Dear Dr. Ozturk:

Thank you very much for sending me the advance notices regarding the meeting on The Aegean Sea 2000, scheduled to be held May 5-7 in Bodrum.

The brochure you sent me indicates that this meeting will be an important one. The topics listed are ones I have long been interested in, and have written about. I am enclosing my most recent article on the legal issues related to maritime boundary delimitation in the Aegean. If the conference organizers are in need of a speaker on this topic, I would be happy to participate, but I regret that I would not be able to attend unless my travel and housing expenses could be provided.

Thank you again for keeping me informed about this significant event. I wish you and the conference organizers the best of success in developing this important conference.

Sincerely yours,
