

Friends from a World Unseen: Reflections on Teaching Premodern Languages and Literatures in the 21st Century

Spring 2023

In today's presentist climate, how can we get our students engaged in the study of the past and in the humanities? Are "the classics" still relevant to our contemporary concerns? If so, how?

Center for Japanese Studies

In this workshop, Professor Pier-Carlo Tommasi will share his experience in teaching classical Japanese language and literature at UH Mānoa, showcasing the strategies that helped engage students in learning about a non-Western, non-modern society. Join this workshop to discover some recent experiments in (premodern) language and literature pedagogy!

This event is cosponsored by the Center for Japanese Studies (CJS), East Asian Languages & Literatures, and the OFDAS Center for Teaching Excellence (CTE).
