Welcome to Ms. Neizman's Classroom Website! We are so excited that you have chosen to visit our classroom website! This website is designed so that we can share what's happening in our classroom with our family and friends. As you explore our site, you can find our daily schedule, read about learning that is taking place, and meet our teacher. We hope that by visiting our classroom website, you will get a better idea of what we do each day. Enjoy your journey!
