Mission: To promote exchange by staging cultural events for the community.

History: The Association was established in 1980, and incorporated in 2001 as a 501(C) (3) charitable organization.

Activities The Association organizes many outings, events and trips for its members and their guests. These include trips to the Outer Islands and Las Vegas, picnics, potlucks, and dances. Computer classes, taught in Mandarin, are offered to members. The Association sponsors seminars, receptions, dinners for distinguished guests, and supports visits by Chinese performing artists. There are also more formal activities such as the annual Mid-Autumn Ball.
