

University of Hawaii at Manoa

Ethnic Studies Program
East-West 4, Room 3D • Honolulu, Hawaii 96822

1980 Spring Semester Colloquium Series

- January 31 CAMPUS CENTER 308 12 NOON
"The Sand Island Struggle:
Native Hawaiian Rights vs.
the State" A Slideshow presentation by members of the Sand Island Community Association.
- February 14 CAMPUS CENTER 308 12 NOON
"The Civil War in Afghanistan
- Crisis for Whom?" OMAR NASSERY, an Afghan, is a member of the staff of Ethnic Studies and a PhD candidate in political science at UH-Manoa. TAYAB MAHMUD is a Pakistani graduate student in political science at the UH-Manoa.
- March 12 CAMPUS CENTER 308 12:30 NOON
"Hawaii - One Hundred Years of Dependent Development" NOEL KENT is an assistant professor in Ethnic Studies who has done extensive study of Hawaii's political economy. Kent's PhD
thesis "Islands Under the Influence: Hawaii
Two Centuries of Dependent Development" is being prepared for publication.
- April 10 CAMPUS CENTER 308 12 NOON
"Overview of the Japanese
Community in Hawaii" FRANKLIN ODO is the director of the Ethnic Studies Program. ODO is a recognized scholar in the field of ethnic studies and has published many articles dealing with the experiences of Asian-Americans.
- April 24 CAMPUS CENTER 308 12 NOON
"Asian Immigrants and the Public School System" AMY AGBAYANI is the director of Operation
Māhōng, a program which provides tutorial services for immigrant youths in Kalihi public schools. AGBAYANI is also a member of the staff of Ethnic Studies.
- April 29 CAMPUS CENTER 308 12 NOON
"Indians - The Original
Americans/the first "race" ALLEN HUEMER is an assistant professor in Ethnic Studies. HUEMER has a PhD in polical science and has done extensive research
on Native Americans, particularly the Lakota Nation.

University of Hawaii at Manoa

Ethnic Studies Program
East-West 4, Room 3D • Honolulu, Hawaii 96822

Colloquium Series

Fall Semester 1979

*SEPTEMBER 13 CAMPUS CENTER 308 12 NOON
"The Policy of the People's Republic of China Towards its National Minorities"

JOHN N. HAWKINS, associate professor in education at UCLA has been a frequent visitor in China doing research of local and provincial government bureaucracy.

*SEPTEMBER 25 CAMPUS CENTER 308 12 NOON
"Modernization: Origins of Racism?"

ALLEN HUEMER is an assistant professor in the Ethnic Studies Program who teaches the American Indians and Haoles in Hawaii courses. Huemer is doing research on the origins of racism.

*OCTOBER 18 CAMPUS CENTER 308 12 NOON
" 20 LILIHA LIBRARY 7PM
"Hawaiian Resistance from 1887-1889: The Wilcox Rebellion"

DAVIANNA MCGREGOR-ALEGADO, instructor in the Ethnic Studies Program teaching the course on the HAWAIIANS. She is currently a PhD candidate in history.

*NOVEMBER 6 CAMPUS CENTER 310 12 NOON
" 9 LILIHA LIBRARY 7PM
*"Islands Under the Influence
-- A Critique of Hawaiian
Development of the Past
100 Years"*

NOEL KENT is an assistant professor in the Ethnic Studies Program who has done extensive study of Hawaii's political economy. His just-completed PhD thesis entitled "Islands Under the Influence: Hawaii - Two Centuries of Dependent Development" is being prepared for publication.

*NOVEMBER 20 CAMPUS CENTER 310 12 NOON
"Women Pineapple Workers in Hawaii"

WAYNE NISHIMOTO and MICHIKO KODAMA are members of the Ethnic Studies Oral History Project. Nishimoto has an MA in history from Univ. of Washington. Kodama is an MA candidate in history at the UH. Both are interviewers and researchers for the ESCHP.

*NOVEMBER 23 LILIHA LIBRARY 7PM
ESCHP's slideshow on
"WAIALUA and HALEIWA: The Working People's History"

*DECEMBER 4 CAMPUS CENTER 308 12NOON
" 7 WAIANAE LIBRARY 7PM
*"THE GREAT MAHELE: How the
Hawaiians Got their Land Stolen"*

MARION KELLY, assistant professor in the Ethnic Studies Program and anthropologist of the Bishop Museum. Kelly has published articles dealing with Hawaii's environment and land issues.

① Colloquium suggestions: -

Forums - on Japanese Reputation Issue. *

Oct. 29 -
Nov. 5
Nov. 19

* Local ^{Grass Roots} Theater - Inesmaine
Local student drama club
Drama Dept.

OHP - Coffee growing in Kona
Maui down & Pigeon streets

OHA - Reclaiming land, language -

* U.S. Colonialism in Micronesia
= U.S. Military in Hawaii ~~at~~ Tom Lind -
Kamali & her committee

Core Proposal has been put in again.

④ - Registration - get list leaders - completing -

Advisors - Noel & Franklin -