

PACIFIC SCIENCE

A QUARTERLY DEVOTED TO THE BIOLOGICAL AND PHYSICAL SCIENCES OF THE PACIFIC REGION

VOL. XII

JANUARY 1958

NO. 1

Previous issue published November 26, 1957

CONTENTS

	PAGE
A Fossil Flora from Pagan, Mariana Islands. F. R. Fosberg and Gilbert Corwin . . . . .	3
Vascular Flora of Pagan Island, Northern Marianas. F. R. Fosberg . . . . .	17
Oceanographic and Meteorological Aspects of the Gulf of California. Gunnar I. Roden . . . . .	21
A Closing, High-speed Plankton Catcher for Use in Vertical and Horizontal Towing. B. M. Bary, J. G. de Stefano, M. Forsyth, and J. van den Kerkhof . . . . .	46
Is the Spear of Istiophorid Fishes Used in Feeding? Robert L. Wisner . . . . .	60
Magnetic Spherules in Deep-sea Deposits. Hans Pettersson and Kurt Frederiksson . . . . .	71
Lord Howe Island, a Riddle of the Pacific. S. J. Paramonov . . . . .	82
A Review of Australian Species of Laphria (Asilidae, Diptera), with Descriptions of Three New Species from Lord Howe Island. S. J. Paramonov . . . . .	92
Occurrence of Protohydra leuckarti in Puget Sound. Wolfgang Wieser . . . . .	106

---

PACIFIC SCIENCE is published quarterly by the University of Hawaii Press, in January, April, July, and October. Subscription price is $4.00 a year; single copy, $1.25. Check or money order payable to University of Hawaii should be sent to University of Hawaii Press, Honolulu 14, Hawaii, U.S.A. Printed by The Advertiser Publishing Company, Ltd., Honolulu 2, Hawaii.