impacts of air pollution, global warming) .....24

Kang Wu (China: energy studies) .....25

ZhongXiang Zhang (China: energy and environmental policy) .....25

Southeast Asia

Jefferson Fox (SE Asia: resource management; land-use land cover change) .....21

A. Terry Rambo (Vietnam: sustainable development) .....22

Alan White (SE Asia: conservation, ecology, and economics of marine protected ecosystems) .....24

South Asia

Sumeet Saksena (India: air pollution, environmental health impacts of energy use) .....22

Toufiq Siddiqi (India, Pakistan: energy policies, water conflicts, global climate change) .....23

Kirk Smith (India, Nepal: health and climate impacts of air pollution, global warming) .....24

Pacific Islands

Eileen Shea (Pacific islands: planning for and consequences of climate change) .....23

Public Health / Population

Tim Brown ( Asia Pacific: HIV/AIDS and STDs, behavioral risk and policymaking ).....	26
Melissa Finucane ( human judgment, decision making, and risk perception about environmental/health issues ).....	20
Sang-Hyop Lee ( labor and tech, human resource development ).....	28
Nancy Davis Lewis ( Asia Pacific: emerging infectious disease, gender and development, environment, climate change and health ).....	29
Andrew Mason ( economic consequences of aging, intergenerational transfers ).....	29
Karen Oppenheim Mason ( population policy, gender equality, socio-economic development ) ...	30
Vinod Mishra ( changing lifestyles and emerging health threats in developing countries, fertility and family planning, air pollution, HIV/AIDS ).....	30
Ronald Rindfuss ( Asia Pacific: social demography, marriage, fertility, and family change ).....	31

Northeast Asia

Jiajian Chen ( China: HIV/AIDS analysis and advocacy, fertility decline ).....	26
Minja Kim Choe ( China, Taiwan, South Korea, Japan: fertility, reproductive health, gender issues ).....	27
Sang-Hyop Lee ( Japan: aging and the labor force ).....	28
Yean-Ju Lee ( S. Korea, Japan, Taiwan: family changes, population aging ).....	28
Andrew Mason ( East Asia: population change and economic development ).....	29
Robert Retherford ( Japan: aging, fertility and family planning ).....	31
Ronald Rindfuss ( Japan: social networks and family change ).....	31

Southeast Asia

Tim Brown ( Thailand: HIV/AIDS public policy for prevention and care ).....	26
Minja Kim Choe ( Philippines, Thailand, Indonesia: health behavior of youth ).....	27
Sang-Hyop Lee ( SE Asia: ethnic differences in fertility and child schooling ).....	28
Gerard Russo ( Indonesia, Philippines, Thailand: health-care spending, health service utilization, health economics and policy ).....	32

South Asia

Minja Kim Choe ( India, Nepal, Bangladesh: fertility and child mortality, effects of son preference ).....	27
Robert Retherford ( India, Nepal: infant and child mortality, marriage and family patterns )...31

Pacific Islands

Nancy Davis Lewis ( climate change, globalization, and health ).....	29
---	----

Education

Nicholas Barker ( leadership education ).....	33
Terance Bigalke ( international education ).....	33
Elizabeth Buck ( leadership education, internationalizing American education ).....	34
David Grossman ( global, international and intercultural education, citizenship education ).....	35
John Hawkins ( education and development in Asia ).....	36
Peter Hershock ( Asian content in the U.S. college curriculum ).....	36
Karen Knudsen ( U.S. K-12 education policy, Hawai'i's education system ).....	37
Scott MacLeod ( leadership education and economic development ).....	38
Deane Neubauer ( globalization, interdependence and education ).....	39
Victor Ordonez ( international development education—policy and management ).....	39
Namji Steinemann ( K-12 education on the Asia Pacific, policy and curriculum ).....	40

Media / Arts / Culture

Terance Bigalke ( Indonesian history and culture ).....	33
William Feltz ( ethnomusicology and Asia Pacific Performing Arts ).....	34
Carol Fox ( cultural and environmental preservation in the Asia Pacific ).....	35
Peter Hershock ( Buddhism ).....	36
Karen Knudsen ( public diplomacy, contemporary media issues ).....	37
Susan Kreifels ( contemporary media issues in the Asia Pacific ).....	37
Daniel Kwok ( China: history, culture, Confucianism ).....	38
Michael Schuster ( Asia Pacific: visual and performing arts, S. and SE Asian culture ).....	40
Geoffrey White ( cultural politics in the Pacific islands; national memories of the Pacific War ).....	41
David Wu ( Chinese culture, politics of national identity ).....	41

Alphabetical Index

Muthiah Alagappa .....	4	Daniel Kwok.....	38
Nicholas Barker .....	33	Sang-Hyop Lee .....	28
Richard Baker .....	4	Yean-Ju Lee.....	28
Terance Bigalke.....	33	Nancy Davis Lewis .....	29
Mark Borthwick .....	5	Satu Limaye.....	14
Tim Brown.....	26	Scott MacLeod .....	38
Elizabeth Buck.....	34	Gerald Marten .....	21
Raymond Burghardt .....	5	Andrew Mason .....	29
Shabbir Cheema .....	6	Karen Oppenheim Mason ...	30
Jiajian Chen.....	26	Christopher McNally.....	15
Minja Kim Choe .....	27	Vinod Mishra .....	30
Allen Clark .....	6	Charles E. Morrison .....	15
David Cohen .....	7	Seiji Naya .....	16
Christopher Edmonds.....	7	Deane Neubauer.....	39
Dieter Ernst.....	8	Victor Ordonez.....	39
William Feltz .....	34	Peter Petri .....	16
Fereidun Fesharaki.....	20	Michael Plummer .....	17
Gerard Finin.....	8	Robert Retherford.....	31
Melissa Finucane.....	20	Ronald Rindfuss .....	31
Carol Fox.....	35	Terry Rambo .....	22
Jefferson Fox.....	21	Denny Roy .....	17
Roland Fuchs.....	27	Gerard Russo .....	32
Theresa Greaney .....	9	Sumeet Saksena.....	22
David Grossman.....	35	Michael Schuster .....	40
Sitiveni Halapua .....	9	Eileen Shea .....	23
Eric Harwit.....	10	Toufiq Siddiqi.....	23
Rana Hasan .....	10	Kirk Smith.....	24
John Hawkins.....	36	Sheila Smith.....	18
Peter Hershock .....	36	Namji Steinemann.....	40
Meheroo Jussawalla.....	11	John Van Dyke .....	18
Tarcisius Tara Kabutaulaka .....	11	Barbara Wanner .....	19
Michelle Staggs Kelsall.....	12	Alan White .....	24
Choong Nam Kim.....	12	Geoffrey White.....	41
Yoon-Hyung Kim .....	13	Eric Wittersheim.....	19
Robert Kiste.....	13	David Wu .....	41
Karen Knudsen.....	37	Kang Wu .....	25
Susan Kreifels .....	37	ZhongXiang Zhang .....	25
Scott Kroeker.....	14

BOARD CHAIR

Puongpun Sananikone
President, PACMAR, Inc.
Honolulu, Hawai'i

BOARD VICE CHAIR

Roland Lagareta
Morgan Stanley
Honolulu, Hawai'i

MEMBERS

Tarun Das
Chief Mentor,
Confederation of Indian Industry
New Delhi, India

Eddie Flores, Jr.
President, L&L Drive-Inn
Honolulu, Hawai'i

Lori A. Forman
Regional Director,
Community Affairs, Asia
Microsoft Operations Pte., Ltd.
Singapore

Daniel R. Fung, SBS,SC, QC,JP
Chairman, Des Voeux Chambers
Hong Kong

Miriam Hellreich
President, Speech & Pathology Associates
Kailua, Hawai'i

Theodore B. Lee
President, Urban Land of Nevada
Las Vegas, Nevada

Theodore Em-Po Liu
(Governor's Designee)*
Director, Dept. of Business,
Economic Development and Tourism,
State of Hawai'i
Honolulu, Hawai'i

Jean E. Rolles
Vice President/Community Relations,
Assistant Corporate Secretary,
Outrigger Enterprises, Inc.
Honolulu, Hawai'i

The Honorable Patricia F. Saiki
Former Member, U.S. House of Representatives
Honolulu, Hawai'i

Il SaKong
Chairman and CEO,
Institute for Global Economics
Seoul, Korea

S. Linn Williams
Executive Vice President, General Counsel,
Chief Compliance Officer, Mirant Corporation
Atlanta, Georgia

Tadashi Yamamoto
President, Japan Center for International Exchange
Tokyo, Japan

Michael K. Young
President, University of Utah
Salt Lake City, Utah

The Honorable Tun Daim Zainuddin
Former Finance Minister
Kuala Lumpur, Malaysia

EX-OFFICIO MEMBERS

The Honorable Linda Lingle***
Governor, State of Hawai'i
Honolulu, Hawai'i

The Honorable Goli Ameri
Assistant Secretary of State for Educational and Cultural Affairs, U.S. Department of State
Washington, D.C.

David McClain
President, University of Hawai'i
Honolulu, Hawai'i

EWCA REPRESENTATIVE

Lawrence C. Foster
President, East-West Center Association
Professor and Former Dean,
William S. Richardson School of Law,
University of Hawai'i
Honolulu, Hawai'i

The East-West Center cultivates global leadership through professional development seminars, exchanges, and educational programs that help leaders understand the issues and people of the Asia Pacific region. Dialogue, field study, and travel opportunities for policymakers and professionals in government, civil society, business and the media are offered by the East-West Center. These programs promote understanding of critical global issues and facilitate growth of a dynamic professional network. Requirements for participation vary from program to program.

Journalism fellowships

- Asia Pacific Journalism Fellowships
- Developing Nations Fellowships
- Health Journalism Fellowships
- Hong Kong Journalism Fellowships
- Japan Journalists Program
- Jefferson Fellowships
- Korea-U.S. Journalists Exchange
- Northeast Asia Journalists Dialogue
- Senior Journalists Seminar

Leadership Development

- Changing Faces Women's Leadership Program
- Building the Foundation Program
- China Protected Areas Leadership Alliance Project
- Asia Pacific Leadership Program (www.EastWestCenter.org/aplp)

Policy Dialogue

Leaders from a variety of professions focus on emerging trends in politics, governance, business, and society affecting the region.

- Urban Asia Seminar Series
- Senior Policy Seminar
- New Generation Seminar
- Asia Pacific Executive Forum

To learn more about EWC international dialogue and exchange opportunities visit: www.EastWestCenter.org/seminars

EAST-WEST CENTER

1601 East-West Road
Honolulu, Hawai'i 96848-1601

Telephone: (808) 944-7111
Fax: (808) 944-7376

ewcinfo@EastWestCenter.org

www.EastWestCenter.org